Chapter 329

The fox sat next to the tiger and whimpered as it watched the humans leave.

As the humans slowly disappeared from its view, the fox's head lowered even more.

After Nash and the others were several hundred feet away, the sounds of a brown bear roaring could be heard from behind them.

Fabian's body froze.

An odd look flickered in his usually stern eyes.

Beside the cave, the fox shuddered as it gazed at the bear. Its paw was larger than the fox's entire body.

Its tail was between its legs, and fear shone in its brilliant blue eyes.

The bear raised its head and let out another roar, releasing the despair it felt.

Then, it turned and pounced on the fox.

Its mouth was open wide enough to swallow the fox in one gulp.

At the very last moment, a black-colored figure appeared out of nowhere.

Nash materialized in front of the fox and grabbed the bear's jaws with his bare hands.

Nash placed the fox on the ground.

The fox gripped Nash's arm tightly, refusing to let go.

It used its brilliant blue eyes to gaze pleadingly at Nash.

It was seemingly saying, 'I'm still a baby. It'll be dangerous to leave me behind here!'

Nash chuckled. "Fine... I have a feeling Fabian would be worried sick too if I left you here!"

Fabian had told them everything that had happened to him after he jumped off the plane. He had also explained that he killed the bear because he was avenging the tiger, which was bitten to death while trying to protect him and the fox.

The fox's parents were probably dead, and its spiritual energy was why it managed to live alongside a tiger peacefully.

Fabian was worried the fox would run into danger and wanted to take the fox with him.

At the same moment, the sounds of a bear's roars rang through the mountain. Nash had immediately raced over after hearing that.

Nash took the fox with him to the helicopter.

The fox poked its head out from under Nash's arms to look at Fabian.

However, Fabian ignored it..

The fox turned the other way huffily and laid its head on Nash's arm.
