

CEO Bride 331

Chapter 331

"Come here, little one..."

Fabian's emotionless voice echoed.

This little fox had indeed piqued his interest.

Perhaps keeping a pet was not such a bad idea.

The little fox cheerfully glanced at Fabian. It wriggled out of Melody's embrace to climb onto Fabian's lap.

Only then did Fabian open his eyes. He looked down at the little creature.

The little fox, in turn, raised its fluffy head. Its sapphire-like eyes reflected Fabian's stern face.

"Tsk, tsks... I've heard that Mr. Hughes despises furry animals," Melody remarked sarcastically, crossing her arms.

"Melody Stone, are you trying to test my patience?"

As Fabian's hand gently stroked the fox's fluffy head, his deep eyes locked onto Melody. His chilling voice carried an underlying coldness.

Melody swallowed nervously. "J-Just pretend I didn't say anything..."

Fabian's aura was too overwhelming, so much so that even a senior shareholder from Universal Group felt intimidated.

The next moment, Nash vanished into thin air.

Olivia's mouth hung open in shock.

Above, Melody and Finn took Fabian behind the helicopter for cover.

Still not feeling secure, Finn made Fabian move farther back, positioning himself in front of Fabian.

If even Mr. Nash was personally protecting this man, Finn would risk his life to keep him safe.

Melody, her body engulfed in a protective aura, was on high alert as she scanned the surroundings.

The little fox, sensing the imminent danger, dug its tiny claws into Fabian's hair.

"Mr. Hughes... has your location been compromised?" Frankie asked cautiously.

Fabian remained silent.

This was the power of the Ten Families.

Despite his meticulous planning, they still managed to track him down.

"Mr. Hughes?"

"Wait for me at the hospital!"
