Chapter 336

“Sweedy, Walter’s wife, was in a coma for three years and was later cured by Nash!

“Philix Xing, the warden of the Northern Territory, was saved against all odds by Nash!

“According to my research, the queen of the Yerusia royal family once suffered from late-stage cancer. They sought the Smiling Grim Reaper for treatment, and that queen is still very much alive and kicking!

“Nash has always been in Jonford, and so has the Smiling Grim Reaper. The Green Bamboo

Association came to Jonford to take out Nash, but the Smiling Grim Reaper stepped in and wiped out the Green Bamboo Association. Don’t you think these events are too coincidental?”

Duncan squinted as he looked at his grandfather.

Sheldon appeared somewhat dazed.

Upon hearing Duncan’s words, he realized that it was indeed a possibility.

Sheldon then exploded in anger. “You never do anything constructive, always causing trouble. Now, by offending Nash, aren’t you pushing the Duersons to the edge of the cliff?”

Duncan slowly responded, “What if the Smiling Grim Reaper is working for the Youngs?”

Sheldon shuddered. “What?”

“In the afternoon, Drakonia’s 18 Universal Group branches sent luxurious convoys to various airports to pick up Fabian, trying to deceive those aiming to assassinate him.

“His plan was nearly perfect. Hardly anyone would know which airport in Drakonia he’d arrive at. Yet, he underestimated you. Your influence had seeped into his personal bodyguards or cabin crew!

“You knew he wasn’t dead, and the informant you planted in the Lees told you to meet someone in the Lowle Mountain Range. Thus, you stationed assassins near Chateau Hotel.

“Grandfather... Your informant told you to find Nash, didn’t they?”

Duncan asked with a smile.

Sheldon nodded, “Yes, I was told to. Otherwise, we wouldn’t have set up nine stage-nine great-grandmasters of Nihon Ghost Ninjas around Chateau Hotel. But we didn’t expect Nash to be this strong. Thankfully, they kept Nash occupied, but the sniper attack still failed.”

After saying this, Sheldon suddenly jolted. He looked at Duncan, asking, “Did Fabian come to Drakonia to find Nash?”

Nash was the Smiling Grim Reaper.

Duncan had only speculated that the Smiling Grim Reaper was from the Youngs.

With Fabian coming to Drakonia and Nash personally seeking him, it further affirmed Nash’s affiliation with the Youngs.

With this, the reason for Fabian’s visit to Drakonia became clear.
