

Chapter 34

Walter took a deep breath and walked directly to the security booth.

The two security guards in neatly pressed uniforms immediately saluted him.

“Retrieve the surveillance footage from earlier and show it to me,”

Walter said while suppressing his anger.

He had no interest in asking about what had just happened. He needed to see things with his own eyes to believe them.

The security guards quickly retrieved the surveillance footage from earlier.

As Walter watched the footage and saw Nash in the frame, his eyes widened in astonishment.

Could this young man be Miracle Doctor Tanner’s grandmaster?

When he witnessed Nash kick Kai’s car away with one foot, his pupils contracted even further.

He turned his head to the person covered in a black hoodie standing behind him. “Iron Kick, what’s the level of this person's strength?"

The man slowly raised his head, revealing a face covered in stubble and burn scars.

One of the security guards tactfully replayed the footage.

Iron Kick rasped , "He's a grandmaster above stage five!"

Upon hearing this, Walter became even more certain that this person was Brian's grandmaster.

Only someone with such talent could be on equal footing with the renowned cleric, Thomas King.

After watching the surveillance footage, Walter hurriedly approached Kai and asked in a deep voice, "Why did you try to hit him with your car?"

Kai glanced casually at Walter, then took Helena's hand and walked toward the garage.

"You come back here!"

Walter exclaimed in anger, but Kai did not stop in his tracks.

Soon , Kai drove another sports car out and left the estate with his subordinates.

Walter clenched his fists in anger. "That insolent brat! He doesn't even respect me now!"

An elderly man in a tunic shirt behind him chuckled and said, "Mr. Kai is going through a rebellious phase, Mr. Watson. Please calm down..."

Walter sighed helplessly. "It's all my fault for spoiling him..."

Kai's mother came from a humble background, and he strongly opposed their marriage for the sake of the family's interests.

That woman faced all sorts of pressure after marrying into the Watsons.

After giving birth to Kai, she hung herself.

Since then, Kai's father became depressed and drank heavily every day.

Eventually, due to excessive drinking, he caused a series of car accidents.

In order to atone for his sins, Walter concealed the truth about everything from Kai and even spoiled him in every possible way.

However, secrets could not be kept forever, and the Watsons had many prying eyes. The family's trusted old butler inadvertently revealed the truth while intoxicated at a banquet.

From that day on, Kai held deep resentment in his heart.

Thinking about all this, Walter's anger subsided significantly . He turned to Iron Kick and said, "Iron Kick, from today onward, you'll follow Kai around. I don't want to see him get hurt anymore!"

Iron Kick replied in a low voice, "Mr. Kai has a mischievous nature . It'll cost you more to have me follow him..."

Walter nodded and said, "I'll give you 30 million annually, but you must ensure that Kai doesn't suffer any harm..."

"It'll be over my dead body!"

Iron Kick rasped.

Walter waved his hand dismissively . "Go on, then..."

He did not know how to dispel Kai's hatred toward him.

All he could do was protect Kai from harm as much as possible.

Brian observed everything and sighed inwardly.

Walter's excessive indulgence in Kai would only make him more reckless.

If this continued, Kai and even the entire Watson family would meet a bitter end.

Walter approached Brian and placed his hand on his heart, saying, "Dr. Tanner... Kai has offended your grandmaster, and I deeply apologize for this. Please re-introduce your grandmaster to me. I'll personally visit and apologize with utmost sincerity!"

"Well..."

Brian hesitated, his face showing reluctance.

If it were not for the fact that the grandmaster excelled in both medicine and martial arts and possessed formidable strength, they might have met their end today.

From his brief interaction with the grandmaster, Brian could tell that he was not someone to be trifled with.

Walter's personal visit and apology might not necessarily lead to a peaceful resolution with the grandmaster.
