

CEO Bride 355

Chapter 355

"I'll answer!"

Nash was about to pick up the phone when Hera snatched it away.

However, it was not Skadi calling this time.

It was Yvonne.

"Yvonne's calling..."

Hera answered the call and put it on speaker.

Yvonne's apologetic voice came from the other end of the phone. "Nash, I'm so sorry! I know that I made a mistake. I won't ever do it again! I promise that I'll work on my temper and be good from now on!"

Hera did not know what Yvonne was on about and asked in confusion, "Yvonne, what's wrong?"

"Sob... Hera, I'm going back to Capiton! I want to apologize to you too... I was the one who started the rumor about you and Nash!"

After explaining the whole story, Yvonne said, "Can you tell Nash that I apologized to Mel and she forgave me? I hope that he can forgive me too!"

After hearing Yvonne out, Hera looked at Nash with teary eyes.

The rumor Yvonne had spread was outrageous, so it was understandable why Nash was so agitated about it. She had truly misunderstood Nash.

Nash calmly said, "To realize one's mistakes and to be able to make amends is the greatest virtue. Remember that loose lips sink ships. You might be spoiled at home, but no one will be so nice to you outside!"

Howard died not long ago.

Now, Sheldon was dead too?

Two of Capiton's top five major business giants had disappeared within a few days.

"Um... is this Hera?" Xeno asked awkwardly.

"Yes... I'll get Nash to call you back later!"

"Alright!"

The only supermarket was three miles away from Cloud Peak Palace.

There was a small industrial zone nearby.

Many workers were smoking and chatting outside the supermarket.

Nash walked into the sanitary pad aisle of the supermarket and spent a long time looking around.

There were so many styles and brands of sanitary pads.

"Tsk..."

He pondered what brand Hera used.

He reached into his pocket for his phone but quickly realized that he had left it in the hotel.

Nash was frantically scratching his ears and rubbing his cheeks. When he saw two women walking up the aisle, he headed toward them and asked in a low voice, "Excuse me... What brand of pads do you use?"
