

CEO Bride 373

Chapter 373

Could he be hunting tomb raiders?

Thinking this, Old Perry regained his composure and said, "You're thinking too much. I've been perfectly fine these past few days." With that, the old man departed hurriedly without even asking who Nash was.

Seeing how Nash had figured out the old man's background, Xeno could not help but ask, "Mr. Nash, how did you figure that out?"

Nash raised his teacup and took a sip, smiling faintly. "I used my eyes, of course."

Xeno was speechless.

"Yasmin, what were you all talking about?" Margaret entered the house while holding a piece of pork belly in her hand.

Yasmin smiled and replied, "We were talking about Old Perry."

"Did he say anything?" Margaret inquired.

look for nodded. "You haven't eaten yet, have you? I'll go make some her mother's hand and urged, "You sit down already eaten, but her mother get that thing for Mr. Young first," Margaret said, looking at the in the refrigerator and then went to retrieve the map piece from the have you ever resided at the Young family's residence?" Margaret should have been quite young when the massacre happened. Since the Young family had trusted Caleb, they might have accepted

Young family's residence. I've only ever been with my uncle ever since I can remember. My father used to send money to my uncle every month. It wasn't until I got married that my father told me a little bit about the Young family, relationship with your father?" Nash suspected Old Perry might also be connected to the Young family. It was worth noting that the Young family's ancestors had moved here during his second year. It was my father who invited them to live here," Margaret Old Perry involved in tomb raiding?" Nash

Perry is a geomancy master. I've never with a small jewelry box. She opened it and took out a small piece of parchment before handing glanced at it and confirmed that it did indeed come from the same map

“Mr. Young, are you planning on avenging

Nash’s voice was low as he replied, “This blood feud runs deep. I can’t allow those who wronged my family to exist under the same sky. I’d be letting my family down if I don’t avenge them.”

Margaret wanted to say more but hesitated. Her father had already passed away, and now, she had returned the map piece to a member of the Young family. She did not want her children to be involved in the Young family’s matters.”

“Yasmin. 1-”

Suddenly, Derek barged in the house, harried.

Frowning, Margaret asked, “You’re all grown up now. What are you still panicking for?”

Derek gulped and replied, “You think I want to be like this? But something’s happened at Old Perry’s house!”

Nash’s eyes twitched when he heard that. Could something have happened to Old Perry? Nash did not think it to be the case since there were no signs of the decaying energy affecting his brain when he looked him over with his Third Eye just now.

“Also, decaying energy was only usually active at night. Even if something were to happen, it would be at night.

Margaret was shocked. “What happened?”

“Mr. Perry is dead. His younger cousin is also dead!”