

CEO Bride 381

Chapter 381

In comfortable bliss, Bradley closed his eyes and enjoyed the comfort brought about by the boiling sensation within him.

On the other hand, Derek honestly told his mother his plan to go to Xanthalos.

“Absolutely not!”

“Derek, you can’t go!”

Margaret’s and Yasmin’s expressions instantly darkened.

“What did you promise me this morning?”

“Even the professionals ran into trouble and you’re just an amateur who knows nothing about it! Aren’t you just asking for trouble? Stay home for the next couple of days. You’re not allowed to go anywhere!” Margaret barked.

“But... Mr. Nash had asked if I would go. I think this is a test for me... If I don’t go, I won’t ever be called ever again!

“Bradley is a close confidant of the Youngs. Do you have any idea how much money he has?”

“He has 20 billion!”

Derek argued.

He grew up in a single-parent household. His mother had to support and raise him and his sister.

Yasmin was frightened and quickly helped her mother, who was trying to get out of bed.

"Let me go! I'm going to beat my disobedient son! Haven't you given me enough trouble over the years?"

Margaret burst into tears.

Even though Derek had been disobedient all his life and suffered a lot, he was still her son.

His 300,000-dollar debt was cleared due to her frugal ways.

Now that Derek had finally found a stable job, he began to consider reckless activities again.

She was not afraid that her son would be poor for the rest of his life but rather that he would never return.

"Mom, I'm sorry!"

Derek fell to his knees before Margaret.

Then, he got up and ran out of the room.

"You asshole... Come back..."

Margaret immediately tried to get out of bed and chase after him, but her arms were held back tightly by Yasmin who cried, "Mom... just let him go... If grandpa were still alive, he'd have let Derek go."
