

CEO Bride 383

Chapter 383

Outside the residential area, Xeno swapped the car into a brand new off-road Porsche.

Derek walked over to the car's window empty-handed.

Xeno looked at the wound on Derek's forehead and asked, "What happened there?"

"I ran into a door..."

Derek grinned.

Out of the corner of his eye, he caught sight of a beautiful woman in the back seat, which caused his eyes to brighten with interest.

"Mr. Nash... is this your girlfriend?"

"I'm a trusted descendant of the Youngs like you!"

Melody replied, then picked up a bottle of water to moisten her throat.

The off-road vehicle had six seats. Nash pointed to the back seat. "Go sit there!"

Derek climbed into the car and immediately greeted Finn, "Hello..."

Finn smiled and replied, "Hello, what's your name?"

Judd, and

Melody spat out a mouthful

do it

It was such an old-school name to and said in a

Melody, but two were incomparable.

nice to meet you too,

laughing at his name, so he just asked, "Who's the least,

awkwardly. "Sorry... I'm not too good with words!"

Melody Stone, fresh and young in my 20s!"

refers to a beautiful lady who has just eyebrows raised.

and kept

help but have to behave like the looks of it, Mr. Nash's attitude toward the descendants was as if they were real friends.

glanced at his watch. "It's already past seven o'clock. It's almost rush hour soon. Why haven't they shown up yet?"

said, "Nico's mother isn't willing to let him go to Xanthalos... Ms. Ophelia better than anyone

Her intentions were identical to his own mother. They did not want to let their children risk their lives.

Nico drove out of the residential area in his Honda.

Xara and Ophelia stood worriedly at the gate.

Yasmin limped over with Margaret to the gate too.

Their faces were stained with tears and worry.

Melody whispered, "Mr. Nash, are you not going down to reassure them?"

"I can't make that promise..."

Nash understood what Melody meant. If he were to tell them that he would bring everyone back safely, they would feel more at ease.

However, the tomb of the King of Medicine was full of undead corpses, deathworms, and many unknown dangers.

It was uncertain if everyone could make it out alive.

Melody pursed her red lips. "Aren't you afraid of death?"

"Of course! Wealth and honor are predestined; life and death are in the hands of fate!

"There is no one in this world who isn't afraid of death. The experts... all crawl out from the gap between life and death!"