Chapter 394

"Yes, Grandfather. You've been away these days, and I haven't had the chance to inform you!"

"Mm, I understand. Ask your father to come to the castle."

"Understood, Grandfather!"

Jay replied, then ended the call. He noted that it was already 1:00 am.

"Your grandfather asked for me?" Martin asked in surprise.

"Yes, he asked about the Map of Splendid Mountains and Rivers and then said he wants to see you," Jay replied.

"The Green Bamboo Association got wiped out, the Map of Splendid Mountains and Rivers got snatched at the auction, and Fabian Hughes came to Drakonia..."

Martin's eyes widened in realization as he gritted his teeth and uttered three syllables, "Wolfgang Young!"

Half an hour later, at the Kleins' castle, all seven of the Kleins' sons stood in the living room.

Some were in their pajamas, looking sleepy, while others were whispering to each other, unsure why their father summoned them so late.

The family's patriarch, Sir Klein, sat on a sofa, sipping tea. Seeing Martin walk in, he immediately spoke, "The Map of Splendid Mountains and Rivers painting was bought by Nash Calcraft. What are your thoughts on this?"

Everyone remained silent, pondering the possibility of Nash's connection to the Youngs.

The Kleins' patriarch, Timothy Klein, inquired, "On the night we wiped out the Youngs, did anyone see Ruby Xing?"

The fourth son, Moses Klein, and the fifth son, Mount Klein, simultaneously replied, "We did

All eyes turned to them.

Mount added, "Ruby had gone to the basement with a baby. Our men pursued them, but the basement's self-destruction device was triggered..."

Magnus Klein nodded and said, "I remember the baby was still crying at that time. It couldn't have been fake."

Timothy turned to his sixth son, Magnus. "Which family did Ruby come from? Did you ever find out?"

Magnus shook his head. "There was nothing left of Ruby's body. A DNA test was impossible."

Timothy sighed. "The Youngs have always married in secret, without even notifying our family..."

Carefully, Martin inquired, "Father, what do you think of all this?"
