Chapter 412

"Z-Zain... Willy's gone!"

Ethan said in a panicked and trembling voice.

"Did he go pee?"

Zain stopped, took out a pack of cigarettes from his pocket, and tossed it to Ethan. "Let's wait for Willy!"

The others stopped and took a smoke break too.

Ethan took out a cigarette and held it in his mouth, then asked someone for a lighter.

"Damn... you didn't bring cigarettes or a lighter, you might as well quit smoking!"

"That's because my dad is so strict!" Ethan explained with a smile.

"You're 19. Why is he so hard on you?"

"Sigh... Don't bring that up... He said that as long as he's alive, he'll always be on my case... I'm so sick of it!" Ethan took a drag of his cigarette.

"Haha... your dad's a cripple. He wouldn't make it out alive if he followed you into the King of Medicine's tomb!"

"One could hope..." A cold look flashed in Ethan's eyes.

Zain glanced at Ethan knowingly.

After they had waited for ten minutes, there was still no sign of Willy.

"I think the kid got scared and ran back... Let's keep going!"

When he saw that Ethan was the only one left, Zain began to feel afraid too.

Beyond the mountain peak was the camp of Professor Law and his party.

Daniel shook Old Herera. “Old Herera... Those brats snuck out...”

Old Herera snapped wide awake. “When did that happen?”

“I’m not sure. I think it’s been at least two to three hours...”

“Shit...”

Old Herera grabbed his coat and put it on. “Hurry and use a drone to find them!”

Everyone in the camp was awoken by the shouting.

Soon, people began to enter the Seven Pinnacle Peaks with torches and bright flashlights to look for the boys.

The sun was rising in the east.

The morning air was exceptionally fresh.

At Nash's camp, everyone had eaten a simple breakfast of canned beans before packing up their tents and entering Seven Pinnacle Peaks.

Nico skipped merrily next to Nash and asked, "Mr. Nash, are you really the Golden Amulet Master?"

The night before, Nico had seen Nash wearing a golden robe.

Only Golden Amulet Masters were qualified to wear golden robes.

Nash smiled. "Didn't you see everything last night?"

Nico continued to ask, "Then, did you see an undead corpse last night?"
