

CEO Bride 422

Chapter 422

Nash and his group also stopped in their tracks.

Nico rubbed his eyes. "Am I... Am I dreaming? I think I'm seeing myself..."

Derek looked at the version of himself lying in a pool of blood and asked in surprise, "What... What's going on?"

Xeno drew his gun and aimed at the other Xeno inside the golden tunnel.

The Xeno in the tunnel similarly drew his gun and pointed it at the Xeno outside.

Melody swallowed hard. "Mr. Nash... Quick, use your Third Eye to see what's happening!"

Nash narrowed his eyes, a glint of gold flashing within them.

There were indeed fleshy beings inside the tunnel.

Could there be something wrong?

Shortly after Nash picked the silver sprouts, Bradley and the others came to find him.

They even took him to the medicinal garden.

Nash found many herbs in the garden that he had only heard of from his master, so he took some time to dig them up.

"Mr. Nash... what is it?"

He continued up to the point where Derek and Nico fought over a colored diamond the size of an egg.

“Nico accidentally stabbed Derek’s heart with a dagger... Then you guys arrived!”

After saying this, Bradley swore to the sky, “Mr. Nash... every word I said is true. If even half a word is a lie, may thunder strike me!”

The Derek beside Nash laughed. “Nico and I grew up together. We’ve even shared underwear... How could we possibly fight over a diamond?”

Nico nodded vigorously. “Exactly... so you guys must be fake!”

Finn tilted his head and said, “Mr. Nash, they might be disguised by supernatural entities... We should act!”

Meanwhile, Bradley said, “We might be in a dream...”

At this statement, everyone was stunned.

“Are we all having the same dream?”

Finn asked in amazement.

He then pinched his thigh hard.

“Ouch... That really hurts... This isn’t a dream.”

“Do you all remember the floral scent when the stone door first opened?” Bradley asked the group.

“I remember... It was the fragrance of gardenias, but I didn’t find any gardenias!” Heidi replied.
