

CEO Bride 472

Chapter 472

Ken's hand had cost three billion dollars.

Of course, he needed to take care of it.

"It's recovering well, I've regained mobility in it... When can I remove the bandages?"

Ken slowly raised his arm.

He could already feel the terrifying power contained in his right hand.

With this strength, he was confident in challenging stage eight or nine grandmasters.

Nash used his Third Eye and took a look at Ken's arm.

The sutured wound had not fully healed yet, and there were signs of infection around it.

"The wound's infected... After dinner, we'll go to Royal Bay, and I'll help you take care of it!"

"Alright. Thank you, Mr. Nash!"

Ken thanked him respectfully.

It did not bother him if his hand looked ugly.

He only cared if it stayed strong.

When his strength improved, he believed that Mr. Nash would undoubtedly be impressed.

At this time, Bradley and the others walked over.

Bradley burst out laughing and said, "You may be full, but we're still hungry! Let's eat!"

Everyone chatted and laughed as they took their seats.

Heidi noticed Hera, who was sitting next to Nash. She greeted her sweetly, "Are you Nash's girlfriend, Hera?"

Hera smiled and nodded. "We're married!"

Heidi giggled. "I'm sorry, I didn't know! You're so pretty... Can I get your contact information?"

Heidi really liked pretty women. She enjoyed looking at photos of pretty women wearing black stockings, white stockings, or fishnet stockings on Instagram.

"Sure! I'll give you my username!"

Hera took her phone out of her purse.

Since Heidi was seated quite far from Hera, she got ready to walk over to Hera.

Instead, Melody smiled and said, "Why don't you come over and do it, Hera? Let the boys sit and drink together!"

Hera nodded and walked to the/other side.

It just so happened that she also wanted to ask her what Nash had been up to in Xanthalos for the past week.

She found it hard to believe that Nash had gone on a group tour.
