

CEO Bride 488

Chapter 488

A group of people swaggered into the Long Lake Industrial Zone.

Inside the Southern Heavens Pharmaceuticals' factory hall, located in the seventh unit, the office had already been seized by David's men.

Just after making the call, Yasmin was discovered.

A young man with dyed blonde hair snatched Yasmin's phone and backhanded her across the face. "Stupid woman, you had another phone? Did you call the police?"

After taking control of the office, he had confiscated Yasmin's phone.

She had managed to make another call when he went to the bathroom.

Yasmin's delicate face instantly swelled red.

Her lips split open, and blood flowed freely.

Holding her face, tears fell, but she remained silent. She only stared at Canary with resentment.

"What are you staring at? Keep staring and I'll have my way with you..."

Canary was flipping through the chat history while threatening her menacingly.

The most recent call log was marked as 'NC'.

Canary asked coldly, "Who's this NC?"

Yasmin gritted her teeth and retorted, "Someone you can't afford to offend."

Canary laughed.

Yasmin, being a fragile woman, was no match for him. In just moments, Canary had ripped off her jacket.

As Canary bit down toward Yasmin's neck, he began to tear at her inner shirt.

Knowing she could not resist Canary, Yasmin quickly pleaded, “Wait...

Wait a moment...”

“I can't wait any longer...”

Canary's eyes were fervent, his desire causing his blood to boil.

“I... I'm on my period...”

Yasmin put her hand up to block Canary's mouth.

Canary laughed loudly. “No worries. You're still a virgin, after all. It's going to be bloody anyway!”

After having countless women, he had already discerned that Yasmin was still a virgin.

Yasmin, filled with despair and with tears in her eyes, said, “Then...

Then could you at least close the door?”

All she could do now was try to buy time.

Canary glanced back and saw several of his lackeys leering at him.

“What are you staring at? Wait till I’m done here, then it’s your turn to have fun!”
