

CEO Bride 490

Chapter 490

Finn regained his composure and gently placed Yasmin on the ground, his face flushing red.

He quickly explained, "Melody took us to Cloud Peak Palace Hotel for a visit. Then, we received a call from Mr. Nash and heard that there was trouble here, so I rushed over immediately!"

At this moment, Melody arrived with Derek, Ken, and Heidi in tow.

Derek was seething with anger as he rushed forward. "Those bastards... They're asking for it!"

As he ran, he took off the brand-new suit jacket he had just bought.

When he came to Yasmin's side, he quickly wrapped his sister's body with the jacket.

Then, he picked up a broken piece of brick and headed upstairs.

"Ken... you go up too and protect Derek!"

Finn quickly instructed Ken, who nodded and followed Derek closely.

Finn continued to watch Yasmin, whose face was now crimson

He suddenly felt an urge to start dating her.

"Yasmin... are you okay?"

Heidi rushed over, her voice filled with concern.

Yasmin shook her head. "I'm okay."

Old Holt looked at Nash with a bewildered expression.

Jupiter said, “Dad... he’s the Nash I told you about.”

“What?”

Old Holt was stunned.

His son had told him about a sworn brother of the warden of the Northern Territory whose name was Nash Calcraft.

The warden of the Northern Territory was already in his 40s, so Nash, his sworn brother, should be at least in his 30s or 40s, right?

How could he be so young?

Old Holt asked in a low voice. "So how do you plan to handle this?"

Jupiter smiled. "Mr. Calcraft will handle it. Let him deal with it. He can handle such things much more easily than us

After hanging up the phone. Old Holt no longer held the same contempt for Nash.

Nash smiled faintly. "Mr. Holt, may I go in?"

Old Holt chuckled. "Of course, Lil Nash. Please come in."

The entire Long Lake Industrial Zone had been bought by the Zell family, and this person was also Sydney's friend. Of course, he was allowed to enter

Furthermore, Old Holt now knew his other identity.

The warden of the Northern Territory was a revered war god, after all!
