

CEO Bride 496

Chapter 496

The guard was a grandmaster. To scare a grandmaster like this meant that the Black Tiger Hall had arrived.

Panting, Old Holt ran over and said, "They've come. They're all here!"

There were nearly a hundred cars outside. For most of his life, the man had only ever seen a scene like this during his son's participation in the city-wide security inspection operation.

Nash sighed helplessly. "In that case, let's wait for Finn and the others to arrive."

After saying this, he turned to Sydney and said, "Notify the other factory heads that they should stay away."

Understanding the seriousness of the situation, Sydney took out her phone and tagged all members in the chat group.

Xeno went to the window, opened the curtain, and snuck a peak, on to see that a large truck had crashed through the electronic gate. Following that were dozens of vans and cars. Among them, the brand new Bentley was particularly eye-catching.

Witnessing such a large commotion outside, the workers panicked and ran into their respective factories. The heads of each factory had also shut their doors and windows tightly.

People barreled out of the vehicles, and a black umbrella was held over Black Tiger's head the moment he got out.

Nash chuckled and added, "They have a stage three grandmaster with them."

The smile on the Zell family's grandmaster's face froze.

Queenie merely wrinkled her nose and scoffed. "A stage three grandmaster? I'll get Mr. Gayne and Mr. Yancy!"

Nash shoved his hands into his pockets and replied nonchalantly, the time your people arrive, this will all be over."

"Finn, go with Ms. Zell," Nash instructed. "Also, there are surveillance cameras everywhere. Try not to resort to violence right away."

"Alright," Finn replied and then jumped out of the window. Ken followed closely behind. Bringing her own people with her, Sydney went downstairs using the elevator.

"Mr. Nash, should I go down too?" Xeno asked.

Nash nodded. "Aren't your people arriving soon?"
