

CEO Bride 497

Chapter 497

Black Tiger arrived at the factory building with a group of his trusted men. Sydney also emerged confidently.

“Black Tiger, who gave you the guts to make trouble here?” questioned Sydney confidently as she glared at the man. Her timidness from before had completely disappeared.

Black Tiger, who was slightly overweight, wiped the sweat from his forehead with a white handkerchief. He sternly replied, “I didn’t come here to talk nonsense with you. Hand over my people!”

Upstairs, David was delighted when he heard Black Tiger’s voice. “Mr. Nash, if you release me, I can ensure Black Tiger won’t bother you anymore!”

Nash flashed a smile, revealing his teeth. “Coincidentally, I’m afraid of everything except trouble!”

He intended to clean up the Black Tiger Hall today and had no intentions of seeking a truce.

Unable to gain any ground with his conciliatory approach, David resorted to more aggression. “Do you really think that your small group can take on the Black Tiger Hall that’s more than 300 strong?”

Nash rubbed his chin and replied, “Honestly, I alone am enough to wipe out your gang.”

Smirking, David stood up from the ground. “Your name might strike fear in us, but if you’re just a braggart, then I think your reputation is undeserved!”

the entire Black Tiger Hall by himself? That outrageous!

say

turned cold as his powerful aura

the vast ocean.

a mountain was pressing down

loud crack before he immediately fell to knees. With gritted teeth, he looked at expression.

an aura unless they were in the Profound Reality Realm, which seemed their early

Black Tiger Hall. If it weren't for the Inspection Office, I would've wiped you all out a long time ago," Xeno leisurely

underworld power at the provincial level

sweat, his hands

knees. The pain in them was nothing compared to blow he had

Sydney was naturally unwilling they had come to her territory with so many people. They were even armed with weapons, clearly here to trouble.

Black Tiger sneered, "Then there's nothing more to say. Attack! You can kill everyone except Sydney and Queenie!" While he was arrogant, he still did not dare to harm Sydney and Queenie.

With their boss' command, the group swarmed forward. The people Sydney had brought immediately rushed into the fray, engaging in hand-to-hand combat with them.

Ken licked his dry lips, removed his gloves, and charged into the crowd. He delivered punches to one body after another. Finn reminded, "Just incapacitate them, don't kill them!"

Then, he raised his gaze and looked at Carson. "You ant. You dare make trouble when you're just in stage three?"

Carson frowned. "You can gauge my strength?"

A mischievous smile crossed Finn's lips, and he was in front of Carson in a flash. Carson quickly used his inner energy to defend himself, but there was a four-stage difference between stage three- and stage seven. Even with his all, Finn's punch had sent him flying..

Black Tiger's face immediately darkened. The top-tier expert he had paid three billion for had been so easily defeated. Were his skills just for show?

Finn laughed heartily. "You're too weak, old man!"

With that, he threw another punch.