

CEO Bride 499

Carson was shocked. What kind of creature's hand was this? His dagger was forged from Olympian Iron, capable of slicing rock like it was butter. Yet, it was ineffective against the hand.

On the third floor office, Derek, Heidi, Queenie, and Yasmin were occupying the entire window while Nash, Melody, and Xeno were squeezed to the side. The latter group had no interest in the situation below, however.

Melody poured a cup of hot water for Nash and asked, "How much longer until their people arrive?"

Nash took the cup and looked at Xeno. Xeno checked the time. "They should be here soon. My people should be arriving shortly!"

By the window, Heidi bit her finger and asked, "Is Finn injured?"

At this moment, Finn was surrounded by a dozen or so people who were wielding baseball bats. He appeared as if he were drunk, swaying from side to side. He dodged but did not attack.

In theory, someone of his caliber could easily defeat these people.

A chubby man with excess flesh all over his body asked, "Salvatore, how do we distinguish our own people?"

Salvatore's mouth twitched. "Anyone fighting with Black Tiger Hall is ours!"

Instantly, all of the men were sent flying before they finally crashed to the ground, coughing up blood. They felt as if they had been hit by an invisible truck.

Finn's right cheek was swollen and bruised, and his lips had turned purple. He looked severely injured and was even coughing up blood. Nash reached out, checking Finn's pulse at his neck. He then opened his eyelids, only to see that they were cloudy.

"This is the Five Poisonous Pines from Carrion Mountain..."
