

CEO Bride 502

Chapter 502

Nash's second slap completely bewildered Luther.

The sword energy around him disintegrated.

His true energy surged uncontrollably, and he coughed up a mouthful of blood.

Nash's attack was too fast. Even with his Profound Reality Realm strength, Luther could not follow it.

Nash slapped him again.

A few of Luther's teeth fell out.

Nash continued to slap Luther.

Luther's face was twisted from the blows.

He wanted to fight back but realized that the true energy in him was imprisoned by some kind of force.

Nash grabbed Luther by the collar with his left hand and slapped him repeatedly with his right hand.

Carson watched dumbfoundedly and muttered, "Fight back... Why aren't you fighting back, Luther?"

He wanted to go up and help him.

However, he knew that Nash's strength was in the Profound Reality

Realm and it was several times stronger than the woman from earlier.

On the other hand, Carson realized that the situation was dire and was ready to run away.

As soon as he reached the entrance of the industrial zone, he was stopped by Melody.

After Black Tiger was captured, everyone in the Black Tiger Hall put down their weapons.

Hundreds of people crouched against the wall and held their heads in their hands.

Luther's face had been beaten into a pulp by Nash, who seemed a bit. tired from all the slapping.

Nash wiped Luther's blood on him and gently asked, "Do you still refuse to hand over the antidote?"

"Cough... Cough..."

Luther coughed up blood and mumbled, "There's no antidote... for Five Poisonous Pines..."

At that moment, Melody brought Carson over.

Carson began to tremble when he saw Luther, who had been beaten beyond recognition.

Nash turned to Carson and asked, "Where's the antidote?"

Carson shook his head. "There's... There's no antidote..."

Nash snorted coldly. "Do you think I'm that gullible?"

His cold aura made Carson struggle to breathe.
