

CEO Bride 504

Chapter 504

Salvatore heard that and smiled. "I was joking, Mr. Hun! I was just asking for fun. Mr. Nash has worked so hard, so how could he not get any profit, right?" Salvatore knew that trying to split Nash's money was like trying to pull a tooth out of a tiger. He did not want to be the next Black Tiger Hall.

Under Salvatore and Xeno's leadership, some of the people from Black Tiger Hall went to a freight company and the others went to Dragon Tiger Gate.

In the HR department of Universal Group, Jennifer sat in her office. chair and was talking to Fabian on the phone.

She sat straight and upright when talking to this formidable man, On the other end of the phone, Fabian asked solemnly, "Is he not yet?"

Jennifer nodded. "Yes, I've canceled all my meetings today to wait for Fabian was silent for a moment before saying, "Don't worry, he'll show up when it's time!"

Jennifer asked, "Then what position should we assign him?"

Before waiting for a response from Fabian, she walked straight in.

In Universal Group, only the top ten people in the House of Representatives had such courage.

The woman was Yvette Cheriman, the eldest daughter of Nihon's largest financial conglomerate family.

She was proficient in 12 languages, served as a council member in the House of Representatives, and had significant influence in Universal Group.

Yvette smiled sweetly and asked, "Did you go to Drakonia to see the descendants of the Youngs?"

She was fluent in English.

It was hard to tell that she was Nihon through her words and demeanor.

Fabian placed Foxy in his lap and asked blankly, "Why are you sticking your nose in my business?"

Suddenly, Fabian frowned and said, "The assassination attempt in Drakonia, did you arrange it?"

Yvette turned pale. "How is that possible? When I heard news about it, I was in pieces for such a long time!"

Fabian sneered. "If it was you, then you'd better hide your tracks well. If I find out it was you, I have a hundred ways to drive you out of Universal Group!"

He could not touch Yvette unless he had conclusive evidence.
