

CEO Bride 52

Chapter 52

"You're right to teach them a lesson, Dr. Calcraft," Walter replied with a smile.

He knew that Nash was proficient in martial arts and that he had indeed been merciful yesterday. However, he did not appreciate the threat in his tone.

Both Kai and Queenie were precious to him, and he would never allow harm to come to them.

After they were done with their meal, Nash called the restaurant owner over so he could pay the bill.

The bill for the four of them only came up to 27 dollars.

Nash rubbed his stomach and then followed Walter to the Watsons' residence.

At the center of the Watson family's estate was a nine-story villa.

Kai was sitting on the sofa in the luxurious living room with a gloomy expression.

It was not inaccurate to say that he had lost all of his dignity at the Lewises' home today.

He was now thinking about how to help Helena get back in the game.

"Mr. Kai, the old master has a good relationship with Mr. Lee. If you ask him to come forward, you can definitely change this situation!"

Kai received a call from his grandfather just then.

After the call ended, Kai got up and said, "Grandpa brought Nash over to treat Grandma. Let's avoid them for a while."

Queenie clenched her fists and sneered. "Why should we do that? He has the gall to ask for a hundred million dollars in consultation fees. I want to see how he's going to heal Grandma. Won't we have a reason to teach him a lesson if he fails?"

Their grandmother had been in a coma for several years. What was a youngster their age going to do when even the top medical teams locally and abroad had been helpless?

The corner of Kai's mouth lifted slightly. "You're right. In that case, let's wait and see."

Ten minutes later, all of the Watson family members gathered together.

They heard that the head of the family had brought home a genius doctor to take a look at the madam. At this moment, they were all wearing incredulous expressions.

"The madam has been in a coma for three years. Is there even anyone who can cure her?"

"That's right. Even Miracle Doctor Tanner has failed, let alone the rest."

"I heard Uncle paid a hundred million dollars for this consultation!"

"What? A hundred million?"

"Has he gone senile now that he's old?"
