

CEO Bride 550

Chapter 550

When a cultivator reached the Mystique Loyalty Realm, most of them would choose to live in seclusion in the deep mountains or travel the world. They would attempt to break through to the elusive Profound Oriental Realm. They would rarely move around in the mundane world.

Boris had thought that he could walk with authority in Jonford, but he had not expected to encounter another cultivator of the same realm.

Upon hearing Boris' question, Nash's previously tense heart relaxed.

When the old man had used his spiritual power earlier, he must have sensed something unusual in the basement.

The basement walls were made of a special titanium alloy, and what the old man sensed was likely the pressure emanating from the Divine Farmer's Cauldron.

He probably thought there was a Mystique Loyalty Realm expert here.

Thinking about it, Nash smiled faintly and said, "If you'd like to make an acquaintance, I can introduce you."

If there really was a Mystique Loyalty Realm expert present in the house, they would have surely been offended when Boris recklessly.

used his spiritual power to search the area earlier.

This old man might not dare to face the Mystique Loyalty Realm.

expert he had imagined.

Boris squinted at Nash, as if trying to detect any falsehood in his facial expression.

Nash looked back at Boris, his face still bearing a serene and confident smile.

“Godfather... I suddenly remembered an important gathering today.

Would you like to join me?”

Duncan did not dare to let Boris take the risk. If there really was a Mystique Loyalty Realm expert in Nash’s place, Boris would be at a disadvantage.

Boris withdrew his gaze and turned to leave.

As he walked out into the courtyard, Boris glanced in the direction of the basement once again.

Nash breathed a sigh of relief and returned to the living room.

In the car outside, Boris asked casually, “How much do you know. about Nash and his background?”

“Tili Mountain!” Duncan blurted out.

This was the reason he did not want Boris to take the risk.

Nash’s master was Johnathan Calcraft, and there were many mysterious and exaggerated rumors about Johnathan in the martial world.

Some even said that Johnathan had lived for over a thousand years.

Duncan would have been skeptical if he were to hear that in the past.

It was up until he met his godfather here, who was over 300 years old.

It turned out that there were not only martial practitioners but also immortal cultivators in this world.

Martial practitioners could live up to 400 or 500 years with their cultivation, while immortal cultivators... had no limits!

If Johnathan was really in Nash's house, Boris would surely be no match for him.

Having offended Nash earlier, Nash would probably have come after him if it were not for him having his godfather by his side.

"Tili Mountain?"

Boris frowned. "Johnathan's cultivation far exceeds the Mystique Loyalty Realm. That old guy has already reached ascension. The Mystique Loyalty Realm expert in Nash's house shouldn't be

Johnathan."

Duncan replied, "If it's not Johnathan, it's probably Nash's second senior martial brother, Francis Dunn."

When Duncan mentioned the name Francis Dunn, Boris' face turned cold, and the temperature in the car seemed to drop to freezing point.

Duncan shivered and asked cautiously, "Did you have a conflict with him, Godfather?"

Boris snorted. "More than just a conflict. I even fought with him."

Duncan noticed that his godfather's expression was not great and did not dare to ask further.

"In the future, you should avoid provoking this person!"

Boris seemed to have some fear of Francis, and he turned to look out of the window with a chilly tone.

He was in the advanced stages of the Mystique Loyalty Realm, while Francis was only in the early stages.

Seven years ago, when he fought Francis, it was a close victory.

Now, after seven years, he was probably no match for him.

"Alright, I'll listen to you, Godfather!"

Duncan replied obediently, behaving like Boris' son.

After eating a small breakfast, Nash returned to the basement.

He first checked Kai's and Finn's pulses and life signs, confirming that there were no issues before continuing with his alchemy.

To ensure nothing would go wrong, Nash produced four furnaces of medicinal pills.

The first furnace contained only eight Rejuvenation Pills, while the subsequent four furnaces each had 16 medicinal pills.