

CEO Bride 61

Chapter 61

Stellar was taken aback when she saw the soft and delicate interior of the room.

He immediately whipped his head around to face Nash.

At that moment, Nash had already changed into a black outfit.

He was wearing a white mask with a weird smiling face on it.

A terrifying chill ran up Stellar's back.

Stellar had fought in the war before and had experienced too many life-and-death situations to count. Yet, subject to his bloodlust, he could not help but shiver.

The Smiling Grim Reaper!

He truly lived up to his reputation!

"Let's go..."

Nash pulled up his hood and appeared in front of Stellar in a blink of an eye.

Stellar was startled again and led Nash to the outside of the estate.

The black Cullinan was parked by the side of the road.

the driver stepped on the Fiends sent out eight people, they'll be amongst the birthday banquet. You must protect

"This isn't my first time protecting someone. You don't need to tell me what to do!"

a voice changer in his mask so Nash's voice deep voice carried a strong sense lightly said, "Kid, you're the first one who at Stellar over his shoulder.

immediately shut up.

past few days, he found out Nash's identity as the White Grim Reaper.

Dark Web Killer

the

Seventy-two missions.

Failed none.

people he killed were

was facing the Warden when facing this

One hour later.

the Jonford Private Estate.

guard three steps apart from large number of armed special armored in the sky and snipers were lurking in the whole estate was so guarded to the point that not even a the estate's entrance.

The Head of the Martial Arts Association – Zakariah, the Chief of the Jonford Inspection Office, and Grant Zell from the wealthy family of Jonford were gathered together.

“Is the Smiling Grim Reaper really that terrifying?”

An expression of disbelief appeared on Grant's face when he heard Zakariah's introduction.

The Chief of the Inspection Office – Henderson Zink also took a deep breath.

Zakariah smiled wryly and said, “His strength is roughly similar to a level nine grandmaster and there's not a single grandmaster like that in Jonford!”

Henderson gulped. “How strong is a level nine grandmaster?”

Zakariah stroked his beard. “Balanced, invulnerable, and could take down an enemy general amongst a thousand troops.”

As soon as he heard that, Henderson took another deep breath.

Zakariah was the Head of the Martial Arts Association. He was honest and disliked bragging about others.

The way he described the Smiling Grim Reaper showed that he truly had such strength.

While the three of them were talking, a Cullinan slowly approached the estate's gate.

Stellar got out of the car whilst wearing a mask.

The three of them looked at the weird smiling mask and could not help but shudder.

It was important to remember that they were all powerful figures in Jonford.

Stellar lightly said, “Let's go inside first...”