

CEO Bride 681

Chapter 681

Duncan walked to Boris and asked softly, "How is he?"

Of course, he knew the strange old man was behind what happened just now.

The strange old man wanted to show off, but at the same time, he wanted to know how strong Duncan's godfather was.

"Never underestimate the power of a Golden Robe Heavenly Master. They'll do something like that to fool others. The truly advanced Path techniques can even control thunder."

Boris' hands were behind his back, and he was smiling. "There are not a lot of Golden Robe Heavenly Masters in Drakonia, and they're very powerful."

"I got it."

A deep smile appeared on Duncan's face.

He walked to the old man and said while putting his hands together, "I don't have anything in my humble abode, but I do have enough alcohol for you. If you don't mind, please come in and have a few drinks.”

The old man walked around Duncan with his hands behind his back and tutted. “Not bad. Not bad at all!”

Duncan was confused. “Sir, what do you mean?”

Then, the old man stopped in front of Duncan and shook his head in regret. “Too bad. Too bad!”

Duncan was very confused.

The old man laughed. “Your ancestors are buried in such an amazing place! You’re so blessed! If I’m not wrong, your ancestral grave has a very auspicious layout!”

Duncan shook his head. “I’m adopted.”

The old man stroked his goatee. He did not look as wasted as before. Instead, he said seriously, “It doesn’t matter. The more important thing is that you’ll suffer a calamity in your life. But if you manage to get through it, you’ll get unlimited prosperity!”

Duncan had never believed in these things.

However, after witnessing what the old man could do, he suddenly believed him.

Especially when he mentioned the calamity.

Was Nash his calamity?

As long as he could get rid of Nash, who would dare to go against him?

Duncan replied respectfully, "Please show me the ways."

"Alright..."

The old man smiled perfunctorily. The way he held the flask was a little unnatural.

Duncan grinned. "Don't worry, let's go have a drink first."

The old man beamed.

Boris also gestured to him. "After you, sir."

The old man smiled even wider now.

When he was about to enter the villa, the old man stopped.

Duncan and Boris were confused.

The old man took out a golden rune from his bag. Then, he bit his finger and started drawing some runic incantation on it with his blood. At the same time, he was also murmuring some spells to himself.

After he drew on the golden rune, it turned into a green flame and flew away.

The old man chuckled. "I helped you chase away a rat."

Immediately after he said that, a wail of pain came from the back of the villa.

Boris' face fell, and he quickly jumped onto the back wall of the villa.

Then, he saw a man rolling on the ground while covered in flames.

Every inch of his skin was on fire as if he had been doused in gasoline.

After a few minutes, he was burned to ashes.

Boris waved, and a gust of wind carried the ashes away.

The man disappeared from this world as if he had never appeared.

Back in the villa, Boris told Duncan what happened.

“Gosh, we had no idea that we were being watched!” Duncan’s face was dark as he looked at the leader of the bodyguards.

Chapter 682

“B-Boss, a few of the bodyguards you brought to the birthday party didn’t come back, so the back wall of the villa was left unwatched,” the leader explained. Cold sweat had started appearing on his forehead.

“Do you think your explanation will change anything?”

Duncan’s eyes were cold.

The Swordsman grabbed his sword and was about to take action.

“Wait!”

The strange old man interrupted.

The leader of the bodyguards let out a sigh of relief and looked at the old man in gratitude.

Duncan did not say anything.

If the old man wanted him to show mercy, Duncan had to follow his wishes out of respect.

“I came up with a new Path technique recently. Since this young man is still strong, he’ll be a great research subject. If you don’t think he’s useful to you, why don’t you give him to me?” The old man stroked his goatee and laughed.

“Hahaha! Help yourself!”

Duncan laughed happily after hearing that.

He did not expect the old man to have such a hobby.

At this moment, the chef had made an entire table of dishes.

Duncan and the three masters started chatting while drinking.

After a few drinks, Duncan asked with a smile, “May I be so bold to ask if you know Nash Calcraft?”

The old man put down his glass and said gloomily, “Of course. I came to Jonford to seek revenge on him!”

Once he said that, Duncan and his godfathers looked at each other with a smile on their faces.

Then, the old man told them his grievances with Nash.

His name was Peter Sontag, and he was a Path taker from the Southern Ursa Sect.

Since he was very talented, he was boycotted and framed by the disciples of the same sect.

His master believed the rumors and would always punish him.

Moreover, his childhood sweetheart even brought him to the forbidden area in the mountains and then pushed him down the bottomless canyon.

Everyone thought he died.

Unbeknownst to them, he met a Golden Robe Heavenly Master under the canyon.

That Golden Robe Heavenly Master was none other than the previous head of the Southern Ursa Sect.

Since the previous head harbored ill intentions, he decided to practice evil Path techniques. In the end, he was thrown into the canyon after the sect members broke his legs.

From that day on, Peter decided to practice evil Path techniques with that master.

After working hard for more than 50 years, that master passed away.

Thus, Peter inherited his master's golden robe and made a comeback after his studies. In one move, he destroyed the entire Southern Ursa

Sect.

The Southern Ursa Sect was a proper branch of the Path, so this murder alarmed the entire National Association of Priests.

The Path takers in Capiton issued a chase-to-kill order for Peter as a warning to others.

"Back then, the popular Master Nash was the one who came afte with four trump cards."

He lifted his right hand and rolled up his loose sleeve to show the his palm. "Master Nash was the one who chopped my finger off."

Duncan did not have his glasses on as he was eating.

Even so, he could still see five fingers on Peter's hand.

'Is he drunk or am I seeing things?' Duncan wondered.

Then, he put on his glasses and realized that Peter had six fingers.

One of them was only a stump.

Boris felt deep veneration for Peter and said, "So, you're Six Fingers! You're the person the Martial Arts Association and National Association of Priests are after!"

The Swordsman had never heard of Six Fingers before. He asked, "Is he powerful?"

Boris said, "Great Elder and Second Elder of the National Martial Bureau couldn't even hurt him when they fought him together."

When The Swordsman heard this, he was shocked.

This old man did not look too extraordinary, but he was so amazing!

Peter waved his hands. "It's fine. Let's not bring up the past. Let's drink!"

Duncan's face was flushed when he lifted his glass. "Right, let's drink!

Let's drink for our glorious future!"

...

It was the next day at Royal Bay Villa.

Nash made another bowl of medicine for Melody and then found

Hera to dress her wounds.

Harrison and his wife had gone to work, so Nash took Finn and Ken outside.

"My Substitute CEO Bride" is a romantic novel that unfolds as a determined protagonist steps into the corporate world, facing unexpected challenges. Amidst professional complexities, a marriage of convenience emerges, weaving a tale of love, ambition, and unforeseen connections.

My Substitute CEO Bride

The master descended from the mountain to fulfill his marriage contract, but was rejected by the eldest young lady. Unexpectedly, the second young lady of the house was willing to substitute for her cousin and marry the husband.. My Substitute CEO Bride Novel review My Substitute CEO Bride" is a romantic novel that revolves around the intriguing dynamics of corporate life and unexpected romance. The story unfolds as a capable yet unconventional woman finds herself thrust into the corporate world, assuming the role of CEO as a substitute. As she navigates the challenges of corporate leadership, she encounters a charismatic and enigmatic counterpart. The narrative explores the complexities of their professional and personal relationship, blending elements of business intrigue with the emotional nuances of romance. The characters grapple with professional expectations, personal growth, and the unpredictable nature of love, making "My Substitute CEO Bride" a captivating journey through the intersections of work and romance, revealing how unexpected circumstances can lead to profound transformations in both the boardroom and matters of the heart.

Posted by Admin00, Released on February 3, 2024

Chapter 683

Finn stretched and said, "The weather is amazing today."

Ken lifted his head to look at the sky and turned to face southeast. Smiling, he said, "It'd be even better without the dark clouds over there."

Nash turned around to see some vague dark clouds in the south of the sky.

When Nash looked over, the dark clouds slowly dissipated.

Nash said with a profound look in his eyes, "Last night, someone used primary Path techniques. Are they from Quiet Winds Church?"

"Ouch!"

Not far away, an unkempt old man was hit by a car.

There were five luxury cars in total.

The first and last two were Porsches, and the middle was a Rolls-

Royce.

Then, four to five bodyguards got out of the Porsches.

The bodyguards from the first car said, “Old man, how dare you crash into the Watsons’ cars and then demand compensation?”

The old man suddenly appeared, and they did not have time to react.

“Gosh, my leg!”

The unkempt old man held his leg and wailed.

The bodyguards looked at each other. “Throw him into the bin. What an eyesore.”

After that, two bodyguards went over to carry the old man to the trash can.

“What are you doing?”

Kai, who was in a suit, got out of the Rolls-Royce.

His face was cold, and his face did not contain the resentment it always had.

“Mr. Kai, this old man is just pretending!”

The bodyguard who drove the first car explained.

Kai walked in front of the first car and noticed the car bumper was dented.

This was the latest Porsche, and it cost more than three million.

Repairing the bumper would cost at least tens of thousands.

“Put him down.”

Kai looked at the bodyguards expressionlessly.

After the bodyguards looked at each other, they put the old man down.

Kai then walked over to the old man and asked, “Do you feel unwell?”

Even though he sounded cold, he did not sound as aggressive as before.

“Everywhere hurts...

“You hit me, and yet you even want to throw me into the bin. You’re so mean! Boo-hoo!”

The unkempt old man wailed, even wiping his snot on Kai’s expensive new suit.

If this were before, Kai would have broken the old man's legs.

"I won't do that..." Kai said softly. Then, he asked, "I'll give you some money, and you can go to the hospital yourself."

There was a high chance that this man was just trying to scam some money from them, but the car did hit him.

The old man blinked. "You don't look like you lack money, so maybe you can give me 80 grand or maybe a hundred grand."

After that, he took out a payment code from his clothes.

Kai scoffed and then took out his phone to transfer a hundred grand to the old man.

The unkempt old man beamed. "Thank you, young man! May you have octuplets in the future!"

After he said that, he walked away. While he did that, he even glared at the bodyguards.

Kai went back to the car and wiped away the snot on his clothes.

Helena asked in disbelief, "You're not mad at all?"

Even an ordinary person would not be able to endure this.

She knew Kai had changed, but she did not expect him to change so drastically.

“Why should I be mad at an old man?” Kai smiled.

“He’s scamming you!” Helena had heard Melody and the gang mention this old man.

“We’ll all become older..

“Old people like him are usually alone and can’t work anymore, so they can only make money doing this.

“When Grandpa gives me back the companies, I’ll start a charity to help the elderly who have no children so that they can feel some warmth.”

Kai leaned against his seat and spoke as he looked at the disappearing figure.

Helena’s eyes were on Kai’s side profile. Slowly, a smile blossomed on her face.

Kai was not as aggressive as he was before. Instead, he looked mor mature as if he had experienced a lot.

A man like this seemed more charming.

Chapter 684

After a while, the convoy stopped outside Nash's villa.

Nash had witnessed what happened just now and was very happy with what Kai did.

However, the old man was so fast. Even if Nash used his Third Eye, he could only see his shadow and did not notice any fluctuating true energy. It was no wonder he could save Hera and the others without being noticed.

In the world of martial arts, speed was the one thing that could not be defeated.

The old man could easily defeat him with such speed combined with his Mystique Loyalty Realm ability.

If he were Nash's enemy...

It would be too horrible to contemplate.

Soon, Kai's convoy arrived.

After Kai got out of the car, he pulled out some blurry photos on his phone. “We couldn’t contact the person my grandpa sent to watch the Duersons. However, he sent some pictures to us in the middle of the night.”

Nash took the phone. He could only see a blurry figure after zooming in on the photo.

That was the entrance of the Duersons’ villa.

An old man in a golden robe was sitting next to a stone lion.

He seemed to be a Golden Robe Heavenly Master.

Then, Nash scrolled and saw the photo of a stone lion pouncing on Boris.

It was a mid-level rune called the Reincarnation Rune!

The Reincarnation Rune could give inanimate things the ability to move.

The person then could use their spiritual power to control the object and make it move like it was a living thing.

The premise was that the person who drew and used this rune must at least be a Heavenly Master.

That Path taker was wearing a golden robe and could even use the Reincarnation Rune, so he must be a Golden Robe Heavenly Master.

The nine Golden Robe Heavenly Masters in the country were very close to Nash.

However, judging from the man's appearance and figure, this Golden Robe Heavenly Master was not one of the nine.

"Who is he?"

Nash frowned.

In the next second, he narrowed his eyes and murmured, "Could it be him?"

Kai asked in a deep voice, "Who?"

Nash shook his head and handed the phone back to Kai. He warned, "Don't go provoking Duncan. You won't be able to afford to provoke him right now.

Even Nash would not dare to provoke Duncan before he broke through to the Mystique Loyalty Realm, let alone the Watsons.

At this moment, Theo came over in Olivia's car.

When Kai saw this, he said tactfully, "I'll go back first. Feel free to drop by when you have time."

Walter had previously bought Kai Royal Bay Villa 9.

However, he froze this villa as punishment for Kai.

According to the rules, it would be unfrozen in three years. Even the owner of the property had no right to interfere.

Kai had turned over a new leaf, so Walter immediately contacted the boss of Royal Bay to unfreeze the villa through his connections.

After Theo got out of the car, he walked straight to Nash. "We have news on Lindon. He's back in Sagen!"

Nash laughed. "He still went back to Sagen in the end."

If he had time, Nash would not mind making a trip to Sagen.

However, Melody was hurt, and Duncan was helping a villain do evil.

If he left Jonford, Hera and everyone would be in danger.

What he needed to do right now was to break through to the Mystique Loyalty Realm as soon as possible and get rid of The Swordsman and Boris.

“I’ll ask them to go to Sagen to find where Lindon is. Then, we’ll arrest him as soon as we get the chance.” Theo’s detectives had undergone special training. Even though they were not very good at martial arts, they could still handle an ignorant and incompetent loafer.

“Do you have a death wish?

“That old fox, Dominic, is very sly. Also, he has a Mystique Loyalty Realm expert with him. Of course, he’ll ask him to protect Lindon during this period.”

Nash put his hands behind his head and sighed. “Let’s settle the matter in Jonford before going to Lindon.”

Theo nodded. “I have some people in the Green Bamboo Association, so I’ll ask them to keep an eye on Lindon.”

Nash reminded, “Ask them to be careful. If Lindon notices them, they’ll die.”

It would be good to have someone watch Lindon. However, it would be very dangerous.

With Dominic's vigilance, it would not be hard for him to find out who was the traitor among him.

"Some of them have been in the Green Bamboo Association for more than a decade, so it should be fine."

After Theo took over Black Tiger Hall, he tried to bribe some people from the Green Bamboo Association.

Some of them were even core members of the Green Bamboo Association.

Chapter 685

Not long after Theo and Nash chatted, Theo got a call from his grandfather, so he had to go back to Capiton to take care of some stuff.

After that, Nash went back to the basement to make medicine for Melody.

The moment he got there, his phone rang.

It was from Fabian.

He asked Nash why he had not gone to the office to report himself.

Nash had no choice but to make up some excuses.

Fabian was helpless, so he asked Jennifer to find someone to take over his post at the inspection department.

There was an ancestral hall in the middle of the headquarters of the Green Bamboo Association in Sagen.

The ancestors of the Carters were enshrined here.

At this moment, there were 70 or 80 core members of the Green Bamboo Association standing inside and outside.

At the front, Lindon stood before the tablets of his ancestors.

He was very excited.

As soon as he came back, his grandfather called him to come to the ancestral hall.

If he was right, his grandfather would pass on the position of president of the Green Bamboo Association to himself.

Dominic was leaning on a cane with a dragon's head in one hand while holding a pipe made of pure gold in his other hand.

Lindon looked back and saw that a steady stream of core members were still making their way into the ancestral hall.

“Grandpa, is everyone here?”

“Soon!” Dominic responded as he smoked.

Another half hour passed.

There were already more than a hundred people standing in the ancestral hall. At the same time, there were about a hundred people outside the ancestral hall.

These were all spokespersons of the Green Bamboo Association various regions.

They were around 35 to 40 years old. They were the first group of people to follow Dominic to monopolize the whole business. Hence, their status was second only to the Ten Juggernauts.

Now that the Ten Juggernauts no longer existed, they were directly under the jurisdiction of the president.

Dominic saw that almost everyone had arrived, so he turned to look at Zachary and said, “Let’s get started.”

Zachary glanced at one of his men.

The man immediately went to the trunk of the car outside the door and took out a bundle of brambles.

Lindon’s face instantly turned pale when he saw the brambles.

“Grandpa... Grandpa... What are you going to do?”

Dominic slowly sat on his wooden armchair and said calmly, “Execute the family rule!”

“T-The family rule?”

Lindon’s face turned pale again.

The Green Bamboo Association’s family rule was a hundred slashes using brambles.

How could his body withstand that?

“Grandpa... D-Do you want to beat me to death?” Lindon asked with trembling lips.

Dominic laughed. “You’ve already died once. Are you afraid of dying again?”

He was completely disappointed in Lindon.

He thought that sending him to Purple Church would wash away his sins.

Unexpectedly, he still committed various crimes in Jonford.

It would be fine if he just took drugs and played with women, but he even dared to sell organs.

Dominic almost used all the connections he had accumulated in his life to bring Lindon back from Jonford this time.

If he had another grandson, he would strangle this unfilial brat to death with his own hands.

“Grandpa, calm down, please. I’ll change. I’ll change, okay?”

Lindon shivered as he stepped back.

After taking a few steps back, he bolted.

414

Zachary gently raised his hand, and an invisible force held Lindon in place.

With a wave of his other hand, the bundle of brambles scattered on the ground.

“Members of the inner hall, you’ll get a chance to beat him once.

Whoever dares to show mercy will also be punished according to the rules!”

Chapter 686

Zachary looked at everyone in the hall, malicious intent in his clear eyes.

His energy as a master in the Mystique Loyalty Realm and the deputy president was stifling.

“Mr. Lindon, I’m sorry.”

A middle-aged man with an eyepatch picked up a bramble from the ground and hit it on Lindon’s back while gritting his teeth.

“Ah!”

Lindon’s eyes widened from the pain, causing him to jump.

His white shirt was torn. His skin, which was fair and tender due to being pampered, was suddenly ripped open.

It could be seen that this one-eyed man had shown no mercy at all.

Dominic picked up the gold pipe, put it in his mouth, and took a puff with trembling hands.

After all, Lindon was his only grandson, and he had always been reluctant to beat him.

He could not bear to watch as Lindon’s flesh got lacerated from the punishment.

However, if he continued to indulge him, no matter how good his connections were, he might not be able to protect Lindon forever.

Zachary noticed Dominic's trembling hands from the corner of his eye and whispered, "Dom, why don't you step aside for a while and let me handle this?"

Dominic waved his hand and said in a trembling voice, "No need..."

Zachary did not continue to persuade him. He turned around and continued to watch the inner hall staff enforcing the rules on Lindon.

Every time Lindon tried to escape, he would be brought back.

In the end, they simply found two lackeys to press Lindon to the ground.

After half an hour of continuous torture, Lindon's back was covered with blood, and his eyes were bloodshot.

He yelled, "Grandpa... I was wrong... I know I was wrong, so please stop beating me!"

Another person whipped him hard.

The brambles added another scar to Lindon's back.

Lindon was in so much pain that he even wanted to bite his tongue and commit suicide.

Zachary could not bear it anymore, so he turned around and said seriously, "Dom, this is enough, right?"

Dominic continued to smoke silently.

Zachary sighed and said, "Continue!"

When all 100 people in the hall were done, Lindon had already passed out.

Zachary looked at Dominic again, but Dominic had his eyes closed." Wake him up."

A lackey poured a bucket of cold water over Lindon.

Lindon shuddered and regained consciousness again.

Zachary ordered softly, "Continue."

At this moment, a middle-aged man walked in from outside and looked at Lindon on the ground. He said, "Dom, someone from the Inspection Office is here."

Dominic opened his eyes slowly and said casually, "Tell them to leave."

The middle-aged man stopped and continued, "It's Felicity Snyder, the deputy of the Inspection Office. She brought a lot of people along."

Dominic narrowed his eyes and waved his hand.

Immediately, a few lackeys brought Lindon away.

Outside the ancestral hall, Felicity was wearing a red leather coat.

She barged in with more than 20 inspectors.

The more than a hundred people outside had cold looks on their faces, showing mutual hostility.

"Felicity, do you know where this is?" someone from the outer hall questioned coldly.

"Isn't this the Carters' ancestral hall?" Felicity answered matter-of-factly.

"So why did you barge in?"

"I received a report that Lindon is back!" Felicity looked at that man and said with a half-smile.

“What a joke! Lindon was executed, so how could he come back? Do you think he crawled out of his grave?

“Get lost!”

“Get lost!”

Even though they were facing the deputy of the Inspection Office, the people from the outer hall were not scared at all. They even came out with arrogant claptrap.

Some of them had rolled up their sleeves to get ready to fight at any time.

The inspectors behind Felicity yelled, “What are you doing?”

“Shouldn’t we ask you this? What are you doing?”

“Go away!”

Dozens of people from the outer hall had rushed over to the inspectors.

They would not fight.

However, if the inspectors dared to attack them, they would be defending themselves by fighting back.

Chapter 687

The people from the Inspection Office did not dare to take action rashly, but they knew the nature of people from the Green Bamboo Association.

The Green Bamboo Association had a strong team of lawyers behind them. If they were not careful, they would be the ones liable.

Felicity clenched her fists.

If it were any other force, she would have suppressed them long ago.

“Everyone, step back.”

Zachary walked out of the ancestral hall.

The outer hall people immediately shut their mouths and stepped aside.

Zachary glanced at Felicity casually and said, “My family is ing a ceremony today. So, the Green Bamboo Association will neve anyone for the time being. Please leave, Deputy Snyder.”

Felicity felt a great sense of oppression after hearing his tone.

Zachary was the deputy president of the Green Bamboo Associa and a master in the Mystique Loyalty Realm. He would not be afra of the Inspection Office.

Felicity composed herself, raised her chin, and said, “I received news from the Jonford Inspection Office that Lindon is still alive and has come to Sagen.”

“What nonsense! Lindon was publicly executed by them, and it was well-known throughout Drakonia. But now they’re claiming that he’s still alive and has come to Sagen?”

Zachary put his hands behind his back with a sneer. “I think you’re just here to cause trouble, right?”

Felicity swallowed secretly and said expressionlessly, “I now suspect that Lindon is hiding in the ancestral hall. Do you dare to let us go in and search?”

Zachary narrowed his eyes and stared at Felicity. “What if I don’t let you?”

“You’ll be obstructing official business,” Felicity said with her eyes narrowed as well.

As soon as she said this, the phone in her pocket rang.

When she took out her cell phone, she saw that it was a call from the head of the Special Security Department.

“Mr. Campbell.”

“Did you go to the headquarters of the Green Bamboo Association

“Yeah.”

“Come back.”

“But...”

“This is an order!” Tristan yelled.

Felicity did not want to accept this. “I already have the evidence...”

Tristan said in a cold tone, “Are you going to disobey orders?”

“...”

“Retreat!” Tristan roared.

“Yes!”

Felicity looked confused.

She had planted an informant in the Green Bamboo Association, and Lindon must be inside the ancestral hall.

Right now, she was only one step away from the ancestral hall, but she was stopped at the door.

She refused to accept this.

However, she could not disobey the orders of her boss.

It would not be a big deal to be dismissed. However, if they accused her of an unfounded crime and locked her in a dark room, no one would be able to save her.

She should not be impulsive at this time.

Zachary put his hands behind his back and smiled meaningfully. "Deputy Snyder, do you want to continue the search?"

Felicity's eyes darkened. Then, she turned around and left without looking back.

The inspectors who came with her looked at each other. They had no choice but to leave with her.

The outer hall people of the Green Bamboo Association roared with laughter.

"Tsk, I thought you were so awesome!"

"She's still too young to deal with us! She still has a long way to go!"

"Hey, how do you know that?"

"Hahaha! I know her intimately!"

Zachary returned to the compound of the ancestral hall.

Lindon, who was covered in blood, was helped out by two lackeys.

Dominic asked earnestly, “Do you dare to do it again?”

“No... I won’t do it anymore...”

At this moment, Lindon only felt that a layer of his skin had been peeled off. His whole body was in burning pain.

Dominic sighed. “It’s not safe in the country. I’ll find a way you abroad in the next two days!”

Lindon’s eyes flashed with joy.

He had been hiding the entire time, and he was so worried that he long wanted to go abroad.

However, Dominic’s next words were like a blow to the head.

Dominic said calmly, “I won’t arrange anyone to protect you this time, let alone give you a penny. Whether you live or die abroad is up to fate!”

Chapter 688

“No way! What will I eat, and how will I go on with my life with no money?" Lindon looked at Dominic in horror.

"You're able-bodied, so you won't starve," Dominic said expressionlessly.

Lindon knew that his grandfather was determined to torture him, so he did not dare to continue to refute.

Dominic stood up slowly. "Dismiss."

After saying that, he took his confidants and left.

After he returned to the villa's living room, Dominic waved to his confidants and said, "You guys can leave too. Zach and I have something to talk about."

The confidants looked at each other and went to wait outside the door.

Zachary poured Dominic a glass of hot water. "Dom, have so water."

Dominic took the glass with a smile and took a sip.

Zachary sat on the sofa opposite and asked, "Dom, do you really w to send Lindon out of the country?"

Dominic smiled bitterly. "Jonford Inspection Office, Sagen Inspection

Office, Capiton Special Guidance Unit, Nash, and the Skyes are all after him. Do you think there's still a place for him in the country?"

Zachary sighed and then asked, "Dom, don't you have something to tell me?"

Dominic walked to the window with his cane and looked at the calm sea before saying, "There are moles in the outer hall and the inner hall. Find a way to get rid of them."

Zachary walked to Dominic and whispered, "I've suspected this for a long time. I've already arranged for someone to observe in secret!"

Dominic stared at the sea and said sadly, "I fed them, but in the end, they betrayed me. What a bunch of thankless wretches!"

After saying that, he turned to look at Zachary. "Zach, I regard you as my brother. You won't betray me, right?"

"Dom, you're worrying too much. I was only able to break through the Mystique Loyalty Realm and achieve my status today because of your help. So why would I betray you?" Zachary said quickly.

“That’s good. Two experts from the Mystique Loyalty Realm will come to help in the next two days. You won’t be so tired by then.

Dominic continued to look toward the sea.

At this time, the wind had risen, and there were now waves in the originally calm sea.

“Felicity is probably going to trouble us forever. How about I get rid of her?” Zachary suggested with a dark look on his face.

“She’s the deputy of the Inspection Office. If you kill her, it’ll only bring trouble to my connections.”

“Tristan?” Zachary asked.

“I’m tired. You should go now.” Dominic yawned.

“Alright, rest well. I’ll go get rid of the moles.”

Zachary turned to leave.

Felicity returned to the Inspection Office and smashed everything in her office in anger.

The president, Howard Simmons, pushed open the door to her office and saw a mug flying at him.

He lifted his briefcase to block the mug and looked at the messy office. He said with a blank look on his face, "I should start calling you Insanity instead of Felicity..."

Felicity put both of her hands on the desk and huffed. "I would've brought Lindon back if it wasn't for Tristan!"

After she said that, she walked over to close the door of her She whispered, "Howard, I suspect something's up with Mr. Cam He called me the moment I got to the Carters' ancestral hall. He asked me to retreat. Do you think Dominic called him?"

"No, it was me!"

Howard glared at her.

Felicity was fuming and was about to yell at him when someone.

knocked on the door.

Before she could say anything, an inspector opened the door and said seriously, "Felicity, something happened to our informant."

Felicity was startled. "What?"

The young inspector showed her his phone, and there was a very gory video playing.

Felicity grabbed the phone and watched the entire video.

Her face immediately turned pale.

Chapter 689

The informant they trained was gone just like that.

“Mr. Campbell told us not to worry. They laid out their net a long time ago. As for when to close it, that’s not up to us!”

Howard was also helpless with the Green Bamboo Association.

The power behind the Green Bamboo Association was very large, and the Special Security Department would probably not act rashly until they found everyone.

He had asked Felicity more than once to stay out of the Green Bamboo Association’s affairs, but Felicity would not listen at all.

“Dominic will definitely send Lindon abroad, and you still expect him to close the net? Where will you find this fish that slipped through the net, then?”

There was sarcasm in Felicity’s eyes.

The Green Bamboo Association’s strength had been weakened by more than half. She could not wait to take down the largest underground force in the country.

Howard did not want to continue to persuade Felicity. He said calmly,

“This is my ultimatum to you. If you continue to interfere in the Green Bamboo Association’s affairs, the Special Security Department and I will put you on leave at the same time!”

Felicity sneered and said, “Do it, then. I can do things better without my uniform anyway!”

After saying that, she stormed out the door angrily.

“Stop!”

Howard also got angry.

Felicity stopped subconsciously.

Howard said coldly, “Without your uniform and the protection your title gives you, something bad will happen to your entire family. Are you sure you want to expose your family to danger?”

In the past few years, Felicity had been targeting the Green Bamboo Association.

If it had been anyone else, even an ordinary inspector, their entire family would have suffered.

It was precisely because she was the deputy of the Inspection Office that the Green Bamboo Association did not dare to make the matter too big. That was why they kept suppressing their anger.

Felicity took a deep breath.

Then, she said in a deep voice, “I’ll take a two-day leave.”

Howard was right.

She could ignore her safety, but she could not ignore the safety of her family.

When she got home, Felicity locked herself in her room and drank.

There was nowhere to express the anguish in her heart, so she opened her phone and accidentally found Nash's phone number.

3/4

After thinking for a moment, she put down her phone.

After all, she did not know Nash very well.

As soon as she put down the phone, Nash called.

Felicity was slightly startled.

What was going on?

Was this the work of telepathy?

After regaining her composure, Felicity calmed down and answered the call.

"Hey, Nash..."

“Don’t interfere in Lindon’s matter.”

Angelica told Nash that she told Felicity about Lindon.

Nash was worried that Felicity would go to the Green Bamboo

Association, so he called her.

“Don’t interfere. Can’t you phrase it differently?” Felicity had forgotten about this, but Nash brought it up again and even persuaded her not to interfere. Finally, she blew up.

Heerstreks caused Nash’s eardrums to buzz. He quickly took the phone away from him and asked after he put her on speaker, “Wh up with you?”

Felony grabbed her beer and took a large gulp. After calming herself down she masked, “What else is there? I’m gonna hang up if there’s nothing else.”

“Did you already go to the Green Bamboo Association?”

Nash figured she might have already gone and was stopped by her boss, so that was why she was drinking.

Eventually, Felicity told Nash everything that happened when she went to the Green Bamboo Association.

After telling him everything, she drank some water and asked, "Nash, do you think Tristan is suspicious?"

Chapter 690

Felicity was stunned when she asked this question.

She was a member of the Inspection Office and the Special Security Department, so she should not tell outsiders about these things.

Did she have too much to drink?

She glanced at the beer bottles on the table and saw that she had not even finished more than half of her beer.

Perhaps Nash had shown extraordinary strength in front of her.

He made her feel safe.

Nash said in a deep voice, "I think Tristan did the right thing. You can't easily take down Dominic. If you had captured his grandson in front of him, he'd massacre your people in front of you."

Nash knew what kind of person Dominic was.

Felicity glanced at her nephews and nieces who were playing before guiltily saying, "I have a bad temper, and I feel so unr that I didn't catch Lindon!"

Lindon committed heinous crimes and even committed murder in Jonford, which caused her former classmate to be suspended from her job. Yet, she could only watch him get away with it.

"I still believe the saying, 'Good will be rewarded with good and evil with evil; it is only a matter of time'.

"Justice may be late, but it'll never be absent!

"So don't take it too seriously. He'll be caught sooner or later!" Nash comforted her calmly.

Felicity felt much better listening to Nash's comforting words. As she recalled the message the informant sent to her before going to the Carters, she said worriedly, "Dominic plans to send Lindon abroad. Once Lindon goes abroad, it'll be very hard for us to arrest him."

Nash smiled lightly and asked, "Do you think it's possible that Dominic deliberately told your informant?"

Dominic liked to do the opposite. When he took Lindon to Mount Royal, everyone thought that he would either leave Lindon at Mount Royal or separate the convoy escorting Lindon.

However, Dominic did not do that. Instead, he loaded eight cars with explosives and forcibly caused an accident to leave on other sections of the road while taking advantage of the accident.

How could such a thoughtful person tell outsiders where his grandson would go next?

"I don't think it's possible. There is no place for Lindon in the coun anymore, so sending him abroad is the best option. If I were Domini

I would also..."

Felicity was stunned before she could finish her words. Then, she narrowed her eyes and said, "Yes, if he's so predictable, he wouldn't be Dominic anymore!"

Nash was chatting with Felicity when the phones in the room and the security room suddenly rang.

Maria walked over to answer the phone. After that, she covered the phone and looked at Nash: She said, "Mr. Calcraft, someone named Jasper is coming in!"

Nash continued to tell Felicity, "Okay, I won't talk to you anymore. You're also the deputy of the Sagen Inspection Office, so as long as you don't provoke Dominic, they won't touch you and your family!"

"Okay, fine. You're so annoying."

Felicity hung up the phone playfully

Nash looked at Maria and said, "Let him in. He's my friend."

Last night, Nash gave Jasper a sum of money and asked him to clean up after himself. He was curious what Jasper would do.

Finn walked in from outside with a mug of tonic and said shyly, "Mr.

Nash, it's my dad's birthday in two days, and I plan to go back to pay him a visit."

Nash took the mug, stirred the dark concoction with a spoon, and said with a nod, "Okay, I'll pick some good herbs and you can give them to your father as a birthday gift from me!"

He regarded Finn as a brother. Since it was Finn's father's birthday, it was only natural for him to prepare a small gift.

"Mr. Nash..."

Finn felt a lump in his throat.

"What's wrong?"

Nash's heart skipped a beat.

Could it be that something had happened to his father?

"At this time, I should face the Duersons with you," Finn said with a look of remorse.

There were two powerful Mystique Loyalty Realm experts in Duncan's family, and now, there was also someone named Six Fingers.

Mr. Nash must be under a lot of pressure.