

CEO Bride 83

Chapter 83

Theo enthusiastically introduced Olivia to Nash.

Seeing Olivia still in a daze, he immediately frowned and said, "Aren't you going to say hello to Nash?"

Olivia snapped back to her senses and trembled slightly. "H-Hello, Nash!"

Nash smiled faintly and said, "Hello, Ms. Lee. Thank you for helping Hera and her family!"

Seeing how polite Nash was, Olivia quickly said, "You're too polite, Nash. It's what we should do!"

Just last night, she asked Theo about the connection between the Skyes and Nash.

Several years ago, Nash had helped the Skyes eliminate a terrifying foreign enemy.

If it were not for Nash's intervention, the Skyes would have suffered a calamity.

At that time, Drake Group was still under the Skyes' control.

Without the Skyes, Drake Group would not have developed to its current state.

Thinking about this, Olivia was even more shocked.

"That's true. You're a top-notch professional killer who's dedicated to your duty! By the way, will there be any changes in your KDA on the dark web?"

Although Theo's intelligence organization was powerful, it did not have the authority to access information on the Killer Leaderboard.

Nash explained, "After a dark web assassin completes a mission, they submit it in the task panel. After the employer confirms it, they receive their commission, and the KDA is recorded in the system."

As they spoke, the three of them arrived at the eighth floor and entered private room number 88, which belonged exclusively to the Skyes.

At the entrance of the private room stood two identical twins, both of them stage five grandmaster bodyguards.

They were of similar height and weight. They even had the same hairstyle and facial features. They were clearly a pair of twins.

"Mr. Skye, Mr. Nash!"

The two bodyguards put their hands behind their backs and bowed their heads in greeting.

After Theo nodded in acknowledgment, he led Nash into the private room.

On the large round table were 108 dishes, a lavish feast.

It was an extremely luxurious imperial banquet.

Nash's mouth twitched slightly. "Is anyone else coming?"

Theo understood that Nash was accusing him of extravagance and waste, so he awkwardly smiled and said, "I'll have any leftovers packed and delivered to the sanitation workers later..."
