

CEO Bride 831

Chapter 831

The ghoul overlord suddenly opened its eyes.

Its scarlet pupils radiated an endless iciness.

A wicked pressure was suffocating Duncan.

Even the powerful experts of the Mystique Loyalty Realm, Boris and

The Swordsman, could not fight against the evil spirit with their energies.

“Go and enjoy your feast!” Peter smiled and said.

As soon as he said that, the ghoul overlord vanished on the spot.

The gate of Quiet Winds Church shattered.

Inside the church, all 16 lights were turned on.

However, they emitted a red light, making the entire church look like it had been doused in blood.

Cillian’s shadow appeared in the middle of the church, and Lloyd followed closely behind.

The other elders were petrified.

They had already sensed the horrifying evil energy radiating from their visitor.

Cillian calmly lifted his right hand and said, “Quiet Winds Sword...”

The mountain peak behind Quiet Winds Church collapsed all of a sudden.

A long sword emitting a radiant white light flew into Cillian’s hand.

The pupils of the elders constricted.

The Quiet Winds Sword was a weapon destined for the founder and forefather of Quiet Winds Church.

It had disappeared for nearly a thousand years. Little did they know, it had been hidden inside Rhino Peak.

What was even more shocking was that Cillian had mastered the ability to control the Quiet Winds Sword.

They finally knew why Lloyd had always been supporting Cillian.

It turned out that he had mastered the sacred weapon of the forefather of Quiet Winds Church.

Cillian stared intently at the entrance.

It took only a couple of steps for it to come face-to-face with Cillian, and it slapped Cillian's chest.

Cillian held the Quiet Winds Sword across his chest, and the ghoul overlord struck the blade of the sword with its withered palm.

The powerful force sent Cillian sliding dozens of meters away while.

his feet scraped the ground.

Cillian was short of breath as his chest constricted, and his eyes narrowed.

Even as a Mystique Loyalty Realm master, he could not even block a single attack....

The ghoul overlord flew toward Cillian like a ghost in the night. He grabbed Cillian's neck and opened its mouth, revealing a pair of horrifying fangs.

Cillian jumped upward and swung the Quiet Winds Sword. Instantly, thousands of sword forms slashed the ghoul overlord.

However, the ghoul overlord stabilized itself. A red halo appeared around its body. The halo was offsetting the energy from the sword.

"Q-Quick! Go and activate the Mountain Shield Formation..."

The seven elders looked at Caine in panic.

The Mountain Shield Formation could block all beings with supernatural powers and kill all evil spirits within the formation.

"Y-Yes..."

When Caine finally realized the severity of the situation, his face ashened, and he ran to the side hall.

Skadi just so happened to come out of the restricted area and bumped into Caine.

She grabbed the panicking Caine and asked, "Father Caine, what's wrong?"

“Move...”

Removing her hand, he quickly disappeared.

Skadi curiously walked toward the main hall of Quiet Winds Church, where she saw Herman fighting Cillian.

Chapac 31

“G-Grandpa?”

Skadi rubbed her eyes in disbelief.

Herman had returned to his former appearance.

Skadi was over the moon to see Herman’s face until she noticed a pair of terrifying fangs in his mouth.

Zombie?

Skadi’s face went pale, but she felt relieved in an instant.

Cillian would be able to defeat the zombie in no time.

As soon as she thought that, she saw Herman kicking Cillian and sending him flying.

The zombie jumped up and flew toward Cillian like a ghost.

Lloyd took out a golden rune and put his hands together. The golden rune burst into flames. The ashes from the golden rune turned into a dozen flaming sword forms, stabbing the ghoul overlord.

Chapter 832

The flaming sword forms shot into the halo around the ghoul overlord like stones sinking into the ocean. They did not even create a ripple.

Lloyd's face twisted into an ugly expression. It was a mid-level rune, but it did not harm the ghoul overlord at all.

Then, the ghoul overlord grabbed Cillian's neck with both hands and sunk his fangs into his neck.

The ghoul overlord happily drank Cillian's blood.

Cillian let go of the sword handle and pointed at the sword. The Quiet Winds Sword floated up into the air, and it started raining swords.

The red halo around the ghoul overlord's body was rippling.

Finally, a sword pierced through the red halo.

The Quiet Winds Sword pierced the ghoulish overlord's back, and the tip of the sword penetrated its flesh.

The ghoulish overlord threw its head back with a roar, sending the Quiet Winds Sword flying.

Cillian seized his chance to kick the ghoulish overlord in the chest. He slammed his hands on the ground and stood right up. He put his hands together, the seams on the back of his purple robe emitting a golden glow.

"Soldiers assemble before the enemy!"

In one second, Cillian made nine different hand gestures and gathered the golden glow from behind him to form a nine-palace trigram.

Inside the nine palaces were nine golden hieroglyphs.

The ghoulish overlord looked at the golden trigram in fear.

A strong gust of wind blew, tousling Cillian's gray hair.

He pushed both hands forward, suppressing the ghoulish overlord with the golden trigram.

The nine hieroglyphs turned into nine huge beams of light, shooting.

toward the ghoulish overlord.

The ghoul overlord crossed its arms in front of its chest and stepped forward. It opened its mouth, letting out a beast-like roar.

The green quartz floor started cracking as spiritual energy spurted out from the ghoul overlord's mouth.

The nine beams of light merged into one single beam, penetrating the ghoul overlord's energy and hitting it on the chest.

It blasted a huge hole into the ghoul overlord's chest.

Outside, Peter looked gloomy. "The Secret Blessings of Fortune

up to its name!"

Duncan asked curiously, "What's the Secret Blessings of Fortune?

Was it the nine beams of light earlier?"

Peter nodded. "The Secret Blessings of Fortune, also known as th

Nine-Character Mantra, is an advanced secret path technique!"

He thought that it was just an ordinary church. He did not expect to see the Secret Blessings of Fortune here.

Greed was reflected in Peter's eyes. He should be the one to possess such an advanced path technique.

The Swordsman threw the Seven Deadly Swords on the ground and said mockingly, "Stupid path practitioner! Is that all the ghoul overlord can do?"

Peter calmly took out a bottle of wine and took a sip from it. He glanced at The Swordsman, saying, "The show has just begun. Why are you in a hurry?"

When the students saw their principal killing the ghoul, they cheered.

Skadi jumped up with joy. "Woohoo! Cillian is awesome!"

Cillian put a hand behind his back and pointed the Quiet Winds Sword at the ground.

No one noticed the red spider web-like lines appearing around the wound on his back.

Lloyd went up to Cillian and stared at the corpse, cautiously asking,

Is that thing dead?"

Cillian shook his head. "It's not dead. Martial brother, take th students away from Quiet Winds Church!"

Lloyd was stunned. "The Nine-Character Mantra didn't kill it?"

The ghoulish overlord slammed its palm on the ground as it got bac its feet with a roar.

The hole in its chest had completely healed,

Cillian growled, "Leave now!"

"Cillian..."

When Lloyd noticed Cillian's black lips and flashing red eyes, he realized that he had been bitten by the ghoulish overlord.

"Take care of yourself..."

Lloyd's eyes were brimming with tears. He turned around and ran toward the main hall.

Chapter 833

However, he had only run a few steps when a large hand pierced through his chest.

The withering hand held his beating heart.

“Martial brother...”

Cillian rushed over with the Quiet Winds Sword in his hand.

The ghoull overlord shook its right hand, and Lloyd’s bloody flesh fell to the ground.

All of this happened right before Skadi’s eyes. Warm blood even splattered onto her face.

The ghoull overlord stared at Skadi while taking a bite out of Lloyd’s heart.

He chewed on it.

Skadi’s eyes rolled backward as she fainted and fell to the ground

“You’re dead, beast...”

Cillian furiously flew toward him with the Quiet Winds Sword.

The ghoull overlord jumped up and fought back.

Quiet Winds Church was shaking.

The Mountain Shield Formation was activated.

The runes in the formation started shaking, and a thunderbolt struck the ghoull overlord.

Chandan

However, the ghoull overlord was left unscathed.

200

After the ghoull overlord knocked Cillian away with a single hand, he punched the rune emitting the thunder.

His fist hit the formation, distorting the air.

Fortunately, it barely damaged the formation. Instead, it seemed to have angered it, so it released more thunderbolts.

In an instant, the ghoull overlord was wrapped in thunderbolts.

Golden chains made of runes tightly wrapped around the ghoull overlord.

Peter frowned. "I didn't know this wretched place would have such a powerful Mountain Shield Formation!"

Boris smiled and asked, "Do you need us to interfere?"

Peter looked at the ghoul overlord being tied up in the golden chain.

and said, "No!"

As soon as he said that, the Quiet Winds Sword in Cillian's hands pierced the heart of the ghoul overlord inside the formation.

"You stubborn man!"

The Swordsman sneered as he flew up with the Seven Deadly Sword in his hands, striking the formation.

The blade fiercely struck the transparent barrier, and the counterforce sent The Swordsman flying more than 20 meters away.

Chapte1 133

Several thunderbolts struck The Swordsman.

The Swordsman was taken aback. He quickly lifted his sword to shield his chest.

The thunderbolt spread all over The Swordsman's body through the Seven Deadly Swords while he used his true energy to fight it.

The thunderbolt overpowered him, blasting his true energy away immediately.

His skin smelled like roasted meat. He fell to the ground while his body was still in flames.

The Swordsman supported himself while staggering. The power of the Mystique Loyalty Realm in him emitted vast amounts of true energy, offsetting the power of the thunderbolt and extinguishing the flames on his body.

Peter burst out laughing as he said, "That's not just any ordinary.

formation. Your strength isn't even a third of the ghoul overlord's. How could you fight the formation?"

The Swordsman returned to Peter with a darkened face.

His face was literally burned.

Boris held back his anger and said in a deep voice, "The ghou overlord is no match for this formation. We need to come u way to help it!"

Peter took a big gulp of wine and said, "No means no. You're underestimating the strength of the ghoull overlord!"

CAM 35

Boris froze.

Had the ghoull overlord not used all its strength?

Just then, the ghoull overlord broke free from the chains and fell to the ground.

It was bent over, staring at Cillian like a ferocious beast.

A deafening roar came from the ghoull overlord's mouth.

Huge whiffs of black mist were coming from the ghoull overlord. Within the black mist, countless ghost faces appeared.

They were roaring and breaking free from the mist as if they were crawling out of a swamp. Next, they rushed toward the people inside

Quiet Winds Church.

Chapter 834

Most of the students were just ordinary people who practiced self-cultivation.

There were only a handful of them who could perform basic Path techniques, and an even smaller number had achieved the Energy Cultivation Realm.

All of them were peeing their pants.

Hundreds of students started fleeing.

Caine appeared with a sword and shouted, “Big Dipper Formation!”

Hearing that, the elders drew out their swords and followed Caine toward the ghoull overlord.

Six elders lined up according to the Big Dipper stars.

The Big Dipper Formation required seven people, but they only had six.

Cillian held his sword and soared into the air. He turned around and fell into position, forming the Big Dipper formation with the o ix elders.

Then, the seven of them attacked the ghoull overlord at the same

Outside the entrance, Duncan gulped and asked, “Master Peter, is Peter replied with a faint smile, “The Big Dipper Formation is the mos “They’ll surround the enemy and combine the principles of one source, two energies, three realms, four symbols, five elements, six directions, seven stars, eight trigrams, and nine palaces.

“The formation is unpredictable, so it’s very powerful. The sevent people can work together to attack or defend. It’s one of the most unique Path arrays!”

Boris smiled when he saw Peter’s relaxed expression. “You don’t look worried that the ghouls will be defeated at all, Master Peter!”

Peter laughed. “The ghouls are my most perfect creation. How could it fail me so easily?”

Smirking, Boris continued watching the show.

Inside the formation, many Path takers were already lying on the ground, bleeding to death.

A five-year-old Path taker was crying, looking for his master.

He was wearing a black outfit with a black hat.

His big round eyes were full of tears.

Skadi slowly regained consciousness, but when she saw a ghost face walking toward her, she held her breath and played dead.

The ghost face circled her a few times before drifting away.

Skadi opened her eyes and looked at what was happening.

Cillian was leading the elders of Quiet Winds Church to join forces and defeat the ghoul overlord.

The ghoul overlord grabbed a person’s neck and squeezed hard, detaching their head from their body.

Skadi’s stomach flipped upside down as she shivered among the dead.

“Master... Where are you?” The kid burst into tears.

“Ow...”

A ghost face rushed toward the child with its teeth and claws bared.

Seeing this, Skadi stood up and ran over.

She knocked the child down, covering his nose and eyes.

The ghost faces relied on people's breathing to find them. As long as they stopped breathing, they would not be able to find them.

Skadi whispered, "Don't cry... I'll get you out of here!"

Then, she picked up the kid and left quietly.

They had only taken a few steps before a shadow flew past sword nailed a person onto the Quiet Winds Church plaque.

Skadi was startled. She took a closer look and saw that it was with both hands and pulling hard.

The sword was pulled out, and the plaque shattered while Cillian fell to the ground.

Skadi landed on the ground too as she looked inside the church.

The ghoul overlord waved its gigantic hands, and a huge crack appeared in the church. Two elders were split in half.

Skadi ran away immediately.

She carried Cillian and the kid while running toward the restricted area in the mountains.

The remaining elders were soon defeated.

The ghoul overlord took their hearts and feasted on them.

It was not satisfied enough, so it leaned over to drink their blood.

Then, the ghoul overlord went on a killing spree.

Wherever it went, blood flowed like a river.

Chapter 835

At the entrance, Peter found a flaw in the formation.

The Swordsman and Boris joined forces to attack that flaw. After several blows, the formation shattered.

After the ghoull overlord tore apart the last elder, it jumped into the air and landed in the restricted area of the mountain.

Skadi was about to take a breather when the ghoull overlord landed in front of her.

“G-Grandpa... It’s me, Skade!”

Trembling, Skadi said while retreating.

The ghoull overlord tilted its head at the little boy in Skadi’s arms, seemingly interested in him.

“I’m scared...”

The little boy cried in fear.

The ghoull overlord appeared in front of Skadi and grabbed th boy in her arms.

Just then, several beams of light emerged from the tombs in the restricted area.

The bright lights transformed into heavenly figures in yellow robe each of them wielding a sword. They slashed their swords toward the ghoul overlord at the same time.

Charve

Then, more lights emitted from the tombs behind them.

In an instant, 18 yellow-robed figures launched an attack on the ghoul overlord.

The ghoul overlord was starting to retreat under their attack.

“K-Kill it!”

Skadi clenched her fists as a sign of moral support.

In the next second, the ghoul overlord opened its mouth and swallowed one of the lost souls.

Soon, it swallowed all 18 of them.

Skadi gulped and ran toward the edge of the cliff.

She looked at the pool of water below with some hesitation.

There were several stone pillars around it. Even if she was in stage six of the Energy Cultivation Realm, she would be crushed to pieces.

However, if she did not jump, the ghoulish overlord would eat her heart for dinner.

Even so, she would rather die than have her heart eaten by the

overlord.

Skadi aimed at the water and jumped with all her might.

The little boy clung to Skadi's neck tightly.

With a splash, Skadi fell into the water. It took some time before she floated upward.

She reached out to fish the little boy out of the water and turned around to look for Cillian.

When she saw the purple-robed man lying on the stone pillar, she felt bad.

She hoped that he was not badly injured!

Skadi swam toward the stone pillar and dragged Cillian into the water.

Then, the ghoul overlord descended from the sky.

Skadi's face turned pale. She dived into the water, desperately trying to swim deeper. =

When the ghoul overlord was about to approach the water, the stone pillars suddenly changed shape.

The eight stone pillars spliced together, forming a well-like opening.

Arconnechoed throughout the entire place.

A dragonhead made of clear water emerged from the well. The dragonhead opened its mouth and spewed water onto the gh overlord, freezing it solid.

The ghoul overlord turned into an ice sculpture and sank to the bottom, but it took a few moments before the ice started cracking.

Peter and the others had made their way to the restricted area.

Boris looked confused. "What was that sound?"

Peter took a deep breath and said, "It sounded like a dragon's roar..."

Then, he narrowed his eyes and said, "Could there be a dragon.

meridian in the water?"

After saying that, he jumped in.

The Swordsman and Boris exchanged glances before jumping in too.

A dragon meridian was a top-tier cultivation resource. They could not let Peter have it all to himself.

Half an hour later, the three of them came up with a meter-long skeleton.

Peter laughed and said, "It's a dragon meridian. With this, the ghou overlord will be even stronger!"

Chapter 836

The Swordsman and Boris were ecstatic.

The dragon meridian contained large amounts of spiritual energy.

Breaking through the Profound Oriental Realm would no longer be a dream now.

Peter held the dragon meridian in his hands and took out a large number of immobilization runes, sticking them onto the ghou

overlord.

The ghoulord closed its eyes, and the evil spirit in its body disappeared. Peter took out a metal chain and tied it around the ghoulord's neck. "Let's go back and have a drink!"

After saying that, he led the ghoulord outside of the restricted area.

Skadi swam for God knew how long with Cillian on her back and the kid in her arms. She was out of breath, and her limbs were almost numb from exhaustion.

Finally, she saw fire next to a cave in front of her.

It was Bianca.

Skadi shouted excitedly, "Bianca, come help me...."

When Bianca heard Skadi's voice, she immediately jumped into water and swam over. When she saw Cillian covered in blood, asked, "What's going on?"

What happened in the past two hours?

Skadi handed the kid to Bianca and said with lingering fear, "Let's get out of here first!"

Bianca guessed that something had happened to Quiet Winds Church, so she left without asking any more questions and carried the kid into the cave.

At the foot of the mountain where Quiet Winds Church was, Atlas' car swerved and stopped at the entrance.

After the two people got out of the car, they hurried up the mountain.

Halfway up the mountain, they detected the pungent smell of blood.

Eric saw with his Third Eye that the Mountain Shied Formation had disappeared on the mountain peak.

"Damn it... Where's the Mountain Shield Formation?"

Eric's face darkened. He climbed up the mountain as quickly as possible while Atlas followed closely behind.

Ten minutes later, Eric stood in the center of Quiet Winds Church, and his face almost turned into ice.

Atlas was panting. When he saw the scene before him, he almost collapsed.

Corpses were scattered on the ground with wide eyes and faces of fear.

“L-Look for any survivors...” Eric said hoarsely.

They split up to examine the bodies on the ground.

Half an hour later, they met again in the center.

Eric could guess what the outcome was, but he asked anyway, “Are there any survivors?”

Atlas shook his head and said with a pale face, “Even the cats they raised in the courtyard are dead!”

Eric clenched his fists, smiling bitterly. “How am I going to explain this to Nash?”

Nash told him that the ghoull overlord would come to the church, but he still could not prevent the tragedy from happening.

Atlas pursed his lips, not knowing how to comfort his master.

Eric paid respect to the deceased according to the rituals of the Path.

Then, he went back down the mountain with Atlas.

Eric sat in the passenger seat and took out a cigarette to relieve his stress.

Meanwhile, Atlas called the Inspection Office.

After they drove 200 meters away, two women ran out of the woods.

They were drenched in water with hair stuck to their faces. They looked miserable.

“Stop the car...”

Skadi waved her hand exhaustedly.

Chappe

Atlas was going to ignore her, but Eric noticed that she was carrying a purple-robed priest while the other woman was holding a kid in her arms.

They were wearing the same clothes as those from Quiet Winds Church, which meant that they were their people.

“Stop the car!”

Eric immediately shouted, and Atlas slammed on the brakes.

Chapter 837

When Eric opened the door and got out of the car, Skadi was stunned.

Was he not the wretched man from the other day?

Eric frowned and asked, “Did you escape from Quiet Winds Church?”

Skadi nodded. “Something happened at Quiet Winds Church. We have to call the police!”

Eric opened the door and said, “Get in. We’ve already called the police!”

After they got in, Eric closed the door for them and got into the front passenger seat.

Atlas floored the accelerator and sped off.

“Ah-choo... I’m cold!”

The little kid sneezed and shivered.

Bianca hugged the little guy tightly and said, “Does this feel bor?”

The kid shook his head. “You’re as cold as ice!”

Atlas turned on the heater and said, “There are heater blankets heater cushions behind the seats. That’ll help for now!”

Bianca found the blanket and wrapped it around the kid while holdi him in her arms.

Skadi sat in the middle seat while Cillian was in the window seat.

Cillian had fallen into a coma after being poisoned, so he was leaning on Skadi’s shoulder.

Skadi held Cillian’s bony hands and blew warm air into them.

Bianca whispered, “Skadi, where are we going?”

Skadi then realized that she had not told them where to go, so she said, "Um... please take us to Royal Bay, thank you..."

She was not sure whether Cillian would turn into a ghoul after getting bitten by one, so she wanted to let Nash take a look at him.

Eric exhaled a puff of smoke and said hoarsely, "We live in Royal Bay too..."

Then, Atlas suddenly asked, "Is your name Skadi Zabel? Are you Zakariah Zabel's granddaughter?"

Skadi nodded. "You know who I am?"

Atlas smiled and said, "I went over to your house to deliver a protection amulet a few days ago. You weren't home at the time, so it was your grandfather who greeted me!"

Skadi nodded and looked at the wretched man. "Do you know sh?"

When her grandfather gave her the amulet, he said that Nash made it for them.

Atlas said, "Nash is my grandmaster, and the person next to me master. I've been close friends with Nash for many years!"

Skadi was so embarrassed she wanted to crawl into a hole.

Nash's friends were not ordinary people, yet she managed to get herself involved with them.

She hoped that they would not blame her.

After an hour, the car stopped at Royal Bay Villa 14.

Eric said, "Come into our house. Nash is busy right now, but I know how to cure the ghoulish poison!"

Atlas got out of the car first.

Bianca held the kid in her arms as she entered the villa. Skadi was going to carry Cillian, but Atlas said, "I'll do it!"

Skadi shook her head. "You've helped us a lot already. I'll do it!"

After saying that, she carried Cillian on her back and entered the villa.

When Jesebel saw a guest carrying a wounded person, she immediately spread an absorbent towel on the couch.

Skadi placed Cillian on the towel while Eric checked his wounds.

The artery in his neck had been bitten. Fortunately, Cillian had used his true energy to seal the wound.

“Jesebel, get me some sticky wheat.”

Eric had been poisoned by the ghoul overlord once, so he knew ho to get rid of the poison.

Jesebel went into the kitchen and brought out a bowl of sticky wheat

Eric grabbed a handful of it and pressed it onto Cillian’s neck. Smoke rose from the wound while both the wound and the wheat burned black.

He then pressed his hand onto Cillian’s chest and poured his true energy into him.

Chap 13/

Jesebel brought a hair dryer and a heater, saying, “You can blow dry your hair and your clothes!”

Skadi took the hair dryer and thanked her. She handed it to Biancal and said, “Help the little guy dry his clothes first!”

Bianca took off the kid's hat. The next moment, long, beautiful hair came cascading down.

She said with surprise, "You're a girl?"

Chapter 838

She was barely five years old, so she had no idea what happened in the mountains.

Skadi looked at Yoyo's innocent eyes. She could not bear to lie to her, but she also dared not tell the truth. After a moment of silence, she said gently, "Your master has gone to a faraway place, so you won't be able to find him for the time being."

The light in Yoyo's innocent eyes disappeared. She lowered her head and said sadly, "Master would always tell me before he went down the mountain. Does he not love me anymore?"

Skadi kneeled and hugged Yoyo in her arms. She said softly, "No, your master will always love you. From now on, I will love you too!"

Yoyo pressed her lips together and nodded. "In that case, I'll be the apple of your eye from now on!"

Just then, Cillian coughed and opened his eyes. His deep pupils had long lost their brilliance.

"Cillian..."

Skadi walked over nervously and was pained when she s

Cillian turned his head slowly to look at the people in the liv

When he saw Skadi, the knit in his eyebrows loosened up.

Yoyo, who was behind Skadi, had already put on her little hat. Sh Cillian disregarded Yoyo and stared at Skadi weakly. He asked, "Dic anyone else escape?"

Skadi pursed her lips as she dared not reply. Cillian was already.

seriously injured, so she was afraid that he would not be able to take another hit.

However, Cillian already understood from Skadi's silence.

He closed his eyes in despair as tears fell from the corner of his eyes.

"Now you regret it? Didn't I remind you to activate the Mountain Shield Formation? It's because of your stubbornness that..."

Eric noticed Yoyo hiding behind Skadi, so he tried not to be so blunt.

"Hey, how can you treat a patient like that?"

Skadi defended Cillian.

He was almost dying. How could Eric provoke him even more?

Eric glanced at Skadi and said calmly, "If you have nothing else to do here, go back. Only he can stay here for a couple of days..."

Skadi said, "No, I want to stay and take care of him!"

Eric smiled and asked, "Do you know how old he is?"

He could tell that Skadi had feelings for Cillian.

Judging from Cillian's appearance and bone age, he looked li was in his 60s, while Skadi was clearly in her early 20s.

With their age difference, it would not be an exaggeration to call it grandparent and grandchild relationship.

Skadi said proudly, "It's none of your business!"

Chapter 839

She criticized Eric for making a move on a young girl before, but she was getting a taste of her own medicine now.

"I don't care..."

Skadi looked away arrogantly.

Atlas said softly, "Miss, this way, please..."

Since Skadi was acquainted with Nash and Nash was his grandmaster, he dared not be too aggressive.

However, Skadi sat on the couch and crossed her legs, saying, "I said

I'm going to stay and take care of him..."

Atlas narrowed his eyes at her. He held back his anger and forced a smile, saying, "If you want to take care of him, you can take care of him back at your place!"

Skadi knew that Atlas was the son of the Kennedy family, so sh dared not be too presumptuous. She toned down her arrogant behavior.

How could she step down?

Did she really have to take Cillian away with her?

How could she save him after he was bitten by a zombie?

Skadi was in an awkward position.

Bianca saw Skadi's expression and shook her head, laughing. She said, "Skade, isn't it your grandpa's birthday tonight? Let's go back and celebrate with him!"

“Huh?”

Skadi did not understand at first, but when she saw Bianca winking at her, she immediately understood that she was helping her escape the situation. She quickly said, “Oh, right! It’s my grandpa’s birthday today. I have to go home now!”

After saying that, she held Yoyo’s hand and walked out.

Bianca shook her head and smiled awkwardly at Eric. “I’m sorry about my best friend. As a Heavenly Master, you wouldn’t be mad at her, right?”

How could he be mad when Bianca was being so nice? She was hoping that by apologizing, the Heavenly Master would not blame

Skadi.

“I don’t hold grudges against women!”

Eric shooed them away. He was angry before, but since the pretty woman had apologized on Skadi’s behalf, he would seem to still be mad about it.

Besides, Skadi knew Nash.

Since he and Winnie were together now, he would probably b in Jonford for a long time in the future.

It was not a good idea to offend someone he would be seeing regularly in the future.

dle-aged men were handcuffed and fext and escorted out by ind the inspector.

em were several women with elusive ensivepeyes and bruises all over their bodies.

They were criminals who shot R-rated videos and broadcast them live for profit.

Felicity easily subdued them and rescued the victims locked in the basement.

After she turned down Angelica, who offered to send her to Royal Bay, Felicity walked for ten minutes to the side of the road to hail a taxi.

A Mercedes-Benz G-class was parked not far away, and a charming young man in glasses leaned out of the window. Smiling, he asked, "

Where are you heading, beautiful?"

Chapter 840

They were in the countryside..

There were street lights every hundred meters on both sides of the road.

She did not know if it was an illusion, but when the Mercedes-Benz stopped, the street lights seemed to dim a little.

Felicity shook her head and said, "It's okay, I'll wait!"

The man in glasses was polite and handsome, but Felicity did not find him attractive. If anything, she found him repulsive.

The young man said, "A car accident happened at the back, so very few cars are passing by now. If you're going to the city, I can give you a free ride!"

He was not lying. He saw a truck driver with road rage, so Peter used Path techniques to crash the vehicle, killing everyone in it.

Felicity glanced at the road behind her. It was quiet, and there were no cars.

She did not want to waste time, so she decided to hitch
the man in his Mercedes-Benz.

They were

She was not afraid of encountering bad people unless they powerful martial artists. However, she did not feel any inner fluctuations from the young man.

When he saw Felicity approaching, he helped open the passenger side door.

Felicity glanced at the back seat. There were two old men and one Path taker.

The two old men had their eyes closed as they were resting, while the Path taker smiled at her.

The young man explained, "These three are going to the city too, so I picked them up along the way!"

Felicity sat in the passenger seat dubiously.

Suddenly, there was a loud sound from the back seat.

The entire car jolted.

When Felicity looked behind, she saw Peter with a hand on his head.

He was smiling. "Sorry, I hit my head!"

The young man in the driver's seat asked, "Miss, are you not from here?"

Felicity shook her head and said, "I'm from Jonford, but I just got back from overseas!"

The young man glanced at the bag on her back and said wit

Your bag is quite unique. I didn't think that people still use th these days. One might think that you're a hero roaming the wo punishing criminals!"

Felicity smiled. "You're not wrong, so I'd advise you not to do anyth bad!"

The car jolted again..

Peter covered his head and shouted again.

Felicity had been looking in the rearview mirror the entire time. When the car jolted just now, the Path taker did not hit his head at all, which meant that they were hiding people in the trunk.

Felicity smiled inwardly.

It seemed like they were an elderly criminal gang.

There was a good chance that there were tied up and gagged women in the trunk.

“Um... Can you stop the car in front? I kind of need to pee!”

Felicity pretended to be embarrassed.

The car was too cramped, so it would be difficult for her to take action.

The young man smiled and said, “Wait a little longer. We’ll be there soon.”

Felicity’s eyebrows furrowed as the aura of a grandmaster off her. She narrowed her eyes and said coldly, “I said, sto Don’t you understand?”

The young man pushed up his glasses on the bridge of his n

Felicity grabbed the young man's wrist, but before she could to him, a strong hand grabbed her wrist.

It was the old Path taker.

Peter chuckled and said, "You're a young lady. You shouldn't be using physical violence!"

Felicity's eyes were cold. She used her true energy to break free from the Path taker's hand, but she realized that her true energy was immobilized.

The old Path taker was a martial artist, and he had at least the strength of a grandmaster.

The car jolted again.

Peter smiled and asked, "Miss... what exactly do you have in that bag?"

The ghoul overlord had been quiet after returning from Quiet Winds Church, but he had been restless for the past five minutes.

When they saw the woman standing on the roadside, the closer they got, the more restless the ghoul overlord became.

Peter reckoned that the woman was carrying a great treasure.
