

CEO Bride 90

Chapter 90

Xeno quickly said, "I'll accompany Mr. Nash. Mr. Skye, you stay in the car!"

"Neither of you need to get out... I can handle this myself!"

Nash got out of the car and closed the door.

On the way here, he listened to Xeno talking about the power of the Green Bamboo Association.

It had 18 branches nationwide with over 30 thousand members.

Such power was indeed daunting.

Backing the Dragon Tiger Gate was the Skyes, and it had numerous branches across the country as well as a power that could rival the Green Bamboo Association.

Nash did not want to cause conflict between the Green Bamboo Association and the Dragon Tiger Gate because of his own affairs.

A clash between these two major forces would only disrupt social order.

Nash quickly approached Salvatore and the others.

Salvatore shouted to the people behind him, "What's wrong with you guys? Walk faster..."

Instantly, the densely packed crowd quickened their pace to catch up with Nash.,

Inside the luxury car, Xeno spoke with a deep voice, "Mr. Skye, who exactly is this Mr. Nash? I sense a strong aura of killing intent from him!"

Looking into the cold eyes of the person in front of him, he felt an inexplicable sense of dread.
Nonetheless, he had experienced countless fights and killings.
Thus, he quickly suppressed his fear.

He blew smoke onto Nash’s face with a smile, saying, “I’ve had my fun with Hera... Her body is exquisite...”

Nash delivered a punch.

The other man’s head exploded like a watermelon that had fallen from a great height.

A deathly silence took place.

The members of the Green Bamboo Association and Salvatore’s men were experiencing a mental shutdown.

Even Xeno, who was in the luxury car, could not help but shiver.

There were disputes and fights between the four major forces, but at most, they only resulted in severed hands or feet.

Someone might accidentally kill another person, but they had never seen a person’s head explode like a squashed watermelon.

This intense visual shock made the scalps of the group of villains go numb.

Theo laughed as he shook his head. “It’s never good to provoke anyone, but he just had to provoke my Nashy!”

In fact, their presence was unnecessary.
