Chapter 151 What Kind Of Child Did I Give Birth To

Nicole tried to persuade Kerr, but obviously he wasn't going to change his mind. He just stood beside her.

Now, it was a critical period, so Kerr didn't want to leave Nicole. Since the identities of Nicole and Jay had been exposed to everyone, he didn't have to care about that anymore.

"I promised you that I would never ever leave you and Jay again."

When she saw the determined look on Kerr's face, Nicole smiled faintly and could only sigh helplessly to Freya, so she planned to leave with Kerr. She did not want to let Kerr do something against his will.

"Miss Ning, though Kerr doesn't care about these things, they are very important to him. I hope Miss Ning can pay attention."

Freya knew that now they could only try to influence Nicole. Only she could persuade Kerr. Freya couldn't watch Kerr being so capricious.

Hearing what she said, Nicole sighed slightly and looked up at Kerr.

"Let's go to the Gu family together."

Finally, she made a compromise for Kerr. She wanted to stay with him, maybe in another way. If she helped Kerr guard everything that belonged to him, would she be able to let Freya see her advantages.

Maybe the Gu family would not want to separate them.

She had already lost her biological parents, so her marriage was doomed to be without parents' blessing. However, she still hoped that if she really married to Kerr one day, she could be blessed by the Gu family.

No one didn't want to get the approval of their own parents even if it was Kerr who didn't care about it.

"Nicole, what I want is you, and the one you want to be with is me. So you don't need to compromise for anyone or anything. You just need to be yourself."

Kerr was the reason why Nicole made a compromise. But he didn't want to make her feel wronged. He Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

"As long as I'm alive, I'm still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses."

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she learned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

's wife would come, so he deliberately called him father so his wife could hear that.

Jay looked at Kerr behind him, and then looked at the serious expression on Nicole. He had to confess.

"I took the phone when he was not paying attention. When Uncle Su took me out, I called him."

He skipped the part about he using Harley's identity to order the security

"You!"

Nicole couldn't do anything to him. When the elders were so troubled, she didn't expect that he, a child, would be able to analyze the value of everyone clearly.

She really doubted what kind of child she gave birth to. Generally speaking, children would be frightened and cry when faced with such a situation. However, Jay was not only fine, but could also help them.

"Is Harley your accomplice?"

Kerr knew that no one would listen to a child before Jay's identity was exposed. In this case, only one person who was able to let Sven's wife in. It was Harley.

"No, he didn't expect that. I went to tell the guard at the gate, but I asked Uncle Su to carry me there."

With a proud look, Jay was looking forward to Kerr's praise.

Even though Jay was clever and highly intelligent, he was still a child.

Chapter 152 Lying In Front Of The Kid

Before Kerr could say anything, Nicole said to Jay seriously, her words full of worry.

"Jay, I know you helped me a lot this time, but I still want to tell you that it's the business between adults and I don't need you to engage in it, understand?"

"No matter what happens, I will never change my love for you. No matter what happens, I will solve it. You should believe Mommy."

Nicole knew that she had to face a lot of difficulties on the way to be together with Kerr in the future, so she had been ready for it. She had to remind Jay that she didn't want him to be hurt in any way.

When he saw the worried look on Nicole's face, he nodded earnestly and acted like a well behaved child.

"I know, Mommy."

"Don't be so nervous. You should also learn to trust me."

Kerr raised his hand and stroked Nicole head dotingly. "No matter what happened and whether Jay is my child or not, it's the same to me. Do you understand?"

He still remembered that when he first met Jay, he had suspected him to be his kid, but every time he found any clue, Nicole would tell him that he was wrong.

When he thought of the lies that Nicole had told him, how much he hoped that they were true. It would be so good if Jay was his son, but he had already seen the results of the paternity test.

Hearing this, Nicole lowered her head to avoid eye contact with him.

"It is you who believed it. It's none of my business."

She would never admit it. So she turned her head and looked out of the window. It was dark outside, but her heart was full of hope. She felt warm in her heart when she thought that Kerr was willing to accept her without knowing who Jay's father was.

Perhaps this was the best test for Kerr. Fortunately, he passed the test. Therefore, no matter what difficulties he encountered in the futu

Eventually she stormed off after she learned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

When they walked into the living room, only Freya was in the room. So Kerr guessed what would happen.

"Kerr, your father has something to tell you about work. He is waiting for you in the study. Go upstairs and tell Miss Ning to wait for you here."

When she saw Kerr and Nicole appear in front of her, she looked at their clasped hands.

"Let's go together."

Obviously, Kerr didn't intend to let go of Nicole's hand. He held her hand and led her to the stairs, but she didn't step forward. She held Kerr's hand and stood still.

"Kerr, you can go now. I'll wait for you here. I'm not suitable to be present when it comes to the Gu Group. Don't worry. I can't run away. I'll just wait for you here. I can have a good talk with Aunt Freya."

She knew that Jack and Freya separated them on purpose so that they could be broken up one by one. But she wanted them to see the determination of her and Kerr.

"Wait for me."

As he looked into Nicole's eyes, Kerr knew what she was going to do. He kissed her gently on the forehead and sent her hand away, walking towards the study upstairs.

Watching the figure of Kerr disappear on the stairs, Nicole turned around and looked at Freya with a smile.

Chapter 153 Not Approved

"Mrs. Gu, you must have something to tell me."

Sitting opposite to Freya, Nicole had probably guessed her intention.

"What do you want for leaving Kerr? Money? Future? Whatever you say. "

There was no time for her to beat around the bush with Nicole, so she went straight to the point. She looked at Nicole sharply with a disgusted expression on her face.

Jack had let Moore come back. Obviously, what he had said before was not joking. Therefore, she would not allow Kerr to lose the opportunity to inherit the Gu Group because of Nicole.

"If you have to think of me in this way, then please forgive me to be impolite."

These words had been heard many times, so there was no surprise for Nicole at all. Now it seemed that everyone wanted them to be separated.

It seemed that as long as they were together, it was an unpardonable mistake. In fact, they did nothing, but unconsciously, falling in love was also a mistake.

"Kerr is your son, so I'd like to know the answer of a question. How much money do you think Kerr is worth? Or what conditions could make you give up your son? "

"I am also a mother. I know no matter what kind of condition is in front of me, I will not give up my son. Only one thing, I will let go of him without hesitation. It is that he will be happy."

"I give him life in the hope that he can grow up happily. I don't want him to be my puppet, but to choose the life and future he wants."

Nicole was quite honest. She knew that no matter what she did, the Gu family would never recognize her and Evan, so she didn't have to compromise.

"Miss Ning, happiness is not the only feeling in this world. People have a lot of things to do, so we have to learn to choose."

"You don't know what Kerr has done for you, do you? Kerr wants a st ntity of Jay.

"I'm also thinking for Miss Ning. It's good for you and Kerr."

With a faint smile, Nicole stood up and intended to end today's conversation.

"I understand what you mean, Mrs. Gu. If there isn't anything else, I'll leave first. By the way, Mrs. Gu, I hope you understand. I was with Kerr because I fell in love with him."

"It has nothing to do with his last name, whether his surname is Gu or whatever. What I want is him. As for what Mrs. Gu has said, I don't care. I believe that Kerr won't care about it, too. Bye."

She didn't want to stay in this cold place any longer. She couldn't imagine how Kerr grew up in such a cold place. When she thought of this, her heart ached for him even more.

She walked towards the door. With such a family and such a mother, she didn't have much to say. She just felt sorry for Kerr.

She also decided to give Kerr more love in the future to live up to his choice for her.

Looking at the determined back of Nicole, a trace of anger emerged on Freya's face. She did not expect that her words would be in vain.

"Miss Ning, I'm afraid that in the future, Kerr will leave you after realizing that love is not so important."

Chapter 154 The Warmth Only She Could Give

This was her anticipation for the future of Nicole and Kerr, and also what she hoped. In other words, she hoped that Kerr would realize early that the so-called love was not so important.

The marriage between Freya and Jack was a commercial one. In order to consolidate the power of the Gu family and the Qin family, they could live under the same roof, so naturally, Freya thought that love was not important.

Hearing Freya's voice, Nicole felt pathetic. She shook her head and did not want to explain to her anymore. She just left the Gu family directly.

In the study on the second floor, Jack was sitting behind the desk, Moore was sitting opposite him, and Kerr was standing in front of the French window, looking at the darkness outside.

"I've decided to let Moore enter the GR group and replace Nicole Ning to be the new project director of the project department. The project got from the bidding will also be handed over to Moore too as a transition for him."

"After this project is finished, Moore would be the vice president of the company and take over the Gu Group with you."

There was firmness in Jack's words. He was not discussing with Kerr at all, but just informed him. Even if Kerr was the president of the Gu Group, who had been in charge of the company for many years, also had the shares of the Gu Group.

However, Jack owned the most share. Therefore, he had a say in the company, which was a method Jack used to control Kerr.

Hearing Jack's decision, a trace of feigned surprise appeared on his face. Looking at Jack, he said.

"Dad, I don't think it's a good idea. My eldest brother has been managing the group all the time and I'm not familiar with it. Forget it. He didn't make any mistakes before I came back. I don't think it's appropriate for me to get into the Gu Group all of a sudden."

Moore refus

When he was about to walk outside, it was already dark outside. If Nicole went back alone, she might be in danger. Kerr was worried about her, so he was about to go out to look for her, but Freya stopped him.

"Kerr, don't give up more important things just because of a good feeling for a moment. You have to seize those that should belong to you. Believe me, I am the only person in the world who won't hurt you."

When she was about to grab Kerr's hand, she was avoided by him.

Turning his face to one side, Kerr observed Freya. She looked like a stranger. They were close but he felt that they were very far away.

"No, thanks. Only Nicole can give me what I want."

After that, he left the old house without looking back. On the way out of his home, he looked for Nicole on the roadside and soon saw the thin figure sitting on the roadside.

The car stopped by the side of Nicole, and Kerr opened the door to get off. Nicole just sat on the side of the road without looking up at him.

When she felt that someone was approaching her, she sensed a familiar scent and lifted the corners of her mouth. She kept the same posture for a while, which made her feet a little numb, so she didn't move or look at Kerr.

Chapter 155 How Did You Know I Didn't Say Yes

"Why are you sitting here? Are you wronged? "

When Kerr saw the lifeless Nicole, he thought she was feeling bad, so he carefully lifted her up, but when he saw the smile on her face, he was relieved.

"How dare you deceive me?"

When he was about to lift Nicole up, he heard that she refused him.

"Don't, don't touch me."

She did want to bluff him, but when she heard his concerned voice, she decided not to do that.

"What's wrong?"

When Kerr heard the scream of Nicole, he thought she was injured, so he examined her immediately.

"Don't worry. It's just the feet are numb. It will recover soon."

Nicole slightly stretched her body to make herself feel better. Then she was carried by Kerr to the passenger seat. She looked at the side face of Kerr who was driving, smiling.

"What did your father say to you?"

"What did my mother say to you?"

They said at the same time. Nicole laughed. Seeing that, Kerr was relieved.

"Nothing. She just asked me to leave you as soon as possible. She said that if I left you, I would get a big sum of money."

She looked at Kerr expectantly, as if she had already seen the light of money.

"Then why didn't you say yes?"

He sensed the surprise in Nicole's tone, but he knew that she would never leave him for money.

"How do you know that I didn't say yes?"

Listening to the firm tone of Kerr, Nicole felt that he had already known that she would not leave him.

"If you agree, you won't be alone on the roadside."

In fact, it was not only so for if Nicole was really with him for money, she would have many opportunities to take the money with her and go away. But she didn't.

Besides, Kerr believed in the love between Nicole and him.

"I wanted to acc

Nicole didn't expect that Kerr would suddenly stop the car. She was shocked and the complacency on her face disappeared in an instant. Her little hand patted on the position of her heart.

"Oh my God! I'm almost scared to death!"

Hearing the whisper, Kerr raised his hand and gently stroked Nicole's long hair.

"Let's see if you dare to laugh at me again!"

There was a threat in his tone.

"You!"

Raising her head, she glared at him.

Her hand was grabbed by Kerr easily and he covered her mouth with his in the most direct way.

"Well..."

After slightly struggling, Nicole gave up. She got up the courage and responded to Kerr. She enjoyed the special feeling that Kerr brought to her and felt unprecedentedly satisfied.

When she closed her eyes, she felt that Kerr slowly put his chair flat. Worried as she was, she didn't push him away.

"Relax. Trust me."

On the other side, Kerr was whispering in Nicole's ear to comfort her. He could sense that, as he spoke, she gradually relaxed. Kerr slowly unzipped her dress.

Feeling cold on her body, Nicole hugged Kerr unconsciously and closed her eyes, not daring to look at him.

Chapter 156 Mommy Is Sleeping

The night was quiet but also wonderful.

It was not until dawn that Kerr let go of the exhausted Nicole. He held her in his arms and looked out of the window at the rising sun which was so beautiful.

"What are you thinking about?"

Looking at the silent look of Kerr, with curiosity in her eyes, Nicole snuggled in his arms, and she felt a sense of safety that she had never felt before.

She held Kerr's hand and looked at the lines on his palm with a smile.

"Thinking of you. Why didn't you sleep for a while?"

Kerr looked at her and kissed her on the forehead.

"I'm with you right now? Why do you think of me? I can't fall asleep. I'm tired, but I can't fall asleep. It's already dawn. Let's go home early. "

Looking out of the window, she felt unsafe even though it was still early and there were no vehicles on the road since she only wore a coat of Kerr.

Nicole's dress has been torn into pieces, so it's nearly impossible to wear it anymore.

"No matter where you are, you are in my heart."

In the end, Kerr gave a morning kiss to Nicole. Then he stood up and sat on the driver's seat. He started the car and was ready to leave, but in fact, he didn't tell her that there were no extra cars on the road, because this belonged to the Gu's family, so all the cars passing by here need a special pass.

There were surveillance cameras installed in this area every once in a while. So Kerr knew that their car couldn't escape from the eyes of Gu family, and he didn't want to hide at all.

He wanted to make it clear to the Gu Group that Nicole was his one and only woman.

"Have some sleep. I'll wake you up when we get home."

He smiled at Nicole, and then started the car and drove away.

As expected, the atmosphere in Jack's study was hea

mommy is sleeping."

He didn't stop his steps. Now Nicole only wore a business suit, it was improper for her to appear in front of Jay.

Hearing what Kerr said, Jay stopped talking. But when he was about to check if Nicole was fine, Kerr had carried her on the stairs, leaving Jay a graceful back.

Using his short legs, Jay chased after Kerr and Nicole. When he arrived at the door of Kerr's bedroom, she saw that the door was closed by Kerr at the same time.

"Clap, clap, clap!" Jay patted the bedroom door lightly with his small hand. He didn't dare to use too much strength in case of waking up Nicole, but no one paid attention to him.

"Uncle took Mommy away as soon as he appeared."

Jay turned around and left, with a trace of displeasure in his tone.

As if he didn't hear the knock, Kerr took off the clothes from Nicole. He carried her into the bathroom and filled the bathtub with warm water before he put her in.

Feeling the warm water flow all over her body, she smiled in her sleep. As if the surroundings made her feel safe, she had a deep sleep.

After giving a simple cleaning up to Nicole, Kerr carried her back to the bed and covered her with a quilt.

Chapter 157 I Really Want To Rebuild The Ning Group

Kerr gently kissed on the corner of Nicole's mouth, stood up and left.

He went downstairs and looked at a man and a boy in the living room who were playing international chess leisurely.

"I don't want to play it any more."

With a random push, Harley messed up the chess game in which he was bound to fail. He looked at Kerr as if he was looking at his family member and thought that he could finally get rid of it.

"Uncle Su, you lose the game. You can't break your promise just because I am a child."

Looking at the expression on Harley face, Jay reminded him earnestly.

"Who said that I would break my promise? Fine, but I can't do it now."

Saying that perfunctorily, Harley averted his eyes to Kerr.

"How is it going? Does his lordship want to force you to hand over your power? "

It was only an expected thing. It seemed that all parents liked to use this trick. It was the same with his escape from marriage and went abroad.

"More or less. It's not so serious. How is everything going with Ken?"

Kerr was going to put it on the agenda. Anyway, it was dangerous for both Jay and Nicole to stay there. Besides, Kerr had his own opinions about what had happened yesterday.

Hearing that, Harley shrugged his shoulders.

"I have called him. Ken said that everything is fine, but it will take some time. I guess you have to deal with something, too. There were so many coincidences last night."

After coming back last night, Harley also thought about the whole event carefully. If there were too many coincidences, it meant that someone had made it up.

After that, Kerr picked up the cup on the table and took a sip of water.

"This matter has something to do with the He family. I don't think it is that simple. I have asked Jared to investigate it. I have something else for you to do. "

Kerr knew that they would re, Nicole must tell Kerr her true thought.

"I know. I trust you."

When he looked at her, he kissed her forehead gently and made up his mind. But he didn't tell her the truth. In fact, he had made this decision since last night, but now he was even more determined.

Looking at the trust in Kerr's eyes, she felt relieved and her restless heart gradually calmed down.

"What are you going to do with Gregory Song and Fiona Zhao?"

She felt that there must be something wrong with what happened last night. When Kerr told her that he was going to deal with them, she didn't realize it. But now she was sure that she could find some information from them.

"Leave them to me. Don't worry."

As soon as he said this, his phone, which was put in his pocket, rang. Looking at the number on the screen, he put Nicole down, walked to the bedside, and answered the phone.

Kerr didn't say anything, just listening to the voice from the other end.

Nicole looked at the back of Kerr with doubts.

"Got it."

After he hung up the phone, he looked into Nicole's eyes and walked to her.

"I have something to deal with in the company. I'll come back later. You stay at home and don't go out. I'll send someone to protect here."

Chapter 158 Rebuild The Ning Group

On hearing the words of Kerr, Nicole nodded earnestly and watched him leave the villa.

Sitting in the car, Kerr's face was gloomy, not as gentle as before.

"Master, Moore came to the company early in the morning. He went directly to miss Ning's previous office and asked Lily for all the information about the new project. Now he is organizing a meeting to study the new plan."

Jared drove the car and briefly reported to Kerr about the company's situation. His voice was full of obvious worry. That Moore Gu entered the Gu Group so quickly could not be neglected.

"Besides, I got a call just now. He fired a few employees of Miss Ning and asked the personnel department to post new recruitment information."

After hearing this, a disdainful smile climbed up the corners of Kerr mouth. It was obvious that Moore was cultivating his own power at a fast pace. But it was too obvious for him to do so.

Kerr had always known that Moore was an ambitious man. He clearly remembered that when he appeared in the Gu family house, More was thin and small at that time, but when he looked at Kerr, his eyes were full of obvious jealousy.

That was why he had never been so intimate with Moore.

"He wants to cultivate his own power. Don't care about him. Help me to keep those who had been fired by Moore. They are useful. From now on, you should pay close attention to anyone who was fired by Moore and don't let Moore find out."

This plan had been in Kerr mind for a long time. Now it was the best time for him to take advantage of Moore's unreasonable behavior in the Gu Group.

Through the rearview mirror, Jared saw the smile on Kerr's face. Although he didn't understand what Kerr wanted to do, he nodded in agreement.

"I get it, Master, don't worry. Should we inform Moore Gu of the board meeting later? Yesterday, Uncle Kelvin told me that My Lord would attend the board of directors with Moore. "

There was a hint of cautiousness in Jared's tone. It saw the new Ning Group.

This was a great gift he gave to Nicole. Since Nicole gave him such a big surprise, he naturally had to return it.

"Any problem?"

It was his decision, and no one could stop him. But he had to hide it from Nicole, or there would be no surprise.

Harley's face was full of helplessness. He hadn't found Harrow yet, and now he was in a terrible situation. However, when he heard Kerr's firm tone, he had no choice but to nod in agreement.

"I see. Leave it to me. If you want to recover it, we can modify it on the basis of the original one."

But he knew that Kerr just wanted to satisfy one of Nicole's wishes.

In the He's villa, sitting on the sofa, Sunny was full of resentment in her eyes. Now that the He family and the Gu family had fought openly against each other for the sake of Nicole and the Gu family, then the engagement between the he family and the Gu family would be cancelled.

Something came to her mind. She took out her phone and dialed a number.

"The information I asked you to prepare can be sent for use now. I will send it to Nicole anonymously right away. Now, she must be protected by Kerr in the villa. You must find a way to send it in."

The man at the other end of the line nodded in agreement even if he didn't think it was a good idea.

Chapter 159 The Package That Suddenly Came

In the Gu's villa.

Nicole was busy in the kitchen and looked at the newly made cake in her hand. A faint smile appeared on her face.

"Mom, dad will be spoiled by you."

Jay stood in front of the kitchen door and frowned. It seemed that women were all gullible. They were already busy cooking for others before they married them.

He sounded helpless, completely forgetting that the "others" in his heart might be his father.

"I don't think so. Doesn't Jay love cheese cake very much? I just cook for Jay. "

Afraid that Jay would be jealous of Kerr, Nicole tried to console Jay in this way. She looked at him who looked just like his father, Kerr.

Hearing the words of Nicole, Jay shook his head helplessly and walked out of the kitchen.

At the gate of the Gu's villa, when Avery stopped the car, she saw a man dressed in an express worker wandering around the gate of the Gu villa, as if he was in a dilemma.

"What do you want to do?"

Avery got off the car, walked to the man and asked.

"Hello, here is a parcel for Miss Ning, but..."

The courier looked at the heavily guarded villa of Gu family, feeling embarrassed.

"Let me handle it. I'll give it to her."

Avery reached out to take the package bag from the man's hand, and pinched it. It should be just some documents and materials, so it shouldn't be dangerous. Then, she walked into the Gu's villa.

At the same time, Vedder came up to her and greeted her in person.

"Nice to meet you, Miss Lin. Master has told me that you will come over. Miss Ning is making cakes in the kitchen."

An hour ago, Vedder received a call from Kerr. He knew that Avery would come.

"You don't have to bother me. I'll go and find Nicole myself. Is Jay at home?"

Avery had always been he saw the content, she was shocked and looked at her wide eyed.

"Is that true? Kerr was the one who forced uncle Ning to death. The Gu Group was the main force that destroyed the Ning Group in the past? Nicole... Do you really think so? "

In fact, Avery had found some clues before, but many things happened later and the clue was stopped.

"All the clues you've collected are pointing to Kerr, right? Avery, you told me before. "

Nicole calmly looked at the shocked expression on Avery face as if she was talking about someone else, but Nicole knew her heart was very uneasy. She was just trying to make herself calm down.

The more difficult it was, the calmer she needed to be.

Avery recalled the investigation before and frowned.

"I did investigate these things, but I found that there were more than one people investigating the matter. When I went to get the evidence, someone was faster than me."

"Now what I know is that your father really wanted to cooperate with the Gu Group, but the cooperation was terminated for some reason. The Ning Group suffered a loss, and then the Ning Group lost many projects."

"Gu Group managed to get these projects."

Chapter 160 I Choose To Trust Him

There was no change in the expression of Nicole's face when she heard what Avery said. She just lowered her head and took a deep breath after she got the information in Avery's hand.

"Let's go find Baron."

Looking at the firm look of Nicole, Avery nodded and followed her out of the Gu villa.

Sitting in the coffee shop, Nicole stirred the coffee gently with a spoon in her hand, looking very preoccupied.

"Nicole, what are you going to do? I think... You have a very deep relationship with Kerr, right? If this is true, then you..."

Carefully, Avery asked the question carefully. In fact, she knew that Nicole must be very upset right now, but this was something that she had no choice but to face.

"I haven't decided yet. It's definitely not as simple as it looks. Whether it's true or not, the only thing I know is that someone intentionally used these things to make me have a conflict with Kerr and even directly leave him."

Nicole thought it over and thought that it was really a coincidence. Even though she had been suspicious, she knew about the way that Kerr did things since she had been on business with him for so long.

So, she thought that Kerr shouldn't be like this. There was no enmity between the Ning family and the Gu family, so even though she was shocked by these things, she still chose to believe in Kerr mentally.

"You are right. Otherwise, these things will never appear out of thin air. Then why are you still here looking for Baron?"

Avery thought that Nicole was here to check the content of the contract with Baron, but if Nicole chose to believe Kerr, then there was no need to come to see him.

She couldn't understand.

Nicole put down the spoon in her hand and looked at Avery.

"I know you don't understand, but I know that no
n't you say that you would be good at home?"

With a straight face, Kerr looked doting though he was blaming her. In any case, he didn't have the heart to blame her.

But when receiving the phone call from Jay, Kerr's first reaction was worrying. In such a special period, as long as Nicole was out of Kerr's sight, he couldn't rest assured.

Hearing the tone of dissatisfaction in Kerr's voice, Nicole just smiled and reached out to him.

Without any hesitation, Kerr held the small hand of Nicole in his. Only then did he feel at ease.

"I had something to do, so I went out with Avery. Now I'm all right. Can you accompany me to a place?"

Nicole stood up, looked at Kerr and made up her mind. Then she turned to Baron and Avery, saying to them, "I have to go. I'll talk to you later. Don't worry about me. I'll take care of it."

After that, she left the cafe with Kerr.

Sitting in the car, Nicole looked at Kerr holding the steering wheel with obvious happiness in her eyes.

"You are a little different today. What happened?"

Although Kerr didn't look at Nicole, he kept what she was doing in his mind. Although she was smiling, there seemed to be something on her mind.
