Chapter 161 Just Ignore It

His intuition told Kerr that what was on Nicole's mind had something to do with him.

Hearing his question, Nicole shook her head. "You will know when we arrive there." Now that they had decided to be together, they had to face the fact sooner or later.

The car stopped at the gate of the cemetery. Looking at the surroundings in front of him, Kerr knew what was happening, but he didn't refuse her. He held Nicole's hand and opened the door of the car for her.

"Aren't you afraid?"

In fact she meant if he would mind. This was a very solemn place.

"That's exactly what I want to ask you. Do you think I will be afraid?"

Kerr wanted to make her feel his sincerity. No matter how dangerous or distant the place was, as long as it was where she was going, he would not hesitate to hold her hand and be with her.

What's more, in the eyes of Kerr, it's a good thing for Kerr to be brought here by Nicole. It's kind of affirmation of him.

The smile on Nicole's face disappeared, but her heart became extremely calm because of Kerr's words. She walked to her parents' tombstone, and looked at the photo on it. She said after a moment of silence.

"Someone gave me a present today, but I don't like it." She turned to look at Kerr standing beside her. There was an inquiring expression in her eyes but there was no doubt in it.

Looking at her eyes, Kerr knew that this was what she was hiding from him. But he was glad that she was sharing her feelings with him.

"If you don't like it, just ignore it."

As long as it's something that Nicole likes in the world, Kerr will give it to her at any price. But if it's something that she doesn't like, then Kerr will make it disappear in front of her.

Nicole raised her hand and handed the bag to Kerr, eyes fixed on his face.

"Do you believe it?"

A

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

"As long as I'm alive, I'm still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses."

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she learned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

ed to give to her would be gone, so Kerr decided to take her out to relax during this time.

Many things had happened these days, so he didn't want to make Nicole too nervous.

Hearing what Kerr had said, Nicole was slightly shocked. After hesitating for a while, she did not want to refuse.

"I'll go back and pack up Jay's package and mine."

Since it was dangerous here, she might as well leave with Jay temporarily. It happened that Kerr was on a business trip so that his work would not be affected. In Nicole's heart, as long as there were Kerr and Jay, there was her home

"We can't take Jay with us this time. During this period of time, Harley will take care of him. Don't worry. Whether it is the Gu family or the He family, they will try their best to separate us. So I think Jay will not become their goal."

This was their lovers' world. In the future, the three of them still had a lot of opportunities to live together. So now, Kerr just wanted to enjoy the opportunity of being alone with Nicole.

He turned to look at Nicole with a meaningful look in his eyes.

Nicole hesitated. After all, since Jay was born, she had never been away from him, and she was afraid that Jay wouldn't agree.

Chapter 162 Still Don't Believe It

Looking at the concern on Nicole's face, Kerr certainly knew what she was thinking about, so he reached out his hand and gently stroked her hair with obvious dotting eyes.

"Don't worry. I am sure Jay will agree."

There was confidence in Kerr's tone, but Nicole was still very hesitant. Compared to Kerr, she got along with Jay for a longer time, so she knew that although he looked strong, but after all, he was still a child, so he would naturally rely on her. However, she didn't want to disappoint Kerr, so she was in dilemma.

She was thinking about how to persuade Jay.

After returning to the Gu's villa, Nicole decided to cook the braised fish for the two men in person.

As she was walking towards the kitchen, Kerr held her wrist and said, "don't bother. Uncle Uncle may have dinner prepared."

As long as she was with him, he would make her the happiest woman in the world and never make her feel sad.

Nicole let go of Kerr's hand and smiled, "I like to do something for you." It seemed that she had unwittingly changed her mindset.

At the beginning, she wanted to face everything on her own. She had to be thoughtful and pretended to be strong. But now, she just wanted to be a woman behind Kerr.

When Kerr saw Nicole walk into the kitchen, he smiled and walked towards the study upstairs. When he opened the door of the study, he saw Jay sitting behind the desk and fiddling with the computer.

"I have something to tell you." Although Jay was still a child, in the eyes of Kerr, he had already been a person who could think independently. Therefore, the way how Kerr and Nicole got along with each other had to fully respect his will.

"Are you going to take Momm

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

"As long as I'm alive, I'm still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses."

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she learned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

was more quiet and gentle, more intellectual and steady. It seemed that she had grown into a woman.

Hearing what Kerr said, Nicole also couldn't help bringing her thoughts to that time. When she first returned home and met him, she remembered her dislike to Kerr at that time. A faint smile appeared on her face.

"What a brazen man you were at that time. As the CEO of the Gu Group, you went to my house to ask for a meal, and insisted on staying at my house. How shameless you were!"

There was a touch of coquetry in Nicole's tone, but in fact, she was grateful for the persistence of Kerr. If it weren't for Kerr, she might have brought Jay back to Manhattan.

They were living a peaceful and peaceful life. Although there was no ups and downs, or sadness, perhaps very calm, there would eventually be regrets, and they would not be as happy as they were now.

"To be honest, why did you hate me so much at that time? And refuse all my care? "

Kerr put his hands on Nicole's shoulders and made her turn around to face his eyes. In fact, he had a guess in his heart, but he still wanted to hear her speak it out herself.

Chapter 163 Nodded And Accept That

Nicole put the things in her hand on the table and looked directly into Kerr's eyes with a bit of resentment.

"It's because you are a playboy. Don't think I don't know if you had many mistresses before I came back. You even forced them to abort your child. How can I rest assured about such a you?"

She was still in a state of shock when she thought about it. Although Kerr had never treated her like that, as time went by, she still had no idea whether she would be safe or not.

After all, people's mind was changeable all the time.

Thinking of this, the light in Nicole's eyes dimmed. She lowered her head to avoid eye contact with Kerr, trying to forget her worries and remember how well he had treated her.

With a smile, Kerr reached out his hand, cupped her face and pecked her lips.

"Nicole, no matter whom I've met before, the past is the past for me. You're my present and future. Little fool. Why didn't you ask me earlier? Why didn't you ask me? Why did you make blind and disorderly conjectures?"

"The child I asked her to abort is not mine, and it was decided by herself that she could not give birth to that child. What I want is only your child, when will you give birth to a daughter for me?"

Kerr held Nicole in his arms and whispered in her ear.

His words made her feel warm. Whether he was making excuses for her or not, she was willing to believe him.

But she pushed him away.

"You wish. Tell Jay to come down. Dinner will be ready soon."

Wearing a blush of shyness, Nicole pushed Kerr out of the kitchen and took a deep breath before she started cooking.

Very soon, four dishes and a soup were carried to the table by Nicole. Although it was simple, it was very exquisite. Besides, she had always told Jay that he couldn't waste food, so she only cooked fo dinner, Nicole went back to her bedroom to pack up her things. Kerr simply gave Harley a few orders, and then followed Nicole back to her bedroom.

Looking at their backs, Jay was a little angry and indignant.

"It seems that you have no choice but to be with me in the following few days." said Harley, with obvious sympathy in his eyes

On hearing this, Jay removed Harley's hand on his head and returned to his bedroom.

The next morning.

Kerr had already prepared a helicopter for Nicole. He held her hand and led her out of the villa.

Standing at the door of the villa, Nicole looked through a small window in the villa, with obvious reluctance in her eyes. Kerr was worried that Nicole wouldn't be willing to let go of her son, so he arranged his trip in the early morning.

"Don't worry. We'll be back soon."

He put his arm around her shoulder and got into the car.

However, in the bedroom of the villa, when Jay saw the car slowly disappear from his sight, he couldn't help but burst into tears.

When she was on the plane, Nicole still felt a bit unsettled. Fortunately, with Kerr around her, she felt a sense of comfort.

Leaning on Kerr's shoulder, she closed her eyes.

Chapter 164 A World Of Two People

It was not until the plane landed that she woke up slowly. She was held in Kerr's arms and got off the plane. Looking at the blue sky and blue sea in front of her, she felt unprecedentedly relieved.

It seemed to be more close to the nature. Nicole breathed the fragrance of the air, which could not be felt in a bustling city. She liked it, but her eyes were full of doubts.

"Where am I? Aren't we here on a business trip? "

On hearing the question, Kerr just smiled faintly and put his arm around her shoulder, with a sense of satisfaction in his eyes.

"Do you like it?"

In fact, everything didn't matter as long as Nicole like it.

Nicole nodded. She did not like too much decoration in the first place. Probably she preferred the serenity of the nature more than the previous living environment.

So when she heard that Kerr wanted to develop the land for her, she was touched. She had never told anyone what she wanted, but Kerr could easily guess it.

And he brought to her what she liked.

"As long as you like it, just give me some time. When everything is done, I will give you a surprise. From now on, I will accompany you to do everything you want."

He believed that Nicole would like the plan of the Sea Heart Island, but it was not the time yet.

"Nicole, although I can give up everything in the Gu family, I still have responsibility for it. I can give up everything in the Gu family, but I can't let the Centennial business of the Gu family fall into the hands of others."

Kerr knew Moore's ambition. As a member of the Gu family, Kerr was supposed to protect everything belonging to the family, which was none of the business of his father and mother, but just his duty.

"I understand, Kerr. Actually, I don't care at all. Whether you are the president of the Gu Group or not doesn't matter. No matter what happens, Jay and I will always be with you."

d and looked directly into the eyes of Moore. She was shocked. In fact, Moore was very handsome, always very friendly, and always smiled.

If she didn't take a closer look at him, she would have thought that he was still a student.

"Do you have time tonight? I want to have dinner with you and get to know more about the company. You know, I just came back from abroad and don't know much about the business. "

Lily wanted to refuse. But when she saw the sincerity in Moore's eyes, she couldn't help nodding.

After a long time, Lily began to regret that she didn't refuse Moore at that time.

By the sea, the sunshine burnt everyone hot but Kerr had given a very cool room for Nicole.

Seated in a rattan chair, Nicole looked at the beautiful flowers with a face full of satisfaction.

It was not suitable to plant flowers on the beach, but Kerr had asked people to specially bring the soil which was suitable for flowers to grow and build this flower room in front of them.

"Kerr, are we really on a business trip?"

There was a sense of teasing in her tone. She looked at Kerr, who was sitting leisurely beside her. No one could be as enjoying a business trip as they were. The idea that Jay was cheated by his family made her feel ill at ease.

Chapter 165 Unaccustomed To The New Environment

If Jay knew that they didn't go out for business, he must be disappointed.

"You call it a business trip, then this is a business trip."

As a matter of fact, when Kerr was outside with the Nicole, he had many purposes in his mind. The most important one was to help the little girl to get rid of the disturbance and let the alert of Moore be distracted.

He really wanted to see what evil things Moore would do when he was away, so that he could find a chance to strike back. But this time, he didn't intend to give Moore another chance.

He turned on his laptop and put it on his lap. Leaning against the sofa, he looked at the messages sent by Jared on the screen, his eyes clear.

This time, Kerr didn't bring Jared with him because he wanted him to observe the condition of Moore.

"Mr. Kerr, the lunch is ready."

A middle-aged man in a white suit bowed to Kerr respectfully.

Kerr put down his notebook and took Nicole's hand, leading her to the dining room. Looking at the delicious lunch on the table, she suddenly felt hungry.

When she was about to sit on the chair next to Kerr, she felt his hand suddenly pull her hand. She sat on his leg directly. Looking at the servants and housekeeper standing around her, she was blushing.

She wriggled slightly and was about to push him away. But she saw the firm look in his eyes and had to let him to as he wanted.

Nicole felt extremely satisfied when she was fed by Kerr.

As she chewed on the food in her mouth, Nicole felt her stomach churn. She reached out her hand and pushed Kerr away. Nicole covered her mouth and ran towards the washroom.

"Nicole?"

Seeing that, Kerr put down his tableware, stood up and ran after her.

Leaning on the wash basin, she spat out all the food she had eaten and felt better. She turned on the tap, and she rinsed her mouth with the first day."

She sat up. In fact, after vomiting, she felt much better. That's her personality. She didn't pretend to be sick at all. When she felt better, she didn't want to lie on the bed anymore.

But he looked at her nervously.

"Don't push yourself. Lie back."

He wanted to let Nicole lie in bed, but she refused.

"I'm fine, really. I just threw up what I had eaten, and I'm a little hungry now."

Nicole touched her flat lower abdomen and looked at Kerr with a smile, like a bird waiting for her mother to feed.

"You naughty girl."

He then asked the cook to make some light food and fed her little by little.

"Knock, knock, knock."

The steward stood beside the door with a tray in his hand. He didn't come in until he got the permission from Kerr.

"Young master, this is Miss Ning's medicine. The doctor said we have to eat it after dinner."

Then he put the glass and drugs he brought from the tray on the nightstand, and the Butler stood aside.

When Kerr was about to pass the glass to Nicole, his phone rang. So he had to put down the glass, stood up and walked to the balcony.

Nicole looked at the white pill and frowned. When she looked at the butler, she felt something was wrong.

Chapter 166 I Didn't Hide It From You

But Nicole did not say anything. After all, this was arranged by Kerr, so there must be no mistake.

"I'm a little afraid of bitterness. Can you bring me some fruit?"

She asked the butler politely.

The housekeeper looked at the smiling Nicole and hesitated for a moment. He looked at Kerr standing on the balcony, nodded to her and left the bedroom.

When she reached out for the pill, she frowned and made up her mind.

Kerr put down his phone and turned around. When he saw Nicole drinking water, he walked to her and touched her long hair.

"Are you feeling better?"

Putting down the glass of water in her hand, Nicole nodded to Kerr with a smile. In fact, she did not feel uncomfortable at all. After vomiting, she became energetic.

It was a fine day. Nicole held Kerr's hand and said, "Let's go out for a walk. We can't just lie on the bed for rest after getting out."

She knew that whatever Kerr did, he would always put her health first, but she didn't feel uncomfortable now.

When he saw the eager expression on Nicole's face, he didn't have the heart to disappoint her, so he nodded to agree.

"If you don't feel well, you must let me know. I'll go out with you more often in the future. You don't need to hurry. Do you understand?"

He didn't want her to act tough, but Kerr also realized that maybe she hadn't spent too much time with her before, so she would cherish this opportunity very much.

He would spend more time with her in the future, and the day wouldn't be too long.

Strolling on the beach, the sun in the evening was not as hot as it was in the daytime, and the sea wind brought a bit of coolness to her body. Nicole was wearing a large sun hat on her head, appearing to be cozy.

"Kerr, you don't just take me out to relax, right? What are you doing secretly? " ew it since a long time ago, so I didn't let Moore get into the Gu Group."

In

When she looked up at Kerr, who looked leisurely, she frowned and felt very sorry for him, as if he was different from the man she knew before.

In the past, she just thought that Kerr was a God's favored son who was born with a silver spoon in his mouth, a wealthy family with a strong family background. It seemed that everything that others longed for in the world was easily grasped by Kerr.

But now she knew that Kerr also had helplessness. Such helplessness could not be changed and could not be controlled by Kerr.

"He thought? Isn't Moore his son? "

She was still aware of the meaning in his words and looked at him curiously.

"Nicole, as I've said before, you're smart and sure enough. I've already had someone look into it. My father does have a bastard outside, but it's not Moore."

"At that time, Moore and that child had come into an orphanage. But Moore took place of the child and was brought to the Gu family by accident. At first, Moore didn't know about it."

"Later, by chance, Moore got to know the secret of our father, so he took advantage of his father's debts to him and gained a place in the Gu Group."

Chapter 167 Its Up To You

Kerr said that leisurely, but only he knew how hard it took for him to accept such a fact.

In fact, what he cared about was not the Gu Group, nor the Gu family's property. It was that Jack know how to care about people but he chose to give all his concern to Moore instead of Kerr.

Kerr had never felt the warmth of his family. Now he could do nothing but accept such a fact and grow up alone.

Nicole opened her arms and hugged him tightly. She knew that he didn't tell her his feelings and he had never got care and love since he was a child.

"Kerr, you will have me and Jay in your life. No matter what happens, we will never leave you."

Not until then did she realize how lucky she was. Even though her mother died at a young age and her father remarried, her father had never ignored her feelings, even later on he had had Bonnie Ning.

Her father had never ignored her.

When he heard that, Kerr felt warm in his heart. He embraced Nicole in his arms. In fact, he had accepted the fate. They couldn't decide what kind of family they were born in, for example.

"It's okay. I just did what I should do. They gave me life so that I could meet you. I'm satisfied with that. So even if I don't care about anything in Gu family, I have to take my responsibility as a member of it."

Looking at the handsome face of Kerr, Nicole was proud of his rational sense and smiled at him.

"So you want to find the child outside the Gu family, right?"

She knew that Kerr had been saying that he would leave the Gu Group after all this ked at her nervously.

"I'll take you to the hospital."

As he spoke, he put on the bathrobe that he put aside and wrapped it around Nicole. When he was about to pick her up, she refused.

As she sat up, Nicole blushed and felt embarrassed. She looked at Kerr and firmly refused to go to the hospital.

"Don't be nervous. I'm just menstruating. It's okay. I'll just go to the bathroom."

When she finished, she was about to get out of the bed, but Kerr lifted her up. Kerr carried Nicole in his arms and walked towards the bathroom. He had a simple bath for her and then put on a new coat for her.

"Sorry to disappoint you."

When she saw the dissatisfaction on Kerr's face, she couldn't bear to apologize to him.

However, Kerr just held Nicole in his arms and put his warm hand on her waist, trying to relieve the pain.

"My silly girl, we still have a long time to live together. How can I be in such a hurry? If you feel uncomfortable next time, you must tell me. If I don't find it, will you always endure it?"

Chapter 168 Playing With The Fire

Kerr looked at the girl who was getting better, and he felt relieved.

Leaning against Kerr's chest, with a happy smile on her face, Nicole looked at the tenderness in his eyes and she was really glad to meet such a Kerr.

"Got it."

Nicole's face was so close to Kerr that her warm breath was on his skin. She was not aware of it at all, but Kerr's body became stiff because of her slight movements.

Looking at the little woman in his arms, Kerr sighed softly, but in the end, he did not push Nicole away. He muttered.

"My little beauty."

Not knowing what he was talking about, she raised her head and looked at him in confusion. "What are you talking about?"

Looking at the innocent expression of Nicole, Kerr didn't want to hurt her, so he let go of her arm and walked to the bathroom.

Looking at the back of Kerr, she could roughly guess what he was doing. She lay down and laughed maniacally. "Hahaha."

When he heard that, Kerr turned on the faucet. The cold water on the body helped to relieve the heat inside Kerr's body, but the voice of Nicole passed to his ears continuously, which made him helpless.

When he put on his bathrobe and walked out of the bathroom, he saw the bright smile on her face. There was a threat in his eyes.

"You'll see."

Sitting on the edge of the bed, Kerr wiped the water on his hair with a bath towel and turned his back to Nicole.

Nicole, however, sat up and hugged him from behind. She pressed her face against his back and said softly.

"Are you sure?"

It seemed that she knew what kind of reaction Kerr would have, so she became more unbridled.

To Kerr, it seemed that Nicole's hand had reached into the truth, the price is an exorbitant price, but they seem to be sure that I will accept it, so they have no intention of making a concession. I was going to take some unusual measures."

Speaking of this, Harley paused. It was not like what he would do. It was Ken's idea.

"But it won't work. This group obviously has a more powerful background. I have specially investigated it. I just received the news that the boss of this group is..."

Before he could finish his words, a person came into Kerr's mind, so he said it directly.

"Daniel He."

Hearing this, Harley was shocked and looked at Kerr in disbelief.

"How do you know?"

It took a lot of effort for him to get the news. If he had known that Kerr had known the person behind it, he would not have taken such great effort.

"I just guessed it. In a city, in addition to Gu's family, Su's family and Qin's family, there was only He's family who has the ability to do this. Besides, Sunny He is not smart. That's why only Daniel He can do it."

Though Kerr had thought it over, he didn't expect that Daniel would support his marriage with Sunny He.

Chapter 169 Disappearance

But behind him, Daniel He had done lots of evil doings against him.

Kerr knew that since Harley could figure out who was behind all this, it was easy for Daniel to guess that what Harley did was under Kerr's instruction.

Which meant that Daniel did it on purpose.

Hearing this, Harley nodded. Both of them knew that Daniel was levelling against Kerr. As a matter of fact, he had long been dissatisfied with Kerr for what he had done to his daughter.

But in the presence of Sunny, Daniel had to take back his anger.

"I think that he obviously wants to teach you a lesson this time. Maybe we should change our place. In fact, as long as it's under the name of Nicole, it doesn't matter where we are, does it?"

Harley tried to talk Kerr out of this. After all, the Gu family was reducing the power of Kerr because of his current condition. If he continued to be the enemy of the He family, then it would be really difficult.

"No. I said I would give a complete Ning Group to Nicole."

Without hesitation, Kerr refused his proposal. There was no room for negotiation in his heart. It was a gift that Kerr wanted to give to Nicole. He couldn't give it a discount because of any difficulty.

He wanted to use his own ability to make up for the pity in Nicole's heart.

It seemed that Harley had expected the words from Kerr, so he was not surprised. He shrugged his shoulders and waited quietly for Kerr to continue. He knew that the reason why Kerr was so sure indicated that he had been mentally prepared.

"In this case, I will gradually snatch over the He Group's project, and then hand it over to you. When the He Group is in the face of a crisis, he wouldn't grasp too hard on the Ning Group?"

Knowing that Daniel He was a man who knew how to weigh the pros and cons, Kerr had to choose his soft spot.

"Okay, I'll be ready for it at an hour and found that the entire building has been placed with a lot of explosives. But don't worry, Master. I've had them removed."

"But the specific location of Miss Ning has not been identified yet, so we dare not act rashly."

Kim was worried that it might hurt Nicole's safety if he acted rashly. However, the kidnappers was obviously well prepared, so he knew that they would contact Kerr on their own initiative.

When he heard this, Kerr certainly understood what he meant. However, he didn't want to wait any longer when he knew that Nicole was right in front of him. Now he could be relieved to see the perfect woman standing in front of Kerr. ?

As he took a step forward, a man's voice reached his ears.

"Since Mr. Kerr came without invitation, then come in. Your little beauty missed you so much."

The man's voice was full of arrogance, deliberately provoking Kerr.

When he heard the man mention Nicole, Kerr's eyes became scarlet. No one could hurt Nicole by his side. This time he wanted everyone to know that Nicole couldn't be touched by others.

Without any hesitation, he walked upstairs.

"Master, be careful!" Looking at the firm look on Kerr's face, Kim had no choice but to follow closely behind him.

Chapter 170 Not To Take The Risk

Passing through the first floor, Kerr went up the stairs to the platform on the second floor. He saw that Nicole was tied to a cement pillar and her eyes were closed unconsciously. Kerr's eyes were full of heartache.

He walked quickly to Nicole and called her. "Nicole?" Kerr called out the name of Nicole, but she did not respond.

Kim stood beside them, observing the surroundings warily, not daring to relax a little.

Normally, an ambush was here, but it was so quiet around. Kim knew that the storm was yet to come.

"Mr. Kerr, there seems to be something wrong. We need to get out of here as soon as possible."

Kim reminded him nervously.

But Kerr didn't respond. He turned around and saw that Kerr had been staring at the place behind Nicole, motionless.

When Kim walked beside Kerr, he couldn't help but roll his eyes with surprise.

"Master, you can leave now. I will take lady Ning out of here safely."

Looking at the time bomb in front of him, Kim reminded Kerr. Obviously, he didn't want to leave now.

Crouching down, Kerr looked at the countdown on the time bomb without any anxiety in his eyes. The bomb was connected to the rope on Nicole. Once the rope on her was cut off, the bomb would explode.

"Master!"

There was not much time left before the hour hand. Kim looked worried. He couldn't let Kerr have any accident, but he also knew that if Nicole hadn't been safe, Kerr wouldn't have left.

"Shut up! Get out of here with all our people!"

Without any hesitation, Kerr gave an order to Kim. He knew that Kim must have arranged a lot of people around him, and he wouldn't let these people be buried with him.

Although he was confident to unravel the bomb, he had to make a way. It's dangerous here. Go quickly!"

She knew that she couldn't escape. If she could really leave, Kerr had already taken her away. It would never be like this. If she was doomed to not escape, then she hoped to protect Kerr.

"Kerr, I have never told you about that. I'm glad that I can meet you and fall in love with you. I'm very satisfied with that. Thank you for your love. Now, leave me. Kerr, help me take care of Jay."

Tears welled up and blurred her sight. However, she stubbornly gazed at Kerr and tried to remember what he looked like.

Even if she left, she didn't want to forget Kerr.

"Nicole, I will never allow you to leave me. You are destined to be mine. I will not give up on you. Even if I die, I will still be with you."

Kerr raised his head and looked into Nicole's eyes earnestly.

From the moment he came here, Kerr did not intend to leave alone. Whether he was alive or dead, he would be with her.

When she heard what Kerr had said, she was touched, but she didn't want him to die with her. When she was about to refute, Kerr shut her mouth in the most direct way.

He stood up and kissed her on the lips.
