Chapter 171 Live And Die Together

Looking at the countdown, there were still four minutes left. Without any hesitation, Kerr kissed Nicole. Even death was in front of him, he hoped that what he brought to her was joy but not fear.

Feeling the kiss from Kerr, Nicole's tears ran down her cheeks to her mouth, which was a little bitter but surrounded by sweetness.

"Nicole, listen to me. If there are only three minutes left in our life, I can kiss you in these two minutes and fifty seconds and hold you tight in the last ten seconds."

There was no fear in his eyes; instead, he looked much more composed.

If this was the ending between Nicole and him, then Kerr was willing to accept it. After all, he would be buried with Nicole one day, so for Kerr, it was just a matter of time.

"Kerr, why are you so silly? Just go! I don't want you to die with me. Who will take care of Jay if we both die? Go. You have to accompany Jay to grow up. "

Nicole did not give up persuading Kerr. It was enough for her to meet him this life.

"Master!"

Kim returned. Looking at the two who hugged each other tightly, he went straight to the bomb with a scissor in his hand.

At the sight of Kim, Kerr snatched the scissors from his hand, seized Kim's collar and threw him to the staircase.

"Go!"

With a smile on his face, Kerr returned to Nicole. With less than one minute left, he asked, "Nicole, would you like to bet with me? If we win the game, we will have a family reunion, and we will never be separated again. If we lose the game, I will accompany you. "

After hearing Kerr's words, Nicole shook her head desperately. There was no time left to stop him, but he was more persistent than her.

Lowering his head, Kerr held Nicole's hand and chose a yellow

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

"As long as I'm alive, I'm still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses."

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she learned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

her head and saw Kerr Gu lying beside her. He was pale with his eyes closed, and his arm wrapped in white gauze. He looked lifeless.

"How is he?"

There were still tears in her eyes, but she didn't let them fall. She knew that it was not time to be weak now and her memories came back bit by bit. She knew that Kerr must be seriously injured.

When Kim heard the question, his eyes became solemn.

"Mr. Su said that Master was seriously burned and his viscera were injured. It is uncertain when he will wake up."

As soon as the incident happened, Kim called Harley and told him about it. In order not to make Jay worried, Harley concealed it from him and sent him to Ken.

At this moment, the ward door was pushed open. With a medical record of Kerr and Nicole in his hand, Harley walked in, examined them briefly, and then looked at Kerr who was still in a coma. He sighed helplessly.

"How do you feel?"

Harley asked Nicole.

Nicole fixed her eyes on Kerr. When she heard this, she just shook her head slightly.

"I'm fine. How is Kerr? Will he never wake up again? "

Although she was worried about Kerr, she had to learn to face it.

Chapter 172 Take The Place

Looking at Kerr's face, Harley shook his head helplessly. In fact, he was not very sure. Although Kerr was not in danger now, the situation was not optimistic. Otherwise, Kim would not directly call him here.

"I believe that he will wake up. After all, there is someone he can't let go, and his will to survive is very strong. It's only a matter of time."

He consoled Nicole this way, and was also looking forward to it in his heart.

Hearing that, Nicole looked at the pale face of Kerr and raised her hand to gently stroke Kerr's side face. She tried to hold back her tears and did not let them fall.

It was not the time to be fragile. She knew what Harley said was right. She believed that Kerr would be safe.

"Harley, tell me. What is the worst result?"

Nicole took a deep breath and was ready for the worst result, but when Harley told her, she still felt her could not breathe.

"He may be in a vegetative state. The worst result is that he will forever be asleep."

Harley looked at Kerr and didn't intend to hide anything from Nicole. No matter what the reason why Nicole asked such question was, he had no reason to hide it from her. And even if he didn't know Nicole well, he should believe in Kerr's judgement.

Nicole looked at the ceiling and lifted the quilt.

"What are you doing?"

Harley reached out and held Nicole.

"I want to go to the bathroom." There was only a minor injury on her arm, which did not affect her normal pace, but made her rather weak.

Harley helped Nicole to the door and closed it. When he was about to leave, he heard the sobbing behind the door.

He was shocked. Just now Nicole didn't seem to be affected by what happened with Kerr, but maybe only she herself was the only one who could feel fear in her heart.

Lean

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

"As long as I'm alive, I'm still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses."

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she learned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

Gu Group, he knew clearly that in Kerr's heart, what he cared more about was the safety of Nicole. So Harley chose to tell her later.

Kim knew Harley was considerate, so he said nothing.

In the ward.

Sitting next to Kerr, Nicole held his hand with a warm smile in her eyes.

"Kerr, we have a baby. This is our second baby. I know you won't be cruel to leave us alone. I will give you time. You have been very tired before. You need to have a good rest."

"I can let you sleep, but you have to promise me to stay with me when the baby is born, okay? You missed Jay's birth. Do you want to miss a second time? "

"Don't worry. I will be fine. I won't let anyone hurt our baby."

Nicole put her head on his chest so that she could hear his heartbeat.

in the past, it was Kerr who protected her. But this time, it was her who protected him.

Nicole took up Kerr's hand and gently placed it on her stomach with a smile in her eyes.

"Do you feel it? I already has a life here in me. We are to blame for being so careless that we almost hurt it. You want it to be a boy or a girl? I know you will definitely tell me, as long as it is I who give birth to it, you will like it. "

Chapter 173 Remain Calm In The Face Of Challenges

As long as Nicole thought that when Kerr woke up, they could wait for the baby to be born together, she was full of expectations, and the difficulty in front of her seemed not so difficult.

After having a long conversation with Kerr, Nicole stood up and walked out of the ward.

When they saw her walking out, Kim and Harley stood straight and looked at her nervously.

"I know that something must have happened to the Gu Group. Tell me, I'm ready. No matter what happens, I will protect everything belonging to Kerr for him."

There was no fear nor sadness in her eyes.

When Kim saw the look of Nicole, he turned his gaze towards Harley who was standing beside her.

"Miss Ning, you have to save your strength. After all..."

If things were like what Harley had said and Kerr really couldn't wake up, then the child inside Nicole was Kerr's only child and there would be no loss.

Looking at the peaceful look of Nicole, Harley nodded to Kim.

"I know. I won't let anything happen to my baby."

Nicole looked at Kim earnestly.

"Here is the thing. On the day when you and Master had that incident, Moore had officially joined the Gu Group under the name of My Lord, but Master had sent me to observe him secretly."

"I've found out that Moore has collected the stocks of the Gu Group secretly. His purpose is obvious."

Kim looked worried. Although what Moore had done made sense, that was not the only thing he doubted. Considering Nicole's physical condition, he was afraid that it might frighten her, so he chose to be silent.

"Absolutely not just that. The time is such a coincidence. I absolutely don't believe that something happened to me and Kerr accidentally. You were also there that day. It is obvious that they didn't want to keep me and Kerr alive."

Nicole's eyes were crystal clear. She calmly analyzed the situation. Although she had no evid knew that even though Freya didn't like her, in this situation, only her mother would help her wholeheartedly guard things that belonged to Kerr.

"Mrs. Gu, I'm Nicole Ning. Kerr is sleeping now. You can tell me if you have something to tell him. I'll help you tell him."

Before they went back, Nicole didn't want her to know about Kerr. No matter what, she was still Kerr's mother. Once she knew his current situation, she must be worried.

When she heard the voice of Nicole coming through the phone, Freya changed her tone to a more serious manner, her face darkened.

"Who the hell do you think you are? I want to see Kerr and I don't need your permission at all!"

As for the fact that Kerr left the Gu Group and brought Nicole away, Freya had long been very dissatisfied with her. If it weren't for her, who seduced Kerr to leave the Gu Group, how could Moore avail this opportunity to get in?

Nicole shook her head helplessly and raised her hand to rub her aching temple.

"If you have to say something like that, then I have to say sorry to you. Kerr doesn't want to talk to you now. If you don't have anything else to say, I'll hang up."

As Nicole spoke, she didn't seem to want to hang up. Nicole knew that Freya hadn't finished yet.

Chapter 174 The Decision To Go Back

Hearing what Nicole had said, Freya only felt her blood pressure rising continuously, but she knew that Kerr was now with Nicole, so obviously, she did not want her to get in touch with Kerr.

Or maybe Kerr was hiding from her deliberately.

"Tell Kerr that he has to go back to the Gu Group. Since that Moore has taken actions and I haven't given my shares to Kerr yet, I hope he can come back and marry the daughter of He Group as soon as possible. After that, I'll give all my shares to Kerr."

Freya knew that Nicole would know the matter sooner or later, so she did not intend to hide it from her. Moreover, if Nicole could shrink back from difficulties, it would be better.

When Nicole heard what Freya said, her eyes became dim. It turned out that if a mother loved her child on conditions. But thinking of Kerr's current situation, she could not help but shed tears.

She couldn't be fragile. Right now, she was the only one who could give away everything that she had to protect Kerr.

"Mrs. Gu, if Kerr hadn't married to Sunny He, would you be unwilling to transfer your shares to Kerr? I know you don't like me, but I hope you can think about what kind of person Kerr is. "

"Let me make it clear to you. Kerr will never marry Sunny. If you can see other people get what belong to Kerr, I have nothing to say."

After saying that, Nicole hung up the phone. In fact, she was gambling on her mother's concern for Kerr.

When she gave the phone to Kim, she walked to Kerr, bent over and held his hand. With a gentle look in her eyes, she said, "I will never let anything that belongs to you fall into the hands of others."

When she stood up, she turned her head to look at Kim behind her.

"Leo, get everything ready and let's go back. Kerr is not safe here. What's more, the Gu Group really needs us now."

She knew what it meant to go back

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

"As long as I'm alive, I'm still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses."

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she learned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

uld make her more disappointed.

"Have you ever thought about what you should do when you go back?" Looking at the situation of Kerr, Harley was a little worried. It was certain that the Gu family was not willing to accept the existence of Nicole.

Kerr had been protecting Nicole, so she was safe. If people in the Gu family knew what had happened to Kerr, they might have brought him back to the Gu family.

As the eldest son of the Gu family, Kerr certainly could be taken care of. Even if he lost the Gu Group, Kerr still had the surname of Gu. But Nicole was different. She not only had Jay, but also this child.

Harley even didn't dare to imagine how difficult it would be for her to get into a difficult situation in the future.

Hearing that, Nicole shook her head slightly. "I didn't think so much. I only know that I can't make Kerr lose everything that belongs to him. Everything of the Gu Group and the Gu family belongs to Kerr."

"He will wake up one day. I will wait for him. I will also wait for our child to wake up."

She was quite sure about it. Even when she knew that Kerr was in a coma, she had never doubted that he would always sleep like this.

Something occurred to Nicole, so she turned to look at Harley.

Chapter 175 Dreams Are Opposite

"I heard from Kerr that you are planning something? Why did you avoid me to talk about it? Does this have anything to do with me? "

Although Kerr didn't tell her, she knew that he was giving her a surprise. But the surprise hadn't been completed yet, and the person who wanted to surprise her fell asleep.

In fact, she wanted Kerr to tell her the surprise himself when he woke up, but she wanted to know now that it might help the Gu Group.

After giving a glance at Kerr who was still lying on the bed with his eyes closed, Harley hesitated for a moment and decided to tell Nicole. After all, no one knew what would happen in the future, so if it was able to move Nicole, he must let her know.

"Yes, it has something to do with you. Kerr knows that rebuilding the Ning Group is always your wish, so since the last celebration party ended, he has already been able to ask me to start rebuilding the Ning Group."

"Part of them have been prepared, but it will take some time."

In fact, Harley wanted to say that given the current situation of Kerr, he couldn't focus on the business of the Ning Group at all. It was a surprise that Kerr prepared for Nicole, and he didn't want to disappoint her.

There was no surprise on Nicole's face when she heard this, as if she had already guessed it. She looked at Kerr with pleasure in her eyes.

She put her head on Kerr's shoulder. It seemed that she was leaning on Kerr and the corners of her mouth rose slightly. "Thank you, Kerr."

She was grateful for meeting Kerr. He let her know the feeling of love and being loved. She could know that there were really two people in the world with no blood relationship living in different worlds, but because of some special fate, they attracted each other, met each other, knew each other and fell in love.

Looking at the miserable couple, Harley turned around.

Nicole closed her eye

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

"As long as I'm alive, I'm still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses."

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she learned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

In fact, there was another way. He could accept the price offered by Daniel. It was not that he couldn't accept it. But now Kerr was in a special situation, so he didn't dare to act rashly.

"Stop it. I might need your help to develop the Gu Group in the future. As for the Ning Group, it doesn't matter now that it has been in the past. I just want to keep everything that belongs to Kerr."

In order to give her a surprise, Kerr became like this. She thought it was time for her to do something for Kerr since it was enough for him to be in love with her.

In the eyes of Nicole, whether it was the Ning Group or the Gu Group, they were not as important as the safety of Kerr.

"I see. Don't worry. Ken and I will try our best to help you, and you don't have to worry about Jay. I sent him to Ken's home. Bonnie was also there."

Harley was afraid that someone might use Jay's existence to threaten Kerr and Nicole, so he sent him away as soon as possible.

Nicole nodded to him and said, "thank you, Harley."

She was grateful that there were people she could trust at this time. Although she knew that both Harley and Ken treated her differently because of Kerr, she still felt grateful.

After all, not everyone has such care and courage.

Chapter 176 He Will Be Fine

The long flight was so long that Nicole was obviously unable to bear. Her face turned pale, but she did not say anything, but she endured it.

Leaning against the window, Nicole looked out of the window at the pure white clouds. Everything was so wonderful. So many things had happened in a few days.

A few days ago, Kerr was still holding Nicole's hand, but now, he could only lie silently next to her, and he didn't even know if she was sad or happy.

"Baby, be strong. Daddy is waiting for us to wake him up."

She put her hand on her belly, murmuring with a smile.

After the plane landed, Nicole didn't send Kerr to the hospital. After all, there were too many possibilities in the hospital.

"Sorry to trouble you again, Harley." Nicole reminded him.

Nodding in agreement, Harley helped Nicole send Kerr to his bedroom and gave him a simple check-up. After making sure that there was nothing wrong with him, he left the room.

Sitting next to Kerr, she looked up at her Jared who was worried and smiled.

"I believe he will be fine. Let's get down to business now."

She knew that no one knew more about the GR group than her husband.

Looking at her, Jared nodded. "Now that Simon has been on the board of directors and has secretly collected the scattered shares of the Gu group, I have stopped him in the name of a young master."

He had been informed by Hayden that something had happened to Kerr, but he didn't expect that his condition was much worse than he had imagined.

"Got it. Take all the documents that the GR group needs to be handled by Rhys back. I'll go over them at home." Nicole could not show up temporarily. "You have to find a way to release the news that I and Kerr have returned safely to Moore."

She knew that the matter had something to do with Moore. Thus, only when

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

"As long as I'm alive, I'm still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses."

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she learned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

Now that Simon had joined the Gu Group, Nicole had asked Jared to collect the scattered shares that he wanted. This required a large amount of money. In order not to arouse the suspicion of the Gu Group, she could only use other ways.

In order to consolidate the position of Kerr in the Gu Group, she hoped that Freya could transfer her shares in the name of Kerr.

"You are smart, but I only want to talk to my son. You have no right to bargain with me. Miss Ning, you don't want me to see my son, aren't you afraid that you will never see your son again?"

Freya knew that Jay was the weakness of Nicole. She did try to find him, but failed to get any information about him.

Hearing what Freya said, Nicole was shocked. The smile on her face gradually disappeared, and she unconsciously looked at Jared, who was next to her, but was also confused. Obviously, he didn't expect that Freya would suddenly mention Jay.

"Mrs. Gu, if you say so, then I won't beat about the bush. I don't care what my image in Mrs. Gu's heart is, but I can clearly tell you that I will not take away anything that not belongs to me."

Nicole straightened her face and looked at Freya seriously with a hint of irony on her lips.

Chapter 177 Exchange Conditions

"I also hope that Mrs. Gu will not pay attention to a child. Otherwise, not only me, but Kerr would not be happy."

Nicole was warning Freya. No matter how rude she was to her, she would accept it, but she should never hurt Jay, which was her bottom line.

"If Mrs. Gu wants to take care of Kerr, I hope you can take some practical actions. Now that Kerr is in trouble, I think Mrs. Gu will also understand it."

When she heard what Nicole said, Freya suppressed her anger and glared at Nicole.

"What do you mean? All the crises that Kerr had encountered were caused by you. Are you still going to stay by his side? As long as you leave Kerr, he will be fine. "

In Freya's opinion, Kerr had never had such a crisis before he met with Nicole. But she didn't understand that such a crisis had been existing all the time, although sometimes it was hidden in peace.

When Nicole heard what Freya said, she thought it was ridiculous and shook her head helplessly.

"It seems that Mrs. Gu hasn't figured out the seriousness of the matter and the key point. What Mrs. Gu needs to do now is to stabilize the status of Kerr in the Gu Group, instead of letting a harmless me leave Kerr."

"If I were Mrs. Gu, I would transfer all my shares to Kerr to help him."

Nicole didn't want to waste too much time. Now many people were keeping their eyes on the Gu's villa. So she must get more shares for Kerr before he was found out.

As far as she knew, Jack didn't transfer all his shares to Kerr. Besides, from his attitude towards Moore and Kerr that day, she knew that he could not be a breakthrough.

On the contrary, it would be easier for Freya to do that.

"You should be aiming at the Gu Group's shares. You are dreaming, Nicole Ning. Do you want to coax Kerr to transfer the shares to you? I w ot alone now.

Nicole shook her head and gently put her hand on her forehead. She leaned back on the sofa and didn't even have the strength to talk.

Just when Jared didn't know what to do, Harley came in from the door and saw that there was something wrong with Nicole, so he quickly walked to her.

"What's wrong with you?" He raised his hand, held on to Nicole's wrist, and felt her weak pulse.

Hearing Harley's voice, Nicole could put down her worries. She opened her eyes and looked at him, but did not speak.

"Let me take you to rest."

She was so worried that she didn't have the energy to think it through. She picked up Nicole, carried her to the bedroom and put her on the bed beside Kerr.

Nicole looked at Kerr and instinctively leaned against him. She closed her eyes and fell asleep deeply. She hoped that she could see Kerr when she opened her eyes again.

Looking at the two of them, with worry in his eyes, Jared followed Harley out of the bedroom, "Mrs. Gu came here just now and wanted to see Master, but she was stopped by Miss Ning. I don't know how long she can keep the secret from Mrs. Gu."

In fact, both of them knew that they couldn't hide the truth for long.

Chapter 178 Funding Gap

When Nicole was sleeping, she didn't sleep well. The scene of the explosion always stayed in her mind. She was only forced to become strong when she was told that Kerr didn't wake up. All the fears were hidden deeply in her heart.

Despite the smile on the corner of his mouth, Kerr didn't respond no matter how hard she called his name. With tears in her eyes, she sobbed, "Kerr..."

Nicole was frightened to wake up from the nightmare again, but she didn't wipe her tears for her anymore. She opened her eyes and looked at Kerr who was beside her. There was finally a hint of comfort in her eyes.

She reached out and held him. There was obvious worry in her tone. "Kerr, are you really going to sleep like this? You promised Jay and me that you would protect us. When are you going to keep your promise? "

She wished so much that Kerr could give her a response, but she only got a silence, she was suddenly afraid of the quiet night, as if it wanted to devour everything.

However, the night would pass. When the morning sunlight shone into the bedroom, Nicole watched the sun rise, and her eyes were once again filled with hope.

"Kerr, now I'm going to help you with something. Will you trust me?" After Nicole kissed Kerr's mouth, she stood up and packed her things. Then she left the bedroom.

When she went downstairs, she saw that Harley and Jared were sitting on the sofa, both looking worried.

Hearing the footsteps of Nicole, Jared stood up to greet her, "Miss Ning."

Nicole nodded and sat on the sofa. "What happened?" Nicole knew that it was a troubled time and she would have trouble if she was not careful. She had already learned to adapt and was used to it.

In this way, no matter what happened, she could always keep calm. Now that K aid. Moreover, since Moore has done so many tricks, the bank must have notified him."

"It's not easy to get the loan, and it's very troublesome." She knew that the gossips had already damaged the reputation of Kerr.

Many people were waiting to make a fool of Kerr. However, the more difficult it was, the less nervous Nicole should be.

Looking at the firm look on her face, Harley nodded in agreement. He didn't expect such things to happen to them. He was silent. But since Jack had already talked to his father, he couldn't use the Su family's connections to help Kerr.

This was also a test they faced.

"I'm going to handle the project in the L City. I will try my best to come back on that day. Only when there are people from the Gu Group can people there feel at ease."

Nicole looked at Jared. She was determined to take him with her this time. After all, he had been with Kerr for the longest time. So they must give him face.

Jared looked at her and knew what she meant, but he didn't agree with her going now.

"Miss Ning, let me handle the project. You are too weak to leave the villa. If anything happens to her, no one can bear the responsibility. "

Chapter 179 Scare Moore Away

"What's more, you can't rest assured when Master is at home. If Mrs. Gu and others come over, no one can stop them except you." Jared was telling the truth. The project was important, but it was far less important than Nicole's health.

"Nicole, I know you want to help Kerr save the Gu Group, but don't push your luck. You don't want Kerr to wake up without seeing his baby, do you?"

For the time being, nothing was more important than the baby in Nicole's belly.

Nicole listened to their words and knew that her physical condition was not very good, so she didn't insist. She just nodded and asked Jared to bring all the documents to the villa.

She wanted to help Kerr with her own ability.

"Miss Ning, Master Gu has come." At this time, Vedder came in from the outside. He looked at Nicole sitting on the sofa in front of him, and apparently had a worried look on his face.

No one in the Gu family knew that Kerr was in a coma now. Even Vedder didn't dare to tell Kelvin about it, but Moore was not that easy to fool.

"Let him in," She knew that Moore was here to spy on the truth. Although they came back in such a high-profile, Kerr didn't show up. Moore must have suspected something.

Looking at the calm and nonchalant look of Nicole, Vedder began to admire her courage. As expected, it was not easy to get the favor of a person by Master.

"Long time no see, Miss Ning. Mr. Su is here too." Moore pretended to be surprised when he saw Harley, and then he glanced around the living room, but he didn't find Kerr.

"What is Mr. Moore looking for? Kerr? Do you think Kerr will want to see you? " Although wearing a smile on her face, Nicole still wanted to drive Moore out of the room. It was all because of Moore that Kerr would be like this.

Although Nicole hadn't found evidence, if Kerr was not ow what she was doing.

Before long, the sound of glass breaking came from upstairs. Obviously, it was because someone deliberately broke glass. With his eyes fixed on the direction of upstairs, Moore became nervous.

Here was under the control of Kerr. According to what he had done recently, it was an official battle between him and Kerr. And it was highly likely that Kerr would do something to him. After thinking about it, Moore stood up.

When Nicole appeared on the stairs, she saw that Moore obviously became nervous. She smiled faintly and said, "Kerr asked me to tell Mr. Moore, if you're here to explain what you've done recently, please go upstairs."

"Mr. Gu, if you have a lot of things to discuss with Kerr, he will ask me to arrange a place for you to stay."

Standing on the stairs, Nicole looked down at him with a serious and obviously threatening expression in her eyes, and her words carried deep meanings.

Nicole meant that he would stay overnight. In that case, he was grounded by his brother. He was not that stupid.

Moore stood up and said, "since you just get up, I won't disturb you. Let's talk about the company affairs later." After that, Moore turned around and left the villa.

Chapter 180 Letter Of Authorization

When she saw Moore leave, Nicole was finally relieved, but she didn't know how long she could hide it. The smugness on her face gradually disappeared. She really hoped that Kerr could wake up earlier.

Harley looked up at Nicole with appreciation. There were many women in the world who liked Kerr, but only she was the best one for him.

"Miss Ning, I'm going to the company now. But there will be a board meeting tomorrow morning. Since Master is back, people will discuss if he doesn't attend the meeting."

That was what mattered the most. In the past, they had thought that Kerr wasn't there. But now, he had come back, but he didn't show up.

"Let me deal with it. I will show up on behalf of Kerr, and you prepare an authorization letter for me. I am not an employee of the Gu Group now. I can't rashly appear in the Gu Group. That's not persuasive."

"It's much easier to have the authorization of Kerr. As for the excuse, I'll think about it." Nicole frowned.

Today I just temporarily stall Moore Gu off. But soon he would realize that something was wrong, so they had to prepare in advance before he could react.

"Jared, can you help me find a man who looks like Kerr in terms of figure?" There was no other way. Nicole hoped that they could stall for more time.

There should be more time for Kerr to recover. Thinking of that he was still unconscious so far, Nicole became more and more unconfident. She knew that Kerr would wake up.

But she was really afraid that Kerr would wake up after many years. At that time, she didn't know if she could still be with him.

After all, even if Nicole was willing to protect Kerr, there were still a lot of people who secretly watched Kerr and did not let him go. They would not let him go.

On hearing this, Jared seemed to know what sh nt. He would not make mistake." Jared was confident, He never doubted Kerr's decision.

With the seal of Kerr in her hand, she stamped it on the authorization letter, which had come into force officially. A mixture of emotions emerged in her eyes, and she hoped she didn't need to do so.

When she left the Gu Group, she had already decided to be the little woman behind Kerr. But she didn't expect that in just a few days, she had to stand out to help Kerr protect the Gu Group.

"Keep an eye on the group's accounts. We need money to buy shares, so does Moore. I'm sure he is not as strong as Kerr. I'm sure he'll find a way out."

"Whatever he wants to do, I don't care, but we can't let him pay attention to the Gu Group. Now Kerr is not in the company, it is inevitable to cause some chaos. I will attend the board meeting tomorrow on behalf of Kerr."

Nicole had made a decision. Recently, a lot of chaos had been caused within the Gu Group, so she wanted to deal with them one by one.

"Got it. By the way, I've made the arrangement you've asked me to do." Jared nodded and said.

When Nicole heard this, she frowned. It seemed that they still had a show to make after the board was over.
