

CEO Daddy 181

Chapter 181 Fight Face To Face

"Help me pick out a remote place from Kerr's property."

"And find someone to clean it up. The house looked like I and Kerr were going to live there." Nicole hoped it was the best protection for Kerr. "Do the protective job well."

She hoped her plan will work.

The next morning, Nicole got up very early and wiped the face for Kerr. Seeing the wound on his arm getting well bit by bit, she hoped he could wake up as soon as possible.

"I'm going to the Gu Group today. Take care of yourself at home. If you can give me a surprise when I come back, I will be very happy." She managed to find time to talk with him every day.

Even though she was talking to herself, she didn't give up. Just like what Harley had said before, once Kerr hear the familiar voice, it would immediately stimulate his cerebral cortex which might help him wake up.

Moreover, Kerr had a strong will to survive. It was only a matter of time that Kerr would wake up according to Harley.

Nicole finally gave a kiss on Kerr's lips and left the bedroom.

When she walked to the door, Nicole saw Harley coming over with a medicine box. She nodded with a smile and said to her, "please take care of him today. I'll be back as soon as possible."

In fact, Nicole did not want to leave Kerr at all, but it was difficult to explain to the board of directors. If she did not go, no one could stand out to replace Kerr.

"Take care yourself. Don't get emotional. If you feel uncomfortable, you can ask Jared to send you back. Do you hear me?"

Harley was also very worried about her. But now Kerr couldn't be short of hands, so he could only stay in the Gu villa, and the Gu Group could only rely on her.

"I see. Don't worry." After uttering these words, Nicole left the Gu's villa with Jared.

Sitting in the car, Nicole looked out of the window at the scenery passing by. She was depressed, but she was not afraid, because what she had done now was only for Kerr. When thinking of Kerr, the corners of her mouth rose slightly.

Looking at the smiling face of Nicole, Jared felt relieved.

The car stopped in front of the Gu Group very soon. Jared got off the car first, opened the door for Nicole, and carefully followed her to protect her.

Nicole looked at the building with confidence and walked into the Gu Group. When she saw the receptionist's surprised look, she wasn't stopped, maybe because she was with Jared.

Standing in front of the exclusive elevator of Kerr, Nicole suddenly remembered the first time she met with Kerr here. At that time, everything was so wonderful.

However, the world was still changing. When the elevator arrived, they walked in.

When the elevator arrived at the floor where Kerr's office was located, Nicole walked out of the elevator. As s tlemen. I came here just because I was entrusted by Mr. Jack to listen in. With the share in my hand, how can I sit here, let alone say opinions?"

Moore was very modest, but everyone here understood what he meant. It was obvious that he wanted to have a foothold in the Gu Group under the name of Jack.

"You can't say that, Mr. Moore. We all know what position you hold in the heart of Mr. Gu. We don't know if you do know the whereabouts of Mr. Gu. What do you mean by the recent mistakes of the Gu Group?"

President Liang also stood out and wanted to know what should they do. But in fact he wanted Moore to take over the position of Kerr in the Gu Group.

"As for my brother... I can't ask too much..." With an embarrassed look on his face, Moore was very hesitant. He seemed to know something, but it was hard to say it out.

The people present immediately attracted the attention of Moore, and they stepped forward, trying to know something from his words.

"Mr. Moore, just tell us. We have heard of the news. All the people in the city know that Mr. Kerr can do such a thing for a woman."

There was obvious dissatisfaction in President Lin's tone. Obviously, she had been tolerating Kerr for a long time.

"Yes, that's right. Just tell us, Mr. Moore. Then we can rest assured."

Everyone was echoing.

Everyone looked anxious, but Moore only smiled faintly and unconsciously looked in the direction of the door. He guessed that Nicole would appear.

Everyone looked at Moore and felt a little strange, but they could not tell what was strange until the door of the conference room was pushed open from the outside.

"I'm sorry, every president. Miss Ning went to get some documents, so she is late. Now that she has got all the authority of Mr. Kerr, so she has the right to attend the board meeting on behalf of Mr. Kerr."

Chapter 182 Make The Decision For Him

Said Jared Kang, walking beside Nicole.

Walking towards the seat where Kerr would take before, Nicole sat down calmly and gracefully.

The board members looked at each other, puzzled.

Sitting in the corner, Moore didn't show much emotion on his face.

"You said that you have got the permission of Mr. Gu, what evidence do you have? How can you sit here?" President Liang looked at Nicole and thought that she was so young that she could be where she was today just because she had seduced Kerr.

Hearing what director Liang said, Nicole did not get angry but smiled faintly. "Your words are not objective. I think everyone here has the same question. Then I'll explain it again."

Nicole's eyes swept over everyone present and finally fell on Moore. "Kerr has very important things to do recently, and it will soon bring new benefits to the Gu Group. So during Kerr's busy time, I will temporarily be the CEO of the Gu Group. This is the authorization letter." Nicole took out the authorized letter from her bag and put it on the table of the meeting room.

"There's no need to do that. I believe what you said, Miss Ning. My brother is able to hand over the whole Gu Group to you. You really won the heart of him, Miss Ning."

On the surface, Moore was protecting Nicole and Kerr, but it implied that he had doubts about what kind of person Nicole was and what her purpose was.

Looking at Moore's face, Nicole was well prepared, so she was not surprised. "You are right. I believe that everyone here knows about Kerr. So we should believe in his ability and insight."

"Although I don't have much experience in this respect, I have been guided by Kerr. By the way, I haven't paid any attention to the project that Director Gu has gotten for the Gu Group. How's it going?"

Nicole knew that everyone present paid no attention to her, but these so-called president had never been involved in the real management of the Gu Group.

Only when they got into trouble did they come to say that Kerr should be responsible for it. But they forgot that it was because of Kerr that they could live a comfortable life. Thinking of this, Nicole felt bitterly disappointed.

But no matter what happened, Nicole was always determined to be with progress of these projects over the next period of time."

"I will not give you a blank cheque, but you can see my actual actions. I will use the most direct way to let everyone see the effects."

Those projects that had gone wrong were not difficult to solve, but she was sure that there was indeed someone who was behind the scenes.

"It would be nice if what Miss Ning said is true, but if not... How are you going to make it up? "

"After all, Miss Ning is not the employee of the Gu Group. At that time, the project will be damaged and miss Ning will leave. The Gu Group will be in trouble."

"Miss Ning, please don't get me wrong. I didn't mean to offend you. I'm just stating a fact. That's what everyone is worried about."

What Moore was doing was to corner Nicole. Only by doing so could he be able to drive Kerr out of the Gu Group.

"That's right. I'm afraid we can't be convinced by Miss Ning's words."

Everyone was echoing with him.

Nicole took a deep breath, but still with a faint smile on her face, not nervous at all.

"Now that you all want my promise, then I'll give you one." She paused on purpose, thinking that she was cutting off all means of retreat.

"I promise everyone here that if I really cause damage to the Gu Group because of me, I will dismiss myself and leave the Gu Group."

Everyone was puzzled when they heard what she said. As Nicole was not a member of the Gu Group, such a promise was meaningless. Only Moore could understand what she meant.

Chapter 183 Passing The Tests

Looking at Nicole, Moore smiled. "Miss Ning, you mean that you are standing here for my brother. If something goes wrong, it is my brother who is responsible, isn't it?"

He wanted to seize the opportunity. If Nicole dared to make such a promise, he would ask Kerr to accept the result on behalf of her. He would pay for her conceit.

Hearing Moore's question, Nicole took a deep breath and stared at him. "Yes, I'm here on behalf of Kerr, so I have to be responsible for what I said and did."

"I promise everyone here that every decision I made in the Gu Group represents Kerr. If there is a problem, I will also be responsible for it."

Nicole knew that this was the answer everyone here wanted. She knew that once she said this, there was no way back. Success or failure was in one shot. Looking at everyone here, she was not nervous at all.

But only she knew that every word she said was about the fact that Kerr would take over the Gu Group in the future.

Standing beside Nicole and seeing the situation, Jared knew that she was also forced to do this.

After getting the answer he wanted, Moore was finally satisfied. He sat down calmly and looked leisurely at Nicole without saying anything. Everyone looked at his reaction and sat down with no objections.

Nicole put the documents she had dealt with at home on the table, and Jared walked up to her and passed them to everyone present.

The morning passed quickly. Nicole's precise memory and analysis surprised everyone present. Naturally, they shut their mouths and had no more doubts.

As for the problems that occurred to the Gu Group recently, Nicole gave a analysis and immediately gave opinions for improvement, and then ended the meeting.

But Nicole knew that it was just a beginning. There would be a much harder task waiting for her in the future. When she returned to Kerr's office, she sat on the chair and looked a little tired.

"Miss Ning, are you ok

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

"As long as I'm alive, I'm still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses."

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she learned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

ily didn't like this woman. She thought that Kerr would abandon her, but she didn't expect that they already had a baby.

"Yes, our baby." Nicole smiled gently.

She knew that Kerr would wake up sooner or later.

Lily felt worried and afraid when she heard that. She didn't want to hide anything at this moment.

"Nicole, actually..."

Before she finished her words, she heard someone open the door. She immediately lowered her head. The courage she used to muster up just now disappeared.

Jared walked in.

"Miss Ning, Mr. Su called and asked me to take you home for a rest."

Looking at the back of Nicole, Lily felt annoyed...

When she returned to the Gu's villa, when Myron walked into the living room, she saw Harley. "How is Kerr today?" How she wished that it was Kerr who waited for her here.

But she was disappointed every time.

Looking at her pale face and fine spirit, Harley was not so worried. "Fine. He just doesn't wake up yet."

He knew this would disappoint Nicole, but it was true.

Nicole nodded and went back to her bedroom. She looked at Kerr who was lying on the bed quietly with a gentle look in her eyes.

"How long do you want to sleep? If you don't wake up and look at me, I may really lose your Gu Group by accident. Will you blame me then?"

Chapter 184 The Purpose Of Threat

Sitting beside Kerr, Nicole held his hand and said calmly as if she was making a joke.

But he didn't say anything in response. She leaned her head against Kerr and said, "Kerr, I'm willing to have a try because of you. But you have to promise me that you won't keep me waiting too long, okay?"

No one answered her, but she knew that Kerr had heard it.

After dinner, Nicole sat in the study. Jared was following her. He was a little embarrassed as he looked at the itinerary that Kerr had prepared.

According to the arrangement of Kerr before, he would attend a lot of business banquets, but now he hasn't woken up, so Nicole couldn't work too hard, obviously this cannot be achieved.

"What's wrong?" As soon as Nicole looked up, she saw the embarrassed look on Jared's face, so she asked.

When he heard her, he passed the schedule to her. "Here's the thing, Miss Ning. This is the previous schedule of Master. I've cancelled all the schedules that can be cancelled, except for a few. They are really..."

In fact, Kerr Gu could choose not to attend the party, but it was not good for the reputation of the Gu Group.

After all, it was a promise from Kerr.

Nicole glanced at the previous arrangement and nodded. "It's okay. These schedules are not concentrated. I can go there. At worst, I don't drink. It's better for me to leave early."

She knew that if there was any way, Jared would solve it for her, and now there was nothing he could do.

When he heard her, Jared could only nod to agree. According to the arrangement, there would be a business dinner tomorrow evening, and he would prepare for her in advance.

Nicole handed a project to Jared. "This project is what Kerr valued most before. It's already finished half of the project. You must keep an eye on it. Don't make any mistake."

She tried her best to protect you as long as you are obedient. I still have something to ask you for help." Moore put his hand on Lily's shoulder and whispered in her ear.

But when she heard what Moore said, Lily was shocked with her eyes wide open. She took on an expression of shock and asked, "do you want me to steal the documents from Nicole?" Until now, Lily finally understood why Moore asked her to work beside Nicole.

Looking at Lily's surprised face, Moore touched her cheek gently with his fingers and said, "you'd better be obedient. Otherwise, the photos you worried most will be sent to your parents and your boyfriend."

The next morning, Lily received a phone call from Nicole before she woke up.

Lily cautiously put the phone near her ear. "Nicole? What's wrong? "

Nicole was sitting at the table and drinking milk. "I have something to do today, so I will be late. Can you help me sort out the documents on my desk? I need them when I arrive at the company."

Lily nodded her head and replied, "I know. Don't worry." Then Lily hung up the phone. She heaved a sigh of relief and was about to stand up when she felt an arm coming over her waist.

"Do you remember what I told you last night?" Moore warned Lily, his eyes full of menace.

In the Gu's villa.

Jared walked in and waited beside since Nicole hadn't finished her breakfast.

"Do you make the preparation?" Nicole turned to look at Jared.

Today, before going to work, Nicole had to do something more important. Now for the outside, Kerr was completely a mystery for them as no one knew where he was.

For the safety of Kerr, Nicole had to divert the attention of everyone. Otherwise, if she went to the company in the daytime and only had Kerr stay at home, she could be wary of others but not against the Gu family.

So the best way was to make everyone believe that Kerr was not at home.

When Jared heard the words of Nicole, he nodded, "yes, everything is ready, and the person has been waiting outside." Jared couldn't help admiring her intelligence. Only she could think of this way.

Of course, there was another person who was an exception. Kerr had also used such a way to divert the attention of his opponents, so he had been prepared. Now it seemed that Nicole and Kerr were really a match made in heaven.

Putting down the milk glass, Nicole wiped her mouth with a napkin and stood up. "Let's go." When she reached the door of the villa, she saw the back of a man.

The back looked so familiar and for a moment, Nicole thought that the man must be Kerr. She wanted Jared to find a man who looked like Kerr, but she didn't expect him to be so similar.

Hearing the footsteps behind him, the man turned around, wearing a pair of big sunglasses. Not only his figure, but also his face was somewhat similar to that of Kerr. "Miss Ning."

The man greeted her.

If the voice wasn't different from Kerr's, Nicole almost believed that the man in front of her was Kerr. But when she thought of the fact that Kerr was still in bed, she couldn't help feeling disappointed.

The corners of her mouth barely formed a smile

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

"As long as I'm alive, I'm still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses."

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she learned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

Hearing Lily's words, Nicole burst out laughing. She turned around, looked at Lily who was still in confusion and nodded. "Yes, I am so late today, so I sent him to the airport. He won't come back these days."

There was a slight loss in the tone of Nicole. But she did not expect that the news spread to the company so soon. It was clear that every move of them had been monitored.

She felt more and more lucky that she had made this decision in order to protect Kerr.

Looking at the expression in Nicole's eyes, Lily had already got the answer in her mind. Standing beside her, Lily was very hesitant when she saw that Xenia put her attention on the new development project.

She had always felt that Nicole was good to her. She couldn't bear to betray her, but she had no choice. If she did, she would be the victim.

Nicole didn't notice Lily's guilty look. Thinking that her 'scheme' had worked, she chuckled to herself. For Kerr, this was probably the best thing.

Seeing the happy expression on Nicole's face, Jared who came in from outside gradually felt relieved.

"Miss Ning, Master has already discussed with the other side about the business plan he made before. It is only need a signature of Master to be fully started."

Chapter 186 The Tacit Understanding Between Him And Me

Jared put the files on the table and showed it to Nicole. The project was very important to the Gu Group. If it went well, it would bring a lot of profits to the Gu Group.

When Nicole received the proposal and looked at it, her eyes lit up. This idea was casually proposed by her when she was not officially with Kerr.

It never occurred to her that Kerr had paid attention to it and it was really written in the business plan. Kerr transformed her idea into reality remarkably.

"Take it to put into practice." This project carried the common idea of both Nicole and Kerr. She hoped the progress could be smooth.

Lily was standing next to Nicole, holding the documents that Nicole needed, so she knew which project was more important to both the Gu company and Nicole.

However, Lily hesitated. Once she took action, there would be a big problem. Then, she would never have a second chance to go back.

"Do you have anything tonight?" Nicole didn't raise her head. She just asked Lily softly. Tonight, she wanted to take Lily with her to the business party.

Although Lily wasn't that remarkable, Nicole wanted to train her.

Lily shook her head blankly when she heard Nicole's voice. "Nothing planned. What's up, Nicole?"

"If you have nothing else to do, go to a business party with me. I can take you to meet some friends, which is good for your future development."

Lily's heart jolted as she listened to the words of Nicole. She became more hesitant. She didn't expect that Nicole would think so much for her.

However, Lily couldn't refuse the threat from Moore. The fact that Nicole cared about her and promoted her made her unable to refuse. She felt uncomfortable in the dilemma.

Nicole looked at Lily. It was as if she was thinking about something. Lily seemed to have something on her mind recently. Nicole shook his head slightly and didn't care much ught Lily in and took a glass of juice from the tray held by the waiter.

"Miss Ning, it's been a long time." Jeremy Chu walked towards Nicole with a glass of wine in his hand.

Nicole nodded slightly, "Mr. Chu, long time no see. I didn't expect that as the host of today's party, you are so brilliant. I still remember the first time I saw you."

In a short period of time, Jeremy had been on the top of the whole industry. His strength could not be underestimated.

When he saw that Nicole wasn't with Kerr, he doubted, "you are flattering me, Miss Ning. I also want to thank you for your help then. Without your original plan, I wouldn't be where I am today."

"When we invited Mr. Kerr, we specially invited Miss Ning, in order to have a good chat with you. But why haven't we seen Mr. Kerr?"

When Nicole heard his words, she realized that he was not a man to be trifled with.

Nicole noticed the strange glances from many guests along the way.

But Nicole did not care. Since she had the courage to take over the burden of the Gu Group, she had been ready to face it.

"Nicole!" A surprised voice came from behind. It was from Avery. When Nicole turned her head, she saw Avery wearing a pink short dress, which accentuated her fair skin.

Chapter 187 Provocation

As clever as she was, Avery came to the party as soon as she saw Nicole. She agreed reluctantly to attend the party with her brother who was not related by blood since she knew that Nicole would be here.

"Avery, why are you here? I remember that you don't like this kind of banquet."

Avery walked up to Nicole. "Why didn't I see your beloved today?"

How could he let you go out alone?"

"He went abroad for business." Nicole had been lying to others.

"You haven't told me why you are here." Nicole tried to change the subject.

On hearing that, Avery's smile disappeared. "I came back because of that monster." Left with no choice, Avery turned around and saw the man drinking and talking with others.

Following Avery's gaze, Nicole saw the so-called monster in her eyes and smiled faintly. This was the only person in the world that could give Avery a headache, Zachary Lin.

The adopted son of the Lin family was the CEO of the Lin Group, and also the brother of Avery.

Feeling the attentive gazes, Zachary turned around to greet his friends and walked towards them.

When Nicole looked at that figure, in a trance, she felt that when she looked at Zachary's eyes, she would think of Kerr.

Zachary looked at Nicole who was in a daze. He then greeted her, "Hi, Nicole, long time no see." It was not until then that Nicole came to her senses.

Zachary smiled gently and looked like a real gentleman, but when Nicole looked at him, she seemed to have some mixed feelings.

When Nicole came to herself, she greeted him with a smile, "Zachary, when did you come back? It's really been a long time since we last met." She remembered that they met in a middle school last time.

Then they went abroad for further education, and they never contacted each other again.

As far as she could remember, Zachary had always been a gentle elder brother, but now he had turned into a sophisticated and mature man.

And he looked a little like Kerr... Maybe it was because she missed Kerr too much that she made a wrong judgment. She could only lower her head to hide her disappointment.

With a faint smile in the eyes of Zachary, he looked at her. "I came back a month ago. I haven't seen you for a long time, and I will have a lot of chances to see you in the future."

Seeing Zachary's polite behavior, Avery rolled her eyes and put her hand on his.

Then Avery smiled at Nicole lightly and turned to look at Jeremy standing opposite.

In such a public place, Avery knew that Jeremy was a gentleman and would not refuse an offer from a lady.

As expected, Jeremy smiled faintly, glanced at Nicole with a meaningful look, and then led Avery to the dance floor.

Nicole finally breathed a sigh of relief. Standing next to her, Zachary involuntarily gripped the glass in his hand, walked up to her and looked serious.

"How is Kerr?" Zachary said in a calm tone, as if he was talking about the weather with Nicole. His eyes had been staring at Avery and Jeremy who were standing in the center of the dancing floor.

When Zachary heard Zachary's gentle voice, she was surprised. Turning to look at him with amazement, she asked, "How did you know Kerr, Zachary? Did Avery say that?"

Although Avery knew that Nicole and Kerr were together, Nicole clearly remembered that she hadn't told Avery about the news that Kerr had gotten in trouble.

But when Nicole looked at Zachary who was standing next to her, she sensed that he had already known that Kerr was in a coma, so she asked him carefully.

"Nicole, Avery doesn't know many things and I don't want her to know, but you don't have to hide anything from me. When you were abroad, the explosion..."

Zachary's eyes were fixed on Avery all this time, but every word he said shocked Nicole who was next to him.

Nicole looked at Zachary with her eyes wide open, and for a moment, she didn't know how to answer him.

Chapter 188 I Dont Have Evidence

Since Nicole hadn't seen Zachary for so many years, she knew that he was not what he used to be.

But at this moment, Zachary gave her an unfathomable feeling, so that she couldn't tell if Zachary was a friend or an enemy.

"Zachary, I want to know how you know these things? I hope you can tell me the truth, okay?"

She was really tired as she had to protect Kerr and take care of the Gu Group. She was gradually feeling that she was not able to bear it and had no strength to be suspicious about more things.

Thinking that Kerr was still at home, she felt a little comforted.

Hearing the voice of Nicole, Zachary now became like a frightened bird, so with a faint smile on his face, he turned to look at her, "Don't worry, I'm not your enemy, and I don't want to steal anything from Kerr either."

"There is something I want, but I'm not your enemy. Don't worry." After saying that, Zachary looked at Lily who was standing behind Nicole.

He bent down and reached out his hand to Lily, asking, "Miss, may I dance with you?" Zachary said with a gentle and calm smile on his face.

His voice was gentle and pleasant, Lily couldn't refuse. Lily looked at Nicole and found that she didn't object. So she put her hand on Zachary's and was brought to the dance floor by him.

Nicole looked at Zachary thoughtfully and thought about what he said just now. She couldn't help but feel confused. "Jared, did you find out who did the explosion when we were abroad?"

It was the first time for Nicole to ask about it. She had speculated that it was Moore who had done it, but she hadn't gotten any evidence. Besides, since they came back, Nicole had been busy with the business of the Gu Group.

So she had no time to think about it. Originally, Nicole thought th makes you think you can hide the whereabouts of Kerr? Don't think that you can do anything as you want in the Gu Group after you get permission from Kerr?"

When Nicole knew that Nicole got into the GR Group and took the position for Kerr, she almost lost her temper and wanted to look for Nicole directly. However, as time went by, Sunny gradually calmed down and knew that she didn't have any news about where Kerr was now.

She couldn't act rashly. The most important thing now was to find Kerr.

"You're really well-informed, Miss He. But if I remember correctly, you are not a member of the Gu Group any more. So anything in the Gu Group has nothing to do with you, Miss He."

Nicole sounded wary and suspicious. How could Sunny get the news so fast? Maybe she could find out where Sunny got the news from.

When Nicole saw the arrogant look on Nicole's face, she was infuriated. Suddenly, something occurred to her. Nicole smiled and said, "Well, I really admire your courage.

How can you face your enemy who killed your father so calmly? Miss Ning, you probably have forgotten how the Ning Group went bankrupt. And how the former president of the group die in misery?"

Chapter 189 What Happened

Knowing that the bankruptcy of Ning Group had always been a concern for Nicole. Now she was going to use the painful thing to irritate Nicole.

She had falsified all the evidence. She did not believe that Nicole could still be indifferent in front of these evidence.

With these evidences, she didn't believe that Nicole was still with Kerr.

When Nicole heard Sunny's words, Nicole felt a shiver in her heart, but she didn't show it. She didn't turn around to look at Sunny. She just halted in her track and said lightly, "Miss He, don't worry about me. It is none of your business."

Then, Nicole turned around and walked away.

In the car, Nicole was still thinking about what Sunny had said to her. Kerr had said that he would give her an explanation. But he was still in a coma. It was uncertain when he would wake up.

Nicole didn't want to doubt Kerr, but she couldn't help feeling sad every time she heard about what had happened that year. She never wanted to hurt anyone, but some people always wanted to give her a hard time.

Jared saw through the rearview mirror and found that Nicole was in a daze, and couldn't help but worry. If Nicole was really stimulated by what Sunny said, it would be a crisis for the Gu Group.

After all, the fate of the whole Gu Group was almost in the hands of Nicole.

"Mrs. Nicole, you should trust Mr. Kerr." Reminded Jared.

When Nicole heard him, she came to her senses. She looked at him through the rearview mirror and saw his worried eyes. She smiled and got what he meant.

"You don't have to worry about it. Before Kerr wakes up, I won't believe anyone. This is a matter between me and him. I will only listen to his explanation."

In fact, she knew that regardless of whether this had anything to do with Kerr, he had already proved to her by acti that, she walked towards Baron's car.

Baron took a look at Jared and then turned around and drive away.

Jared stood there and wanted to follow her, but he was afraid to annoy Nicole, so he had to trust her and drove back to the Gu family.

No one noticed that a black car was parked in the dark and observed everything secretly. Then it followed the silver Rolls Royce.

Nicole sat beside Baron and looked at the handsome side face of him. It was not the usual smile, but was replaced with discontent, sadness and unwillingness instead.

"What's wrong with you? What happened?" She had never seen him like that before.

With his hands on the steering wheel and eyes looking ahead, Baron didn't answer her question, "Are you pregnant?" Hadn't it been for Jared mentioned it, Baron wouldn't have known that Nicole was pregnant.

He still remembered that when Nicole got pregnant for the first time, only he stayed with her. It was a pity at that time, but he was the person whom Nicole trusted most.
