Chapter 191 Old Man

Baron knew that he had no right to love Nicole anymore.

When Nicole saw the bitter smile on Baron's face, she frowned and said, "Baron, you..." What should she say? Was she going to accuse Baron of being a bastard? But he made a mistake because of her.

In fact, it was not their fault, but it was that they didn't destined to hold hands for the rest of their lives.

When she looked at the sad expression on Baron's face, she didn't know what to say. So she lowered her head and kept silent.

"You don't have to feel stressful. I know what I should do. I am willing to be a good father, but it doesn't mean that I can be a good husband." Baron couldn't guarantee that he would forget Nicole.

After all, the pain that someone couldn't love you back was a regret in everyone's heart, and perhaps this regret will stay in the heart for a lifetime.

Nicole turned her head to look at Baron and said, "Baron, Maggie didn't do anything wrong. I can see that she likes you very much and you'll find she's a good woman one day."

Life is long. Sometimes we can ignore the people around us, and don't regret it until we lose it." She believed that Maggie could warm Baron up with her own tenderness.

She hoped that everyone around her could get happiness.

"Nicole, I know that if I don't tell you today, maybe I won't have a chance to do so in the future. In fact, I fell in love with you the moment I saw you."

"I admit that I didn't like Jay, and I am jealous that his father could have you. Maybe it is because of this jealousy that I missed you. When I discovered it, I realized that it was too late."

It was his first time to face his true feelings, and maybe it was the last time.

Nicole shook her head and said, "Actually, Baron, have you ever thought about it? Maybe it's not love. Feeling your heart thumping in love at first sight is beautiful,

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

"As long as I'm alive, I'm still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses."

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she learned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

me. So she softened her tone, "My sweetheart, we are very busy these days."

"I'll pick you up a few days later, okay?" In fact, she also missed Jay very much.

Learning the concern of Nicole, Jay became more suspicious. "Mommy, is there anything wrong?" Jay was trying to hack into the internal network of the Gu Group.

However, ever since Kerr found it, he had reinforced the network system of the Gu Group. Although Jay tried it several times but failed, so he was still not clear about the condition of the Gu Group, but he did not give up.

"It's okay. Be good and go to bed early. Mommy will pick you up soon." She didn't want to make Jay worry. Since she couldn't take care of Jay in person, she already felt very guilty.

And Jay was just a child after all. After pacifying Jay, Nicole hanged up the phone.

However, Jay had more suspicion in his heart. His little and flexible hands were moving fast on the keyboard with a serious expression on his young face.

Nicole didn't remember when she was sent home by the driver of Fang family.

It was already noon when she woke up. Considering that she still had a meeting in the morning, she immediately got up and looked at Kerr who was lying next to her, was still unconscious.

Chapter 192 Someone Is Helping Her

It seemed that Nicole had gotten used to it. After she kissed Kerr's forehead, she left the villa.

Sitting in the car, Nicole noticed the strange look of Jared. "What do you want to ask? Go ahead." She knew that Jared still worried about what happened last night.

"You and Mr. Baron?" Although he was clear that it was rude to ask such a question, he still asked for the sake of Kerr.

Nicole looked at him and said calmly, "He's getting married. Maybe I'll receive his invitation today." She wanted to give bless to Baron. After all, in her heart, she always took him as a good friend.

She didn't expect that he would get married before she did.

Hearing that, Jared didn't say anything. He looked ahead and drove her to the Gu Group.

Nicole looked at the time and went straight to the meeting room.

When she sat in the meeting room, she looked at the data shown on her laptop and couldn't help but feel surprise. There had been a huge loophole in the project, and she hadn't found a solution yet.

But now it had been handled.

"Mrs. Nicole, you sent an email to us last night, and we've revised the paper according to your comments. Now, let me explain you the revised plan."

The project director said.

The man's words shocked Nicole, but she didn't show it on her face. She opened her mailbox, and when she saw the e-mail that had been sent out, she looked puzzled.

Last night, she had no time to revise the plan, but looking at the revised proposal, she couldn't figure out who was silently helping her, or perhaps helping the Gu Group.

She raised her head and listened to his introduction. She was very satisfied with it and finished the meeting soon.

Jared got the wedding invitation from the Fang Group.

When Nicole finished the meeting and came back, she looked at the invitation on her desk with a complex e ally didn't have the courage to invite Nicole. He was really worried that if she did nothing and said nothing, he would flee from the wedding.

When Maggie looked at Baron and found that his eyes were focused on Nicole, she put Her hands around Baron's arms and smiled at Nicole.

"Mrs. Nicole, long time no see. Thank you for coming. Why Mr. Kerr didn't come with you?" There was embarrassment on Maggie's face. She didn't think she would forget the name, Nicole Ning, for the rest of her life.

That was the name that Baron could not forget even when he was half-asleep in the night.

"Kerr has gone on a business trip, so he asked me to send my best wishes for you. Congratulations on your wedding!" Nicole smiled and sent her best wishes generously. She sensed hostility in Maggie's tone.

Taking a step forward, Nicole looked at Baron and said, "Baron, you are my good friend, so I want to congratulate you on your wedding today. I hope you will live up to my trust in you."

Nicole reminded Baron. Even if Baron gave up his wedding and everything for her today, she would never choose to be with him.

Baron nodded slightly. He understood what Nicole meant and took the initiative to hold Maggie's hand for the first time.

Chapter 193 I Do

"Thank you for your wishes. I know what to do, and I will cherish my beloved wife." If in this way, Nicole could feel at ease, he was willing to say these words against his will.

For Maggie Chen, however, it was the sweetest oath in the world.

When the wedding began, Nicole stood under the stage and looked at the newly married couple on the stage. Although they were not so sweet, she believed that they were happy with such a new start in life.

When will Kerr give her such a wedding? It doesn't need to be big, as long as they have each other. Every woman has a dream of wedding, and Nicole is no exception.

Before she met Kerr, she thought she would never get married in her life, but when she found out that Kerr was the biological father of Jay, she fell in love with him.

Nicole couldn't believe that she began to look forward to the wedding.

When Baron stood on the stage, he looked at Maggie without any expression on his face. No one knew how much he hoped that the person standing on the opposite could be Nicole, but everyone knew that it was impossible.

"Mr. Baron, would you like to take Miss Maggie as your wife, to take care of her and till the end of your life?"

The host looked at Baron and asked him with a smile the vows that he would make at each wedding.

But it seemed that Baron didn't hear it at all. He couldn't help glancing at Nicole standing off the stage.

"Mrs. Nicole, you shouldn't be here." Mrs. Fang came to Nicole and said to her while she was watching Baron on the stage.

Nicole was first stunned, and then she understood what she had said. Unconsciously, everyone's eyes were fixed on her because of the gazes of Baron.

It was an awkward moment. The host coughed awkwardly standing on the stage.

Maggie looked at Baron with a panic look on her face.

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

"As long as I'm alive, I'm still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses."

n her eyes.

He was the same man that she was familiar with. He was warmly in his arms and was very affectionate, just like what he used to be.

But she still felt it hard to believe. After all, it was too good to be true. Her tears turned from sadness to joy.

Raising his hand, Kerr wiped the tears off the face of Nicole with a rough finger. "You little fool, it's really me. I'm back. From now on, you don't need to face alone, I'll be with you."

Even without the time to ask, Kerr knew what kind of pressure she must face in such a situation. He knew it in his heart.

He knew that she must have suffered a lot. That was the reason why he had made up his mind to make it up for her.

Hearing what Kerr had said, she smiled through tears. Nothing was more important than the fact that Kerr was safe and sound. As long as he was okay, all her suffering had been paid off.

It was said that as long as the ending was good, it was good to shed tears in the process. This was what mattered to her now. She was happy to see Kerr standing in front of her safe and sound.

Looking at her, who was laughing and crying, Kerr put his arm around her waist and carried her towards the car parking at the door.

Chapter 194 I Wont Let You Marry Anyone

After they got in the car, Kerr put his arm around Nicole's shoulder and looked down at the little woman in his arms. With obvious pity in his eyes, he wiped away the tears on her face, but she just couldn't stop from crying.

"Don't cry. I'm all right now. I'm here with you. I won't let you be wronged any more. Good girl." He thought that the reason why she was crying was because she thought about what she had been through all this time.

But he did not know that her tears were for joy.

Nicole looked up at him with great joy and kept staring at him as if she would never get enough of him. She really wanted to see him melt in her eyes like this.

"Do you know how scared I am? What should I do if you never wake up? I'm afraid that I will lose you. I'm afraid that I can't be with you anymore.

I'm really scared, but I can't let anyone feel that I'm scared. I have to be strong. I have to make everyone think that you're fine. How much I'm afraid that they'll expose my lie.

It's the biggest lie I've ever told. And it will make me feel guilty, but I have to make it happen step by step."

She disdained to lie. The first time she lied was to protect Jay, so she concealed his identity. The second time she lied was to protect Kerr, so she pretended nothing had happened.

She was left with no choice but to tell a lie. It was a white lie, but Nicole was also afraid.

Kerr took Nicole in his arms and gently kissed her hair. He felt that her shoulder tremble when she was in his arms, and he tried to comfort her.

"I know. I know all about it. It's all my fault. I promise I will never do that again. Don't cry, or the baby will laugh at you." When Kerr woke up, he had already heard about the pregnancy of Nicole from Vedder.

He knew what was going on, but he was still worried about Nicole

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

"As long as I'm alive, I'm still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses."

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she learned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

Nicole's eyes were wide open with surprise, and she looked at him in disbelief.

"If I had known it would work, I would have said it a long time ago."

She didn't expect that such a simple sentence could wake him up.

A long time later, when Nicole remembered this, she specially asked Harley that if it was true that there was a magic in the world, but Harley's answer was profound and unfathomable.

Harley told her that there are a lot of things that can't be explained in the world.

So Nicole was more willing to believe that everything was destined. When she needed Kerr, he appeared in time. She was willing to believe it was because of love.

Looking at the cute Nicole, Kerr felt lucky to have her in his life. He would never let her go for the rest of his life.

Feeling the warmth of Kerr's arms, she gradually forgot all the grievances she had encountered.

Jared looked in the rear-view mirror and saw the happy expression on their faces. He was satisfied. The car slowly drove into the villa of the Gu family, and Jared opened the door for them.

Kerr went home holding the hand of Nicole. When they arrived, Harley was waiting for them in the living room. She was relieved to see him.

Chapter 195 For Him

"You finally come back. Let me have a check of you quickly. You just woke up and then ran out. If you run into any accident again, I will not be responsible for it." Harley did not forget.

In the morning, when Nicole left the Gu family not long ago, Harley went to check on Kerr as usual, he found that Kerr had the sign of waking up, so he didn't dare to leave.

And Kerr woke up soon. As expected, Kerr was looking for Nicole. When Kerr knew that she went on the party, he rushed out without hesitation.

When Nicole saw that Harley was so nervous, she went to the special medical room of the Gu family with Kerr right away. In order to take care of Kerr easily and to prevent accidents, Harley almost moved half of the hospital to the Gu family.

"How is he?" Wearing a nervous expression, Nicole looked at Kerr lying on the bed and couldn't help worrying about him.

Looking at the examination report in his hand, Harley was relieved. "Nothing serious. He just woke up, so he should pay attention to his diet. Try to eat something that is easy to digest. Don't work too hard."

But he knew that Kerr would not listen to him. The Gu Group still had a lot of work to deal with. Now that Kerr woke up, he wouldn't let Nicole do any hard work, so he could only ask Nicole to take care of Kerr.

Hearing that, Nicole was relieved. She smiled and held Kerr's hand.

"Don't listen to him. He is just exaggerating the fact. I will be fine as long as you are with me." Without giving much thought to what Harley said, Kerr directly took the hand of Nicole and walked out.

Looking at the back of the two people, Harley felt very dissatisfied. "Don't be so heartless, OK? Why do I work so hard these days? I've done all of this for you." Harley followed them out, but he didn't want to disturb them when he saw how happy they were.

Hearing what Harley said, Nicole smiled faintly and sat with her.

Vedder nodded. When he felt that Freya was almost there, he walked out of the door to welcome her.

Sitting on the sofa, Kerr was waiting for his mother, while he was lost deep in thought.

A lot of things had happened during this period, but none of them was beyond his expectation, which made him more sure about his thoughts.

"Kerr? Aren't you abroad? When did you come back?" When entering the living room, Freya was obviously surprised to see Kerr. She only heard that he went abroad, but didn't receive any news about him coming back.

Hearing the voice of his mother, Kerr didn't stand up. Instead, he said indifferently to Vedder, "Uncle, please ask all the servants to leave. I have something to talk with Mrs. Freya."

With the hint of Kerr, Vedder asked all the servants to leave the living room.

Hearing what Kerr called her that way, Freya could not help but frown. She went to sit down opposite to Kerr. Looking at his expressionless face, she seemed to have been accustomed to his coldness.

"You are just in time. You'd better get this thing done as soon as possible." Then she took out a file from her bag and placed it to Kerr.

"This is a share transfer agreement. I'm going to transfer my shares of the Gu Group to you."

Chapter 196 I Will Accompany You To The Top Of The World

"In this way, you don't have to worry about Moore's threat in the Gu Group."

Nicole would also leave Kerr as she had promised. Without her, Kerr would be able to return to who he used to be, so Freya didn't need to worry about the fact that Nicole might affect him.

Kerr raised his head and looked at his mother, who was as strange as before. He felt sad to have such a mother. He just put the document back to his mother.

"Mom, don't worry. I know what I want. Now that I have taken over the Gu Group, I will not let anyone else to ruin it.

But I hope you won't interfere in my relationship. Since I have chosen Nicole, I will be with her, no matter who objects.

I will be responsible for she and Jay."

Clearly, Kerr expressed his ideas to Freya.

Before going through the coma, Kerr had chosen Nicole. This accident proved that he was right, so Kerr would never leave her again.

This time, it was time for Kerr to protect Nicole, and when Kerr needed care most, it was her that took care of him.

So this time, Kerr won't let Nicole down.

Hearing what Kerr said, Freya was stunned. She never thought Kerr would say something like that. In the face of such a huge temptation, Kerr didn't seem to care about it.

The shares she held were a lot to others, but to Kerr, they were worthless.

"Kerr, do you know what you are talking about? Do you know what does these shares mean? "

Freya widened her eyes and stared at Kerr sitting opposite her. She couldn't believe what he had said. From childhood to adulthood, Kerr was smart and she didn't need to worry about him. Kerr was qualified enough to take over the Gu Group.

So she never paid much attention to Kerr. Looking at him, she realized icole, with obvious contempt in her tone. She didn't understand why Kerr was so into her.

Hearing his mother's words, Kerr turned around to face his mother, and stood in front of Nicole to protect her from being hurt. There was obvious warning in his eyes.

"Mother, this is my choice. No one is allowed to make a decision for me. I'll have someone send you back. Thank you for your gift, but I don't need it."

He didn't want his mother to hurt Nicole with those sharp words, He knew that it was unfair to Nicole.

But Kerr couldn't avoid Freya, so he would try his best to protect Nicole.

"Kerr... You! " When Freya saw how Kerr protected Nicole, she frowned with dissatisfaction and was obviously displeased, but she was ignored by Kerr.

When Nicole saw that Kerr had a conflict with Freya because of her, she could not help but sigh. She stretched out her hand and pulled the sleeves of Kerr.

"Kerr, actually your mother did this for your own good."

Nicole didn't mean to put in a good word for Freya or to be magnanimous to accept Freya's prejudice against her family background. She just didn't want to make it hard for Kerr.

Chapter 197 Meeting Baron At The Night

Kerr held Nicole's hand and didn't want to concede to his mother.

Looking at the firm look of Kerr, Freya did not want to make a compromise to Nicole, but in the end, after thinking of what Kerr had said, she took a step back.

"You should reconsider this matter carefully and come to me at any time if you have made up your mind. I have to remind you that Moore is not a simple man and you should be careful. However, when the thing is really in your hand, it then belongs to you."

She didn't want Kerr to fail her years of cultivation, nor did she want Kerr to give everything that should have belonged to himself to others.

Freya turned around and left the villa.

Looking at the back of Freya, Nicole knew that Freya got a point. So she would definitely not let Kerr lose anything because of her.

Looking at Nicole who was lost in thoughts, Kerr knew that she was worried about him, so he gently kissed on her hair.

"Don't worry, I know what to do. I won't let you down. Give me some time."

When Kerr was in coma, he knew that Moore had been taking action against the Gu Group. Although Kerr was not surprised at all, Nicole was worried about it.

After all, Nicole had experienced Moore's tricks.

Nicole nodded. "Kerr, I know you don't care about these, but I don't want you to give up anything for me. Don't worry. Wherever you are, I have a home I'm with you."

She didn't care about the romance that Kerr had promised her. As long as Kerr was with her, it was enough.

When he heard that, Kerr slightly raised the corners of his mouth and his eyes were filled with softness.

As Kerr had just woken up from the coma, Nicole didn't ask him to go back to the Gu Group immediately. She asked him to stay at home and have a rest. Then she went back to the company.

Sitting in the office

him and kissed Baron on the roadside late at night."

After looking through the title and photo, Nicole learned that last night when she met with Baron, some people had already been watching them and took the photo secretly.

It looked like Baron was kissing Nicole when she was trying to push him away from the photo.

Wearing a bitter smile, she hadn't paid attention to the news yet. She had been busy attending Baron's wedding this morning, and then she had been glad that Kevin had woken up from the coma.

She didn't expect that she would hit the headlines.

She knew that a lot of people were waiting to see her make a fool of herself, but she would not explain these things to anyone else except Kerr.

"Whether the news on the a paper is true or not, it's my private affairs. It has nothing to do with the Gu Group or the people present in the meeting room, so I don't need to explain it to you.

Besides, I'm not interested in rumors at all."

It seemed that she wasn't affected by the incident, but she was worried about Kerr that he just woke up and had to see such news.

She didn't know if Kerr would believe her or not. Holding her cell phone, she didn't have the courage to call him.

Chapter 198 No One Is Qualified Except Her

"It's easy for you to say that. If you are not in the Gu Group now, it has nothing to do with us. But what you are doing now has impacted the Gu family."

"Even if you are only an acting CEO, you still have to be responsible for the Gu Group, but it is proved that you have no right to sit here at all."

It was obvious that director Liang wanted to get rid of Nicole.

Some of them felt that it was unfair to be bossed around by a little woman for such a long time in the company, and some members of the board were unsatisfied.

In the past, they had been in fear when considering that she was the woman of Kerr. Now that such a scandal was exposed, no man could tolerate it, let alone Kerr.

So they didn't want to be manipulated by Nicole any more.

Hearing director Liang, Nicole sneered and glanced at everyone present. No one stood out to speak for her, and Nicole probably understood their intention.

"Then what do you think? Do you want me to step aside and let other to fill my position?"

In fact, she had planned to announce that Kerr was back today. She never wanted to occupy this position, but she didn't want to leave the Gu Group in that way.

She didn't want anything, and she didn't need their respect. She just hoped that Kerr could understand that she had devoted a lot to the company all these days.

"Since you put it this way, we all have no objections. After all, you are also very busy. In this case, you have no time and energy to pay attention to the Gu Group."

Mr. Liang talked with the tongue in the cheek with disdain. It seemed that he looked down upon such a woman who took advantage of her relationship to get promoted.

Nicole laughed. "You mean I'm not qualified to sit here?"

How ridiculous! She didn't care about anything of the group, but now in some people's eyes, she was a greedy woman with ulterior motives.

e, you won't be upset and sullen outside Baron's wedding."

He knew what kind of girl Nicole was. If she really liked Baron, she would not be with him right now.

Nicole smiled. "How do you know that I'm not sad because he married someone else? Why are you so confident that I won't betray you?"

She knew that Kerr had always been proud. She was happy that he trusted her in this way, but she was also a little angry, so she wanted to threaten him a little bit.

Otherwise, she really didn't know how to make the man feel nervous.

When he looked at the woman in his arms, he didn't Irritated by what she had said and carried her in his arms towards the resting room in the meeting room.

"Don't wear high heels anymore. It's not good for the baby. From tomorrow on, just stay in my arms. I'll handle everything outside."

I know you felt sad when you saw Baron 's wedding, because you always want to have your own wedding with me. But don't worry. I will give everything that a man could ever give a woman and I will only give you more. When this is over, I will definitely not let you down."

He put Nicole on the bed and seriously made a commitment to her in order to reassure her.

On hearing this, Nicole looked at him in surprise.

Chapter 199 A Family Reunion

"Are you proposing?"

Although she knew that it was impossible for them to get married now and there were so many obstacles around them, she still couldn't help but look forward to it.

In this world, there was no woman who wasn't looking forward to their own wedding.

Looking at the expectation in Nicole's eyes, he couldn't help feeling guilty. Although Nicole had already had his child, he hadn't given her a valid status.

He knew how much pressure Nicole had endured for him, so he would only cherish her more.

"Nicole, if I propose to you one day, I'll let everyone know that you're my woman." Kerr made a promise to Nicole and made up his mind.

Looking at the firm look on Kerr's face, Nicole smiled and nodded.

"Kerr, I know that and you don't have to be anxious. This matter is not so important to me. As long as I can stay by your side, I will be satisfied."

She knew that all the difficulties she was in now were not what Kerr expected, so she didn't want to give him too much pressure.

Kerr reached out his hands and hugged her.

He took Nicole in his arms and his eyes became dim. After putting her to sleep, he went back to his office.

In the bathroom.

Moore looked at the documents in his hand triumphantly. According to these materials, it turned out that Nicole's efforts these days had been in vain.

Lily looked at Moore's complacent face, full of worry and anxiety. "I have done what you said. Can you return those pictures to me?"

She didn't want to betray Nicole, but she knew that she was left with no choice. The first thing she needed to do was to protect herself.

Hearing her voice, Moore raised his head. He looked at her eyes, which were filled and hugged his little body.

"Sorry, Jay. I shouldn't have sent you away."

Nicole knew Jay was still a child, so it was unfair to send him to a strange environment.

When he saw the tears hiding in Nicole's eyes, Jay gently held her face and said, "Mommy, don't worry. I'm fine, and I'm back now."

Looking at them, Kerr felt relieved. As Kerr loved Nicole so much, how could he not know what she was worrying about?

So the first thing he did after he woke up from the coma was to call Ken and ask him to send Jay back. He knew that Nicole must be very happy when she knew it.

"Don't squat for too long. You are carrying a baby now."

Kerr then put his arm around her shoulders and led her into the villa with Jay.

On the sofa, Jay sat next to Nicole, and his little hand carefully stroked her underbelly, which was still flat.

"Mommy, is there really a little sister inside?"

Jay was very interested in the unborn baby. Even though he was very smart, he didn't know much about life.

Nicole looked at him with a smile. "I do have a little life inside, but I don't know if it's a little brother or sister."

Chapter 200 Want A Sister

Nicole also wanted to have a daughter after giving birth to Jay.

"I want a little sister so that I can be a big brother. I will definitely protect her. Mommy, you can rest assured that I will never bully a little sister."

Jay seriously made a promise to the underbelly of Nicole.

Looking at the seriousness on his face, Nicole had a happy smile on her face. She turned and looked at Kerr beside her. "What do you think?"

With the vitamins he had prepared for Nicole in his hand, Kerr looked carefully at the instructions left by Harley and did not dare to be careless at all. It was not until he heard Nicole's voice that he shifted his attention to her.

"I love the baby, whether it is a boy or a girl, as long as it is our baby."

For him, boys and girls were the same. As long as the child had the genes of Nicole and was the fruit of their love, he couldn't help becoming nervous.

The baby was a big surprise to him, but he had made up his mind to protect it with his life.

"Harley said that your condition was not stable. You are forbidden to leave the villa from tomorrow on. Taking good care of you is the most important thing in the first three months."

He couldn't imagine how she got through this before he woke up.

Hearing what Kerr said, Nicole didn't make a comment. Now she focused on their child. She looked at the two men beside her with happiness in her eyes.

Sensing the domineering manner of Kerr, Jay curled his lips with discontent and said, "You're such an old bossy man."

Nicole looked at Jay in surprise. Since the last call, she had noticed that Jay's attitude to Kerr had changed.

"Jay, don't be so rude. What are you talking about?"

She knew that Jay's attitude to Kerr was different, but she didn't know why. In the past, Jay liked Kerr very much.

Jay lowered his head when he heard Nicole.

"This is between us. You don't have t it, I'll possibly surpass you at any time. Then I'll leave you with Mommy!" Jay raised his head and looked arrogant.

In fact, he was just trying to irritate Kerr because he hadn't discovered their relationship.

Kerr didn't take his words seriously. He stroked Jay's soft hair and said, "Even if I gave you the chance, so what?"

While speaking, Kerr pushed his computer in front of Jay and said, "I broke this password in one minute. What about you?"

He knew that although Jay was still a child, he was already eager to grow up. Kerr didn't want to force Jay to grow up. He hoped that Jay could have a happy childhood.

However, as long as Jay was willing to, Kerr would give him another chance.

Kerr's words arouse Jay's interest. He sat down and stared at the computer screen.

Then Kerr stood up and walked out of the study.

He took Nicole's hand and walked into the dining room. "Where is Jay?"

When she saw that only Kerr went downstairs. It was almost dinner time, but she didn't see Jay at all.

"He will be here soon."

As far as Kerr knew, though he knew that Jay would solve the problem, it would take some time.

The dinner was already, but Jay still didn't show up. So Nicole was about to stand up and ask Jay to have dinner.
