

CEO Daddy 20

Chapter 20

Soon, Zayden replied: Is there anything that you need? I'd love to help out.

Gwendolyn felt much better after having half a bowl of oatmeal porridge and was ready to go upstairs to sleep again.

The illness had left her feeling weak.

However, she could not help but frown after reading Zayden's reply.

She texted him: I just wanted to know how much a CEO's time typically costs. Tell me. I'll keep your words a secret.

When she finished texting Zayden, Gwendolyn poured a glass of water and went upstairs. She then found some medication and went to bed after taking it.

Before she slept, Gwendolyn looked at her phone and noticed that Zayden had replied to her message.

Zayden texted: If any important deals or transactions are to be negotiated that morning, they could be worth tens of millions.

The reason Zayden had replied to her that way was that he wanted to let her know how valuable his time and worth were, and that he would give up his own time and money for her.

Gwendolyn sighed upon reading his reply. She knew Zayden would never lie to her.

and generous enough to save her life, and he had even helped her out multiple times after that. In fact, badly injured at that time, and it was hard to determine whether she had indeed been run over by a and his kind heart, Zayden had not fled the scene. Not only that, but he had also taken her to the hospital and mobilized and she felt that she should not take up too much with his words. In that case, Gwendolyn would have to work hard to repay put away her phone and went to sleep. Perhaps because of the medication, she fell into a deep were holding hands together while walking

that we have

she could do so, both Felicia and Candace had made their move to get rid of Gwendolyn instead. The Ashton family was not escaped by herself, and they even assumed she had eloped with the man

Felicia and Candace knew was still alive and kicking, Candace felt threatened. They had to get Gwendolyn they were afraid that their

Ashton, were to learn about what they had done to Gwendolyn, in tow! Gwendolyn will be Avenport's laughingstock as long as she's with the kids. There's no way Old Mr. Ashton will let everyone know about this. Eventually, the only person who's going to get hurt gave it some thought and agreed with her mother's them entered the house and went inside Michael's study, only to find him