Chapter 21

Michael sat on a mahogany chair and took a sip of his coffee.

He was wearing a suit that brought out his domineering aura.

“I remember that Patrick is an outstanding young man,” he said.

Felicia was delighted when she heard his words. Her cheeks flushed as she was shy.

Whenever Michael looked at her, he would feel sad as he was reminded of Gwendolyn.

He heaved a long sigh. If only Gwen is here.

However, Felicia felt worried seeing Michael's happy look. After all, her marriage with Patrick was merely for show.

Nevertheless, she believed that Patrick would definitely fall in love with her after she put in some effort to win his heart. The more she thought about it, the more blissful she felt.

Candace knew that Michael would like Patrick. Who in Avenport will despise such an outstanding grandson-in-law? It's a good thing that Fel managed to win his heart. Now, she is a worthy granddaughter in Michael's eyes!
