

CEO Daddy 22

Chapter 22

After listening to her, Justin furrowed his brows and sank into his thoughts.

He then said, "Although we are looking for our daddy now, we can't simply acknowledge a random guy as our daddy. Understand?"

As their eldest brother, he considered more things than them as he was relatively mature.

However, Juliette pulled a long face and wailed, "I don't care, Justin. I like him! I want Gwen to marry him!"

Julian felt his heart ache when he saw his sister tearing up. He said, "Justin, I believe Juliette's judgments. Besides, I've tested him before, and he has a good personality. Well, we shall wait till you approve him before marrying Mommy to him."

In fact, the three of them knew that their mother would remarry someone someday.

She never told them anything about their father. The sensible triplets never asked her about their father too. However, Camille and Melanie's mother had once mentioned that Gwendolyn had to marry someone to live a good life in the future.

Although they didn't know much about the relationships between the adults, they all wanted their mother to be happy.

siblings' opinions. I shall meet tell that the three kids had high hopes for him. I hope that Gwen gets they reached home, the three of them went to Gwendolyn's room and noticed that she was taking quickly pressed their fingers to their lips and tiptoed out them. She smiled and rose from

"Come here," she called.

voice was still slightly hoarse, she wasn't coughing into Gwendolyn's arms. "Gwen, and said, "Oh, come on. Are you obedient in school today? You didn't once pinned a boy to the didn't have to worry about her two sons. However, and replied, "Of course I will behave were in different classes previously. However, Gwendolyn had requested to arrange them in the same class for Juliette's brothers to keep an not, the days of her being embarrassed by Juliette's outrageous acts would not come