Chapter 24

Gwendolyn nodded slightly. "Okay. I'll go in and change. Wait for me here, Harry."

She did not want to invite Harry in because Camille was around. Gwendolyn did not want her children to know about her relationship with the Ashton family.

Grandpa might get angrier if he sees the kids. So it's better not to let them meet one another for now.

When Gwendolyn stepped inside her house, Camille asked, "Gwen, is that your family member?"

Camille was curious. She had always thought that Gwendolyn had been living alone at such a young age with her three children since she gave birth because the latter did not have any family members to help her.

"No, he's just my friend's family member. He needs my help with something." Gwendolyn shook her head.

Camille nodded knowingly in response as she put away the groceries.

Gwendolyn went into her room and chose a blue floral dress with a beige coat from her closet. These were the few nice clothes that she owned.
