Super CEO Daddy

Chapter 25

When Felicia heard what Gwendolyn said, she looked at Candace. Both of them were in a panic, worrying that Gwendolyn would tell everyone the truth about what had happened six years ago.

Felicia hurriedly changed the subject and asked, "Gwen, didn't you give birth to triplets? Two sons and a daughter. Why didn't you bring them along? I'm their aunt!"

With that, she smirked arrogantly. Michael and Zachary were conservative and prideful men. Felicia had purposely mentioned Gwendolyn's children, who were born out of wedlock; she did not want Gwendolyn to talk about the incident.

Zachary's eyes widened in surprise after he heard what Felicia said. He questioned Gwendolyn, "Did you really give birth to those b*astards?"

Gwendolyn was only a teenager when she was pregnant. She could not even tell who the babies' father was, yet she had the nerve to give birth to them.

As Gwendolyn heard the insulting word, her face darkened.

I think this house is not the right place for my kids. After all, they only take my precious kids as some lowly, illegitimate kids.

Gwendolyn's heart ached as the word echoed in her ears. Even if she had to work hard her whole life, she would never want anyone to look down on her children.

She probably seemed like a weak person on the outside, but she was actually a tough person. She was willing to give up on everything for her three children.
