Chapter 261 Wedding Night

His voice was full of glamour, as if he was going to swallow her up.

Blushing, she knew what he meant. Turning around to face him, she embraced him, standing on tiptoe and kissing him on the lips.

Kerr was always the one who was more active in their relationship, so she decided to make it up to him.

He was quite satisfied with the kiss. Though he was holding her in his arms, he had carefully avoided her belly so that she wouldn't get hurt.

So Nicole didn't feel uncomfortable at all.

The cave was formed in a natural place due to the geographic location, which was hot in winter and cool in summer. Lying on a water bed, Nicole was a little panting.

"After the baby is born, you must make it up to me!" He pointed at Nicole's nose gently.

Considering that she was pregnant now, Kerr didn't take another move.

With a bashful look, she nodded and said, "We got plenty of time." She knew that no matter what happened, Kerr would never leave her.

"Of course, there is no one who can take you away from me." Kerr played with her fingers. There was a ring on her left ring finger that he put it on for her in person.

Just when the two people were enjoying themselves happily, footsteps came from the entrance of the cave. Nicole instinctively hid into Kerr's arms and grabbed the thin quilt to cover her body.

"Don't be afraid. It's Jared." Kerr said calmly.

He would never allow anyone to get close to Nicole at this time. He was relieved that Jared guarded at the entrance of the cave, but he knew that Jared would not interrupt them for no reason.

"What is it?" Kerr asked loudly.

Of course, Jared knew what they were doing inside, so he stopped at the turn of the cave. "Sir, please take Mrs. Nicole out

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

"As long as I'm alive, I'm still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses."

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she learned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

th dotting eyes and asked, "Even it is our daughter?"

After letting go of Kerr's hand, she touched her belly. Thinking of what Kerr had said before, she suddenly put on a serious face. "Do you think who is more important, me or my daughter?"

She tried to make herself sound as serious as possible, but it was in vain. Her words amused Kerr.

Kerr held her hand. "Are you going to be jealous of our baby? If I don't have you, how could we have this baby? Because it is you, the baby has special meanings." Kerr comforted the little woman.

His eyes fell on her belly.

Jared stood in front of Kerr, staring at the blazing fire not far away. Suddenly, his phone rang, and he picked it up.

"Uncle Kelvin." The moment Jared wanted to say something, he heard Kelvin's helpless voice coming from the other end of the line.

"Hand the phone to Mr. Kerr." Sitting on the plane, Kelvin watched closely Kerr and Nicole through the telescope.

Under such a circumstance, the two of them could still talk and laugh happily. Kelvin could even imagine how angry Jack would be after he saw that.

Jared handed the phone to Kerr and said, "Sir, it's Uncle Kelvin."

Chapter 262 Narrow Escape

Kerr turned around and fixed his eyes on the plane not far away. He knew that Kelvin was sitting in the plane. He knew that Kelvin just came to teach him a lesson.

If it was Jack, he might have made a move on Nicole directly. Since the wedding did irritate him, but Kerr did not regret it at all.

Putting the phone near his ear, Kerr said calmly, "The way you show up today really surprised me." There was obvious irony in his words.

Of course, Kelvin knew what kind of person Kerr was. But under the pressure of Jack, Kelvin had no choice.

"I hope you can understand it. Mr. Jack asked me to warn you. I hope you can realize your mistakes." Kelvin warned.

"You know I won't stop. Why don't you tell me in advance how are you going to give me a warning, or should I say how are you going to tear me and Nicole apart?" Kerr continued with a sneer.

Standing beside Kerr, Nicole heard clearly what he said. She held his hand tightly. She knew there was a fierce storm ahead of them, but she was not nervous at all.

"Mr. Kerr, you don't have to turn against Mr. Jack. Perhaps you should keep a low profile to avoid making him so angry." Kelvin could only try to persuade Kerr.

The father and son should be the closest people to each other. In fact, in the eyes of Kelvin, as far as he was concerned, the temper of Kerr and Jack was very similar, stubborn and unable to tolerate other people's provocation.

"If I want to be with someone, I have to give her an identity. If I can't even do these basic things, then how could I be with her?"

Uncle Kelvin, since you have time to persuade me, why don't you go back to the Gu family as soon as possible? I don't care about anything in the Gu family, but I also hope that no one will disturb my life, or I won't let it go so easily."

K

down his medical books. He took the paper and looked at the things on it. Though it was not very precious, it was not easy to find them.

"What do you want these things for?" From beginning to end, Harley had no idea what Jay wanted to do.

"Please, Uncle. If you help me find these things, I can promise one thing. And you can ask me to do anything you want." For Jay, nothing was more important than Callie's birthday gift.

"You should keep your word." Harley's eyes lit up. Although Jay was only six years old, he was really capable. Thus, Harley stood up right away, lifted Jay up with one hand and walked outside.

Jay was insistent that he should get it in person, so Harley had no choice left but go to the shop with him. When Harley saw Jay's serious face, he thought that Jay was really a thoughtful child.

"Mr. Harley, what a coincidence!" A soft voice came from behind.

Turning around, Harley saw the smile on Kelvin's face. Harley subconsciously looked at Jay, who was next to him, and said, "Uncle Kelvin, I can't believe that you actually left the Gu family. It's really strange. Why you came here?"

For so many years, Kelvin was Jack's subordinate and had never left him.

Chapter 263 Disguise Of Innocence

It seemed that this honeymoon trip was not that simple.

Kelvin smiled slightly. "Mr. Su, you don't have to be so nervous. In fact, I don't have any other thing to do. I just want to pay a visit to miss Ning's child. I heard that the child is very smart, and now it seems to be true."

In fact, when Kelvin saw Jay for the first time, he had seen in him the look of Kerr when he was younger. But it was still a mystery about Jay's identity.

The evidence was in front of him, and Kelvin could only respect it even if he didn't want to believe it.

"You mean you come here for Jay? Let's get straight to the point, Uncle Kelvin. In fact, Uncle Jack wanted to use Jay to threaten Nicole to leave Kerr. "

With a straight face, Harley stared at Kelvin with hostility.

He wouldn't let anything happen to Jay since Kerr handed over Jay to him.

"Mr. Su, you don't have to look at me that way. After all, it's the family matter of Gu family. Although Mr. Su is a good friend of Mr. Gu, there is no need for you to get involved in this matter."

Kelvin looked at Jay but spoke to Harley.

Jay had found everything he needed and was very satisfied. When he stood up, he noticed the look from Kelvin sitting next to him. He was first stunned, and then a lovely smile appeared on his face. Innocent and harmless.

"I have met Kelvin before. Vedder always told me the story of Kelvin and himself when they were young. In fact, I admire Kelvin as well." Jay walked to Kelvin voluntarily.

He didn't intend to hide.

Looking at Jay, Kelvin was also surprised. He thought that Jay would turn around and run away when he saw him.

Kelvin reached out his hand and was about to touch Jay's face, but was stopped by Harley.

Holding Jay in his arms, Harley looked vigilantly at Kelvin.

"Uncle Kelvin, I have p s seriously assembling the model.

"Jay, is this the gift for Callie? Do you think one day is enough?" Nicole looked at the complicated parts on her desk and had a headache. However, there was only seriousness on Jay's face without any worry.

Jay nodded to Nicole. "Mommy, can you make something for me?" Jay intended to send Callie a mini robot. He wanted it to look like a princess.

He hoped that Nicole could make a beautiful coat for the gift.

"You drew this?" Nicole was surprised. She didn't know when Jay learned designing and felt that it was difficult for her to make the design herself.

Jay nodded and gave the prepared cloth to Nicole.

He didn't tell Nicole that it was the design drawing he saw from Kerr's computer and copied, but he slightly changed a little.

Looking at the harmonious scene between the mother and the son, Kerr felt satisfied. He turned around and sat in the living room. "I've sent Kim here. He will arrive tomorrow."

"I was just about to tell you about it. When I took Jay out with me just now, I saw Kelvin. And he also said he was interested in Jay."

"We must be careful." He had deduced from what Kelvin had just said that he would definitely appear again.

Chapter 264 Hypocrisy

Kelvin was there for Nicole.

"I have to go out tomorrow, so you have to keep Jay safe." Kerr said. In fact, he felt unsettled when he knew Jay was targeted by Kelvin.

"Don't let Nicole know about this. She's in poor health, and we can't worry her that much." Kerr said to Harley.

He wanted to be with Nicole, but the meeting with Ben Xue was arranged in advance, so he couldn't put it off.

"Don't worry. I know what to do." nodded Harley. Harley also knew why Kerr came here, so he asked, "Are you ready to cooperate with the Xue family?"

Shaking his head, Kerr replied, "I just give it a shot. I'm not in the Gu Group now, so I don't have to work my ass off for it. The Ning Group is not powerful enough to take such a big project."

He thought very clearly. As he expected, there was still no news from Zachary up to now. According to the previous news, tomorrow would be Zachary's wedding.

"Is there any news about Zachary?" asked Kerr, calmly.

"Oh, I almost forgot it. I received the news this morning that Zachary had canceled the wedding and left A City." Harley was a little surprised when he got the news.

The news had spread all over the city now.

But Kerr didn't surprise at all. Although Kerr didn't know the reason behind it, he realized that Zachary had backed out.

Anyway, he had to rely on himself.

"What about Moore?" Although he knew that Jay had already taken action, he didn't know how Moore would react.

"He is fine. Since Moore takes office, he is step by step trying to eliminate your remaining power in the Gu Group.

But he didn't get a good result from it. Your men in the company can't be fooled by Moore easily."

Over the years, it was Kerr who was in charge of the Gu Group. Moore had been abroad. E

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she learned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

Jay had turned against Kerr on purpose.

But after all, he was just a child.

"Am I right about this place?" There was no sign of impatience on Jay's face. He looked at Kerr seriously and opened his mouth again.

With a haughty look on his face, Kerr turned his head and glanced at the drawing, which was newly modified by Jay. "Turn it slightly to the right for 0.5 centimeters."

Kerr could tell his mistakes by only one glance.

Jay frowned and was a little hesitant. He had thought of it just now, but didn't dare to try. Now hearing that, he didn't know what to do.

Kerr knew that Jay was suspicious of him. So he stood up and walked to the desk. He picked up the tools on Jay's desk and began to install the unfinished parts.

Jay trotted over to him, his eyes seriously stared at Kerr, but he did not stop Kerr.

After a long time, when Nicole looked at the clock on the wall, it was late. She suddenly remembered something, so she stood up and walked into the bedroom with her phone without disturbing them.

Still lying on the bed, Nicole dialed the number of Avery.

The call was soon picked up. Before Nicole could speak, Avery's voice was heard.

Chapter 265 Achieved Without Effort

"Nicole, where have you been? Your phone is off every time I call you." Avery sounded wronged.

A faint smile appeared on Nicole's face. Thinking of what she had done, she felt a bit guilty. "What's wrong? Why are you so nervous? You are going to be a bride, aren't you?"

She really hoped that Avery could be happy. She knew that Zachary could make Avery happy, so she took the risk.

On the other side of the phone, Avery was silent.

Nicole also noticed that something was wrong. She couldn't help but worry if she was going too far. After all, Avery had never been in touch with other men. This kind of thing might be a blow to her.

"Avery, are you blaming me? In fact, I really think that Zachary is a good choice for you, so I want to help you guys. I'm sorry, I know that I might cross the line..."

She was worried about Avery, and she was afraid that Avery would really get angry.

"Nicole, what are you talking about? I don't understand." Avery was puzzled. She didn't know why Nicole would suddenly apologize to her.

What Avery was going to tell Nicole had nothing to do with her.

Hearing what she said, Nicole was confused. She asked, "Then what happened to you? Aren't we going to get married tomorrow? I still want to tell you that I have been taken to D island by Kerr and I may not go back."

Nicole missed her best friend's wedding, so she felt terribly regretful.

"No wedding. That's what I want to tell you. Zachary cancelled the wedding, I wouldn't have to marry him." Avery knew she should be happy, but she couldn't.

At the moment when she knew that Zachary had gone abroad, she didn't know why she didn't feel relaxed at all.

"How could it be? Was there anything happen to you that night?" Nicole came back to her senses, but she didn't finish her sentence.

Avery was confused. "Nicole, what did you do behind my hope.

"Really?" Although he was asking him, in fact, he had believed what Kerr had said.

"It's time for you to go to bed." Looking at the time on the clock, Kerr reminded Jay. He wouldn't stay up late, since it was bad for his health.

Hearing this, Jay nodded and turned around to leave. Suddenly, he thought of something and said, "Thank you."

Then he ran back to his room.

The corners of Kerr's mouth lifted into a smile even though he didn't say anything. Looking at the messy desk, he didn't feel uncomfortable at all. He turned around and came back to Nicole, sleeping with her in his arms.

Since Nicole slept late last night, when she woke up, it was almost noon.

"Mommy, if you don't get up, we will be late and my little sister will be hungry." Jay called out. It was still early, but he had already begun to worry.

Nicole sat up and noticed that Kerr wasn't around, but she didn't care about it. "Are you worried that little sister will be hungry, or that you will miss Callie's birthday party?"

She deliberately made fun of Jay. Actually, she was very happy that he could have a playmate. Jay was so clever that he might feel alienated from other children, so Nicole had always wanted him to make more friends.

Chapter 266 Familiar Place

Jay was a little embarrassed, "No, I'm not. Mommy, don't starve the little sister. Get up." He urge Nicole.

After freshening herself up, Nicole had dinner with Jay and Harley. Then, she returned to her room and changed her clothes. Before she could tell Harley about this, she was dragged out by Jay.

"Wait. We have to tell Harley about this." Nicole felt something wrong but she couldn't tell what it was.

"No, mommy. Uncle Harley is busy. Mommy, we are going to be late." Jay couldn't wait to see Callie. The gift that he was holding in his arms was made by Harley just now.

Nicole shook her head helplessly. Then, she was pulled out of the hotel by Jay. Then she saw a Rolls Royce stopped at the door and a man in a black suit got out from the passenger seat.

"Are you Mrs. Nicole?" The man looked at Nicole and asked politely.

When Nicole saw the man in front of her, she nodded. "I am. Who are you?" It was strange since she did not know anyone in D island.

"Hello, Mrs. Nicole. I'm here to pick you and your son up." The man explained.

When Nicole was hesitating whether to get on the car or not, Jay's phone rang. Seeing that it was Callie calling, he picked it up without hesitation.

"Callie." Excitement was written all over Jay's face. Hearing Callie's explanation, he hung up the phone with a smile.

"Mommy, it's Callie who sent someone to pick us up." Jay looked at Nicole beside him.

The concern Nicole felt for the man had wholly dissipated and she nodded slightly to him. "Thank you." Then she led Jay to get in the car.

The car ran to a villa district, which was a long distance, even wider than the range of the Gu family's mansion. For a moment, Nicole could not help but begin t rs. Nicole doesn't believe me?" Ben said with a smile while holding a glass of wine in his hand. Then he took a sip of the wine.

Nicole smiled. "Mr. Xue, you must be kidding. I've brought Jay here, haven't I? I just think I should tell my husband about it. Otherwise, he would be anxious if he can't find us.

But something wrong with my phone. I can't make a call. Mr. Xue, can you help me solve this problem?" Nicole asked tentatively.

If she was overthinking, then Ben would solve the problem for her. On the contrary, if Ben refused her with a dozen of excuses, Nicole should really consider how to escape from here.

"Of course," Ben answered gently. Then he raised his hand and asked the maid to bring the phone to her.

Nicole looked at the phone vigilantly, but still dialed Kerr in front of him, but no one answered. She dialed three times in a row, but still no one answered.

Anger emerged on her face. She really wanted to know what Kerr was busy with.

"What? Is there any problems?" Ben seemed not surprised at her reaction at all.

Putting down the phone, Nicole said, "My husband may still be busy. I'll call him later."

Chapter 267 Love At First Sight

Although Nicole was talking with a smile on her face, she had made up her mind that she would definitely give Kerr a lesson when she went back.

How dare he didn't pick up? If she is really in danger, then Kerr will miss the best opportunity to rescue her.

"Well, if you need, I can help you at any time." Ben said sincerely and generously.

Seeing how generous and honest Ben was, Nicole felt a little embarrassed and her face flushed.

"Thank you, Mr. Xue. Where is your wife?" Nicole glanced around the whole villa, but didn't see the hostess.

Ben's eyes darkened. "My wife had passed away a long time ago. Mrs Nicole has no chance to see her now."

Nicole was surprised. "I'm sorry." She had not expected that Ben was actually bringing up his daughter by himself.

"Mr. Xue, are you taking care of Callie alone all these years?" Nicole changed the subject to the children.

Ben looked at Callie and Jay who were sitting on the carpet not that far away with a smile on their faces.

"Yes, Callie was a autistic child before, so she has few friends. If possible, I am glad that Mrs. Nicole and Jay could come by more often.

I can tell that Callie loves you very much." Ben looked at Callie with loving eyes.

Nicole nodded. "Jay is different from other kids. I hope he can be a good friend of Callie."

Ben looked at her with a smile.

At the same time, Kerr was sitting in the restaurant and looking at his watch. It had been ten minutes since the appointed time. He hated people with no sense of time.

Jared, who was standing beside Kerr, noticed the displeasure in Kerr's eyes. He took out his phone and was about to make a call, but he saw a woman in a bright red dress coming towards them not far away.

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

"As long as I'm alive, I'm still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses."

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she learned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

Of course I believe in falling in love at first sight." Then, he stood up and continued, "My wife and I fell in love with each other at the first sight. We love each other and we are happy."

Turning around, Kerr didn't look at Lisa Xue. "Miss Lisa, please tell Mr. Xue that I appreciate his kindness. As for our cooperation, it's over."

After that, he was about to leave, but before he took one step forward, his wrist was grabbed by someone.

Lisa walked towards Kerr and blocked his way. "I didn't expect that famous Mr. Kerr would be so afraid of his wife.

I have been influenced by the western culture since I was a child, so what I care about is the pleasure at present. Life is short, and we should enjoy ourselves.

So, Mr. Kerr, are you interested in having some fun with me? Our relationship is simple and pure. I don't need you to be responsible for me, and you won't betray your wife. It's a fair deal, isn't it."

Lisa raised her hand and touched the collar of Kerr's suit, winking at him.

Kerr gripped her wrist tightly and in a fierce voice, said, "If Miss Lisa were not a woman, you might have disappeared in front of me right now."

Chapter 268 I'm Married

"Miss Xue, I think you'd better save yourself for a better man. As a married man, loyalty in marriage is a basic requirement."

Finishing his words, Kerr shook off her hand directly and walked outside without any hesitation.

Looking at Kerr's back, the smile on Lisa's face disappeared. She was relieved, but there was no calmness on her face as before. She spread out her hand and found that her palm was full of cold sweat.

"Miss Lisa." A man dressed like a waiter came out from the corner and bowed respectfully to Lisa.

"Have you taken the pictures?" Lisa took the jacket from the waiter's hands and put it on. It was the first time for her to wear such sexy clothes. She felt a little uncomfortable.

The man nodded and said, "I have sent the picture to Master."

Lisa sighed, "I hope it will work." Thinking of how Kerr behaved just now, she really appreciated his attitude.

Kerr didn't lay his eyes on her, and he mentioned Nicole all the time in their conversation. It was difficult for a lot of successful men to resist the temptations around them, so Kerr had done a great job.

In the hotel, Harley finally got rid of his mother's long speech in the phone. When he walked out of his room, he knocked on the door of Jay's room, but there was no reply.

This made him feel strange. He asked Kim to find a spare key and opened the door, only to find that the room was empty.

He turned around and knocked on the door of Nicole's room, but it was still the same.

With these thoughts in his mind, Harley could not help but become a little anxious. "Kim, we should look for them separately now. You go to the hotel first. I am going to the beach." Then Harley turned around and walked towards the beach.

He had almost searched every place that Nicole and Jay could go, but they were still oto bothers you? In most cases, a wife cares very much about the intimate relationship of her husband with another woman outside."

Eventually she stormed off after she learned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

Ben reminded her on purpose.

Nicole looked at him, examining his face with clear eyes. "Now that I've chosen this man, I must give him enough trust, since we will be with each other for the rest of our lives.

If I doubt him on every trifles, I would have missed a lot of wonderful things about him. I believe his love for me. No matter what kind of woman stands in front of him, it won't pose a threat to my place in his heart."

When Nicole mentioned Kerr, she could not hide the happiness in her eyes. Such happiness made her more confident.

"Mr. Xue, why don't we have a frank talk? You have already arranged the meeting today when you took Callie to me, haven't you?

Callie's birthday party is just an excuse. And it is you who want to see me. Perhaps this picture is your real purpose. But I'm curious. Have we met before?

Otherwise, what do you want from me?" In fact, Nicole just doubted it. She wanted to know his answer.

There had been too many coincidences since he appeared. Nicole didn't believe in such coincidence, and she wanted to figure it out.

Chapter 269 Go Back To My Sight

Ben Xue looked at Nicole and was a little surprised. He could see that she was very smart, but he didn't expect that she was so sensitive. After hearing a few tentative words she had already known everything.

But it was not the time for him to tell everything to Nicole. "Miss Ning is really imaginative, but I don't know what you mean."

"It's time for dinner, but it seems that Miss Ning has no intention to stay. I'm sorry to know that." Ben stood up and faced Nicole.

"If you want to go back, I can send you and your son back."

Looking at the frankness of Ben, Nicole felt a little uncertain. Maybe she was overthinking it, but she had a good intuition. Anyway, she must go back to Kerr first.

She had to ask Kerr before she made a decision.

"Thank you, Mr. Xue. My husband must be waiting for me to have dinner with him. I'd better leave now." Nicole stood up and the milk in her hand still remained the same as what it was originally.

"Jay, it's time to go home." Nicole called her son and walked towards the gate of the manor.

After saying goodbye to Callie, Jay held Nicole's hand and got on that Rolls Royce.

The car was parked at the door of the hotel. When Nicole and Jay got out, they saw the car get out of their sight.

"Mom, Callie's father is not a normal man." Head tilted to one side, Jay looked at Nicole. "I tried to study Callie's background last night, but got nothing about her and her father."

"When we were in the Xue's house just now, the signal was completely blocked." Jay had discovered this, but he didn't say it in Xue's house.

Nicole nodded and looked at the back of the car thoughtfully. Suddenly, her phone rang, interrupting her thoughts. Looking other.

Nicole nodded. "I know. I should tell you." Knowing that Kerr was worried about her, she gently patted him on the back.

"But you didn't tell me that you were going to meet a beautiful woman." Nicole let go of Kerr, with dissatisfaction in her eyes and deliberately glared at him.

Putting his hand on Nicole's belly, Kerr breathed a sigh of relief. "I didn't expect that. I contacted the inheritor of the most powerful family in D island and wanted to discuss a cooperation."

"But they didn't show up and instead there came a woman. Then I came back but you were not there." There was a touch of sadness in his voice.

Nicole pinched Kerr's ear and said, "Do you regret it? Why don't you fall in love with such a beautiful girl?" She looked at him with affection.

"I have asked Jared to tell them that I have canceled the cooperation." Kerr said righteously. In order to make Nicole feel at ease, he was willing to make any sacrifice.

Nicole's smile was the most important thing in the world.

Nicole was a little surprised. "Such a good opportunity? Why? Just because they are women?" That was a bit exaggerated.

Chapter 270 Protect My Woman

Kerr didn't look at Nicole. He just held her in his arms and touched her belly with his hand. "If I say, she is not just a woman but she fell in love with me at the first sight."

As he had become Nicole's husband, he would never give any woman any chance. He was a responsible man.

"Does Lisa love you?" Nicole was a little surprised, and Ben's meaningful eyes came to her mind.

"How do you know it's Lisa?" Kerr asked, looking at her. Where were you and Jay?" Noticing that something was wrong, Kerr frowned slightly.

"I went to the Xue family's house. Ben, the elder brother of Lisa, invited me and Jay to his daughter's birthday party. Callie is Ben's daughter, and Jay's friend." Nicole said concisely.

However, she had a different thought in her mind. It seemed that this matter was not as simple as she thought.

When Kerr heard that, he started to doubt about the identity of Ben. "Let me send you home first." Kerr didn't tell her because he didn't want her to worry.

It was a long day and Nicole was a little tired. Thinking of the Xue family, she could not calm down. Everything seemed to have happened in her dream.

She couldn't remember a thing, and everything was so vague to her.

As soon as they walked to the door of their hotel room, Harley was just walking out of his room. "You're finally back! Thank God. If anything happens to you, what am I gonna do?"

Harley just felt lucky. He would be sorry for Kerr if something bad happened to Nicole.

Nicole smiled and stuck out her tongue at Kerr beside her. "I'm sorry to worry you, Harley." Nicole knew that Harley would feel sorry for Kerr.

Since he had promised Kerr to protect her, and what she did today undoubtedly put Harley left by Jay." Then he took out his cell phone and dialed Kelvin's number.

The phone rang for a long time before it was picked up.

"Master." Kelvin said in a relaxed tone.

"Where is Jay?" Kerr's tone was cold, and he wanted Kelvin to realize that he was angry.

He would not let anyone hurt Nicole, and of course, including Jay.

"I don't know what you are talking about. Are you going back to the Gu family and marry Miss He?" Kelvin asked as he looked at Jay who immersed himself on the computer on the carpet not that far away from him.

This was clearly a verbal deal. As long as Kerr came back to the Gu family and got married with Sunny, Kelvin would let go of Jay.

With a fierce look in his eyes, Uncle Kelvin asked, "Are you threatening me?" After a short pause, Kerr said before Kelvin opened his mouth, "I want Jay back to me safe and sound. Otherwise, I will kill both Sunny and her baby."

After that, Kerr directly hung up the phone.

Now, Sunny was missing. If Kerr couldn't find her, then neither could the Gu family.

It seemed that in order to save her baby, Sunny had hidden herself which gave Kerr a chance.
