

CEO Daddy 271

Chapter 271 Fight Back Kelvin

Upon hearing Kerr, Kelvin was taken aback. With his eyes wide open, he asked, "Is Miss He in your hands?" After the wedding, Jack had talked to Daniel, saying that he would take Sunny to the Gu family in order to protect the baby.

However, Daniel didn't agree. So Jack sent his men to look for Sunny, then he got to know that Sunny had left home on the wedding day and her whereabouts were still unknown.

To his surprise, Sunny was with Kerr. Staring at the phone in his hand, Kelvin lost in thought.

"I'll only give you twenty minutes. I want Jay to be safe and sound." A few minutes later, a message from Kerr came.

Kelvin was a little hesitant.

"Uncle Kelvin, are you inviting me to have dinner with you? Didn't grandpa come with you?" Jay had not been nervous at all since he was taken over here by Kelvin.

It seemed that he was at his own home. Two minutes ago, Jay had just broken the Internet password of the villa where Kelvin was living and sent a message to Nicole to reassure her. Jay raised his head and looked at Kelvin innocently.

"You don't seem to be afraid of me at all." Kelvin walked to Jay. It was hard for Kelvin to imagine that a six-year-old child was not in a panic facing a stranger.

Even when he appeared in the hotel, Jay didn't refuse to leave with him.

"Why should I be afraid of you? Mommy once said that you are my family and you had accompanied my daddy since he was a child. You are all my family, you will not hurt me." Jay smiled at him.

He had already realized that Kelvin was actually a softhearted person, so compared to how powerful and mighty Kerr was, he preferred to adopt the method of conciliation.

Obviously, Kelvin was stunned by this result. He looked at Jay with a kind look. V get Kerr back to the Gu family.

When Kelvin came to D Island, he had even thought about directly getting rid of Nicole and Jay. Thus, Kerr would have no choice left but go back to the Gu family.

But now, Kelvin would by no means take any action against this child, and even he would not let anyone hurt Jay anymore.

"Your mommy is very worried about you. Go to the bedroom with her." Kerr looked at Jay with a warning expression in his eyes.

Maybe others couldn't understand what Jay was doing, but Kerr had already known about everything. Kerr knew that Jay wanted to conspire against Kelvin by the way of moving him. But Kerr knew, people living in Gu family were always so cold-blooded.

They didn't have a heart at all. No matter what happened, Jay couldn't move them.

Jay shook his head and didn't move away.

"Thank you." said Kelvin, smiling at Jay. Then he raised his head and looked into Kerr's eyes, "Master, in fact, the purpose of my trip this time is to let you leave Nicole and return to the Gu family.

Your marriage will never be approved by your father. The marriage between the Gu family and the He family has never been terminated."

Chapter 272 A Bet That You Cant Afford To Lose

"Miss he is carrying the baby of the Gu family. Once the baby was born, her child will be accepted by your father.

If you want to be with Nicole, you should be well prepared. Your father won't give up easily." Kelvin told the whole truth.

There was no surprise on Kerr's face when he heard Kelvin.

He was a member of Gu family, so he was clear about the power of Gu family. They would never change because of other things.

"You can leave now." Kerr didn't want to make things difficult for Kelvin, and he knew that his ability was limited. Being able to say such a thing was already a betrayal to Jack.

Kerr turned around and reached out his hand, wanting to take Jay away.

However, Jay looked back at Kelvin. His big eyes blinked like he was unwilling to leave him.

"Master, I know you don't believe me, but you should know that if I stay here, it would provide a safety net for you and Nicole. Maybe we can do something to cheat your father."

After saying that, Kelvin lowered his head with guilt. He had followed Jack for so many years, but he was easily defeated by Jay.

However, it was his own choice. Even if someday, he was really kicked out of the Gu family by Jack because of this, he would not regret.

"Why should I believe you?" Kerr wouldn't believe anyone easily, let alone someone who was close to Jack.

"I believe you, Uncle Kelvin." a childish voice interrupted their conversation. With one hand holding Kerr's, Jay held Hayden's with the other hand.

His small face turned back and forth between the two people, and his big eyes narrowed slightly.

Nicole was surprised, and she seemed to understand what Jay wanted. She looked at the smart boy helplessly. Jay actually knew how to turn an enemy into a friend.

Kerr walked to Kerr, held his ha lie.

"That's more like it." Nicole nodded with satisfaction and the corners of her mouth rose slightly. "I believe you. Even when Ben sent the photo of you and Lisa to me, I never doubted you."

She was quite confident about it.

Kerr kissed her forehead as a reward. "You must be tired after such a long day. Go to bed early. Don't worry. I'll be with you."

"As long as you trust me, nothing can separate us." Nicole slowly closed her eyes, but he couldn't fall asleep.

He didn't know what the Xue family would do to them. Although Kelvin was their friend now, everything had not been settled.

"I believe you. Even if you lie on the same bed with another woman, if you tell me nothing happened between the two of you, I believe you." Nicole said lightly with her eyes closed.

Then she fell asleep, but in her dream, she seemed to have returned to her childhood.

A little girl who was toddling unsteadily toward the fountain in front of Xue's family's mansion, with a naive and pure smile on her little face.

"Rachel! Rachel!" In her sleep, she kept hearing someone calling this name from behind.

When she turned around, she saw a six or seven-year-old boy in front of her.

Chapter 273 The Best Time To Cheat On You

Wearing a formal suit, the little boy walked out of the mansion. He was good-looking and looked a little like Ben.

As Nicole felt unfamiliar with the surroundings, she frowned and wanted to get close to the little girl. When she walked in front of the girl and saw her face, the girl suddenly became Nicole.

In an instant, Nicole felt like she was looking at herself in the mirror. Startled, she asked, "Who are you?" Nicole held the little girl's shoulder and asked. But the girl just smiled at her and said nothing.

"Nicole? Nicole?" Kerr gently patted her shoulder and watched her frowning eyebrows.

When Nicole opened her eyes, she breathed a sigh of relief. "Kerr..." There was a thin sweat on her forehead.

"Did you have a nightmare?" Kerr wiped away the beads on her. He tried to dispel the fear in the nightmare for her.

"I dreamed of a little girl who looked exactly like me and also saw a little boy of six or seven years old." Nicole briefly narrated her dream and didn't tell him that the little boy looked like Ben.

She knew that Kerr was also a jealous man, so she didn't want to annoy him.

When Kerr heard that, he smiled faintly. "Did you dream of our daughter? Our daughter will naturally look like you. Is that seven-year-old boy Jay?"

Recently they had been discussing the gender of their children, so she had such a dream. So he thought that he shouldn't put so much pressure on her.

"In fact, Nicole, as long as it's our child, no matter it's a boy or a girl, I'll love it. I'll cherish them with all my heart. So, relax, don't be so nervous."

She wanted to shake her head, because she had seen the boy's face was so clear and she was sure that he wasn't Jay. But Nicole didn't tell Kerr, and nodded in agreement on Kerr's no interest to waste time on a strange woman. "Miss Xue must have something else to do. We are leaving now." He said to Lisa indifferently.

He held Nicole's hand and headed to the door.

"Mr. Kerr, are you so heartless? We had a nice chat yesterday, didn't we?" Lisa stepped forward to stop Kerr and looked at him with a sad face.

She looked so pitiful, as if Kerr had bullied her

"Miss, Xue, what are you talking about? Oh, I haven't introduced you to my wife yet. This is my wife, Nicole." He didn't care about others knowing about Nicole.

He wanted all the women who wanted to be close to him to know that he had Nicole beside him.

Nicole nodded to Lisa with a faint smile. "Miss Lisa, Mr. Xue and Kerr have mentioned you before, and I have seen your photo. But I have to say...

You are much more beautiful than I imagined." Nicole praised her sincerely.

Lisa looked at the peaceful face of Nicole. The happiness in her eyes was from the bottom of her heart.

"Mrs. Nicole seems to be pregnant for several months. Don't you worry that Mr. Kerr will cheat on you?

Isn't it said that is the best time for a man to cheat on his wife while she is pregnant?"

Chapter 274 See You Again

Lisa was quite straightforward.

When Kerr heard what Lisa said, he frowned slightly. There was an obvious dissatisfaction in his eyes. When he was about to refute her, his wrist was grasped by Nicole who was beside him.

Shaking her head at Kerr, Nicole looked calm. She continued, "Miss Lisa, it seems that you haven't met someone you love or have been married.

I can't deny what you said. But it has nothing to do with me. What I see is that I love this man in front of me. If I choose him, I have to trust him."

Nicole looked at Kerr with obvious admiration in her eyes. "Miss Xue will understand these in the future." Nicole reached out and held Kerr's arm.

"I hope we'll meet again. When I see you next time, I hope you've known what I mean." This was her blessing to Lisa.

Then Nicole and Kerr walked forward and left the hotel.

Standing still, Lisa looked at their backs and smiled. She wasn't jealous at all. Instead, she felt a little envy and even wanted to give them her blessing.

"Wait for me! You two!" Harley hurried out of the elevator, packed his things and lowered his head. They left all of a sudden and he didn't have enough time to pack his luggage.

"Ah!" The moment Lisa turned around, Harley bumped into him. And the files and papers in Harley's hands scattered in the air in all directions.

Lisa was on high heels. She lost her balance after being bumped into by Harley and she fell to one side.

"Watch out!" Looking that she was about to fall down, Harley stretched out his hands and wrapped them around her waist. When they looked at each other, Lisa's gorgeous face took his breath away.

He had never seen such a beautiful woman, with delicate facial features. At such a close distance, Harley could even see her thick curly eyelashes.

After Lisa stood firmly on th itting in the plane of the Gu family, Kerr closely followed Kerr. As soon as the plane landed, his cell phone rang. When he knew that it was from the Gu family, he sighed slightly.

"My Lord." There was a hint of respect in his voice.

Sitting in the old house of the Gu family, Jack shouted angrily, "Why could Nicole leave D island safely? When are you going to take action? I don't want to see Kerr appear in front of me with Nicole again."

Jack said seriously with a domineering manner.

"I understand, my lord. Actually..." "Don't worry. I know what I should do." Kelvin wanted to persuade Jack. But he had to give up when he thought that Jack would be suspicious about him.

Then, Jack hung up the phone.

"Uncle Kelvin, what happened?" Jay cocked his head, looking naive.

"I'm fine. Why don't I stay with your mommy?" Kelvin shook his head and asked. Kelvin then held Jay's hand.

"Mommy is with that old man! You don't know how annoying that old man is." Jay looked vexed, as if he was worrying about how to drive Kevin away from Nicole.

Hearing Jay, Kelvin was slightly surprised. He turned around and saw on the monitor that Kerr was holding Nicole's hand with his eyes full of affection.

Chapter 275 Only One Child

All of a sudden, Kelvin seemed to have understood what Jay meant. Kelvin then said gently, "It seems that you can only be with me."

Time flied and four months passed.

When Kerr looked at Nicole by his side, he felt really sorry for her. Her belly was already very big, and recently when she was sleeping, she couldn't lie on her back at night. She was so tired, which made Kerr worried.

"This is our last child. We will not have any more child in the future." He was happy to have children with her, but he didn't want her to suffer because of him.

Falling in love with a woman, he would show great consideration for her in every aspect.

Nicole gave him a faint smile. They already had Jay and the baby. That's enough for them. As for what would happen in the future, they would never know.

A month ago, Jack asked Kelvin to go back to the Gu family. In the past month, Jay had been trying to contact Kelvin, but failed, which made him can't help but feel a little worried.

Nicole looked at the worried Jay not far away and reminded Kerr.

Kerr turned around and said calmly, "Don't worry. Kelvin will be fine. He has been working for Jack for several dozens years. He wouldn't get himself in trouble because of this trifle."

It seemed that Kerr could no longer call Jack as his father. At least in his memory, Jack had never acted like a father in front of him, and there was no way for Kerr to convince himself not to care about it.

When Jay heard this, he seemed to have realized something. He nodded his head and replied, "I hacked into the Gu Group's website yesterday and found that the Gu Group was in a big crisis now.

And Moore only knows the existence of the crisis, but he can't find a solution. Now the whole Gu Group has been in a mess. The board of directors should take acti lked to the window.

Lily left as soon as she was free.

Just as Moore put the phone near his ear, Jack's voice was heard coming from the other end of the line.

"What happened to you? Are you going to ruin the Gu Group?" Jack had already known that the Gu Group was facing a crisis, but he thought that Moore could handle it well.

Now it seemed that he had overestimated the ability of Moore. At least in the past ten years, when Kerr had been working in the Gu Group, he had never worried about the company.

Hearing Jack's accusation, Moore clenched his fist so hard that the knuckles of his finger turned white. But he had to hold back his anger. "Dad, don't worry. All the crises we are facing now are only temporary.

I'm looking for a new partner. Soon, the new plan will be completely carried out. Give me some time. You know, when I took over the Gu Group, most of the employees and member of the board of directors are on Kerr's side.

It's not easy to control them."

Moore wanted to blame Kerr for this. But things didn't go with his plan.

"As long as they are the workers in the Gu Group, they will be loyal to the Gu Group. They don't work for Kerr, they work for the Gu Group."

Chapter 276 The Newborn

"This is the Gu company's principle. Moore, don't let me down."

"I'll give you three days. If you can't solve the crisis this time, then I'll think about returning your power to Kerr." Jack's words were obviously a warning.

Then he directly hung up the phone, not even giving Moore a chance to speak.

Hearing the busy tone on the phone, Moore threw the phone in his hand towards the wall in front of him. The phone was smashed in an instant.

"FUCK!" No one would consider him as a real family member in this world, only when he was needed could they think of him. Now that they felt that he had brought losses to the Gu Group, they wanted to kick him out.

"No way!" Gritting his teeth, Moore thought of a person. He walked to his desk and picked up his phone from a mess. Then he dialed Sunny's number.

Sunny sat in the sun on the rocking chair comfortably.

She put the phone near her ear, her hand on her belly to feel the fetus that was seven months old.

"What's up?"

"How's the baby?" Moore didn't forget that today was the day for Sunny's prenatal checkups. For the convenience of raising her fetus, he almost moved the hospital to the villa where Sunny lived.

Hearing what Moore had said, a faint smile played at the corners of her mouth. "I have just had an examination. Dr. Chen said that the child is doing well and is fully developed." As time went by, Sunny started to accept the baby.

It was her baby and the only hope for her to marry into the Gu family.

"I'll be right there." After hanging up the phone, Moore left the Gu Group with his car key. On the way, he deliberately parked his car in front of a restaurant, and changed his car to another one to prevent someone from following him.

Every time Moore went to Sunny's villa, he was always very cautious.

The car was parked in the underground garage

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

"As long as I'm alive, I'm still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses."

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she learned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

the baby out. You said it was a boy." Two months ago, she knew it was a boy.

Dr. Chen glanced at Moore who was in silence. As he saw him nod, he said, "Okay, I'll get ready now. I'll do the surgery tonight." Dr. Chen couldn't help sighing in his mind.

With her eyes closed, Sunny nodded and got everything ready. When she lay on the operating table and felt the anesthetic stabbing into her body, she closed her eyes.

Waiting at the door of the operating room, Moore could not help but feel a little nervous. It was not until now that he realized that the child had something to do with himself.

The surgery went on smoothly, Dr. Chen asked his assistant to put the baby into the incubator and pushed it out. Wearing a mask, the nurse looked at Moore with a mixture of emotions.

However, it wasn't found by Moore.

"Dr. Chen told us to set your mind at ease. The baby is very healthy, but a little weak. He needs to stay in the incubator for some time."

Moore nodded his head. Through the transparent glass, he looked at the little baby who was only as small as a man's palm. Since he was less than ten months old, he looked very small.

It seemed that Moore could directly end that fragile life with a slight force.

Chapter 277 They Are Safe

"He... is so tiny..." It was the first time for Moore to see a newborn baby. He was curious about it.

The nurse nodded to and placed the baby into the baby room.

"You're my only hope. Sooner or later, this world will be yours," said Moore. He followed behind and stared at the baby.

There was a faint smile on his face.

When Sunny woke up, she didn't see her child and her belly became flat. She was a little worried and said, "My child!" She wanted to sit up, but she was too painful to move.

"Don't worry, Miss He. The baby is fine. It's in the nursery room." Dr. Chen comforted her. He couldn't help but feel sorry for her. When she was in dire need of company, there was no one by her side.

However, Sunny didn't care about this. What she cared about was that she could finally bring the baby to this world, which was her only hope.

Sunny nodded at the thought it. She closed her eyes satisfactorily and went to sleep.

In the living room, Daniel strode into the villa. "Moore! Where are you?!" Since Sunny disappeared, Daniel had suspected that this matter had something to do with Moore.

So he sent someone to tail after Moore in secret. Finally he found out the secrets behind all this today. Daniel stood in the living room with an angry face and looked around.

"Why brings you here, Mr. He?" The maid knew who Daniel was, so she couldn't stop him and he went straight to find Moore.

With a big smile on his face, Moore walked downstairs. He didn't need to hide anything from Daniel right now. Anyway, now that Debbie had given birth to a child, everything had been settled.

"Where did you hide Sunny? Is she here? Sunny! Come out!" In the past few months, he had been putting pressure on Gu family and looking for Sunny aside.

And Mr. Jack has given him an ultimatum. It seems that before long, Mr. Jack will send someone to ask you back." Jared stood beside Kerr, reporting the progress of the investigation.

But Kerr didn't say anything. There was no sign of joy on his face.

"Sir, do you really not want to go back to the Gu Group?" Seeing the look on Kerr's face, Jared guessed what he was thinking.

Kerr turned his head and looked at the fishes not that far away. Nicole and Jay got them from the sea. The scene was quiet and harmonious, which was so beautiful.

"Nicole's baby has not been born safely. It is eight months now. The next two months are the most critical time. It is not a wise decision to go back now."

No matter what decision he made, Kerr would put Nicole in the first place.

Following Kerr's gaze, Jared also saw the smile on Nicole's face. She was not stunning beautiful, but her smile was able to affect people. It seemed that people would sacrifice everything they had for her smile.

"But sir, you can't let Moore take over the Gu Group. Now that Mr. Jack has already regretted it, it is also your best chance. If you miss it, it will be a pity."

Chapter 278 I Will Love You Forever

On hearing this, Kerr nodded. "Don't let Nicole know about this now. I'll think about it. You try to contact Uncle Kelvin. I have something to ask him."

Seeing that Kerr had agreed on his plan, Jared then turned around and called Kelvin. In order to make a long-term plan, it was good for Kerr to have Kelvin on his side.

They had to admit that that the plan of Jay did solve a lot of trouble for them. At least at this time, it would be more convenient for them to get some information if they had people in the Gu family.

Nicole found that it was hard for her to move as her belly was getting bigger. Reclining on a rocking chair, she looked sideways at Kerr who was focusing on his work. All she could feel was peace and happiness.

"Are you tired of looking at me like this every day?" Kerr put down his laptop and walked up to Nicole. He squatted beside her and naturally put his arm on the back of her chair.

He looked at her gently.

"Of course not. I'll spend the rest of my life with you. How could I get bored with you? Shall we go back?" Nicole had a faint feeling. Kerr said they were on a honeymoon, but almost half a year had passed.

The Gu family couldn't hurt her because Kelvin helped them. It was also because Kerr had put a lot of effort to protect her so she was able to enjoy such a peaceful life.

But that didn't mean they could lead a safe and peaceful life forever.

Kerr shook his head and replied, "The environment here is more suitable for you to nourish the baby. I've decided to let you give birth to the baby here before I decide whether to go back."

He wouldn't put Nicole in any danger.

Before Nicole was about to speak, she heard Jared walk in hastily. "Sir, Uncle Kelvin is back."

Generally speaking, it was a good thing that K ked at Kerr worriedly. Although Kerr said that he could give up the Gu Group, he worked so hard for the company for these years. She knew that he would not give it up that easily.

It's just if he had to make a choice between Nicole and the Gu Group, he would definitely choose the former without hesitation.

"It's not a big deal. Don't worry." Kerr turned his head to look at Jared, who was standing behind him, and said, "Call Harley and ask him to come back."

Since Harley met Lisa, he seldom stayed with Kerr. He came back to D island every few days just for Lisa.

Kerr had never worried about Harley's private affairs, but now it was important to get the paternity test report.

Jared nodded, turned around and made a call to Harley. As soon as the phone is connected, he heard that Harley's phone was ringing in front of the door. Jared looked surprised.

"There is no need to call me. I am back." As he spoke, Harley directly walked in with Lisa.

The corners of Lisa's mouth slightly quirked up when she saw Kerr and Nicole once again. However, she didn't wear any heavy make-up and her face looked pure and clean.

"Long time no see." Lisa looked at Nicole sincerely.

Chapter 279 She Is My Woman

And then Lisa moved her eyes away from Kerr.

Nicole was slightly surprised and looked at Lisa. "Miss Lisa, I haven't seen you for a long time." As Lisa and Harley were interlocking their fingers, Nicole knew what was going on.

"It seems that Harley had won your heart." Nicole felt happy for them.

Hearing that, Harley was a little embarrassed. He stretched out his hands and embraced Lisa and looked down at her dotingly.

Kerr, who had been silent all this time, coughed slightly. He reminded Harley to talk about this emergency with him first.

It was not until Harley heard the voice of Kerr that he came to his senses. He sat on the sofa with Lisa, "I received an anonymous email from home this morning.

It is clearly shown that Sunny gave birth to a boy in advance through the caesarean section. She wanted to give birth to the child before Nicole. However, the child was born weak because he is premature.

They have to keep the baby in a incubator for a month. That's why Sunny hasn't appeared." Thinking of the e-mail, Harley frowned and deliberately did not tell Kerr where he got this message.

But he couldn't hide it from Kerr.

Glancing at Harley, Kerr asked, "Who told you that?"

"I don't know. It is an anonymous email. But it seems like Harrow." It had been a long time since Harley had heard anything from Harrow.

As time passed, Harley almost forgot that he had such a friend.

Kerr frowned. Harrow disappeared for no reason and suddenly appeared out of nowhere, so there must be something wrong with him.

"Sir, if that's the case, you'd better come back home as soon as possible, so that you can take advantage of this opportunity. After all, the Gu Group really needs you now."

Having been in the Gu family for a lifetime, obviously, Kel ed, "Nice to meet you, Aunt Lisa. I'm Jay.

This is the first time we met. But I think you look as friendly and nice as my mommy. Do you like me?" Jay looked at Lisa seriously with his big eyes.

With some sort of expectation in his eyes.

Lisa's eyes were filled with surprise when she looked at Jay. She was happy to what he said. "You are so cute!" Lisa then reached out her hand and touched Jay's face.

However, her hand was grasped by Jay. He then kissed the back of her hand like a little gentleman. This was the first time that a kid had done something like that to her.

"Hey! You brat, this is my woman!" Harley took Lisa's hand from Jay and warned him.

Lisa looked at Jay with affection.

"Let me have a look at this little cutie pie." Lisa did not care about Harley at all. She reached out and held Jay on her leg, saying, "You have grown up a lot."

Lisa said with a smile.

Jay looked at Lisa, curious. "Aunt, have you ever seen me before?"

Lisa was stunned for a while, but she soon came back to her senses. "I often heard your uncle Harley mention you, so I am curious about you. I thought you were still little, but I didn't expect you are already so tall."

Chapter 280 Aunt Lisa

In fact, in the beginning, when Harley came close to her, Lisa did not refuse. She just wanted to get the information about Nicole and Jay from Harley. Fortunately, Harley was not that sensitive.

He did not notice her intention at all.

"If I had known it earlier, I would not have mentioned him to you." With a discontented look on his face, Harley stared at Jay. He drew Lisa's attention as soon as he showed up. Although he was still a little boy, he knew how to please girls with sweet words at such a young age. It would be bad when he grew up.

The tense atmosphere was eased by the appearance of Jay. Nicole looked at Jay softly and couldn't help smiling.

Leaning on Kerr's shoulder, Nicole had made a decision in her mind.

After lunch, Kerr went to the study with Harley and Kelvin.

Nicole was doing prenatal education to her unborn baby on the balcony. She seemed to be glowing in the sunshine.

Nicole was calm and peaceful, which made Lisa feel relieved.

"Aunt, you seem to like mommy very much? In my opinion, Mommy is much better than that old man." Jay stood beside Lisa and his eyes fell on Nicole not that far away from them.

He smiled with pride.

"You're right. It seems that you don't like Kerr either." Lisa smiled faintly. Lisa thought that Jay was more interesting than she imagined.

"No, I don't like him. But I have no choice. Mommy loves that old man. I really don't understand what's so good about him." At the mention of Kerr, Jay couldn't hold back his anger.

"How about I take you and your mommy back to D island? Callie is there and you can play with her. And you don't have to worried about the conflicts in the Gu family." Lisa asked in a serious tone.

Howev

e living room. He went back to the bedroom and opened his laptop.

He called Callie, waiting for her to show up.

Callie didn't show up until Jay almost gave up. "Why are you so early?" Callie said as she was on the video call with him.

The D island and Jay's place had two hours time difference. Jay was so anxious that he forgot about it.

"Sorry, Callie, I forgot that you are sleeping now." Looking at Callie on the screen, he noticed that she looked sleepy and her soft hair was a little messy.

"What's up?" Callie was woken up by him, so she was a little grumpy after getting up.

"I have to go back home." No matter what happened in his life, he wanted to share with Callie first.

Callie frowned slightly. "Don't you go back to D island with your mom? That's not what aunt Lisa had told me." Callie believed that Lisa would succeed since she was so confident about it.

Jay shook his head. Before he spoke, Callie ended the video.

He knew that Callie must have gone to find Lisa.

On the path in the garden, it was surrounded by woods. There was fresh air everywhere, which was the best for pregnant women like Nicole.
