Chapter 281 Something Happened

"Kerr, it's very good here." Although she missed this place, she had to leave.

"You can stay here if you like." There were complex emotions in Kerr's eyes as he looked around.

Nicole put her arm around Kerr's waist and said, "Kerr, let's go back. After all, this is not our home, no matter how good it is."

When he was about to say no, his mouth was covered by the hand of Nicole. She stood on tiptoe and kissed him on his chin. "I know what you are thinking about.

I'm not afraid of anything. As long as you are here, but running away is not the best idea. We can't bury our heads in the sand all the time. We know that Gu Group couldn't survive without you.

No matter how your father has made things difficult for us, he is your father and your family. We should respect him and should try to satisfy his needs. Of course no one can separate us."

Although Nicole was willing to let Kerr go back for the Gu Group, it didn't mean that she would compromise to the Gu family.

She just didn't want to let Kerr down.

Kerr reached out to hold her waist.

"I won't let anyone hurt you." He didn't want to put any pressure on Nicole. Kerr had already sent Harley back, so he believed that he could find Sunny soon.

In this way, as long as the evidence proves his innocence, Kerr could marry Nicole and make it up for her.

So he was waiting for the right time.

"How would I feel wronged being with you? I don't want your company to be destroyed by Moore. Let's go back.

The Gu Group is more important." She was very considerate. Even though Kerr didn't tell her, she had seen him working on his scheme during those sleep rows and his face darkened. "Nicole, hide behind me."

Kerr pushed Nicole behind him, vigilantly looking at the figure in the forest ahead. If they wanted to go back to the villa, they had to walk through the forest.

The romantic atmosphere disappeared all of a sudden and Nicole felt nervous. She tried her best to calm herself down with her hands over her belly so as not to let her emotion affect the baby.

"Who is there?" Kerr said to the distance.

Looking at the shadow on the ground, Kerr obviously felt that person shook a little, but it hadn't shown up yet. Kerr realized that something was wrong and nodded to Nicole behind him.

"I'll go to have a look." There was no one around, so it was safe to keep her here temporarily.

Nicole was a little hesitant, but she still nodded to Kerr, "Be careful." She then watched Kerr walking towards that figure.

Kerr approached that figure step by step and saw clear bright red liquid on the floor.

"Back off!" The man threatened.

Kerr stopped and one thing was clear from the man's voice. "You are injured." Kerr said calmly.

Chapter 282 A Passerby

But Kerr was curious about who else could hurt this man in such a place.

Upon hearing Kerr's voice, the man turned to look at him and said, "Take her out of here." The man glanced at the direction of Nicole.

Kerr's face turned cold. "Who are you?" Apparently, this man knew them.

The man's condition was obviously worse than before, so he didn't have any strength to explain anything to Kerr. "Don't worry about me. Protect her and her baby."

He glanced at Nicole indifferently, but there was a deep worry in his eyes.

When Nicole looked into the man's eyes from a distance, she felt familiar, but she was not sure about it as she was so far away. When she was about to walk towards the man, she saw Kerr walking towards her.

With a serious look on his face, Kerr carried Nicole in his arms and walked back.

Nicole put her arms around Kerr's neck and looked at the man leaning against a tree trunk. But he was standing with his back to her, so she couldn't see his face.

"Who is it?" She asked curiously.

Kerr shook his head and replied, "I don't know. Just a passers-by."

Without thinking too much, she followed Kerr back to the villa and got ready to leave soon. Although she was a little reluctant to leave, she knew what was the most important right now.

"I will bring you back again." Kerr tried to comfort Nicole, but clearly felt sorry for her.

"I know." Wearing a faint smile, Nicole held the hand of Kerr tightly.

The next morning, Kerr and the rest of them board the plane and directly returned to A City.

In the Gu Group.

Moore had already stepped down from his position. It had been less than half a year since he took over the Gu Group, but he had left the company in such an embarrassing way.

Moore knew very well many people were secretly laughing at him behind his back.

Standing in

Gu family and the He family have been friends for many years. We have always liked Sunny. Now that she has given birth to the child of the Gu family.

Of course we have to show our respect to Sunny, and you can rest assured that the Gu family will only accept Sunny as the daughter-in-law of the Gu family. After Kerr comes back this time, I will definitely try my best to persuade him."

Although Freya was not sure, in the face of the threat of Daniel, she could only promise him first.

Daniel was satisfied with this answer.

The plane landed on the parking apron of the Gu family. Kerr worried that long-term flight would make Nicole uncomfortable, even though Harley and Nicole had repeatedly assured him that there was no problem.

But Kerr was still worried about Nicole, so he carried her in his arms and got off the plane.

Kerr didn't put her down until they reach their car.

"I've told you I'm fine. Don't worry." Nicole comforted Kerr. It seemed that since they had this child, Kerr had been more nervous than her.

On hearing Nicole, Kerr smiled.

Before Nicole could say anything, they heard a sharp sound of brake not far away. Turning her head, they saw a red Ferrari parking not far away from them.

Chapter 283 Maggie's Jealousy

A woman who wore a black casual clothes and sunglasses got off the car. She looked very cold.

"Maggie Chen?" Nicole said lightly. Although Maggie was a lot different from before, Nicole could still recognize her.

But when Nicole saw the flat belly of Maggie, she frowned slightly. According to time, she should have been pregnant. How could this be possible?

"Long time no see, Nicole. Or should I call you Mrs. Nicole? Oh, no, I almost forget. The woman Mr. Kerr married is Sunny. How could his wife be someone like you?"

Maggie walked towards Nicole with an ironic smile. Her words were full of scorn for Nicole.

Frowning, Kerr winked at Jared who was standing beside him.

Then Jared walked up to Maggie and raised his hand to stop her, "Miss Maggie, wait."

Since Kerr has given his order, Jared would not allow any dangerous person to get close to Nicole.

Nicole looked at Maggie, confused. "Miss Maggie, why are you here?" Maggie's words didn't irritate Nicole.

Nicole could ignore her, but she should show some respect to Maggie since was now Baron's wife.

"Well, I've found out something about the Ning family which Baron had investigated before. I thought you must be interested in it. So I want to have a talk with you."

Maggie stopped and glanced at Jared. She knew that since they were here, it was not easy to approach Nicole.

Nicole didn't know why Maggie was interested in what had happened to the Ning family, but Nicole thought it was reasonable for Maggie to know it. After all, Baron had put a lot of efforts on this matter in order to help her.

Nicole turned to look at Kerr and said, "I'll have a talk with her." When she

d. "I don't know what you are talking about. Your relationship with Baron has nothing to do with me. As a friend of Baron, I hope he can live a happy life.

I don't know why you did that. But if Baron knows that his wife attempted to hurt his friend, I believe he will be very disappointed."

Holding Kerr's hand, she didn't plan to entangle with her anymore. "Kerr, let her go. Even if not for her, I need to think about Baron. I owed Baron before, so I should repay it to him now."

Kerr frowned. "No, I won't give her any chance to hurt you."

Before Nicole could say something, she heard Maggie's voice. "Nicole, don't pretend to be a good person. I lost my child, but your child is still alive. Baron abandoned me for you.

My baby was gone. It was you who killed our baby, Nicole. How can you give birth to this bastard?

You took away Sunny's fiancé and take over the Gu Group. You must be punished." Maggie cursed Nicole hysterically.

She looked at Nicole fiercely as if she wanted to kill her right now.

Nicole had wanted to give Maggie a chance, but now it seemed that Maggie didn't deserve it.

Chapter 284 Feel Pity For Her

"Maggie, everyone fight for what they have. You don't know what I have been through, so you have no right to judge me." In Nicole and Kerr's relationship...

Things had never been easy for them. Although Sunny and Maggie felt that Nicole seemed to have everything, only Nicole knew how difficult it was.

That was why she was able to treasure the man she loved.

"Nicole..." Kerr put his arm around her shoulder. Kerr knew that she must have remembered the difficulties they had encountered together.

As he was about to comfort her, he saw the smile on her face. "I'm fine. These are our memories."

With her back to Maggie, Nicole walked to the car and stopped. "Maggie, I feel sorry for you, but it's just that I treat Baron as a friend, but I can't interfere in your relationship.

Love needs the two of you to manage together. If you and Baron are not destined to be together, nothing can be forcibly done." After that, she got in the car with Kerr.

She held Kerr's hands and said, "Let her go, Kerr. I don't want to cause any rumors for you because of Maggie. She is just a woman and nobody can hurt me as long as you are with me."

She was brave enough to confront those difficulties because she trust Kerr.

"Why are you so confident in me?" He gently touched her nose and looked dotingly at her. "You heard she lost her child, so you felt pity for her."

No one in the world knew Nicole better than Kerr.

Nicole made a face at Kerr. "I can't hide anything from you. She has lost her child. She is a poor girl, so I don't want to care about it. No matter what mistake she made.

There is nothing more painful than a mother losing her own child. So let it go, okay?"

Nicole's eyes were full of expectati efore the baby will be born," Kelvin nodded. He didn't understand Freya's intention.

"Kelvin, now Kerr and Nicole must trust you very much, right? You have changed a lot since you came back. Besides, you have been working for Kerr for several months."

In fact, she had a faint sense that Kelvin had been a little different. He become as friendly and warm as Nicole.

"My lady, you can tell me if you need anything. I'm still a member of Gu family." Looking up at Freya's profound eyes, he had a bad feeling.

"Put this into Nicole's food." Freya hinted to the girl next to her.

Cherry understood and put the medicine she had already prepared in front of Kelvin.

"What's this?" Kelvin frowned.

But Freya didn't give him an answer. "You don't need to know what it is. Since you work for the Gu family, they don't have the right to ask questions. It seems that you have really been staying with Nicole, that outsider, for a long time.

And you almost forget the rules of the Gu family."

There was obvious sarcasm in her words as she called Nicole an outsider.

"I'm sorry, my lady. I can't do that," Kelvin said, taking a step back.

Chapter 285 The Hostess

"I am a member of the Gu family. I am a loyal servant. But Master is also a member of the Gu family."

With that, Kelvin turned around and was about to leave. But he stopped and said, "My lady, I know you want to get along with Master. Maybe this is the best chance.

If something bad really happened to Nicole because of you, I believe that Master would end his relations with you." Kelvin warned her and left.

Glaring at his back, Freya said angrily, "I just want to make Kerr stronger. Am I wrong?" Murmured Freya.

Kerr brought Nicole back to his villa. Now that they could not hide from the Gu family anymore, Kerr would take back everything that should belong to them fair and square.

"Nicole, only you can be the hostess here." He had always wanted to run away with Nicole. But now, he had no choice but to take her with him. Something was doomed to happen.

If that was the case, he would fight for Nicole.

Nicole seemed to sense the change in Kerr, but she didn't tell him about it as she was always with him no matter what happened.

When Jay passed by Kerr, there was disdain in his eyes. "That's easy for you to say. And you almost hurt mommy again." Jay walked up to Nicole and gently kissed her belly.

"Little sister, don't be afraid. I'm here to protect you." In the past few days, Jay would spare some time to talk to the baby in Nicole's belly.

Nicole touched Jay's hair and felt helpless.

Kerr was relieved after he asked Harley to examine Nicole's body and make sure that she was fine.

Kerr's phone rang and he turned and walked out of the medical room of the Gu family. When Nicole sat up on the bed, she saw Harley frowning slightly, "What's wrong? Is there anything wrong with the baby?"

Hearing Nicole, Harley shook his head and smiled, "There is Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

"As long as I'm alive, I'm still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses."

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she learned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

This was the most sound sleep time for Kerr in the following month.

The next morning, when Nicole was still in sound asleep, Kerr had already left the villa.

When Kerr went back to the Gu Group, his face was as cold as ice. All the senior managers had been informed that Kerr would be back and were waiting for him in the meeting room.

Kerr walked in the Gu Group from the front entrance. Standing at the reception desk, Kelvin smiled and waited for Kerr. As soon as he saw Kerr, he took a step forward. "Master, welcome back."

Back then, it was Kelvin informed the employees that Kerr would leave the Gu Group, and now it was also him who invited Kerr back to the Gu Group. But everyone knew that it was Jack who was behind all this.

A white Porsche stopped at the gate of the Gu Group. Moore was in it and stared in the direction of the gate.

It was inappropriate for him to show up at such a occasion.

"Kerr, enjoy yourself. You'll be in trouble soon." With a smile at the corners of his mouth, Moore drove away from the Gu Group.

The car was on the road. When Moore saw a red Ferrari speeding past him, his eyes lit up and he stepped on the accelerator and followed it.

Chapter 286 I Want To Kill Her

"Nice car, beauty." Moore lowered the window and said calmly after he caught up with the red Ferrari.

However, wearing sunglasses, Maggie just ignored the man who accosted her.

Moore didn't rush, but kept driving behind her in a proper distance and provoked her from time to time.

Maggie frowned and glanced at Moore. Then she stepped on the brake and stopped the red Ferrari.

"What do you want?" she asked. Maggie took off her sunglasses.

Moore got off the car and walked beside Maggie. "Miss Chen, you are really good at driving. But I think you can lead a better life if you leave Baron."

Maggie was stunned when she heard this. "Do you know me?" Obviously, the man knew everything about her.

"In fact, I always feel that Miss Chen has been suffering a lot after being with a man who doesn't love you back. But if someone hurt us, we can't easily let it go, right?"

After all, we are just human." Moore knew what Maggie was thinking.

Although when Kerr came back, Moore didn't go to the hotel to meet him, but he knew what had happened at that time. Moore clearly knew the conflict between Maggie and Nicole.

"Who are you? What are you talking about? I don't understand." Maggie could tell that the man in front of her was not a simple man. But she started to doubt everything around her because of Baron.

She would not trust anyone easily, nor would she stupidly give her heart to anyone.

"Miss Chen, you will understand. In fact, I don't want to tell you that, after you were already pregnant with Baron's child, Nicole had met with Baron secretly, not long before your wedding."

He then showed the pictures in his phone to Maggie.

Maggie's eyes widened as she looked at the photo on which Baron was kissing Nicole ness. You'd better do as I tell you to do and don't ever think about fooling me with Nicole again. I can tolerate you for the first time, but never the second time."

He then stood up and left the coffee shop.

Lily held the card in her hand, and it was deformed in her hand.

Back to the Gu Group, Lily was thinking about what Moore had said and looking for an opportunity to get close to Nicole.

"Send this back to the villa, Jared." Kerr looked at the little surprise he had prepared for Nicole. Even though he was busy, he still wanted to let Nicole know that he was thinking about her all the time.

As Jared took the small gift box from Kerr, he hesitated and said, "Sir, the partner will arrive in ten minutes, and now..."

Kerr nodded his head and was about to take the gift box back. But he was worried that if he went home late, Nicole might fall asleep, so he brought the gift to her in advance.

"Mr. Kerr, why don't you give it to me? I can bring it to Nicole." Lily took a step forward and offered.

Kerr looked up at Lily and asked, "Have you already decided to leave? Why did you suddenly come back?" He stared at Lily with his sharp eyes.

Chapter 287 Use Her Trust

Kerr wouldn't let a dangerous person to be with Nicole. He heard it clearly when Lily told him Nicole that she wanted to leave firmly.

These days, they were not in the Gu Group, but Lily was there. It meant that Lily had been with Moore for a long time. People changed.

So Kerr had to be alert.

Lily lowered her head. "I don't want to give up my this job, and I've been working so hard for it, so I choose to stay. But to my surprise, when I returned to the Gu Group, all of you had already left.

But I know the Gu Group is important to you, so I know you will definitely come back, so I stay here." Lily tried her best to find an excuse.

Lily had no other choice. She avoided Kerr's eyes as she knew that she was a terrible liar.

"Did Moore bother you since you came back here?" Of course, Kerr knew what kind of person Moore was. Once he made up his mind, he wouldn't give up easily.

Lily shook her head. "Moore has always been focusing on expanding his power, so he didn't pay any attention for me. What's more, I've got what I want from him.

We are over. He has no reason to make trouble for me." Lily hoped that what she said was true.

Kerr looked at Jared and nodded. Then Jared walked up to Lily, gave her the gift and a car key to her, and said, "Drive my car to the villa."

Lily nodded her head as she heard Jared. She didn't look into Kerr's eyes from the beginning to the end. She turned around and was about to leave the office when she heard Kerr's voice. "I hope you will live up to Nicole's trust."

Kerr reminded Lily.

Since he knew that Nicole treated Lily as her friend, he also wanted to give Lily a chance. What's more, if it weren't for Lily last time, he might have lost his child with Nicole early. Kerr is very concerned about me."

Then Lily helped Nicole and walked towards the door.

Seeing the expression of Nicole, Vedder could not help but come forward to stop them, "Mrs. Nicole, Master has said that you'd better not go out. It won't be long before the baby is born."

He was worried that Kerr would be angry when he knew it.

Nicole wore a faint smile. "I just went to the mall. Never mind. I'll be back soon." Nicole knew what Vedder was worried about, but she also wanted to take a walk outside.

Lily was obviously a little worried. "I'll bring Nicole back in about an hour. I promise she'll be fine." Lily promised.

But she knew that if they went out this time, neither Nicole nor her could return home again.

Before Vedder could stop them, Nicole and Lily got into the car. But he then noticed Kim's car nearby, so he felt relieved.

Sitting in the car, Nicole decided to call Kerr, so he would not be worried about her.

She dialed Kerr's number, but before she could speak, the phone was powered off. She was a little disappointed. When she was at home, she seldom used her phone.

So she forgot to charge her phone.

Chapter 288 The Baby Is Innocent

Lily looked at Nicole in the rear-view mirror and felt sorry for Nicole in her heart, her eyes gazing in the front.

The phone suddenly rang. Lily looked at the number on it and answered it. "I'm on my way now." Before Moore could ask, Lily said calmly.

"You idiot! Kerr's men are following you. I don't care what you gonna do. Get rid of them." He then hung up the phone.

Lily's heart missed a beat when she saw a black car following her from the rearview mirror.

"Lily, who was on the phone just now?" Nicole noticed that there was something wrong with Lily's tone. After Lily put down the phone, she was obviously in a panic.

Lily almost freaked out under so much pressure. She furrowed her eyebrows. "Nicole, please call the one behind us right now. Don't let them follow us."

Lily had no time to explain.

When Nicole turned around, she saw Kim's car. "Stop the car, Lily!" Nicole realized that something was wrong. She would never risk her baby.

Lily was obviously wired.

But Lily didn't slow down. She shook her head and said, "Stop them, please. I have no choice left. Please forgive me." Lily pleaded in tears.

"Trust me, I don't want to, but I have no choice. Please stop them as soon as possible."

Nicole calmed herself down. "Lily, tell me, what happened? It is Moore, isn't it? Trust me, there is nothing in the world that can't be solved.

I will ask Kerr to help you. This time, I will never let Moore hurt you again. Stop the car." Nicole tried her best to persuade Lily, but Lily was obviously unable to calm herself down.

"I didn't do anything wrong, why should I bear these?" Tears blurred Lily's eyes. Her hands holding the steering wheel seemed powerless. The car started shaking.

Nic

had been deformed and Kerr couldn't see Nicole.

"Nicole! Where are you!" Kerr called her, but there was no sound.

Kim pulled over the car and was dumbfounded by the scene. It was only ten minutes after Nicole hang up the phone.

Walking beside Kerr, Kim immediately smelled the gasoline. He lowered his head and saw the liquid flowing out of the car. He realized that it was wrong.

"Master, get out of here right now. The car is about to explode." Kim stepped forward and reminded Kerr.

But Kerr didn't listen at all. With his hands trying hard to open the deformed door, he heard from Vedder and Kim that Nicole was in the car.

Kerr couldn't believe that Nicole would have an accident in front of him.

Pushing Kim away, Kerr tried to look for Nicole.

"I'm sorry, Master." Kim looked at Kerr. Kim embraced Kerr from behind and dragged him aside, ignoring his struggle.

"Kerr!" Upon hearing the news, Harley rushed to the site. The instant he stepped forward, he heard a loud bang! He immediately retreated to a safety distance.

He raised his arm subconsciously to shield his eyes. The moment when he saw the flames, he was shocked.

Chapter 289 A Car Accident

Kerr hit Kim in the face. In a huff, Kerr walked towards the car. Harley walked up to him and hit Kerr's face with his fist, shouting out, "Kerr! Calm down!"

He knew that Kerr and Nicole had experienced the explosion together, but it was different this time. Kerr didn't even have a chance to save her.

Harley hit Kerr to the ground and the latter didn't stand up.

Harley sighed and squatted. "I will ask the professionals to clean up the scene. We will find her." Harley knew very well that even if they found Nicole, she had been dead.

It had never occurred to him that in just a day, Nicole would have been in danger. They had tried their best to protect her, but in the end, they failed.

Kerr was silent, lying on the ground. The fire around him was still burning. He could clearly feel that the heat wave. He was in a daze, lost in thoughts.

He couldn't hear the outside world, nor could he see the people around him.

Ken and Bonnie arrived at the scene. When Bonnie knew what had happened, she was so scared that she fainted. Ken patted on Kerr's shoulder, and then sent Bonnie to the hospital.

Harley then asked his bodyguards to send Jay to Avery, but he didn't tell them what had happened.

Things happened so fast that Harley was at a loss.

"Mr. Harley, the fire on the spot has been put out and it is cleaned now. The person in the Ferrari has been confirmed to be Maggie Chen." Seeing that Kerr was at a loss and couldn't even talk with others, Kim had to report the situation to Harley.

But because Jared's car was severely deformed, Kim hadn't found the corpse of Nicole.

Harley nodded. Before he said anything, she saw Kerr stand up from the ground.

Kim was about to help Kerr, but was stopped by Harley standing next to him. "Follow him. Give him some time. He should be alone now."

Harley looked at Kerr with deep concern in his eyes.

wn up yet. Nicole looked very resentful.

At the same time, she was also worried about Lily. She didn't know whether Moore would give Lily a hard time or not. When she thought of this, a beam of car light came from not far away and Nicole turned around to hide.

When the car was going farther and farther, she felt it was familiar. It seemed to be Harley's car.

"Harley!" Nicole was calling out Harley's name, but the car didn't stop because of her scream and gradually disappeared from her sight.

After parking the car at the gate of Kerr's villa, Harley got out of the car and asked, "Uncle Vedder, how is Kerr?"

He was worried about Kerr.

Vedder shook his head and said, "Master locked himself in the room and refuse to come out." He was also worried about Kerr.

With knitted brows, Harley walked to the door of the bedroom and suddenly found that the door was locked from inside. He gently knocked on the door and said, "Kerr, come out. I have something to tell you."

There was no reply.

"Kerr, the scene has been cleared out. There is a woman in Jared's car, but she doesn't look like Nicole." It was just his guess.

The result of the DNA identification hasn't come out yet, so he was not sure about it, lest it would let Kerr down.

Chapter 290 It Might Not Be Nicole

As expected, the bedroom door was opened by Kerr as soon as he heard that. He stared at Harley and asked, "Where is she?"

Even if there was a bit of hope, Kerr would not give up. From the moment the explosion happened, Kerr had never really felt that Nicole had left him, as if she was just waiting for him around the corner.

Harley looked at Kerr and sighed. "You'd better stay at home and wait for news... I'm afraid you can't recognize the woman either."

The corpse was so badly burned that Harley couldn't even identify it was a man or a woman from the first sight. After the identification, Harley knew it was a woman.

Ignoring what Harley said, Kerr ran passed him and drove to the hospital belonging to the GR Group.

As the car ran on the road, Kerr stepped on the gas and didn't want to waste time. It must not be Nicole. Although he felt a loss in his heart, he did not feel any pain.

He believed that Nicole would not be so heartless to leave him like that.

When Nicole finally near the Gu family, she saw a car rushing past her. Although she didn't see the man in the car clearly, she had a vague feeling that it should be Kerr.

Standing in the middle of the road, she gazed at the disappearing car.

"Kerr..."

Driving the car, Harley followed closely behind Kerr, but Kerr was so fast that he had already left behind.

All of a sudden, a woman appeared in the middle of the road. That woman's appearance surprised Harley a lot. He directly stepped hard on the brake and stopped the car only one meter away from the woman.

The car screeched to a halt with a shrill sound. Nicole subconsciously raised her hand and covered her ears.

It didn't hurt as she expected. She panted and heard the footsteps coming from the car behind her. She easily let go of anyone who wanted to hurt Nicole.

Moreover, the whole thing had something to do with Baron. And this accident happened actually because of Baron.

Then Kerr rushed back to his villa. He pushed the door of the medical room. He didn't know that Nicole was sleeping, so Kerr's action made a huge noise and woke her up.

When Nicole opened her eyes, she dazedly looked at Kerr who suddenly came over. "You're back?" There was a clear nasal sound coming from her voice.

As Kerr walked to her, he reached out and held her in his arms. "Nicole!" Kerr felt so lucky that he could hold her and call her name.

Feeling Kerr's concern, Nicole didn't push him away. "I'm sorry to worry you. I wanted to call you, but my phone was out of power."

She felt so bad. If her phone wasn't out of power and she was worried that someone might hurt her and her baby again, she wouldn't have to walk back home by herself.

"It's good that you are back. Do you feel uncomfortable?" Kerr asked, slightly kissing on her forehead. He was more worried about Nicole than the baby.

"Don't worry. The baby is fine. It's just that Nicole needs a good rest." replied Harley.
