

CEO Daddy 29

Chapter 29

Gwendolyn shook her head. "No. We didn't fight."

She had never mentioned her family before. Zayden found out that she was from the Ashton family only when he was helping her to register for an account.

Given her identity, he could not understand why she would live such a miserable life out there while raising the children all by herself.

He felt sorry for her. Despite feeling curious, he knew she had to be on bad terms with her family to have moved out alone.

Therefore, he had asked his friend to help with the account registration without alerting the Ashton family.

"Gwen, I'm always there for you. You can look for me whenever you need help."

He would always be waiting for her as long as she was willing to give him a chance.

Gwendolyn smiled. "I'm fine. It's just that I haven't recovered from the cold a few days ago. Don't worry about me."

Zayden stopped probing further upon hearing her. He stayed back for dinner after sending her back to Snowy Lane.

It was getting dark when he left. Gwendolyn and her children sent him off at the door.

Juliette waved at him. "Goodbye, Mr. Zayden!"

Julian also bid goodbye to house because everyone there was place, and its peacefulness was a stark contrast to the rest drive some distance away, the family walked back to the two boys, "You two have lessons later at piano lesson shortly. Gwendolyn needed of the sixty thousand fees. She had to look leaving the house. Then, she wrapped a scarf around on the lesson today. Don't one who picked the course for herself. Nonetheless, she became restless and stopped taking hearing her

did Mr. Handsome, who always takes care of you, ask television drama where the male lead would ask the female lead to go on a date after taking care of her when she was sick. Then, the two would of Patrick. She thought she had a stroke of bad luck for owing the man so much money for no of her. She then, her phone started ringing. Juliette immediately helped her to your phone is ringing. Maybe Mr. Handsome is going to ask you thinking that the man would not be calling her at that hour. He should be drinking with his father-in-law now. Why would he took her phone over from her daughter and almost dropped it in shock. It was a