Chapter 291 The News Of Her Death

Nicole raised her head and looked at Kerr with grievance. "Kerr... I'm hungry." She had not eaten anything since noon.

Since she had this baby, she ate a lot and couldn't have enough sleep. It was normal for her to have such a reaction, since she had been exhausted from the walk.

Kerr caressed her long hair and took her in his arms, walking towards the dining room.

What had happened didn't matter at all. As long as Nicole was safe, it was enough for Kerr.

Sitting at the dinner table, Kerr insisted on feeding Nicole in order to prevent her from gobbling up the food.

Harley asked with curiosity. "Nicole, where on earth have you been? Why are you in such a mess?" Harley sat down far away from Nicole.

He was a doctor and had a severe mysophobia.

Nicole frowned and turned to see the expression on Harley's face. "You think that I'm disgusting? You can try to walk back from such a long distance by yourself. I bet you would be more messy than me."

Nicole didn't notice it before Harley asked her about it, but now when she lowered her head, she was a little self-conscious. "Kerr, am I..."

Before she could finish, a spoon of porridge was sent into her mouth by Kerr.

"It's okay. You don't need to care about it. You should not starve yourself and that is the most important thing right now." said Kerr. He didn't care about it at all.

Nicole chewed the food in her mouth and felt sweet.

Kerr glanced at Harley and apparently didn't want him to say anything more.

Harley was not a fool and shut his mouth naturally.

"By the way, Jay is at the Lin family tonight. You'd better call him, or he will not sleep well." When Kerr saw that she was almost done, he put down the spoon.

Without thinking too much, Nicole turned around and made a phone call to Jay.

n't fall asleep. In a short day, he almost lost Nicole. It was a well-planned plot that Moore let Lily be with Nicole.

He didn't know the relationship between Maggie and Moore.

He gently took his arm away from Nicole and got up to leave the bedroom.

Vedder knew that Kerr had something to tell him, so he had been waiting at the door.

"Master." Watching Kerr walking out, Vedder bent over slightly.

"Uncle Vedder, don't let anyone know that Nicole is back. Prepare a cemetery for me, and I'll make everyone think that Nicole had passed away."

Maybe in this way, he could prevent Nicole from any dangers. Although he didn't want to do so, he wanted to take this opportunity to get rid of all the people behind him.

"I understand. But can't we tell Kelvin about it?" Vedder was clear that Kerr had already taken Kelvin as one of his family members.

"Don't. Uncle Kelvin is in my parents' every day, so it's easy for others to find out what's going on. I don't want anything happen to Nicole again. She will give birth within a month. We can tell him by then."

Nicole's safety was the most important thing for him.

Vedder knew what Kerr was worried about, so he said nothing more.

Chapter 292 Sunny Came Back

Over the next few days, Kerr held a simple funeral without telling Nicole, so everyone in the A City knew it except Nicole.

Finally, there was a smile on Jack's face. But what pissed him off was that so far, Kerr hadn't come back to his family even though Nicole had been dead.

"Don't worry. Now that woman is gone and Kerr has returned to the company, he will soon forget her. Then Sunny will be back as well."

On the other hand, Freya was not worried at all. Now she was fearless and had nothing to worry about. According to the information she got, Nicole's child had been adopted by the Lin family, so there was no obstacle in front of Kerr's future.

"I hope so." Jack still felt something wrong, but he could not tell. Perhaps everything came too fast.

"You don't have to give your shares to Moore. You know better than me who is more suitable to take over the Gu Group." Freya knew more or less what Moore had done in the Gu Group.

How could that bastard be comparable to Kerr?

Jack did not say much. He was really dissatisfied with Moore's performance.

Standing at the door of the villa, Moore heard the conversation between Jack and Freya and raised the corners of his mouth with disdain and ridicule. He didn't go in but turned around and left the house.

He didn't expect that he could get rid of Nicole by sacrificing Lily. But to his surprise, Kerr didn't break down because of this. On the contrary, he worked as usual.

Moore felt something wrong.

The phone that was put aside rang. Moore pressed the button of his Bluetooth headset.

"Is Nicole really dead? I can go back to Kerr now. Great! Nobody can stop me from marrying into the Gu family anymore." Sunny asked excitedly.

From the time Sunny saw the car accident rep

t this little cutie pie. She liked the child very much. She didn't expect to see Kerr's child so soon.

Sunny nodded shyly. "During that time, my emotion was affected a lot. I knew that there was only one woman in Kerr's heart -- Nicole, but I didn't want to abort his child.

Whether Kerr wants it or not, the baby is innocent. It's a life." Sunny sighed slightly. "That's why I left here alone. I just want to protect my own child.

I have been waiting for the delivery. One month ago, someone wanted to hurt me and the baby, and I was scared and something happened to the baby. That's why he came out early. So the doctor said that the baby is much weaker than those normal baby."

Thinking of this, Sunny couldn't help but burst into tears.

Hearing what she said, Jack's face became serious. "Someone wants to hurt you and the baby?"

Sunny nodded. "At that time, I was the only one outside. In fact, my father didn't allow me to keep this baby, so I had to hide it from him.

Obviously, they wanted to kill my child. They also said that my child was a threat to them, but I didn't know who they were. I could only protect my child as much as I could at that time."

Chapter 293 Karma

Although Sunny didn't clearly tell them who tried to hurt the baby, everyone present knew what happened.

"It must be that evil woman, Nicole. She was so vicious. She not only messed up the wedding, but also wanted to take this opportunity to get rid of you. But that was in the past.

Nicole had paid for what she had done now." Freya was filled with righteous indignation. When she thought that she might not even have the chance to see the baby in her arms, she was a little sacred.

"Look at my little baby. He looks exactly like Kerr when he was a kid." When Freya saw this child, her eyes were full of love.

Hearing what Freya said, there was an obvious irony at the corners of Moore's mouth. How could his child look like Kerr?

Sunny was startled and glanced at Moore with a guilty conscience. When she found that nobody was suspicious, she was relieved and pretended to be surprised.

"What? What happened to Nicole? I have been taking care of myself these days, so I haven't had the chance to care about Kerr. I think he must be very happy with Nicole.

I remember that before I left, she was pregnant. Now I become a mother. I don't want to make a fuss about the past. No matter what happened to me and Kerr, I will take care of the child myself.

But after all, he is the child of Gu family, so I want to bring him to here." Sunny pretended to be generous and seemed not to care about anything.

Freya held Sunny's hand and asked her to sit down beside her. "Sunny, listen to me. Nicole has become Kerr's past. She has paid for what she did.

Now no one will stop you from going back to Kerr. Now that you have given birth to Kerr's child, you will be the daughter-in-law of our family. The Gu family will treat you well."

In fact, Freya didn't plan to let Sunny take the baby away.

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

"As long as I'm alive, I'm still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses."

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she learned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

nny, right? She and her baby." She was quite sure about her guess.

She had never expected that in order to marry into the family, Sunny would be able to do anything.

"Are you scared?" He reached out his hand to stroke Nicole's little face, but did not see a trace of worry on it.

Nicole shook her head. "I'm not afraid. I believe that you have nothing to do with it. I'm just worried that they would make things difficult for you. The Gu family haven't find trouble for me for so long.

They are waiting for me to give birth, aren't they?" Nicole knew that it wasn't so easy to solve the problem. Having undergone so many hardship, she had become very strong-minded.

"It doesn't matter what they are thinking about. What matters is that I won't let anything happen to you and the baby." Kerr hugged Nicole in the arms.

But Kerr didn't believe that it was a coincidence. After all, Sunny returned to the Gu family not long after Nicole "died".

If he hadn't been putting on a good act, the Gu family wouldn't have believed that Nicole had passed away and they wouldn't have exposed their dirty tricks.

Only when he was in trouble could he distinguish who was the enemy and who was a friend.

Chapter 294 Ron Gu

Vedder went into the villa with the invitation in his hand. He was at a loss what to do when he saw Kerr.

"What is that, Uncle?" When Nicole raised her head, she saw that Vedder looked uneasy standing beside her.

When he heard that, Vedder became even more helpless. He went to Nicole and Kerr, and then said, "Master, my lady, it's an invitation from the old mansion." Vedder gave the invitation card to Nicole.

Nicole took it over and opened it. She saw the golden words on the red invitation card, "Ron Gu.." Nicole read out the name.

"Good name." Nicole smiled and passed the invitation to Kerr behind her.

With the baby in his hand, Kerr threw it into a nearby trash can without giving a glance at it. "I won't allow them to hold a one-month-old birthday party for that child."

It was an insult to Nicole. Kerr loved and married her, but now he should have a dinner party held for Sunny He and let that unknown child have his surname.

He would never admit that child.

"Kerr, in fact, I've figured out that it doesn't matter at all whether you could marry me or not. I never ask for these things, as long as you love me."

Nicole knew that what Kerr did was all for her, but she didn't want him to be embarrassed because of her.

"I know what I am doing." As long as Nicole was hidden well, nothing could threaten Kerr.

The baby of Nicole was not born yet, so Kerr only needed to delay the time for one month.

Nicole nodded. "Have you come up with a good name for my baby?" She had known that the baby she was carrying could not be Joyce.

When Kerr was about to say something, he was stopped by Nicole. "If it weren't Joyce, you had to do something just in case. After all, you couldn't let me lose my baby."

Nicole gazed at Kerr intently.

"Lucas Gu. It represents warm sunshine family. I don't want to make new problems crop up at the last moment. I finally get rid of the obstacles."

"I can't miss this opportunity again." Sunny was worried about Moore's existence.

But Moore didn't care about it at all. He leaned his body against the wall of the balcony and said, "you're too careful. Now Kerr is so proud of himself for the Gu Group is under his control again."

"Kerr is the only one you love in the world. All the world belongs to Kerr. I'm the one who should be sad." There was a hint of mockery in Moore's words.

He was mocking at himself. But all of these were just temporary, and he would manage it in the end. If Kerr wanted to take control of the Gu Group, he would let him manage it.

Anyway, only shares are useful in the end.

"Moore, I know what you want. As long as I can keep Kerr under my control, I promise, I will give you whatever you want. Even if it is not the Gu Group. You should know that I am the only successor of the He Group."

She really hoped that she could attract Moore's attention on those interests. In this way, he might not pay attention to her any more.

Hearing what she said, Moore was satisfied. He raised his hand and pinched her chin.

Chapter 295 To Teach Moore A Lesson

"Good girl!" After saying that, Moore turned around and left the house of Gu family.

The car arrived at the cemetery. Moore got off and stopped in front of a tombstone. He squatted down and said, "do you still hate me when you die? In fact, I do want to use you.

But I didn't expect that even I myself was involved in it. Kerr didn't allow me to see your body. He's so bad that he didn't even let me see your for the last time."

Moore muttered to himself. Maybe in this world, Lily was the only person who really saw his real side.

As he looked around, Moore saw the name on the tombstone next to Lily's, "Nicole Ning." Moore was curious. Given the love that Kerr had for Nicole, how could he bury her here casually.

There were flowers in front of Lily's tombstone. It was obvious that someone had come to mourn lily, but there was nothing in front of the tombstone of Nicole.

An idea emerged in his mind, and he couldn't help but widen his eyes.

He turned around and drove directly to the Gu's villa.

Moore parked the car in front of the gate of Kerr's villa and then got off. "Master Moore, I'm sorry. Master Kerr has gone to bed. It's not convenient to see you now. Please go back."

Kim stopped Moore from entering the gate.

"I want to see my brother, and I don't need your permission," Moore replied, casting a glance at Kim. Moore was just not pleased with the loyalty Kim and other people had for Kerr.

"This is the order from Mr. Kerr. I hope you won't make things difficult for us," Kim just followed Kerr's order.

That was why Moore had thrown him out of the old mansion.

Every dog has his day.

Staring at Kim angrily, Moore spoke wrathfully, "good for you!" After saying that, Moore turned and dialed Kerr's number. He must see Kerr today.

If he didn't figure it out, he couldn't sleep tight.

Kerr heard his cell p er to indicate her not to speak.

Though wearing an baffled look, Nicole shut her mouth up as Vedder reminded her.

But Moore heard her voice clearly.

All of a sudden, Moore burst into laughter. "Aha, I didn't expect that you would hide your love in the house! I know Miss Ning is always lucky, Miss Ning. How could you have an accident so easily? "

Moore found out this secret and felt his injuries were not got in vain.

"You misheard. I won't let you go with Nicole's accident." Kerr's eyes turned red, as if he was going to kill Moore next second.

On hearing what Kerr had said, Nicole frowned at Vedder and signaled him to stop Kerr, in case he would do anything out of his mind on impulse.

Vedder nodded his head, and then went to the side of Kerr, "Master, there are some things that are not worth getting angry at. All the things will be solved one day."

He reminded Kerr, "moreover, if Miss Ning were in heaven, she wouldn't hope you to be impulsive." Vedder hoped his words could convince Moore.

That was the only way for them to protect her.

Nicole sat in the living room and looked confused. 'In the heaven? Who? Was he referring to her?'

Kerr took his foot back. He knew that it was a suggestion from Nicole.

Chapter 296 Broken Ribs

"Moore, I won't kill you. I'll let you see with your own eyes that you can't get anything you want."

Kerr had to convince Moore that he couldn't beat him up, and killing Moore was a piece of cake to him.

Kerr turned around and went back to the villa.

He gave a look at Vedder and went back to Nicole.

At once, Vedder called to Kim and took Moore away.

Moore was in half belief in what the Vedder and Kerr had said, but the pain in his body left him with no strength to check what was going on. Kim had asked someone to send Moore to the Gu Group's hospital.

"Kerr, what happened? Why did Moore think I was dead?" Frowning, Nicole looked at Kerr and felt something was wrong. Recently, Kerr had spent much more time with her than before.

Nicole was very happy at first, but she didn't expect that it was all because of something else.

Kerr put his hand on Nicole's waist and gently lifted the corners of his mouth. He looked like a different person now.

His indifference to outsiders was because he gave all his tenderness to Nicole.

"He was talking nonsense. You don't have to pay attention to him. How could you wake up in the middle of the night? Are you feeling uncomfortable? You never did that before. I'll call Harley and ask him to come and see you."

It was already early in the morning, but Kerr still picked up his cell phone. Before he could make the call, he was stopped by Nicole. "What time is it now? Do you still want to make trouble for Harley?"

"What's more, I'm not sick at all. Don't change the subject. I'm asking you seriously. Didn't we promise to face it together?"

What are you doing now? They took away my cell phone and forbade me to watch TV and touch my computer. They said that my phone had radiation and they didn't let me read newspapers since it was not good for my eyes. Are you lent for a while. Then she said tentatively, "Kerr, I have something to tell you." She raised her head and looked into Kerr's eyes.

Her eyes were full of expectation.

"You want to see Baron?" No one knew what was on Nicole's mind better than Kerr. With a smile at the corners of his mouth, he said, "Nicole, don't think too much. You have nothing to do with what happened to Maggie."

It's their fault. They didn't handle their relationship well. You don't have to blame yourself. I didn't punish her for the last time, and I was already kind enough."

If it weren't for the fact that Kerr had cared about Nicole's feelings, he wouldn't have let go of Maggie so easily.

Although he had warned Baron behind the back of Nicole.

Nicole nodded. "I know, but Baron has helped me so much..." Nicole also knew that it was at a special period.

"After you give birth to the baby, no matter what you want to do, I will accompany you, okay?" He didn't want to make things more complicated.

Now, Moore had become a threat and Kerr had to be prepared.

He tucked Nicole in. After a while, he managed to get Nicole to sleep. He was finally relieved, but he hoped that he could conceal the news of Lily's death for a while.

Chapter 297 How Could You Be Alive

But in this world, what one was afraid of would happen more often.

The next morning, Kerr went to the study to answer a phone call, "Sir, I have gone to the hospital and figured out the situation. The doctor said that Moore had a broken rib and he had to stay in the hospital temporarily.

But it seems that he hasn't informed the Gu family yet." As soon as Jared walked out of the hospital, he reported the situation of Moore to Kerr.

Fortunately, Moore isn't in serious condition. Otherwise, Kerr must be in trouble.

But Kerr didn't care about it. "Inform the Gu family." Since he had done it, it would be a good opportunity for him to remind Gu family.

Just now, Jared felt lucky to hear the news. But when he heard Kerr's words, he was stunned and asked, "Sir, do you really want to do this? Your father will be unhappy if he knows this."

"Do as I say." Kerr was extremely firm.

As soon as his voice faded away, he saw Vedder running in in a panic.

"Sir, please go to see Mrs. Nicole now."

Kerr immediately put down the phone and strode towards the dining room.

As soon as he entered the dining room, he saw Nicole reading the newspaper about the accident. He was surprised.

"Call Harley and tell him to come here right now." Kerr turned to Vedder and ordered him.

Vedder did as he was told, and heard the voice of Nicole.

"No, I'm fine." Putting down the newspaper in her hands, Nicole stood up and walked towards the garden outside.

Although it was summer, Nicole felt cold from the bottom of her heart. When she passed by Kerr, he stretched out his arm and grabbed her wrist.

Raising her head, she looked at Kerr with a slight smile on her face. "Don't worry about me. I'm fine. I just want to be alone for a whi gossiping.

With Nicole in his arms, Kerr glanced at Jared.

Jared took the hint and said, "Since Mrs. Nicole is pregnant, the flash would cause radiation and do harm to the baby. Please turn off the flash lights."

Kim stepped forward and blocked the journalists.

Kerr had been carefully protecting Nicole, worrying that someone would suddenly run into her belly. He frowned his eyebrows all the time. If he had known that, he wouldn't have brought Nicole with him.

"I shouldn't have brought you here." Kerr said indifferently, but Nicole shook her head.

"It's okay. I know you can protect me. I'm not afraid at all. What are you afraid of?" Nicole had a happy smile on her face.

Even without any make-up, Nicole's skin seemed to be more smooth than before, and there was love in Kerr's eyes.

Standing in the hall, Sunny saw that all the reporters were gathering at the door. She guessed that it must be Kerr, so she nervously tidied her hair.

Then, she handed the baby to Cherry and walked towards the door.

However, when she just walked two steps forward and saw Kerr and Nicole, she stopped in surprise. "Kerr... Nicole, how could you be alive?"

Chapter 298 Chaos In The Party

Sunny couldn't believe it. It had been confirmed before that Nicole had died in the car accident, but now the person she was seeing was indeed Nicole.

Nicole glanced at Sunny's surprised look and knew that she was scared.

She pinched Kerr's hand quietly.

Feeling the strength in his hand, Kerr looked at her with dotting eyes.

"I'm sorry to disappoint you, Sunny. It's just a joke of Kerr. I didn't expect that you would show up all of a sudden after disappearing for such a long time. Is it because of this news?" Nicole looked at Sunny without fear.

Standing in front of her, Nicole stared at her.

Looking at Nicole, Sunny unconsciously stepped back and looked at Kerr who was beside her. "Kerr, I gave birth to a boy. Haven't you seen him yet?

Father had given him a name, Ron Gu." Sunny walked to Kerr and wanted to hold his hand. Excitement sparkled in her eyes.

But Kerr raised his hand to dodge her touch. "My child is still in Nicole's belly. Ron Gu? Who said his surname is Gu?" He knew it was Jack.

But he had to show his attitude.

"Kerr! Today is the banquet of Gu family. You have to hold your tongue." When Freya stood in front of them, she took a look at Nicole with a mixed feeling of surprise and fury.

"There is no need for someone who doesn't belong to Gu family to be here at this time." Her intention was obvious. She was referring to Nicole.

"Kerr, my baby's surname is Gu, so it's natural for it to be here, right?" Nicole asked Kerr in front of Sunny and Freya on purpose.

There was a gentle smile on their face, which was more like the flirting between two lovers.

"Sure." Kerr kept his arm around her back to up to him.

"I'm warning you, don't talk nonsense, Nicole. I'm Kerr's wife, and also the rightful daughter-in-law of the Gu family. You don't have a say in the Gu family." When Sunny saw that Nicole didn't want to leave with Kelvin...

She became even more furious and stared at Nicole with burning hatred in her eyes.

Turning his head to look at her, Kerr continued, "I've never married you and never touched you. How could you give birth to a baby of Gu family?"

His words were simple and clear, as if a heavy slap on Sunny's face.

In a daze, Sunny said, "Kerr, how can you deny that? I have given birth to Ron. He is your child!" Sunny looked at Kerr with sadness in her eyes.

"You have a mistress outside, but you can't be so cruel to me. I love you, but you have to take care of my feelings. I am your legitimate wife. This woman incited you to leave me.

You need to know what kind of woman can marry into the Gu family."

Hearing what she said, Kerr's eyes became cruel, "Let me tell you what kind of woman can marry into my family. There is only one standard. That is the woman in my heart."

Chapter 299 Gamble On Nicole

"Now that you insist that the child is mine, let's go to the hospital to do a paternity test, and then the results will come out. Everyone knows it."

Kerr was sure that the baby had nothing to do with him.

Upon hearing this, Sunny trembled and retreated for several steps instinctively. "Kerr, do you really have to do this?

If our Ron grow up and know that his father has suspected his identity, what will he think? Kerr, I love kids the most. I won't hurt him in any way."

Sunny tried her best to calm herself down. Even though she was already very restless in her heart, she tried to keep calm on her face. But in her mind, she was thinking about how to inform Moore.

If she was really going to do the DNA test, she should have made a plan beforehand.

Nicole shook her head helplessly. "You that this is Kerr's child and how much you value him. So, may I ask you, why did you disappear just after you got pregnant?

You came back with your son in a few months. Where have you been when you were away? Who have you been with during this period? Why was the baby premature?"

These questions were also the doubts of the Gu family. She just asked them out for the sake of Jack and Freya.

If even Kerr couldn't find her, then there must be someone who helped her in the past.

"I..." It never occurred to Sunny that Nicole would bring this up. "I left because of you. You are the one who forced me to abort the baby.

I won't compromise. My body was weak, and I was unable to take good care of myself during my pregnancy, so the baby was premature. You're to blame."

Sunny tried to attribute all the responsibility to Nicole, but she looked g he Gu Group's hospital." Sunny needed more time, since she didn't know where Moore was now.

If she couldn't find Moore, no one would help her to cheat Kerr.

Jack stood up and said, "Is it a gamble for you? Kerr, you know what I mean, don't you? I will never let that woman marry into my family no matter what happens.

You'd better forget about it." Kerr had done too many ridiculous things because of Nicole, so in the eyes of Jack, such a woman was a disaster.

He would not allow Nicole to stay.

"It is my life, and I don't need anyone to interfere. As a member of the Gu family, I am worthy of the surname of the family. As for other things...

If you can't respect me and arrange everything for me, I will not accept it. I hope you won't do anything meaningless." There was obvious politeness in Kerr's tone.

But he was firm. In front of these guests, his politeness was obviously provoking Jack's dignity.

"Unfilial son!" Jack raised his hand and waved it in the direction of Kerr's face.

"Kerr!" Wearing a nervous look, Nicole called out his name subconsciously and held his hand.

Chapter 300 Premature Birth

But Kerr didn't want to hide.

But Jack halted when his hand was near to Kerr's ear. When Jack looked into Kerr's eyes, he saw the determination in his eyes. It seemed that if the slap went on, Kerr would really sever the relation with the Gu family.

"Jack!" Freya walked to Jack and held his arm, looking at him worriedly.

"Why didn't you dodge it?" Said Jack, looking at Kerr.

Kerr just let go of Nicole's hand and took a step forward. It seemed that it was the first time for him to face Jack in such a close distance. There was no emotion in Kerr's eyes.

"Father, if you think I was wrong, I won't fight back. I won't dodge. You can do it. But please think twice. I live up to my family name.

With the slap, I would cut all the connections with the Gu family. Now I have my own family, and I have someone I want to protect. I don't care about the Gu family at all."

Even without the Gu family, he could still give Nicole a good life. If this could make her live a more secure life, then he was willing to.

Hearing this, Freya was shocked. She reached out and pulled down Jack's hand. "Don't talk nonsense, Kerr. All right, since this matter has been decided, let's wait for the testing result.

By then, everything would be clear." All Freya wanted now was to smooth things over. With so many people present, the Gu family had already become a joke.

When Sunny saw that Kerr was going to break up with Jack for a woman, she put all her hope on Ron beside her.

Turning her eyes, she saw that Nicole had been pregnant. It was obvious that she would give birth very soon. She couldn't let Nicole give birth to a child at this time.

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she learned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

gas pedal with his full strength, but he didn't feel fast enough. When the car stopped at the hospital gate, he saw that Kerr carried Nicole and walked towards the emergency room.

He heaved a sigh of relief.

After sending Nicole to the emergency room, Kerr insisted on accompanying her and never let go of her hand.

"Don't be nervous and don't be afraid. I'm here with you." While he was comforting Nicole, he kissed her forehead and gently wiped the sweat from her forehead with his fingers.

On receiving the news and rushing over, Harley saw Kerr squatting by the bedside, and Nicole just closing her eyes and frowning.

"Don't worry, Kerr. The delivery room is ready. It's going to be fine. I've asked them to get everything ready. You can wait outside."

Harley knew that Nicole needed a painful process, so he wanted to let Kerr leave the delivery room because Kerr would be more nervous if he looked at her like this.

But at this time, it was impossible for Kerr to leave her. Looking at her suffering, he felt guilty.

"I'm here with her. I won't let anything happen to her in front of me again. I don't care what you are going to do, you must keep her safe."
