

CEO Daddy 301

Chapter 301 He Wont Let Anyone Get Away With It

Kerr could no longer bear the pain of losing Nicole.

They were going to be happy together, and Kerr didn't want her to be hurt because of this.

"Don't worry. The condition of Nicole is not as bad as you think. She has been taking care of the baby carefully all the time, so the baby is in good condition. It's just that she is frightened now, which is why she has a premature delivery."

Maybe it was because of his profession, although Harley was not a doctor of Obstetrics and Gynecology, he knew that Nicole's condition was not serious, but Kerr was just too nervous.

Even though Kerr had got a guarantee from Harley, he still insisted on staying with her.

Banquet Hall.

From the moment Kerr left, it was quiet. Everyone could feel the awkwardness, and Jack stood there with a dark face.

Freya sighed.

After a while, Kim walked in from the door of the banquet hall and went straight to Jack. He bowed slightly and said, "Sir, Mr. Kerr asked me to tell you something."

Looking at Jack's face, Kim knew that once he said such words, Jack would be definitely more angry, but with Kerr's instructions, he had to say so.

Jack did not say anything, but waited for Kim to say something.

Casting a sidelong glance at the stunned Sunny, Kim said, "Mr. Kerr said Nicole is now in the hospital. If something happens to her and the baby, he won't let go of anyone related to this matter."

What Kerr meant was clear. Even with the help of Gu family, he didn't intend to let go of Sunny this time.

Sure enough, after hearing what Kim said, Sunny took a step back unconsciously.

She held Ron in her arms tight unconsciously.

The hall seemed to be in a dead silence. After taking a look at Jack, Kelvin ordered the staff to send all the guests away, and the chaos finally ended.

Kim left the party hall as well, but before he left, he gave Sun very room.

Nicole's hands gripped the handrail at the bedside, her face full of pain.

Standing outside the room, Kerr kept fixing his eyes on the operation light on the door.

When Sunny walked into the hospital, she saw many people looking at the direction of the emergency room. Without thinking, she knew that Nicole was there. Without delay, she went straight to the ward of Moore.

At this moment, Moore was lying on the bed, looking at the message he had just received, with the corners of his mouth slightly rising.

"It's a disaster outside, why are you still sleeping here?" Looking at the calm look on Moore's face, Sunny walked over to him directly with an anxious tone.

Moore sat up quite calmly, then put down the phone in his hand. "Since I have you, of course I can lie peacefully here. Weren't you very brave in the scene just now?"

You dared to trip over Nicole in front of so many reporters. Do you really care about Kerr, don't you? Or, should I say you really hate Nicole."

Hearing that Moore was still in the mood of joking, Sunny was pissed off. "Do you have the mood to talk about this? Listen up, Kerr has been infuriated to the core. If something happens to Nicole today, neither of us can get away with it."

Chapter 302 Punishment

"Kerr would take Ron to have a paternity test soon. You know what to do." Sunny couldn't think of a better solution.

"Why bother? I'm really looking forward to the child that Nicole is carrying. If it's a boy, that would be great." There was some implicit meaning in Moore's words.

Sunny was totally confused. She looked at Moore's face and thought what he said. Then an idea flashed through her mind. "You mean..."

This method is indeed very simple, but risky. "Ron is in my car, but he has grown up a little. I'm afraid that Nicole and others will discover it.

What's more, now Kerr and Harley are guarding at the door of the operating room. How can we get close to Nicole's baby?"

Sunny didn't know anyone in the hospital. No one could help her except for Moore. This was not a problem that could be solved by herself.

"You are smart. I am here." Moore looked complacent.

These days in the hospital, Moore had bribed some doctors just in case. After all, Nicole's unborn baby had always been a threat to him.

"But Ron has to suffer for the time being." Moore got out of bed, took off his hospital gown and changed into the clothes that were prepared long ago, which were the uniform for Gu's hospital doctors.

"Put this on." Moore took out a set of nurse uniform from the wardrobe and handed it to Sunny.

Without any hesitation, she put the clothes on.

The delivery room.

Doctor Zhang of the gynaecology and obstetrics department was skilled. He soon took out the baby in Nicole's belly, but handed it to the nurse beside him.

"Ah!" A loud baby's cry resound through the delivery room. Nicole's mouth moved slightly upwards at the corners.

"Doctor? How is the baby?" Nicole was very weak and her voice was low. She wanted to see the child but ating room and soon saw the nurse taking Nicole out.

"Nicole!" Kerr walked to Nicole and held her cold hand. Looking at the blood on her lips, he felt his heart ache.

"Mr. Kerr, don't worry. She just fell asleep. She needs a rest now. It's a good thing to sleep more." The nurse explained to him patiently.

Without any response, Kerr pushed the cart where was Nicole lying carefully, sent her back to the ward, and looked after her wholeheartedly.

Harley followed Kerr, then went to the baby room.

No one noticed that a man and a woman walked out of the delivery room after Nicole left. The woman held a parcel in her arms and left the hospital in a hurry.

In the ward, Kerr held Nicole's hand and kissed her slender fingers, his eyes filled with pity.

Maybe it was because she was very worried about her child, Nicole woke up very soon. "Baby!" It was a call by instinct. The baby's cry reverberated in her mind.

On hearing that, Kerr stood up and whispered to her ear, "The baby is great. Don't worry, Nicole. How do you feel now?"

When she opened her eyes, she saw the worried look on Kerr's face. With a smile on her face, he seemed to be more nervous than her.

Chapter 303 Freaked Out By The Birth Of Her Baby

With the love of Kerr, no matter what difficulties Nicole have to suffer, she can still feel satisfied. "I'm fine. I'm so disappointed that I can't give you a daughter."

Nicole knew that Kerr had been looking forward to the baby she was carrying, even though she had already known it was Lucas instead of Joyce.

Kerr shook his head. "As long as it's our child, I will love it. It's our last child and I don't want you to suffer like this. I just hope that you can be fine. It's enough for us to have Jay and Lucas."

It was Nicole who gave birth to the baby, but Kerr seemed to be more nervous.

With a slight smile, Nicole added, "You little fool, every woman will feel pain when she gives birth. It's okay. Did you see Lucas?" Her gaze wondered around the room.

She looked for her little baby.

"I just want to be with you. That's all I want. You are more important than our baby or anyone else in my heart." He spoke out his innermost thoughts.

When she saw how affectionate Kerr was, she felt happy and helpless. She raised her hand to stroke his side face and said, "Who could have imagined that the CEO of the Gu Group would be scared by a woman's delivery?"

But Nicole felt sweet in her heart.

"I'm afraid that you will suffer." But he didn't think it was a shameful thing.

Nicole shook her head. "I want to see the baby." She worried that her fall might hurt the baby.

Kerr nodded. As soon as he rose to his feet, he saw that the door of the ward was opened from the outside. "Look, who is this?" With obvious surprise in his tone, Harley walked into the ward.

And then he gently pushed a baby bed.

When Nicole was about to sit up, she felt the painful wounds in her abdomen and frowned.

"Lie down. Don't move." With h g to look for Lucas. You must make sure that you're lying on the bed comfortably so that I can look for him without worry."

There was a sparkle in her eyes, but she still nodded. At this time, she couldn't let Kerr worry about her, so she said, "You must find Lucas." All she could do now was to pray for the baby.

If it was just a nurse accidentally made a mistake, her child would be safe.

Kerr rose to his feet and was about to go out, but he saw that Harley was still standing there and the expression on his face was odd. "What are you thinking about?"

With a slight hesitation, Harley looked at Nicole and finally fixed his eyes on Kerr. "There is only one pregnant woman in the hospital today, and I have arranged her ward and delivery room in advance.

So if you are sure that the child is not yours, then there is only one possibility, that is, someone deliberately wants to take your child away. Who do you think has such motive?

How could they gain the entrance in the hospital so easily?" There was overtone in his words.

"The Gu family." there was a meaningful look in Kerr's eyes. He said indifferently, but his voice was full of disappointment.

Chapter 304 It Is Not Lucas

But this was his child with Nicole. Anyway, no one could take Lucas away from them.

Turning around, Kerr looked at the nervous Nicole lying on the bed, "I will bring Lucas back." After that, he left the ward. Now he had something important to do.

The phone in his pocket rang when he just arrived at the gate of the hospital.

"Kerr, don't forget to go to the hospital on time tomorrow morning. Sunny is at home. After the paternity test next morning, we will all know the truth."

Freya reminded him.

With a smile on her face, she raised her head to look at Sunny and the baby in her arms.

With a complacent look on her face, Sunny looked down at the baby in her arms. With obvious dislike in her eyes, she put the baby on the sofa beside her casually.

But the moment she put the baby on the sofa, he started to cry. Impatient was written all over his face.

Putting down the phone, Freya walked to Sunny and asked, "Why is Ron crying?" Freya held the baby in her arms and coaxed him with a smile, "Ron."

Sunny stood behind Freya with a disdainful face.

Sunny didn't know how her Ron was doing yet. If not for her baby son's future and her status, she would not send Ron to another person.

"Mom, actually it won't be so troublesome. There is naturally a blood sample of Kerr in the Gu's hospital. In fact, it's not necessary for Kerr to show up personally. I'm afraid that Nicole is going to sow discord between us.

Anyway, I have no guilty conscience. Now that Ron is here, we can take him to the hospital and take his blood sample to make a paternity test in advance.

If that's the case, we can also make sure that Nicole won't do anything to hurt us." Sunny was also worried that Kerr would see through her lies when he saw the baby.

Hearing what she said, Freya th to prove Kerr's innocence and the other to prove her guess.

Harley's eyes widened in surprise. He asked, "Are you suspecting that the baby is Ron?" Though Harley had not seen Ron yet, he knew the existence of the baby.

"I just feel that they are similar." Nicole just saw Ron once.

Harley nodded. "Okay, I'll do it now." When he walked to the door, he heard what Nicole said, "No matter what the result is, please tell me the truth, okay?" She knew that Harley was a good friend of Kerr. Of course, she believed that this child had nothing to do with Kerr.

But she didn't want to burden Harley.

"Don't worry." Then he left the ward.

When Harley had just arrived at the laboratory with the baby in his arms.

Someone was talking inside.

"How long will the result take?" Sunny asked the doctor in the laboratory, and Freya stood beside her, holding the baby in her arms.

"A few hours. Please wait outside." The doctor looked up at Sunny and signaled.

Hearing what was going on inside the room, Harley immediately moved aside with the baby in his arms and hid in the corner.

Before long, he saw that Sunny and Freya walked out of the laboratory, with a child in their arms.

Chapter 305 A Place In My Dream

This was totally out of Harley's expectation. He couldn't believe that Sunny would hold the baby in her arms to have a paternity test. Could it be said that her baby was really Kerr's? Harley was confused.

With Freya at her side, Harley didn't think that Sunny had any chance to play tricks.

Just as Harley was guessing, the baby in his arms suddenly cried, which frightened him. He wanted to cover the baby's mouth, but he immediately removed his hand.

Hearing the familiar voice, Sunny stopped and immediately turned around to walk towards the source of the sound. Sure enough, she saw that Harley was holding a baby in his arms.

"Harley! This is..." By instinct, Sunny took a step forward, trying to get close to the baby in Harley's arms. However, Harley took a step back and avoided Sunny's approach.

"Miss He, you came to the hospital so late. What are you doing here?" Harley tried to change the topic even though he didn't know where the baby in his arms came from.

But just in case, the baby might be able to help Nicole and Kerr find Lucas.

When Freya came to Sunny's side, she stretched out her arm and pull Sunny. "What's wrong, Sunny? Come on, let's go home. Ron is asleep."

With a faint glance at Harley, Freya knew that he was on the side of Kerr and Nicole, so she looked at Harley with obvious displeasure. "Do you still have to work so late, Dr. Su?"

I think you should have a good rest, Dr. Su. Your family and Gu family have been friends for generations. Kerr made a mistake this time, so you'd better not make things worse. If the relationship between your family and the Gu family is damaged because of that, it would not worth it."

Freya reminded Harley to mind his own business.

With a slight smile, Harley said, "You're right, Mrs. Freya. But now, Kerr is on as Jack had expected.

"So what? I'm a member of Gu family, so I can't choose my own life? Is this the price of being a member of Gu family?" There was a hint of mockery in Kerr's tone.

"I don't care what's in your mind. If you really wanted to be with that woman outside, you have to exchange it with the baby. I won't let my grandson be apart from the Gu family."

Jack said it clearly.

Kerr frowned. "You mean you want to keep Lucas in the Gu family? It's absolutely impossible. I won't let my child grow up in an environment like this."

He won't agree and he also knew that Nicole would never agree with it on this matter. They would never make a compromise on the baby.

"An environment like this? What kind of environment it is? It's a place many people dream of. Don't be so ungrateful!" Jack rose to his feet and scolded him.

From a long time ago, Jack had noticed that Kerr did not like this family at all.

That was why Jack was more strict with Kerr.

"Really? So let the people who love here enjoy it. I'll pick up Lucas tomorrow. I don't want anything to go wrong." Then Kerr left the house.

Although he had made it clear...

he still couldn't help worrying.

Chapter 306 Not Like Them, Of Course

After all, it was not a good sign that Jack wanted to keep Lucas in the Gu family.

In the hospital.

Nicole looked at Kerr who was in a daze and asked, "Kerr, what's wrong with you? Is there something that you are hiding from me?" Although Nicole was very worried about Lucas, she was more afraid that this would bring great pressure to Kerr.

"No, don't worry. I'll go and get our baby back later." After these words, Kerr reached out to tuck Nicole in.

Holding the baby in his arms, Harley was about to turn around and leave when he heard the voice of Nicole.

"Harley, please ask someone to take care of that child for me." Nicole was a mother, so she naturally felt sympathy for every child, although the fate of this child was not very good.

But he was innocent after all.

Nodding his head, Harley walked out of the room with the baby in his arms.

Nicole raised her head and looked at Kerr. "Kerr, I asked Harley to do this last night. I'm sorry that I didn't inform you, but please believe that I didn't have any doubt about you when I asked him to do this.

I just want to know the baby's identity and prove your innocence." Nicole handed over the test report to Kerr.

Kerr looked down at the report in his hand and smiled. He lifted his hand and stroked her long hair.

"Are you willing to believe me now? I said, I didn't touch her, so this child won't have anything to do with me." He didn't mind that Nicole did the DNA test as long as she was happy.

When she was about to explain, Kerr kissed her directly on the lips.

He was so careful as to kiss her that he was more gentle than before. He held her in his arms and carefully avoided the wounds on her belly.

He just gave a light kiss on Nicole's lips and then let her go. He was afraid tha inger and gently poke him on his face. The soft touch on his face made her curious.

"Wow, he is so little... But he doesn't seem to look like Nicole or Kerr." Avery frowned.

"It would be strange if he looks like them. He is not their child." Harley explained indifferently.

Avery was surprised. "Really?"

She turned around and looked at Nicole with a complicated expression.

"One more bite." Kerr coaxed Nicole.

Nicole shook her head, "I really don't want to eat more." She lowered her head. Although she had only eaten a third of the food, she had no appetite at all.

"It's a long story. We are going to the Gu family later. Lucas is there." Nicole just told her the result.

But Avery was a straightforward woman and she said, "Do you mean that my child was taken away by the Gu family? Why! They didn't admit the baby when you were pregnant, and now they stole the baby from you?"

This is so unfair. How could they do that?" Avery felt it was unfair for her.

After all, she knew exactly how many hardships Nicole had gone through when she was pregnant. She knew that Nicole had suffered a lot because of this child, so it was too late for the Gu family to regret.

Chapter 307 Face To Face

Noticing that Avery was pissed off, Nicole turned to look at Kerr next to her. Noticing that he didn't make any response, she winked at Avery.

With a faint smile, Kerr reached out to get a tissue and wiped the corner of Nicole's mouth. "It doesn't matter, Miss Lin is right, no one can take away your child."

Having such a family, in fact, Kerr was full of helplessness.

Realizing that she had said something inappropriate, Avery shut up obediently.

"Can we set off now?" Nicole asked.

When Kerr glanced at Harley, the latter had a helpless look on his face. Whatever he agree or not, Kerr and Nicole couldn't reach an agreement, so he had to keep silent.

Nicole reached out her hands and held Kerr's cheek, "You don't need to ask Harley for advice. I know how I am. I promise I'll be fine. As long as you're with me, what are we afraid of?"

Looking at the pleading eyes of Nicole, Kerr had nothing to say but nodded.

He dressed Nicole and held her in his arms in a gentle way so as not to touch her wound.

Harley followed behind Kerr. After all, it was the Gu family affair. As an outsider, he had no right to take part in it.

"Why are you standing here? In case anything happens, you can help them." Harley reminded Avery.

Then he walked towards his car with Avery.

Seeing the two cars drive away, a figure appeared at the door of the hospital. He held the phone in his hand and dialed a number. "They're on the way. Get ready. I've given you everything you need."

Moore exhorted Sunny.

Standing in front of the window of the bedroom, Sunny said, "I know. Have you seen Ron?" She was worried about her baby.

"Sunny, don't let me remind you that the child beside you is the one called Ron!" He was worried that she w is true, I will keep my promise. Mrs. Freya, you don't have to worry about it. But it seems that there are many things that you don't know." Nicole didn't make it clear.

She had told Kerr to take care of it.

Kerr didn't listen to Freya, but stared at Sunny with his sharp eyes and said, "Give the baby to me. I don't want to repeat it." Clearly, he was implying something.

Sunny shook her head and said, "How can you be so cruel to him? Do you know he is your child and want to give it to Nicole?"

You want to admit the baby and abandon me, right?" Tears were running down from Sunny's eyes. She held the baby tightly in her arms.

Maybe it was because of her careless movement, the baby didn't feel well and began to cry.

"Ah!" The loud sound echoed around the villa, as if it was complaining.

Nicole frowned as if her heart was torn apart. She felt sorry for her crying baby.

"You have frightened Ron, Kerr." Feeling sorry for her grandson, Freya scolded Kerr and then walked to the side of Sunny. She wanted to take the child from Sunny, but she dodged.

"Don't touch me! The baby is mine. No one can take away Ron from me!" Sunny was so nervous.

Chapter 308 Sign Of A Child

The baby in her arms was her only bargaining chip. Sunny wouldn't let anyone take it away from her.

In a daze for an instant, Freya took a step back unconsciously as she had never seen Sunny act so crazily. Shocked, Freya asked, "What's wrong with you, Sunny?"

In front of her, Sunny was always gentle and generous.

In order to prevent the crazy Sunny would hurt Freya, Kelvin protected her behind him.

Stepping aside, Freya watched Kerr walk towards to Sunny.

"Sunny, the baby you are carrying is not Ron. give it back to me. I know what you have done behind my back." All Kerr wanted now was to get Lucas back.

Sitting next to them, Nicole heard her son's crying, which made her heart ache. She reached out and grabbed Kerr's clothes, saying, "Kerr..."

When Kerr heard that, he turned to look at her. When he saw the way she looked at him, he didn't step forward to force Sunny to hand over the child.

Standing far away from them, Sunny was still very nervous. The baby in her arms was still crying.

"What are you doing?" Jack was standing on the stairs, looking down at the quarreling people. His face darkened when he saw Nicole on the sofa.

Everyone's attention was drawn by the harsh voice of Jack, only Kerr did not look at him.

Jack walked down the stairs and gave a cold look at Nicole and gave a faint glance at Kerr.

"This is the Gu family's house, not the market. Behave yourself." Said Jack in an obviously angry tone. The whole family was screwed up by this matter.

In the eyes of the member of the Gu family, they thought that it was all because of the appearance of Nicole that things became like this.

"Coax the baby." Jack took a look at Sunny. Because of the crying of d kept it in mind.

Sunny's lit up. "Nicole, I don't know when you have peeped at Ron. But I have been taking care of Ron by myself all the time, so I know everything about him.

Everyone who takes care of him knows the birthmark on his leg. Don't make trouble out of nothing. I have got the report of the paternity test.

Now, I have proved my innocence. Nicole, I hope you can keep your promise and leave here so that Kerr will return to the Gu family."

Nicole looked at Kerr. "I only know that only when Kerr are with me can he be happy. No one can replace me. Family is not about title or wealth, it means a lot more than that to him."

When Kerr heard what Nicole said, he felt very comforted as he tightly held her hand. Only Nicole could understand what he felt.

"Give the child back to us. It's your own business to decide who to stay in the Gu family. I won't interfere." Replied Kerr firmly. He had no intention of going back to his family.

Everything here had nothing to do with him.

"Kerr, don't forget what I have told you, the children of the Gu family have to stay in here, and you must keep the promises you have made."

Chapter 309 He Is Not The Child Of The Gu Family

Shouted Jack in a harsh tone.

He glanced at Avery who was standing next to Nicole and held a child in her arms. "Is this the child you gave birth to?" If Nicole's child was really Kerr's.

He would keep the child in Gu family.

Anyway, Jack would never let his grandson out of Gu family.

Feeling Jack's eyes on her, Avery couldn't help taking a step back, with her baby in her arms.

"Kerr, I told you that the children of Gu family could only grow up in this family." Jack said and gave Kelvin a look who was standing aside.

Kelvin understood what he meant. He hesitated for a while and walked to Avery. "Miss Lin, please let me take care of your child." Then he reached out his hand to Avery.

Avery looked at Nicole and asked for her opinion.

"That child is not from the Gu family at all!" Freya cast a resentful glance at Nicole and added, "I've got the paternity test report about that child."

While saying that, Freya took out another paternity test report from her bag and directly threw it on the table.

"Nicole, where did you get the bastard and want to blame Kerr?" There was obvious resentment in Freya's words, and then she looked at Kerr.

"Now, you need to take a look at the woman beside you. What a shameless woman she is!" Freya was exasperated at Kerr who didn't live up to her expectations.

Kerr just put his arm on Nicole's shoulder with an obvious sarcastic smile on his face.

Hearing what Freya said, Nicole felt helpless. "Kerr, now I just want to get back our child and then leave here." Their words did not hurt Nicole at all.

Before she came here, she had been well prepared.

Holding the hand of Nicole tightly, Kerr nodded slightly to her. "I know."

Sunny's e

to the Gu family, the others please leave!"

Jack felt that the farce should be over.

"Income, I'd like to remind you that no matter you have given birth to a baby for Kerr or not, and no matter how much you want to be with him, you should understand that not all the woman can marry into the Gu family."

As soon as Freya heard what Jack said, she walked in front of Nicole and said, "Nicole, you should have a clear estimation of yourself. It is really a stupid idea to try to keep a man by using a child."

She got it. As long as Nicole could back out, Kerr would be able to return to the Gu family.

So all the problems were because of Nicole.

Nicole thought that it was funny. When she felt that Kerr tightened his grip on her hand, she was delighted.

Kerr stood in front of Nicole. "It's my own decision to be with the woman I love. I am in love with Nicole, so I might give up everything in the Gu family, but I will never give up everything that belongs to Nicole."

After saying that, Kerr didn't want to be entangled with her any more. It was not long after Nicole gave birth to the child and she needed to have a rest right now.

Chapter 310 Threat From Kerr

Kerr bent over to carry Nicole in his arms and walked towards the door.

"Kerr..." Seeing her son, Nicole was a little unwilling to leave. She was worried that Sunny would hide Lucas away after they left.

By then, it would be so hard for them to find a kid in a vast sea of people.

"Don't worry. I know what I'm doing." As he stopped at the gate of the villa, Kerr said in a cold voice, "You'd better take good care of my son, Sunny.

If I knew that there was something wrong with Lucas, I would definitely let your son pay for what you did." Kerr threatened her.

And also, he said it to everyone present.

After he finished his words, Nicole walked out of the house with Nicole. Avery and Harley followed closely behind him.

When the car returned to his villa, Kerr put Nicole on the bed in the bedroom and asked, "Are you cold? Are you tired?" Kerr knew it wasn't an easy task.

Now he felt a little regretful to bring Nicole with him. If Nicole was tired, he would feel guilty. ?

Nicole shook her head and saw the nervousness in Kerr's eyes. She raised her hand and fondled his forehead. "I'm fine. I'm just worried about Lucas. He was just born and is not with me now."

When she said this, there was deep guilt and remorse on her face. "Kerr, I am not a qualified mother..."

Before she could finish her words, Kerr put his index finger on her lips, "Don't think too much about it, it has nothing to do with you, it's my fault that I didn't protect you and the baby.

But don't worry. I will bring Lucas back safe and sound. I promise you, now he is the eldest grandson of the Gu family. He must be of great concern in the family.

What's more, we have Sunny's baby. She won't dare to hurt Lucas." There was confid this possibility, Nicole had another thought, which lit up her eyes.

Looking at the sparkling eyes of Nicole, Kerr had a rough guess on what she was thinking. "Do you want to bring Lucas back in the same way?"

After hearing Kerr's words, Nicole nodded vigorously. "In the eyes of Gu family, I'm not a good person, so what I care is the result.

Lucas is so little. I can't rest assured if I don't see him." Nicole looked at him beseechingly.

"I'll have a try, but I'm not sure I'll succeed. I know everything about the Gu family, so I know how difficult it is.

The Gu family paid great attention to a newborn baby, and the extent of such attention may be far beyond your imagination." He was brought up in that kind of environment, so no one knew it better than him.

Seemingly, the Gu family wasn't heavily guarded, but over the years, they had made many enemies, and there was a reason why the Gu family would lead a peaceful life all these years.

"I didn't mean it that way, Kerr. If it's really difficult, we can think of other ways. Don't put yourself in a dilemma." Although Nicole was worried about Lucas, she also care about Kerr's feelings.
