Chapter 331 Exchange Terms

While Moore's fingers were always on Lucas's neck, as if he would kill Lucas at any time.

Nicole gripped the hem of Kerr's shirt subconsciously.

"Moore, what do you want except the shares of Gu family?" Although Nicole didn't have the shares of Gu family, she could exchange with Moore in other ways.

Even if Moore wanted the Ning Group, Nicole would give it to Moore without hesitation. She just wanted the safety of Lucas.

With a slight smile at the corners of his mouth, Moore asked, "What do you think? What do you want in exchange with me?" He would try every means to get what he wanted.

Anyway, he couldn't stay in the Gu family after today. It was better to cut off all means of retreat.

"You just want the shares of the Gu Group. I don't have any, but I have the Ning Group. You should know that the current Ning Group is very different from the past."

Nicole analyzed calmly, hoping to distract Moore's attention. She kept staring at Moore's hand, worried that he would hurt Lucas.

But she couldn't show it at all.

"In fact, Moore, the reason why you want to cooperate with Daniel is just for these assets. Why don't you consider my suggestion?" Nicole tried to persuade Moore.

By now, everyone present had known the truth.

Kerr stood in front of Nicole to protect her and said to Moore, "Let go of the child. I'll give you a way out." In fact, Kerr didn't intend to let go of Moore at all.

The feud between them could be easily solved with a few words.

After weighing what Nicole said in his mind, Moore couldn't help but shift his attention from the child.

"Moore, you can't just think about those assets. Where are my child?" Sunny yelled at Moore. She had lost her mind. She was in a bad condition without seeing Ron.

s little hand, she put it to her lips and kissed it gently. "Mommy will never lose you again." It had only been three days since she gave birth to Lucas, but she had a feeling that these three days were as long as three years.

Kerr gently patted on Nicole's shoulder and comforted her.

"No one can take him away from you." Kerr thought it was him who make Nicole so worried.

Nicole nodded and focused all her attention on Lucas.

"Moore, tell me, where is my child?" It seemed that Sunny couldn't hear anything. Now she only wanted to find Ron. She didn't know what would happen to Daniel...

The only person left for her now was Ron. She could never lose Ron again.

"Enough! The baby is not here!" Moore shook off Sunny's hand and looked at her angrily.

Sunny fell to the ground, with her eyes empty and in a mess. She looked at Kerr from the corner of her eyes, but dared not to come closer to him.

"Kerr, where is the baby?" Freya stepped forward and asked Kerr.

Her mind was in a mess now. She didn't know which one was Kerr's child, and she didn't know how Kerr replaced the baby.

Not only Freya was confused, everyone present couldn't figure it out.

Chapter 332 Gu Family Became A Joke

Even Nicole couldn't help but raise her head to look at Kerr beside her, with inquiry in her eyes.

"Kim." Kerr said indifferently.

Kim nodded, turned around and walked towards the door.

Soon, he came back with a baby in his arms. It was Ron.

"Ah!" With tears on his face, Ron cried loudly as if he was complaining about his grievance.

Freya walked forward, took the child from the hand of Kim, and patiently coaxed Ron. Perhaps it was because she had always thought that Ron was Kerr's child, Freya couldn't accept the fact yet.

Nicole lowered her eyes and looked at Lucas who had just woken up in her arms. The environment around them had become so noisy, but he was in sound asleep before, and now he slowly opened his eyes.

Looking for the only light source.

Seeing the gentle eyes of Nicole, a bright smile appeared at the corners of Lucas's mouth. He stretched out his hand towards Nicole's face, as if trying to touch her.

"Mommy! Mommy, let me see if it's a little brother or a little sister." Jay walked to Nicole's side, full of curiosity about the baby in her arms.

Kerr helped Nicole sit back on the sofa. He was worried that Nicole would feel uncomfortable because of her action just now.

But now, all Nicole's attention was on the joy of finding Lucas, so she directly ignored her physical fatigue.

Jay looked at the baby in Nicole's arms, but when he looked at Lucas, the latter closed his eyes directly.

With a faint smile, Nicole said, "He might be tired and fall asleep." Nicole comforted Jay, fearing that he would be disappointed.

Sitting on the ground, Sunny kept her eyes on Ron, but she didn't dare to check on him, with obvious timidity in her eyes.

"Now everythin

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

"As long as I'm alive, I'm still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses."

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she learned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

Her hands to subdue Moore, and took both Moore and Sunny to the basement of the Gu family's house.

"Ron! My Ron! Kerr, you can't abandon Ron. Ron is your child!" Sunny shouted. Subconsciously, Sunny didn't admit that Ron was not a child of the Gu family.

Hearing Sunny's words, Freya became confused. She looked at the baby in her arms and then looked at Lucas in Nicole's arms.

"What the hell is going on? Kerr, make it clear." Freya was a little confused.

"Isn't it clear enough? The one in your arms is your so-called Ron, the child of Sunny and Moore, and the one in Nicole's arms is my son, Lucas." Kerr announced the result straightforwardly.

However, Kerr didn't give up his previous thought. "Harley, you have to get the result as soon as possible for me.

I did all this not because I doubted Nicole, nor because I doubted the relationship between me and Lucas. I want to prove it in the most direct way that Lucas is my biological son and Nicole are my legitimate wife.

I don't want to hear any bad news and rumors about them in the future. If there is someone who wants to slander Nicole and the child, I will not let them go."

Chapter 333 Not Only Destruction

This time, even without the threat of Sunny and the pressure of Jack, Kerr would still be so determined, because the farce of the Gu family should be over.

Looking at the firm look of Kerr, Jack could not say anything more. With a dark face, he sat on the sofa and did not refuse.

Nicole breathed a sigh of relief. She didn't object as much as before, as long as Kerr believed her. Now, Kerr had proved his trust in her with his action.

Then why couldn't she compromise for the sake of Kerr?

Jay was reluctant. They had already done the paternity test, and it was unnecessary. But looking at Nicole's face, Jay didn't say anything.

In front of everyone, Harley collected blood sample and Kelvin watched the whole process. Taking a look at Harrow, who was standing aside, Harley said lightly, "Harrow, help me."

From beginning to end, Harrow was his most capable assistant. He didn't forget that they grew up together.

Obviously, Harrow was a little surprised. He didn't expect that Harley was still willing to believe her. With tears in her eyes, she silently followed Harley into the medical room.

Sitting on the sofa, the living room fell into silence, and even Lucas and Ron were about to fall asleep.

Jack looked at Jay and said, "Come here." Jack waved at Jay.

Jay could tell what Jack meant.

Nicole was a little hesitant, but she didn't stop Jay. After all, blood thicker than water and the relationship between Jack and Jay could not be changed.

It would be a good thing if Jay could change Jack's mind.

"Grandpa, I know what you want to ask. You must want to know everything about me. I used to stay in Manhattan with Mommy, and then returned to here and went to the school of the Gu family.

I don't want to side, and Ken knows what he should do." Kerr comforted Nicole.

"Why can you always guess what's on my mind?" With a faint smile at the corners of her mouth, Nicole felt very sweet in her heart. It felt so good to be cherished by Kerr.

She knew that happiness was always hard to get, so when she had it, she would cherish it more.

Kerr held Nicole in his arms and kissed her forehead, his eyes full of love, regardless of the presence of others.

However, such love turned into worry in Freya's eyes.

In the end, she failed to stop Kerr and Nicole. She didn't expect that Sunny would make such a mistake.

In the medical room.

This time, Harley did the test himself, and Harrow would only help him.

"Sir, don't you want to ask me something?" It was the first time that she had seen Harley so silent since she had been with him for so long.

Although Harley was very focused, she could see that he had something on his mind.

"Be focused." Then Harley put the blood sample on the operating table.

Looking at the expression on their faces, Kelvin turned around and left the medical room.

He knew that Harley was an honest and reliable man.

Chapter 334 You Have Seen Him Too

There would be no mistake in this matter.

After Kelvin left, the medical room quieted down, and Harrow became more uneasy. When the operation was over, Harley took off the mask on his face and put it aside, waiting for the result.

Harley turned to look at Harrow and said, "You have hidden it from you for so long, but I didn't know you are a woman." There was a strange feeling in Harley's heart.

After all, watching his brother growing up together suddenly appear in front of him in such a way, how could Harley not be surprised?

"I'm sorry, sir." Lowering her head, Harrow looked guilty and complicated.

Harley sighed with depression and felt a little helpless. "You know, what I want to hear is not your apology." Harley frowned.

"I know. In fact, I have always been a girl. When I stayed with you, your father worried that I would be in trouble, so he asked me to stay with you as a boy. But I didn't expect that I would be discovered by Sunny.

She used this to threaten me. I had no choice at that time, so I had to betray Mr. Kerr. I didn't want to make you embarrassed, so I chose to leave. Not long ago, Kim found me."

Harrow explained briefly, but ignored the hurt brought by Sunny, because she wanted to leave a good impression on Harley in the end.

"Why didn't you tell me? You know I've always regarded you as my good friend. Even if you're a woman, it won't affect our relationship at all. What are you afraid of?

Do you know how much trouble your decision almost brought to Kerr?" Harley blamed on Harrow, but actually he was angry for her concealment.

Lowering her head, Harrow kept silent.

"Harrow, don't you want to give me an explanation?" Harley stared at her.

"I... I have told your father that I will leave the Su family and A city after making things clear with Mr. Kerr today." This time, she didn't want to s with me." Jack had something to talk with Kerr alone.

But Kerr didn't move. "I have made it clear that no one will stay here. If there is anything else, we can make it clear here. I have to go back earlier.

Nicole has just given birth to the baby. She is still very weak." Kerr was worried about Nicole.

Jack's face darkened, but he didn't say anything, with a little embarrassment on his face.

"In fact, if you don't tell me, I also know that you want to know the whereabouts of your missing child. I can tell you directly that he has known his identity, but obviously he doesn't want to go back to the Gu family.

So, you don't have to place your hope on him. If he comes back one day in the future, I will treat him as a member of the Gu family." Kerr said bluntly.

He believed that Zachary would not return to the Gu family just because of the property of the Gu family.

And he clearly knew Zachary's ability.

"Have you met him?" Jack felt incredible. He didn't realize that Kerr had long been out of his control before.

Kerr nodded, "In fact, you have seen him before, but he has never thought of returning to the Gu family." Zachary was present at his wedding with Nicole, but Jack didn't notice him at that time.

Chapter 335 Charter Never Doubt Yourself

Jack frowned, "Don't think that everyone is like you. Being a member of the Gu family will only bring honor to you. Kerr, don't be so ungrateful."

From the beginning to the end, Kerr hated his identity as a member of the Gu family very much.

Kerr cast a cold glance at Jack. When he was about to refute Jack, Nicole stopped him.

Nicole looked at Jack and said, "Mr. Jack, I know that because of my appearance, all your expectations for Kerr have been in vain. I have become an accident in Kerr's life.

You have been worried about me all the time. Because of me, Kerr will do something absurd and act rashly sometimes, so you don't like me. You even haven't accepted me from beginning to end. I can understand it.

Because of your prejudice against me, in fact, after I was with Kerr, I didn't ask Kerr to do anything unreasonable for me. All we did was to have the most ordinary happiness."

Nicole hoped to persuade Jack with the most sincere attitude. Even though she knew it was difficult, she was willing to have a try for the sake of Kerr.

Nicole smiled at Kerr beside her. She didn't think it was hard. After all, now with Jay and Lucas, she believed that she was very likely to be accepted by Jack.

Kerr held Nicole's hand tightly and felt a sense of warmth his heart. He understood her. Nicole was a person who would never compromise easily and yield. Now she was willing to tolerate the hurt caused by Jack because she loved him.

This woman was his choice and he would protect her for the rest of his life.

Hearing what Nicole said, Jack snorted, "He didn't do anything absurd? Isn't it too much to build a Ning Group for you with the power of the Gu family?

Ordinary happiness? Don't talk nonsense. You should know that from the moment w see me all his life."

She said in a fit of pique.

She just didn't want to get married so soon. She didn't expect that he would disappear directly. How stingy he was?

"Since Nicole is fine now, I'll go back first. Please tell Nicole that I'll come to see her another day." Avery told Kerr and said goodbye to Jay. Then she turned around and left.

"When will uncle Zachary come back?" Jay didn't ask Kerr until he saw Avery disappear.

Kerr didn't say anything. He just looked at the baby lying in the pink crib and frowned. He had always thought that the baby would be Joyce, so the decoration in the baby room was in the girl's style.

Now it was a little weird for Lucas to lie inside.

"Make a new baby room for Lucas and keep this room." Somehow, Kerr felt that he would have a girl with Nicole one day.

Their little princess.

Seeing that he was ignored completely, Jay was a little dissatisfied. He stood in front of Kerr and said, "I haven't settled accounts with you yet. You didn't know that I'm your son before, didn't you?"

He could tell that when he appeared in the Gu family's house as Jay Gu today, there was a flash of surprise in Kerr's eyes.

Chapter 336 I Wont Miss An Important Moment

"What's the difference? Anyway, I have always regarded you as the first child of Gu family, haven't I?"

Kerr looked calm. In fact, he knew how angry Jay was. It was indeed a little surprising for Kerr, but it was a good news.

Bending down, Kerr reached out his hand and held Jay in his arms. "It doesn't matter. I know I haven't been with you for six years, but in the future, I won't be absent from any important moment of yours."

Kerr made a promise to Jay.

He would always remember how he felt when he faced all the important moments. He would never let Jay experience the feeling of loneliness again.

Hearing Kerr's promise, Jay's face softened a little. He nodded to Kerr and said, "Be good to Mommy." Jay put his arms around Kerr's neck.

Standing at the doorway, through the crack of the door, Harley saw the father and son. The corners of his mouth rose slightly. Without saying anything, he turned around and walked out. With his mobile phone in his hand, he dialed the number of Harrow.

The phone could be connected, but no one answered. When Harley came out of the Gu family's house, he heard from the bodyguard that Harrow had left.

But he still had a lot of questions in his heart, and he still couldn't find the answer.

At the same time, when Harrow was walking alone on the street, she didn't answer the phone no matter how many times it rang.

Suddenly, a black car stopped in front of her. The bright light of the car directly shone on her body, making her unable to open her eyes. She raised her hand and subconsciously blocked her sight.

Before she could react, a man got out of the car opposite her, walked directly to her side, grabbed her arm and dragged her into the car.

"What do you want?" Sitting in the car, Harrow recognized the man in front of him. He was Sunny's bodyguard, Edward.

Seeing t

know how to smile, they could tell that he liked Nicole from his eyes.

"Lucas... My little Lucas." There was a satisfied smile in Nicole's eyes.

Kerr raised his hand and stroked Nicole's long hair.

Jared walked to the door of the bedroom and knocked gently, "Knock, knock, knock!"

Hearing the knock on the door, Kerr stood up, turned around and walked out of the bedroom.

"Sir, there are some emergencies in the company. You need to deal with it." Jared also knew that Kerr just wanted to be with Nicole.

But things were a little tricky. No one could make a decision except for Kerr.

"What's the matter?" There was obvious displeasure in Kerr's tone. He had just made a promise to Nicole.

"It's because of the trouble left by Moore. And I just received the news from the Xue family this morning. The eldest son of the Xue family will arrive in A City three days later. His assistant has informed me directly.

He tell me that he came here to see you and has something important to discuss with you, but he didn't tell me what happened exactly."

Jared also felt strange. The news came all of a sudden. The Gu Group had given up the cooperation with the Xue family, but now the latter came to them voluntarily.

Chapter 337 The Xue Family

In fact, it was a good thing, but what came all of a sudden always made people suspicious.

Kerr frowned and thought about Jared's words. It was easy to deal with the Xue family's affairs, but Moore had to bear the consequences for what he had done.

"Go to the group now." After saying that, Kerr walked out of the villa.

In the room, Nicole knew that Kerr was busy, so she didn't think too much. Now that they finally let Moore leave the Gu family, there must be a lot of things to deal with. What Nicole should do now was to take good care of herself and Lucas.

"Good boy, Lucas. Daddy is very busy. Let's wait for him at home, okay?"

Hearing Ning Nicole's voice, Lucas opened his eyes. Although he was still very little, his eyes were bright, like the stars in the sky. People didn't want to take their eyes away from him when they saw him.

When Jay woke up in the morning, he came to take a look at Lucas. Then he shut himself in the room, turned on his laptop and contacted Callie.

"Callie, can you come to me? My problem has been solved."

Jay had a proud look on his face. He had said that as long as the matter of the Gu family was solved, he would go to see Callie. But now, Nicole had just given birth to Lucas, so Jay was obviously worried about her.

Thinking of what Ben had said at the table this morning, Callie shrugged and said, "I have something to do here, but I believe that we will meet soon."

Although she said so, she knew that there would be greater trouble if she could solve this problem in front of her.

Hearing Callie's words, Jay began to look forward to it.

In the CEO's office of the Gu Group.

Sitting behind the desk, Kerr looked at the documents in his hands, which clearly recorded the losses that Moore had caused to the Gu Group

With a faint smile on his face.

Callie nodded.

Ben's eyes were full of affection. Before he could say anything, he heard the door of the study was pushed open from the outside.

Even without looking back, Ben could guess that only Lisa in the whole Xue family was so bold.

"Lisa, you should set a good example for Callie." Ben felt a little helpless. His sister didn't have any resemblance to his personality.

Hearing Ben's words, Lisa didn't take it seriously. "Callie is so smart. She won't be misled by anyone." Lisa smiled at Callie.

Then she seriously looked at Ben and asked, "Ben, why do we change our schedule from the day after tomorrow to twenty-eight days later?" Obviously, she couldn't wait to see Harley.

She had planned to give him a surprise, but now she was suddenly informed that the schedule was changed to a month later.

"Because after twenty-eight days, Rachel's baby will be one month old." Ben didn't want Rachel to face them before she fully recovered.

It was also the last time for Kerr to be with Rachel.

"Are you still worried about Kerr? Haven't I tested him? He is kind of loyal to Rachel." Lisa's thought was simple. She was also very worried it before she met Harley.

Chapter 338 Its Not The Right Time

But after hearing a lot of things about Kerr and Nicole from Harley, Lisa had already trusted Kerr. She didn't know what Ben was still worried about.

"Kerr is reliable. How about the whole Gu family? Were all the grievances that Rachel had suffered before nothing?" According to the information Ben had investigated, he was very surprised.

In the past seven years, Nicole had been taking care of Jay alone. It was obvious that she had suffered a lot, but she had to be despised by the Gu family. Ben felt sorry for her.

Lisa thought for a while and asked, "What are you going to do? After all, she has two children now, so..." She was worried about Rachel.

And a little selfish.

Ben glanced at Lisa indifferently, "Don't worry. Your dear Harley won't be implicated. If you are in a hurry to see him, you can leave first."

His words exposed Lisa's thoughts.

With a guilty conscience, Lisa closed her mouth naturally. She could only continue to suppress the longing in her heart, feeling a little helpless.

In the Gu Group.

Thinking about Ben, Kerr stopped walking towards the door.

Jared's phone rang and a message came, "Sir, Jeremy is here. He is heading towards the office. Are you going to stop him?"

Hearing Jared's words, Kerr restrained his emotion.

"No need." While speaking, Kerr turned around and stood in front of the French window, enjoying the scenery in the distance.

The door of the office was pushed open from the outside and Jeremy came in.

Without any hesitation, Jeremy directly sat on the chair opposite Kerr's desk, trying to suppress his anger. He knew that it was not the right time to be angry with Kerr.

He had to achieve his purpose of coming here today so that he could have the qualification to confront Kerr.

"Yes, that's why I haven't t off his forehead gently and reached out to take the documents in front of him.

When he saw the content clearly, Jeremy's face changed immediately. He stood up and asked, "Why is this in your hand?"

He remembered clearly that all these things had been destroyed, and even Moore had no chance to touch them. How could they appear in the hands of Kerr for no reason?

"If you don't want others to know, don't do it." Kerr said indifferently, "You and Moore got the Ning Group by some dirty means.

When Harley wanted to buy the Ning Group, it was you who put obstacles in his way and wanted to take over the Gu Group with Moore.

Do you really think you can swallow such a big company with your ability?"

There was obvious sarcasm in Kerr's tone. In his eyes, Jeremy and Moore had overestimated themselves. He had run the Gu Group for so long, how could they destroy it overnight?

"What do you want?" Jeremy didn't expect that Kerr would get the evidence directly.

Obviously, Kerr wouldn't let him go easily. Now that Moore was missing, he could put all the blame on Moore.

Jeremy tried his best to keep calm and didn't want Kerr to find out anything wrong. He came at a wrong time today.

Chapter 339 Freyas Choice

"Do you think everything will be fine if you blame everything on Moore? I guess Mr. Jeremy still doesn't know that the He Group was broke, right?"

Kerr had sent people to block the news, in order to set a trap for Jeremy.

He didn't forget that when he was in a coma, Nicole was pregnant and helped him manage the Gu Group, but she was put in a difficult position by Jeremy, although Nicole didn't mention it to Kerr.

But when Kerr heard the news from Jared, he kept it in mind silently.

"Jeremy, since you dare to do such a thing, you should consider the consequences."

He wouldn't let anyone bully Nicole. Anyone who had hurt her had to pay the price.

Looking at Kerr's arrogant attitude, Jeremy glared at him and said, "Kerr, you'd better not push me so hard. Don't regret treating me like this!"

At this time, Jeremy was burn out. He couldn't pose any threat to Kerr.

All his threats were just a disguise.

Kerr didn't want to talk to Jeremy anymore. He waved his hand to Kim beside him, indicating him to get rid of Jeremy.

Knowing what Kerr meant, Kim stepped forward and wanted to lead Jeremy out.

"Mr. Jeremy, please." Noticing that Jeremy was in a state of excitement, Kim was on guard all the time to prevent him from hurting Kerr.

"Kerr, help me!" Jeremy stepped forward and wanted to face Kerr directly, but was stopped by Kim.

"Mr. Jeremy, you'd better be sensible." Kim held Jeremy's wrist and threatened him.

Kerr turned his back to the door, took out his phone and dialed the number of Nicole, but no one answered.

Nicole didn't answer it until it was cut off automatically.

So Kerr called his villa.

In Kerr's villa.

to say, I'll excuse myself. I hope you won't tell these words to Kerr."

Then Nicole rose to her feet and was about to leave.

Freya stood up from the sofa and looked at the back of Nicole, with anger in her eyes. "Nicole, is this your attitude? You are so rude!"

She didn't expect that Nicole would be so insensible. It seemed that she had to take some special measures.

"I'm sorry, Mrs. Freya. I don't know what your definition of 'rude' is. I'm not Sunny. There are many people who don't like me in the world. I don't care."

With her back to Freya, if Freya was not Kerr's mother, Nicole would never waste so much time with her.

"Besides, if Mrs. Freya and Mr. Jack really want to see the two children, me and Kerr will welcome you at any time. But I'm sorry, I won't let my children go anywhere."

From now on, she had to be prepared.

She couldn't give anyone any chance to take the two children away from her.

"Nicole, you have no right to keep the child of Gu family away from us!" Freya said firmly to the back of Nicole.

"No, she didn't. I did!" Kerr's firm voice came from outside. With steady steps, he went straight to the side of Nicole.

Chapter 340 Its All My Fault

Kerr had sensed that something was wrong since he hung up the phone. If what Vedder was true and there was nothing wrong with Nicole, she would have come to answer her phone.

So Kerr came back from the Gu Group without hesitation.

"What do you mean, Kerr?"

Freya looked at Kerr in front of her. Kerr coldly stared at her as if she was a stranger to him.

Kerr was her child, but now he was standing next to another woman, and turned against her with another woman. She had no choice but to hate Nicole.

Kerr put his arm around Nicole's shoulder and looked at Freya.

"What I mean is obvious. Both of Lucas and Jay are my children. No matter what happened, I won't let them leave me. They must grow up by my side.

If you really have time, just take good care of him."

Kerr didn't expect that the Gu family would treat Nicole in this way when everything was clear.

Although their approval didn't matter to Kerr at all, he cared a lot that Nicole would be wronged because of this matter.

Today, Freya appeared here. Kerr knew that she must have gotten the permission from Jack, so Kerr could not call Jack as father directly.

Originally, Kerr didn't want to make a fuss about the past because of Jack's illness. Now it seemed that it was not that simple. At least, in the hearts of Freya and Jack, they had never thought of letting Nicole go.

"Kerr! You should know clearly what it means to take the two children to the Gu family. I hope you can think it over before making a decision. Don't regret it."

Freya didn't expect that Kerr would be so determined.

In fact, she brought the two children to the Gu family for the sake of the two children.

"What does it mean? Did it mean that they could get the property of the Gu family in advance? My c are very important, but in the eyes of the four of us, they are far less important than us being together.

There is something that can't be measured by money or property. I hope Mrs. Freya can have this happiness one day."

Nicole reminded Freya with a faint smile.

But obviously, Freya didn't appreciate it.

"You!"

Freya only heard sarcasm and ridicule in her tone, and in Freya's eyes, Nicole's reaction was ignorance.

"All right, Uncle. Send Mrs. Freya out."

Kerr interrupted Freya coldly.

The Gu family would never feel the happiness that Nicole said. In their eyes, only money and status could buy happiness.

Everything could be exchanged with money.

Embarrassed, Vedder walked up to Freya and said, "Mrs. Freya..."

He knew Kerr's temper and Freya's prejudice against Nicole.

Freya glared at Nicole and said, "You will regret for your ignorance and stupidity sooner or later." After saying that, Freya turned around and left the villa.

Nicole looked up at Kerr and said, "I'm sorry to trouble you again."

In fact, she knew that Kerr didn't care about it, but she didn't want Kerr to have a conflict with Freya.

So she felt a little guilty.
