Chapter 481 Attend On Time

"It seems that someone is going to be in trouble. But Kerr, you have to be careful. After all, if you want to confront two opponents at the same time, Moore and the Xue family, things might be a little tricky."

Harley reminded Kerr. Although Ben didn't have any conflict with Kerr directly, looking at Kerr and Ben, Harley knew that the matter between the two of them would be solved sooner or later.

Kerr's eyes darkened.

"Get the information of the Xue family as soon as possible." Kerr wouldn't act rashly. What Harley said was right. After all, there was Moore who cast covetous eyes on the KN Group around him.

Harley nodded and said. "But then again, do you really have the heart to send Jay to the island for training at such a young age?" Harley felt pity for Jay.

After the little guy left, there was no news about him anymore. Harley had also participated in training, so he knew that the environment there was very tough. Most importantly, there was no difference in status in all the training there.

As long as they got there, they would face the same treatment.

"Why not? We have done it before." Kerr glanced at Harley indifferently. He had clearly told Jay about the environment there, but he still insisted on going there.

Besides, he knew well about Jay's personality. He knew that once Jay chose, he would stick to it, so Kerr didn't worry about it at all. Moreover, Kerr would look at Jay's daily training program in person.

He knew Jay's condition and activities all the time, so he wouldn't worry much.

Hearing Kerr's words, Harley curled his lips and didn't say anything.

After a few days, Nicole's foot injury finally healed.

"Can I go to work now?" Nicole stayed in this room every day, although Freya came to make trouble for her from time to time and she had gotten used to it...

She still hoped that she could go back to the comp ase, she didn't need to show mercy to Nicole.

Then she turned around and went upstairs. Freya pushed open the door of Nicole and Kerr's bedroom and walked to Nicole's dressing table.

Freya frowned and looked at the few jewelry on the dresser. She knew that they must only be a fraction of Nicole's jewelries. She stretched out her hand and searched on the table.

She wanted to find what she needed.

But before she could look for it carefully, she heard footsteps from the door.

Frightened, she immediately withdrew her hand, turned around and walked towards the door.

"Harrow, did you see Mrs. Freya?" Seeing that Harrow came out of the baby's room with Lucas in her arms, Cherry asked her. In a blink of an eye, Freya was nowhere to be found.

Harrow stopped and shook her head. In fact, she was only responsible for taking care of Lucas. When she came to the Gu family with Nicole, she had little communication with the Gu family.

Seeing Lucas in the hand of Harrow, Cherry walked up to her and couldn't help but touch Lucas's forehead. "He's so cute." Cherry liked children very much, but unfortunately, as long as Freya was present...

She didn't dare to get close to Lucas, because Freya didn't like him, as he was Nicole's child.

Chapter 482 Dominant Position

"Lucas is a good boy." There was a smile at the corners of Harrow's mouth. When she mentioned, she was a little proud.

Cherry's eyes were full of love, but Lucas kept his eyes closed and ignored the two people in front of him.

Hiding in the room, Freya was very nervous and listened to the sound outside. It was not until Harrow and Freya left that Freya breathed a sigh of relief and left the bedroom.

She had already known where Nicole put her jewelry. She then sneaked out with a complacent smile at the corners of her mouth.

In the evening, Kerr took Nicole's hand and went back to the old house. As soon as they entered the house, they saw Freya and Jack sitting at the table and having dinner, while Cherry stood beside them with Lucas in her arms.

Standing next to Cherry, Harrow looked embarrassed.

Nicole was shocked and let go of Nicole's hand subconsciously. She walked to Cherry, reached out her hand and took Lucas from her.

She then cast a meaningful glance at Harrow. She knew that it had something to do with Freya.

She turned around and was about to take Lucas back to the room upstairs.

"Stop!" Although Freya didn't look at Nicole directly, she kept glancing at her from the corner of her eyes. It was not until she saw that Nicole wanted to leave the dining room without saying a word that she opened her mouth lightly.

"Do you know about the rules? Don't you know to greet the elders?" Freya was very dissatisfied with what Nicole did. She was the hostess in this family.

Hearing that, Nicole stopped with her back to Freya. She lowered her head and looked at Lucas in her arms. Fortunately, he looked normal and smiled at Nicole.

It seemed that he only cared about Nicole. As long as Lucas saw Nicole, he would smile happily.

"I'm just in a hurr

he didn't want to miss every opportunity to be with Lucas, but she also knew that Kerr needed her, so she tried her best to shoulder some work and find time to accompany Lucas.

She didn't expect that Freya, who stayed at home all day long, would really have a plan in her mind.

This choice was very difficult for Nicole. She raised her head and looked at Kerr beside her. It seemed that she wanted to find the answer in his eyes, but Kerr did not give her any response.

But he answered Freya's question on behalf of Nicole.

"I will educate my child myself. I don't need to hand it over to anyone. It's not up to anyone else to decide how Nicole lives her life. You don't need to mention it again in the future.

Whether it's about the child to the group, the two of us can keep a good balance. I don't want to hear such a topic in the future. Harrow, take the child back.

From now on, no one is allowed to get close to Lucas without me and Nicole's permission." Kerr turned to look at Harrow with obvious warning.

Harrow knew that Kerr said this to Jack and Freya on purpose, so she nodded and said, "I see, Mr. Kerr." After saying that, she walked upstairs with him in her arms.

Chapter 483 I Dreamed Of Jay

Seeing that Harrow took the child away, Freya wanted to stop him, but she saw the look in Kerr's eyes, which made her flinch.

Although she was resentful, on the surface, Freya could say nothing.

Kerr held Nicole's shoulder, turned around and took her to the bedroom upstairs.

When they went back to the bedroom, Nicole looked at Kerr and asked, "Do you also want me to stay at home and take care of Lucas?"

She could ignore other people's opinions, but she should consider Kerr's feelings.

In fact, if she had to make a choice between the two, she would rather stay with Lucas. No matter what, she would never let Freya take care of Lucas.

Looking at Nicole, Kerr reached out his hand and held her face, "What I care about is what you want to do? Nicole, you don't have to worry about Lucas so much. From tomorrow on, I will send someone to protect him.

The people who you don't like or Lucas doesn't like won't have a chance to get close to him." Kerr knew that if Nicole really wanted to stay at the Gu family all the time, she would not go back to work.

However, he knew what she was worried about.

Nicole held Kerr in her arms and leaned her face against his chest. "Thank you, Kerr. In fact, I used to take care of Jay while working.

But I don't think I'm a responsible mother. Although Jay has grown up very well, he is too precocious to bear the burden that he shouldn't have at his age. I've always been very guilty. Jay has been unhappy."

It was precisely because of this that Nicole was very worried about the growth of Lucas.

Holding Nicole in his arms, Kerr said, "I know, but Jay won't blame you. In fact, everyone's life has been designed from b returned to Nicole, held her in his arms and fell asleep.

When the alarm clock broke the silence in the bedroom, Nicole opened her eyes in a daze, reached out her hand to touch the alarm clock, closed it, turned around and looked into Kerr's gentle eyes.

"I dreamed of Jay last night. He said he missed me very much." There was obvious sadness in her words.

Since Jay left, Nicole only received a call from Jay when he arrived at the training ground. Every time she was worried, Kerr would tell her that Jay was fine.

"He did miss you very much. Last night, he called and said that he was fine. He missed you and Lucas very much." Kerr touched Nicole's forehead, sat up, got out of bed and walked towards the bathroom.

Hearing Kerr's words, Nicole was surprised and followed him into the bathroom.

"When did he call? Why didn't you wake me up?" It was a pity that Nicole missed Jay's call.

After washing his face and brushing his teeth, Nicole looked at her worried face.

"You had fell asleep. It was very late at that time. Honey, next time I will let you hear his voice, okay?" Kerr comforted Nicole.

Chapter 484 The Unique Limited Edition

But the whole morning, Nicole was absent-minded and felt regret that she had missed Jay's call.

It was not until Kerr took Nicole back to the KN Group that she put herself together and devoted herself to work, but she was still thinking about Lucas.

Freya's words yesterday had been lingering in Nicole's ears. Although Kerr said that he would find someone to protect Lucas, Nicole was worried that Freya would take advantage of the time when Harrow and the others were careless.

The thought that Freya would take Lucas away from her life haunted her.

In the Gu family's old house.

Freya put on a delicate makeup for herself, but her neck was empty. Thinking of the jewelry she saw yesterday, Freya walked to Nicole's bedroom without hesitation.

She took out the diamond necklace and wore it on her neck. The necklace was of good quality and glittered on Freya's neck.

She looked noble and elegant.

Walking out of Nicole's bedroom, Freya wore an obvious complacent look on her face. If she remembered correctly, this necklace should be tailor-made for Nicole by Kerr, the only limited edition in the world.

As for Nicole, she was not a person who liked to wear these jewelry, so few people had seen this necklace. That was why Freya wanted to borrow it.

Thinking that those people would cast envious eyes at her later, Freya could not help but feel happy.

Seeing that Freya came out of the bedroom of Nicole and Kerr, Cherry could not help but feel strange. "Madam? How could you..." Cherry walked to Freya and saw the necklace around her neck at a glance.

Her eyes lit up. "Mrs. Freya... Isn't this Mrs. Nicole's?" As soon as Cherry finished her words, she saw the sharp eyes of Freya. She could not help but lower her head.

"This is customized by Ke that if Nicole didn't go home, she would be restless all day long.

He thought that she had made a mountain out of a molehill, but she didn't think so. Sitting next to the dresser, Nicole glanced at the table casually and felt that something was wrong. Her drawer seemed to have been opened.

"Yes, I have something to deal with. I'll talk to you later." Nicole put down her phone immediately.

She bent down and opened the safe under the dressing table. The diamond necklace that had been put in it was missing. It was a gift from Kerr, which had a different meaning to her.

Besides, she had only worn it once and put it in the safe. But now it was gone.

"Harrow!" Nicole stood up and asked, "Have you seen anyone enter my bedroom?" Worry was written all over her face.

She didn't believe that such a thing would happen in the Gu family. It was impossible for outsiders to enter the Gu family, and she had never heard that things in the Gu family had been stolen.

So she was sure that it was done by the people in the Gu family.

"No, I don't know. I have been taking care of Lucas. Mrs. Nicole, I didn't touch your things." Looking at Nicole in surprise, Harrow said.

Chapter 485 Leniency To Those Who Confess And Severity To Those Who Refuse

If Harrow couldn't explain it clearly, it would affect her personal reputation.

Harrow hadn't been in the Gu family for a long time, so if Nicole didn't trust her, she had nothing to say.

"Don't be nervous, Harrow. I didn't suspect you. Of course I know you won't do such a thing. If I really don't trust you, I won't ask you to take care of Lucas."

Nicole said sincerely. She had always believed that it was unnecessary to doubt the people she trust.

However, she felt that it was not that simple.

"Mrs. Nicole, let me inform Uncle Kelvin. He is the butler of the Gu family. It's better for him to deal with such a thing. The thing you put in the safe must be very important."

Harrow suggested. This was the first time they found out that something was missing, and she didn't want it to happen again.

Hearing that, Nicole thought of the necklace and wanted to find it back, so she nodded.

When Kelvin heard this, he was shocked. He stood in front of Nicole and lowered his head. "I'm sorry, Mrs. Nicole. Such a thing has never happened in the Gu family. Don't worry. I will give you an explanation."

Kelvin then summoned all the maids of the Gu family to the living room. He looked at the maids coldly and said, "You have been in the Gu family for a long time. I hope you can tell me the truth."

Kelvin warned everyone.

Nicole stood behind Kelvin and looked at the row of maids in front of her. She knew that only these people could enter her bedroom.

"Don't be nervous. I just want to ask you something. If you know something, you can tell me. I promise I won't make things difficult for you."

With a cold and serious face, Nicole was not a pushover. She would not take the initiative to provoke others, nor did she want others to mess with her.

"There's one thing in the safe of my bed could it make Cherry so nervous?" In fact, Nicole guessed that it might be a call from Freya. Now Freya and Jack were not at home, and there might be no one else except Freya who would call Cherry.

Hearing the order of Nicole, Kelvin walked to the side of Cherry. When he saw the number on it, he could not help frowning. "It is Mrs. Freya." Kelvin looked at Cherry. "Why don't you answer the phone?"

He could sense her worry and fear.

With a helpless expression on her face, Cherry had no choice but to answer the phone and put it beside her ear.

"Yes, Mrs. Freya." Cherry hoped that Freya would not say something inappropriate.

"Did you just call me?" There was obvious joy in Freya's voice and she seemed to be in a good mood.

Just now, she had attracted a lot of attention by showing up at the banquet. Even the star of today's banquet, Mrs. Wang, was envious of her, all thanks to Nicole's necklace.

Raising her hand, Freya touched the necklace pendant around her neck and said, "Cherry, I made a right decision today." If it weren't for the necklace...

Freya knew that she might be ridiculed by many people.

"Yes, Mrs. Nicole is back." Cherry reminded Freya to be mentally prepared.

Chapter 486 Let It Go

Because Cherry's intuition told her that Nicole wouldn't let it go so easily.

The smile on Freya's face froze when she heard it.

Her face also darkened. "So what? Even if she finds out something, I don't believe she can do anything to me." Freya was not afraid of Nicole at all.

In her eyes, Nicole was just a woman who lived in the Gu family temporarily. She was the real hostess of the Gu family, so Nicole's existence could not threaten her position at all.

"Mrs. Freya, are you really not coming back? Something happened at home." Cherry told her. She didn't dare to say that Nicole had lost something, which meant that Freya was a thief indirectly.

Glancing at the smile at the corner of Nicole's mouth, Cherry felt that Nicole seemed to have discovered everything.

Nicole heard what Cherry said, of course she could sense the hesitation in Cherry's tone, so she had a new view on this matter. In fact, she didn't mind what Freya did.

If Freya could treat her in a normal way, she would not mind these things. But in fact, if she made a compromise on this matter...

And didn't give Freya a warning, Nicole could imagine that in the future, Freya would only become more greedy and arrogant.

"What happened? Did she find out the necklace? Then I won't go back either. Tell her not to stir up troubles when I'm not at home. I have something else to do, bye."

After saying that, Freya hung up the phone with embarrassment.

Hearing what Freya said, Cherry put away her phone. She was not sure whether Nicole had heard the word "necklace" mentioned by Freya, but Nicole's expression was obviously more complacent than before.

Nicole turned to Cherry, "It seems that Mrs. Freya is very busy and doesn't want to come back for the time being. Since Mr. Freya didn't have time, it seems that I have to ask pr a a lesson, so Kerr didn't stop her.

Hearing Kerr's words, Kelvin was surprised. He had always known that Kerr spoiled Nicole, but he didn't expect that Kerr would indulge her to such an extent.

"Mr. Kerr..." Kelvin wanted to persuade Kerr again, but was interrupted by him.

"Don't you understand what I said?" Kerr said seriously. He hoped that everyone in the Gu family could respect Nicole and treat her as a member of the Gu family.

After all, Nicole was his wife. Honoring Nicole was the greatest respect for him.

"I see." Knowing that Kerr was angry, Kelvin agreed at once.

After hanging up the phone, Kelvin called the police.

Kerr stood in the office, his face full of anger, "Jared!"

Standing outside the door, Jared heard Kerr's voice and immediately came in, "Sir, what's wrong?" Jared was confused. He didn't know what made Kerr so angry.

"Where is Mrs. Freya?" Kerr didn't call Freya mother anymore. He really couldn't call such a immoral person mother. He had given Freya a lot of opportunities, but she didn't cherish them.

Jared didn't know why Kerr suddenly cared about Freya, but when he heard Kerr's words, he immediately lowered his head and looked at the iPad in his hand.

Chapter 487 The Focus Of Attention

It clearly showed the schedule of everyone in the Gu family.

"Mrs. Freya is at Mrs. Wang's birthday party of the Wang Group." Jared looked up at Kerr.

Kerr thought for a while and said, "Someone will take Mrs. Freya away later. Don't stop them." Kerr knew that there would be someone protecting Freya, and she would definitely stop the police.

So Kerr asked Jared to inform her men in advance.

Jared was confused, but he still nodded, "I see."

In the Gu family's old house.

After making the phone call, the police arrived at the scene soon. But the police was also curious why the Gu family would call them. Looking at Nicole, the police had a good attitude.

"Mrs. Freya, what did you lose?"

Everyone in A City knew that the Gu family was heavily guarded and there was no possibility of theft. Even if someone sneaked into the Gu family, it was impossible to take anything away from here.

Moreover, the people who could come here were either rich or powerful. Most of them were from the upper class of the whole A City, so it was the first time that such a thing happened.

With a faint smile, Nicole said, "It's a diamond necklace, customized by my husband. It's expensive, so I put it in the safe. But I didn't expect that such accident happened.

I can tell you the design of the necklace, and my safe is not damaged. It seems that someone in the family has committed the crime, which is more terrible." Although Nicole said so...

She was calm.

The two policemen who came to the Gu family looked at each other, and led by Nicole to her bedroom to carefully investigate the scene.

Because the Gu family had already made her identity public, no one dared to ignore her.

"Mrs. Nicole, what's the password of the safe?" The police checked the safe and confirmed that it was unlocked with a le and nodded. Then they turned around and left, looking for Freya.

At this time, Freya was at Mrs. Wang's birthday party.

Although the Wang Group also occupied a portion of the market in A City, it was still inferior to the KN Group.

But compared with Freya now, the Wang family was more powerful than her. However, Freya still maintained a gorgeous appearance and was unwilling to admit the cruel truth.

"Mrs. Freya, I didn't expect you to steal my thunder today." Mrs. Wang came over with a glass of wine in her hand and looked at the necklace around Freya's neck with an obvious sneer.

Freya smiled faintly and sensed the jealousy in Mrs. Wang's tone. Although Mrs. Wang's dress and jewelry were also customized, they were not on the same level as Freya's necklace.

But Freya liked such a jealous tone very much. She firmly believed that only people who were inferior to her in the world would be jealous of her.

"This is a gift from Kerr. Although he is very busy with his work, he cares about me very much. Mrs. Wang, today's birthday party is very successful."

Freya raised her glass to Mr. Wang with a complacent smile on her face.

She really took this necklace as a gift from Kerr.

Chapter 488 Assist In The Investigation

After all, in Freya's eyes, everything Kerr had belonged to her and the Gu family.

There was no difference in essence.

"Yes, I didn't expect Mr. Kerr to be so considerate. I heard that he wanted to cut off relations with the Gu family because of a woman. Now it seems that it is really a rumor. I really don't know who said such words.

Mr. Kerr is married. I wonder if Mrs. Freya is satisfied with this daughter-in-law?" They had already heard about what happened on the wedding of Gu family.

Seeing Freya being so arrogant, Mrs. Wang also felt uncomfortable. In the past, Freya had always been arrogant. Mrs. Wang had thought that Freya could restrain herself after hearing the rumors outside.

Unexpectedly, Freya became more arrogant.

At the mention of Nicole, Freya's face darkened. Before she could answer, she heard a noise from the door of the banquet hall.

It attracted the attention of Freya and Mrs. Wang.

"What happened? Don't you know what day it is today?" Mrs. Wang put the glass aside and walked towards the door with an unhappy look.

Obviously, her party was disturbed.

Freya took a sip of the red wine in her hand with a complacent look on her face. But the next second, she saw Mrs. Wang point in her direction and two men in uniform walking towards her.

It was not until the man stood in front of her that she realized what had happened.

"Excuse me, are you Mrs. Freya?" The policeman asked Freya politely.

Freya nodded. It was her first time to face the police. She could not help but feel a little nervous. "What do you want from me?" Freya pretended to be calm and asked the police in front of her.

But she could feel that everyone was looking at her.

"Is the necklace yours?" The policeman asked Freya.

Freya was shocked. She didn't expect that the police would come for her necklace.

It mea

he consequences of this matter. At the worst, she would be hated by Freya. Anyway, without this matter, Freya would not have a good impression on her.

She wanted to let Freya know that she was not a person who could be bullied at will.

"I know. Don't worry. Everything will be fine." Kerr comforted Nicole. He knew what kind of person Nicole was. Even if she really wanted to punish Freya, Kerr was fine with it.

"What happened? I just left home for a day. I heard that the Gu family was in a turmoil all day long?" Jack came in. He had heard about what had happened before he came back.

Although no one knew exactly what had happened, it was also a bad thing for the Gu family's reputation.

Hearing Jack's voice, Jack walked up and took the coat from Jack's hand. He was worried about Jack. Kelvin knew Jack's temper and that he attached great importance to the reputation of the Gu family.

It was obvious that what Nicole did today only cared about her own feelings, and did not consider the impact of this matter on the Gu family.

When Jack walked into the living room, he saw Nicole and Kerr. His face darkened. He looked up at the clock on the wall. It was still early and it was not time to get off work at all.

Chapter 489 Restless

"Isn't the company busy recently? Don't waste your time on trifles. Marriage is just a small matter. Since I have fulfilled your wish, you should focus on the company's affairs."

Although Jack hadn't got the shares of the KN Group from Kerr.

Now people still believed that Kerr represented the Gu family.

If the KN Group really created another glory, the Gu family would also benefit from it.

Seeing the dissatisfaction on Jack's face, Kerr didn't care much. "I know what I'm doing." Kerr said calmly, neither humble nor pushy.

Every time Kerr heard Jack's reminder, he felt helpless, because in Jack's world, profit and money represented everything, and love was the most useless thing.

Jack's face darkened, but he didn't argue with Kerr anymore. He looked at Nicole and asked, "What happened? Why are people gossiping about the Gu family now?"

What he hated most was the rumors of Gu family.

"Maybe it's because they are curious about the Gu family." Nicole smiled faintly. She really didn't know how to tell Jack such a thing.

"What are they curious about? What happened? Make it clear." With a cold face, Jack was dissatisfied with Nicole's attitude.

Nicole glanced at Kerr and saw the determined look in his eyes. Then she said to Jack indifferently, "Kerr gave me a very expensive necklace, but this morning, I found it missing.

So I called the police." What she said was brief. It was just a simple statement of the fact. As for the truth, she left it to Jack to guess.

"Nonsense. The Gu family has never lost anything for so many years. The people who can work in the Gu family have gone through rounds of selection. It can't be like this."

Jack was very confident in the servants of the Gu family. After ation. It's just a necklace. Is it worth making a mountain out of a molehill today? You are really shallow and petty."

Kerr stood up, held Nicole's hand and said to Jack, "I don't know since when the Gu family has been so bluffing to cover up their scandal.

Even a child knows to respect the truth. It is such a simple truth, but it is ignored by many adults. If someone is really wronged in this matter, I believe that Nicole is willing to apologize.

But if someone really made a mistake, I also hope that the person can apologize to Nicole."

Kerr said firmly. Obviously, he was on Nicole's side.

Looking at Kerr's resolute expression, Jack didn't know how to deal with it for a moment, and he didn't know why Freya would provoke Nicole at this time.

The atmosphere in the living room suddenly became awkward.

"Nicole!" Freya's voice came from outside.

Kerr held Nicole's hand and took her to sit on the sofa. He knew that it was not that simple to settle this matter, so he was not in a hurry.

Freya walked quickly to the living room and saw Nicole sitting next to Kerr. "Nicole! I told the police that I just borrowed it for a while."

Chapter 490 Getting Worse

"Why did you say that you don't know?"

When Freya arrived at the police station, she felt terrible. In order to escape the responsibility, Freya could only say that she had borrowed the necklace from Nicole.

But after the police checked, they said that Nicole didn't know about it.

It was obvious that Nicole wanted to make her unable to come back.

Freya raised her hand and took off the necklace. Then, she threw it directly at Nicole.

Seeing the diamond necklace flying towards her, Nicole closed her eyes subconsciously and turned her face away to avoid it.

Kerr raised his hand, caught the diamond necklace quickly and protected Nicole from danger.

Standing up, Kerr looked at Freya and clenched the diamond necklace in his hand.

Seeing Kerr's eyes, Freya took a step back instinctively, but the grievance she had just suffered in the police station made her unable to control her emotions, and tears gradually appeared in her eyes.

"Kerr, why are you looking at me like this? If it weren't for this woman, how could the Gu Group go bankrupt? She took all the shares of the KN Group, which made the Gu family so embarrassed.

She even sent me to the police station on purpose. Can't you see these things?" Freya asked Kerr loudly, hoping to get his sympathy.

She needed Kerr to stand on her side, hoping that he could understand that Nicole was a bad woman. Only in this way could Kerr leave Nicole.

Freya had to make Nicole pay for the grievance she had suffered this time.

Hearing Freya's words, Nicole stood up and looked at her, "In your heart, in fact, you have never treated me as a member of the Gu family. You always feel that it is me who had disturbed your original life.

But you should know that the bankruptcy of the Gu Group is not under my control. No one knows the reason d over the Gu family to you, you must take the responsibility of the Gu family. As the successor of the Gu family, you must put your family above everything else."

Jack wanted to hand over the Gu family to Kerr. He hoped that he could take this opportunity to let Kerr gradually understand his good intentions.

But Jack didn't get the response he wanted.

Kerr sneered, "The heir of Gu family may be very important to you, but I don't care at all. You can leave it to someone else. I'll leave here with Nicole now."

After saying that, Kerr held Nicole's hand and went upstairs, trying to take Lucas with him.

"Kerr..." Looking at the serious look on Kerr's face, Nicole knew that the matter had escalated. She just wanted to teach Freya a lesson, but she did not expect that it would cause the conflict between Kerr and Jack.

Kerr walked to the side of Lucas, reached out his hand, carried him in his arms and was about to walk outside.

Nicole stepped forward and stood in front of Kerr, blocking his way. "Kerr, I didn't do this to make you an enemy of the Gu family because of me.

I don't want you to lose anything because of me. We have been mentally prepared for this. I really don't care."
