Chapter 491 How To Deal With It

Said Nicole seriously.

If Kerr really left the Gu family because of her today, she didn't know how Freya and Jack would criticize Kerr outside. She didn't want Kerr to be in a pickle.

Nicole stepped forward and snatched Lucas from Kerr's hand. Then she looked at Kerr seriously.

Looking into Nicole's eyes, Kerr frowned and said, "Nicole, I have said that I don't want you to suffer any grievance because of me." Kerr did this for the sake of Nicole.

Kerr knew that it was just a beginning. Jack and Freya would never stop because of Nicole's concession today.

Looking at Kerr's worried eyes, Nicole felt relieved. Out of the corner of her eye, she saw Harrow standing at the door of the bedroom.

It was obvious that Harrow didn't dare to get close to Kerr and Nicole. It was the first time that she had seen Kerr so angry.

However, Nicole gave a hint to Harrow to take the child away. After hesitating for a while, Harrow took Lucas from Nicole's hand, turned around and walked outside.

There were only two people left in Lucas's room, Nicole and Kerr.

Nicole held Kerr's hand and said, "Kerr, I know you're doing this for my own good. Although I didn't expect such things to happen, you've seen it.

I know how to protect myself. No one can bully me." Nicole smiled at Kerr, trying to reassure him.

However, Kerr still frowned tightly.

"Kerr, I believe that I have taught them a lesson this time. They will restrain themselves from doing such things in the future. In fact, we all know the situation of the Gu family now.

The Gu family's current economic situation may really be in the most difficult time, which resulted in such a series of things. In fact, Kerr, have you ever thought about giving them some help?

Maybe that's why they want us to come back." Nicole knew that the Gu family had no eco ot only fail to get the shares, but also ruin the reputation of the Gu family. This is not I expected."

Jack raised his head and looked at the back of Freya. This was the real purpose for them to allow Nicole to marry into the Gu family. However, a few days had passed, but there was no progress.

If it went on like this, not only did they not get the shares, but also the Gu family would be in a mess because of Nicole.

Raising her hand, Freya wiped the tears on her face and said, "I don't believe that Nicole really dares to do anything to me." Freya said firmly. All the worries and fears in her heart disappeared.

Now that things had come to this, it couldn't be any worse.

As soon as Freya finished speaking, the phone in her bag rang. This was her private. Only those who were familiar with her knew it, so she knew that someone must be looking for her.

Walking to the sofa, she took out her phone and looked at the number on it. With a meaningful look in her eyes, Freya deliberately avoided the sight of Jack. Holding the phone in her hand, she walked to the window.

Obviously, she didn't want Jack to hear what she said on the phone.

She pressed the answer key and put the phone by her ear...

Chapter 492 Who Did You Date

"Auntie, are you okay? I just saw the report on TV. I'm worried about you. Where are you now? Is it okay if I come to see you? I believe that there must be some misunderstandings."

There was obvious concern in Sunny's anxious tone, but there was a trace of complacency in her eyes.

She knew that Freya was poor and embarrassed, but she didn't expect that Freya would do such shameless thing, which was beyond her imagination. However, Sunny could take advantage of this situation.

"Auntie, I know you must be wronged. No one knows you better than me. Did someone want to make trouble for you on purpose?"

Hearing what Sunny said, Freya felt warm in her heart. She didn't expect that at this time, the person who cared about her was Sunny. Although Sunny had betrayed Kerr...

Freya thought that her kindness to Sunny in the past was worth it.

"I'm fine now. Where are you? Let's talk about it when we meet." It was inconvenient for Freya to talk at Gu's house, so she had to let Sunny come out to meet her.

Perhaps Sunny could help her solve the problems and troubles she had encountered now. Recalling how generous Sunny was last time, Freya knew that she had a good life now.

"Okay, let's meet at the club we used to go. I'll wait for you there." After saying that, Sunny got the confirmation of Freya and hung up the phone directly.

Standing on the stairs, Moore heard what Sunny said. He frowned and asked, "What are you doing?" Since Moore quarrelled with Sunny last time, he seldom stayed at home.

What's more, he didn't care what Sunny was doing. As long as she didn't cause him any trouble, he didn't give a damn about her at all.

Hearing Sunny's voice, Sunny stood up and glanced at him from the corner of her eyes. She wanted to go out Just wait and see." After saying that, she turned around and walked towards the gate of the villa.

As soon as she took two steps forward, she stopped and said, "Moore, since you keep me by your side and give me everything I have, I won't let you down."

Sunny wanted Moore to know her value. She didn't want to be jealous of the women around Moore anymore.

Sunny was not interested in those tricks.

Looking at the receding figure of Sunny, Moore was calm.

Sitting in the club, Sunny drank tea leisurely and waited for Freya. Not long after, the door of the private room was pushed open and Freya walked in with a serious look.

"Auntie, here you are. I've brought you your favorite tea. You don't look well. Is this matter really troublesome?" Sunny stood up with concern.

She held out her hand, held Freya's arm and helped her sit on the sofa.

"Sunny, you have no idea how unreasonable Nicole is. She even sent me to the police station for a necklace!" Thinking of what Nicole did on purpose today, Freya couldn't help but feel angry.

She sat on the sofa, her chest still heaving because of the anger in her heart.

Sunny gently patted on Freya's back.

Chapter 493 I Need Your Cooperation

"Auntie, don't get angry because of some unworthy people. Otherwise, they would be more arrogant!" Sunny comforted Freya.

She sat next to Freya and handed the teacup to her.

"I heard from the outside that you took Nicole's necklace. How could it be possible? I thought these rumors were deliberately trying to destroy your reputation.

I know you very well. Besides, everyone in A City knows the power of Gu family. You can get whatever you want. How could you take other people's things."

Sunny frowned and analyzed the possibility with concern. She kept finding excuses for Freya to gain her trust.

"That's what you think, but it doesn't mean everyone thinks the same way. Sunny, you don't know how unreasonable Nicole was. She even sent me to the police station!"

Freya finally found a way to vent her grievance. Holding Sunny in her arms, she cried and complained.

"She didn't regard me as an elder at all. When she was at home, she shouted at me. I really don't know why Kerr fell in love with such a woman."

Freya knew that Sunny still had feelings for Kerr. Otherwise, Sunny wouldn't have come to flatter her at this time. Although Freya knew that it was impossible for Sunny and Kerr to be together again...

if Sunny still had feelings for Kerr, it would be good for her.

"Maybe, in the eyes of Nicole, she only needs to please Kerr. I remember that when we were both in the Gu Group, Nicole was only a mere director at that time.

But she thought that she was Kerr's girlfriend, so she could do whatever she wanted in front of the employees of the Gu Group. At that time, I told Kerr that it was a little inappropriate, but Kerr likes Nicole.

So he didn't listen to me. I'm also powerless." Sunny loo fe because of the shares in her hands, it would also show Kerr what kind of person Nicole was.

She didn't believe that Kerr would still be with a vicious woman.

Whether Nicole agreed or not, it was a dilemma. She would lose something no matter what her choice was.

"You mean... How could you be in danger now?" Sunny had guessed what Freya was thinking, but she pretended that she knew nothing.

She wanted Freya to tell her in person, in case if something really went wrong, she could pin all the blame on Freya.

Freya held Sunny's hand and said, "Sunny, I can only count on you this time. I hope you can help me ask Nicole to hand over the shares.

At that time, I will put on an act with you and pretend that I was kidnapped by you. At that time, Nicole would listen to you and hand over the shares in your hands. After it is done, I will definitely treat you well.

You're right, Sunny. These shares belong to me and Jack. They shouldn't have been possessed by Nicole at all."

Hearing what Freya said, Sunny felt that Freya was indeed greedy and selfish. When the whole thing was carried out, all the risks were taken by Sunny alone.

Chapter 494 Its Risky

However, Freya would benefit from the plan.

Sunny was not a fool. It was impossible for her not to understand this point.

She wouldn't agree to Freya's request. Seeing the excited look on Freya's face, Sunny put on an embarrassed look and said, "Auntie, it seems that it's too risky. If Kerr knows about it...

In other words, even if we can hide it from Kerr, if Nicole calls the police as soon as she gets the news, I can't explain it clearly at that time, and you will also be in trouble because of this matter."

She didn't want to be taken to the police station by Nicole and suffered like Freya.

Although she didn't care about the rumors outside, it was not worth it to take the risk just for Freya.

"Sunny, it is me who asked you to do it. Of course I won't put you in danger. Don't worry. Once something happens, I won't let you take the responsibility alone.

Please help me. Think about what Nicole had done to Ron. If it weren't for Nicole, you might have married to Kerr long ago, and there would not have had so much trouble later.

Don't you hate her at all? This time, you can also have a good chance to teach Nicole a lesson and let her know how powerful you are."

Freya encouraged Sunny. As expected, as she spoke ill of Nicole, anger gradually appeared on Sunny's face.

She successfully ignited the anger in Sunny's heart.

"Auntie, you are right, but this matter is important. I have to think about it carefully, and it is not easy to carry out. I need to prepare a lot of things.

Don't act rashly. I hope you can think it over." Sunny said lightly. In fact, the anger in her heart was about to burn herself up.

But she forced herself to calm down.

She was not as impulsive as she used to did not go out. In the past, every night, Moore was nowhere to be found at home.

"You're back? What did Freya say to you? Is the Gu family in chaos?" With a laptop in his hand, Moore looked at the screen and asked Sunny without raising his head.

But he didn't get any reply from her.

Sitting on the sofa, Sunny looked preoccupied.

Frowning, Moore looked up at her and asked, "What's wrong?" Moore knew that there must be something wrong with Sunny, so he could not help but be patient.

After all, he still wanted to rely on Sunny to pin down the Gu family.

Looking into Moore's eyes, Sunny conveyed Freya's idea to him. She hoped that Moore knew about the plan. If something really happened, Moore would also be prepared.

As expected, when Moore heard this, he was so excited that he closed the laptop in his hand, stood up and walked to Sunny, sitting beside her.

Moore put his arm around her shoulder.

"Why are you hesitating? This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. You should know that although Freya's plan is risky, if it succeeds, it would be good for us too.

She wants to take advantage of you and treat you as a fool."

Chapter 495 New Products

"Then why can't we just make use of this opportunity?" Moore didn't expect that Kerr could save the Gu Group.

After leaving the Gu Group, no matter which industry he engaged in, it was impossible for him to get business from Kerr.

It was better to find a way to get back the Gu Group from Kerr than to work so hard.

Looking at the shrewdness in Moore's eyes, Sunny had guessed what he wanted to do, but both Moore and Freya put the risk on her alone.

Therefore, the more they persuaded Sunny, the more hesitant she became.

Sunny looked into Moore's eyes and said, "Do you want to use me as a tool to get close to Kerr? Now the scale of the KN Group is out of your expectation, so you have a new idea about it?"

Hearing Sunny's words, Moore wore a smile on his face, trying to make her relax her vigilance. "Sunny, no matter what I want and what I want to do with the KN Group, if I can really get some shares of the KN Group, or in other words, I can even completely control the company in our own hands, then we don't have to worry about Kerr anymore.

At that time, you can do whatever you want to do to Kerr and even take revenge."

Moore coaxed Sunny. He knew that Kerr had hurt her and left a scar in her heart, so he knew that Sunny would definitely agree.

"Sunny, although it's risky, didn't Freya tell you that she will arrange everything well? I can promise you that if we get the shares of the KN Group, all these things and property would belong to Ron in the end? No matter what I do outside, Ron is my only son. He is our hope in the future."

Hearing Moore's words, Sunny's eyes twinkled. Moo sigh of relief. She raised her head, frowned and looked at Kerr behind her. She reached out and pinched his ear.

"Don't be so presumptuous in front of others in the future!" She warned Kerr. Although the whole world knew that she was Kerr's woman, she still felt uncomfortable.

Kerr held Nicole's hand and opened the gift box in front of him.

A delicate fountain pen appeared in front of her.

The fountain pen was black all over, with golden patterns on it, low-key and luxurious.

"A fountain pen?" Although what Nicole saw was a pen, she knew it was not that simple. Otherwise, Jared and Ken would not pay so much attention to it.

Kerr nodded and held the pen in his hand. He opened the pen cap and wrote Nicole's name on the paper in front of him.

Nicole looked at the name on the paper and didn't find anything unusual. She couldn't help but look at Kerr doubtfully.

"What do you mean?"

"The ink of this pen is made of a special material. Now you see these three words, but they will fade with time and eventually disappear."

Kerr explained to Nicole.

Chapter 496 When Will You Pay Me Back

They would face many different choices and helpless situations no matter in the business competitions or the family conflicts.

That's why he wanted Ken to develop this pen.

It could help him solve a lot of troubles in the future.

Hearing Kerr's words, there was obvious disbelief in Nicole's eyes.

As if she had discovered a new continent.

"Really?" Holding the pen in her hand, she looked at the tip of the pen carefully and didn't find anything unusual.

Kerr nodded and put the pen in his drawer.

"Nicole, I have dealt with the police. Although the matter has passed, they will give you a warning, but I'm sorry to let you be wronged." Kerr put his hand into his pocket.

He took out the necklace that Freya threw back. It was the one that Kerr gave to Nicole before the wedding. It had a different meaning to her Nicole shook her head and said, "I don't want you to say that to me, Kerr. We are family and we don't need to say that." Nicole put her arms around Kerr's neck.

On the first floor of the villa.

Freya returned to the Gu family's old house.

Seeing that the villa had returned to peace, Freya called over Cherry and Kelvin. "Did they leave?" She asked. Although Freya blamed Nicole, she didn't want Kerr and Nicole to leave at all.

After all, for Freya and Jack, Nicole was their sponsor, and she had everything they needed the most.

"No, young Mistress stopped Master. But now Master is full of vigilance. I heard the conversation between him and young Mistress secretly. Master has solved the matter."

"Don't worry, my lady." Cherry had been hiding at the door of Kerr's study just now. It was not easy for her to hear such a sentence that had something to do with Freya.

Hearing the report from Cherry, Freya finally felt relieved. She raised her hand and gently patted her chest.

"M

If possible, no one wanted to end up like this.

"Mrs. Gu, if you can pay the money back on time, everything will be fine. When can you give us a certain time?"

The man tried both hard and soft tactics.

Freya's face relaxed a little. "Three days. Give me three days. I will definitely get a lot of money. By that time, the whole KN group will be mine.

Do you think I still won't give back the money to you then?" Freya said firmly. Although Sunny hadn't given her a clear answer, Freya was not worried at all.

The man took a look at his companion, and then looked at the old house of the Gu family behind Freya. He knew that even if she didn't have money, she would eventually come up with a solution.

"Well, since Mrs. Gu has said that, I won't let your words fall to the ground. It's settled then. Three days. Three days later, if I still don't see the money, Mrs. Gu, don't blame me for being rude."

After warning Freya, the man left her sight.

Seeing the man leave, Freya finally breathed a sigh of relief. In fact, she was not sure about it herself, but she could be calm for a while.

She turned around and walked into the villa.

But Freya didn't know that every move of her was seen by Kerr.

Chapter 497 Completely Cleared

Kerr stood in front of the French window of the study. In fact, his study had a good feature. Although it was only located on the second floor of the villa, his study had a broad view.

He could see every corner of the house clearly.

Nicole stood beside Kerr. When she saw the two unidentified men, she was still worried about Freya, but she noticed the attitude of Freya towards the two people.

It was obvious that they knew each other.

"Kerr, did you know what they are doing?" Nicole asked Kerr lightly.

Because she didn't see any surprise on Kerr's face.

Kerr held her shoulder and said, "Do you feel pathetic to have such a family and parents?" Kerr's tone was full of disappointment.

Nicole put her arms around his waist and pressed her face against his chest.

"You still have me, Jay and Lucas. I won't let you down." Nicole comforted him.

Kerr nodded and looked out of the window at the dark night sky. He held her hand and asked, "Let me take you out for a walk." Kerr knew what happened today had affected her mood.

Nicole nodded in agreement.

The two walked hand in hand on the path.

Nicole looked up at the starry sky and asked, "Kerr, do you have anything to hide from me?" Nicole had always wanted to find an opportunity to tell Kerr about Ben, but every time she wanted to do so...

It was all because of all kinds of things that she had missed the chances.

Kerr shook his head slightly, "No, I never need to have secrets in front of you." Kerr said firmly. He couldn't control what happened to Freya, and it also had nothing to do with him and Nicole.

So it was not a secret.

"I..." When Nicole was about to swer." Baron's heart skipped a beat.

He knew how capable Nicole was, and now she was different from before. With the protection of the Gu Group and the KN Group, she had already had her own resources.

The crisis the Fang Group was facing might be solved with the help of Nicole.

"Okay." Nicole agreed with Baron and hung up the phone.

Feeling Kerr's coldness, Nicole knew that he was jealous. "Mr. Kerr, I want to take a walk in the garden ahead."

She pointed to a small garden not far away and changed the topic.

But Kerr wouldn't let her muddle through it so easily.

Standing still, he looked at her and asked, "Are you going to Fang Group?" There was obvious displeasure in his words. If this little woman really dared to go to another man's side...

He wouldn't let go of the Fang Group or Baron.

With a faint smile, Nicole said, "It seems that Baron is in trouble. Do you know what difficulties he had?" Nicole asked Kerr. Although the Fang Group and the KN Group were in different industries, if the Fang Group encountered any problems...

Kerr would definitely get the news.

Chapter 498 I Just Want To Help Him

"I don't know." There was obvious anger in Kerr's tone. He hated that Nicole cared about another man in front of him.

Looking at his darkened face, Nicole said helplessly, "Kerr, we're married, and we have two children, Jay and Lucas. Don't you believe me?"

You should know that I just regard Baron as my friend. When we got married, Baron gave his best wishes. Now that he is in trouble, I can't just sit by and do nothing."

Nicole persuaded Kerr.

They were just friends.

"I trust you, but I don't trust him." Kerr said indifferently. he didn't believe any man who approached Nicole.

Holding her hand, Kerr seemed to be worried that she would leave him soon.

Even though he knew that Nicole just wanted to help Baron with his work, Kerr still didn't want to send her to his side.

Nicole looked helpless and wanted to persuade Kerr, but he was obviously unwilling to say anything more. He held her hand and walked into the villa.

"Kerr, are you hiding something from me? Did Baron's problem have anything to do with you?" Nicole pretended to be serious.

She knew that Kerr's evasion might mean that he knew it.

Hearing the displeasure in her tone, Kerr stopped and asked, "What do you want to know? The reason why the Fang Group is in trouble is because of the death of Maggie. The Chen Group pin all the blame on Baron.

That's why the Chen Group has brought a lot of trouble to Baron. He now is in a pickle." With a dark face, Kerr told Nicole what had happened to Baron.

In fact, Kerr didn't want to, but in the face of her questioning, he still chose to be honest with her.

Nicole was shocked. All these things had been in the past, and of Lucas.

Standing at the door of Lucas's room, he reached out his hand and gently pushed the door open. He saw the dim light in the room, indicating that the people inside had fallen asleep.

His face darkened again. He was mad at her, but that little woman slept so soundly.

Unconsciously, he walked to the side of Nicole. Seeing the little woman sleeping lazily, the anger in his eyes gradually disappeared. He stretched out his hand and lifted up Nicole's arm that was resting on Lucas.

He held her in his arms carefully, but she didn't seem to wake up at all.

When he walked out of the room with her in his arms, his face softened a little. He put her on the bed and held her in his arms.

It seemed that Nicole was aware of his action. She turned over and mumbled unconsciously, "Kerr..." In her dream, there seemed to be only this man.

Hearing her whisper, the anger in Kerr's heart finally disappeared.

"Isn't it good to only stay with me?" Kerr said in a low voice. He knew that Nicole couldn't hear him, so he had to kiss her forehead helplessly and fell asleep with her in his arms.

Chapter 499 You Are Right

Freya didn't sleep all night. She lay on the bed, tossing and turning. She was thinking about what kind of reply Sunny would give her. Finally, at dawn, she dialed Sunny's number.

The phone was quickly connected. "Aunt, you woke up early." Obviously, Sunny was still sleepy, with obvious surprise in her voice.

"Sunny, it's been a night. Have you made up your mind?"

Freya was very anxious. Three days passed quickly.

If she couldn't get the money, it would be very troublesome for her.

Hearing what she said, Sunny looked at Moore beside her and said, "I have thought about it, auntie. I can promise you that I will help you with the contract. I need a day to prepare."

Sunny had to legitimate her relationship with Moore in order to get the shares of the KN Group. Moreover, she couldn't let Freya handle the contract. Otherwise, at that time, Freya would definitely play tricks on her.

"Sunny, don't worry. I will treat you well after it is done." Freya said lightly with obvious excitement in her eyes. If she could really get the shares in the hands of Nicole...

She would live a carefree life in the future.

"It's not a big deal. As long as you are satisfied, I will feel happy."

After saying that, Sunny hung up on her.

Obviously, Moore had heard what Sunny had said.

"You are smart. One day is enough. As long as we get the signature of Nicole, the contract will come into force. Then KN Group is ours. As far as I know, Kerr has eighty-five percent of the shares.

The remaining fifteen percent is unknown, but it doesn't matter. As long as we can get eighty-five percent of the shares, we can kick Kerr and Nicole out of the KN Group completely."

Moore said with excitement

ing Kerr's threat, Nicole immediately raised her hand and surrendered. "I didn't say anything. My husband is right!" There was an obvious ingratiating look on her face.

Kerr was satisfied to hear her address him like this. He moved his hand away gradually and said, "You have to call me like this no matter where you are from now on!"

Kerr said overbearingly. He wanted to be Nicole's everything.

It seemed that no matter where Nicole was, he wanted to occupy her heart.

"What?" Nicole was surprised. If there weren't only the two of them, she wouldn't have called him husband. Although she cared about Kerr very much.

And they had been married, Nicole still felt shy to call Kerr in this way.

At last, under the threat of Kerr's eyes, she had to agree for the time being. Otherwise, she had no doubt that he would not let her get out of the bed.

"Don't sleep in the same bed with any other man except me." Kerr pointed at her nose gently with his index finger and warned her.

He worried if Nicole wasn't around him.

With a helpless look on her face, Nicole said, "Come on, Mr. Kerr, do you also dislike your son?"

Chapter 500 Stay Out Of It

It suddenly occurred to Nicole that Kerr and Jay were jealous before.

Kerr let go of Nicole, stood up and got out of bed. "He will be someone else's husband sooner or later. So you can't." After saying that, he turned around and walked into the bathroom.

Shaking her head, Nicole stood up and put the diamond necklace back into the safe.

This was a gift from Kerr. She couldn't give it to Freya as a present. But after this incident, she thought about giving some jewelry to Freya. After all, if she could really use these small favors to move Freya...

She was also willing to spend some time and energy on this matter. As long as the Gu family could live in peace and it could make Kerr feel better.

However, to her surprise, Freya didn't appreciate it.

On the first floor of the villa.

After getting the confirmation from Sunny, Freya was in a good mood unconsciously. She sat in the dining room with a smile on her face.

When Kerr went downstairs with Nicole, he didn't intend to have breakfast, because He didn't want Freya to embarrass Nicole again.

But he didn't expect to hear Freya's voice.

"Kerr, since you have to go to work, you'd better have breakfast before you leave." Freya called him.

Hearing that, Nicole stopped her steps and held the hand of Kerr. Since Freya had made a nice gesture towards him, she believed that Freya had learned her lesson after the accident.

She wanted him to let go of the pass. She took Kerr's hand and walked to the table. She sat down and looked at him gently.

Freya glanced at Nicole out of the corner of her eye. Although Freya still disliked Nicole, she didn't show it on her face. "Nicole, do you have anything to do tomorrow? If not, go shopping with me."

After what happened yesterday, it was rea

She couldn't stay out of this anymore.

"I know. Don't worry. I will know what I'm doing. And I'm not afraid of anything because I have the best husband in the world, right?" Holding Kerr's arm, Nicole leaned on his shoulder happily.

Lowering his head, Kerr looked at her. He obviously felt that today's she was different from usual. "Fawn on me? And you want to please the Gu family? What do you want?"

Kerr began to doubt Nicole's motive and purpose.

Nicole raised her head, looked at him and curled her lips, "You just said that you would support me no matter what I did. I remember it." Said Nicole firmly.

A plan gradually formed in her mind.

Kerr's face suddenly darkened. He thought of a possibility and said without hesitation, "It's impossible for you to go to the Fang Group to help Baron!"

Kerr was firm on this matter and would not make any concession.

Nicole frowned and looked at him with an aggrieved face. Before she could carry out her plan, he had discovered it.

"Don't you want to fulfill what you just said?" There was an obvious plea in her eyes.

However, Kerr looked out of the window. Apparently, he didn't take her words seriously.
