Chapter 521 Happened Again

Feeling Nicole's resistance, Kerr had to give up and picked up the suit jacket that was thrown aside.

Kerr wrapped around Nicole, took out his mobile phone and dialed Jared's number, "Clear the office." He would never let anyone see Nicole's flushed cheeks.

Only Kerr could appreciate such a charming beauty.

Hearing Kerr's voice, Jared rushed to the door of the bathroom and saw Daisy guarding at the door. "Why are you here?"

It was Jared's job all the time, but Kerr drove too fast just now. Jared and Kim followed closely followed behind him, but they still arrived much later than Kerr.

Daisy just glanced at Jared indifferently. She knew that everything would be fine as long as Jared was here, so she turned around and walked towards her office without saying a word to him.

Jared sensed that there was something wrong with her, but he didn't have time to pay attention to it. He immediately dispersed all the people from the bathroom to the elevator door, then he left there as fast he could.

In the bathroom, Nicole felt weak all over her body. She could only hold Kerr tightly to support herself. She heard the voice of Kerr on the phone just now.

She felt shy and said, "It is so obvious. Everyone knew what we have done in the bathroom."

Nicole frowned and looked at Kerr. Although they did nothing, the result was the same.

"So what? We are a legal couple. Now it looked like we really did something in here. It's more exciting!" Kerr whispered in her ear.

Nicole felt shy and put her hand on Kerr's shoulder. She opened her mouth and bit his shoulder with obvious punishment.

But she didn't know that the sharp pain stimulate Kerr's nerves more. He picked up Nicole and walked knowingly.

"Mr. Moore, according to the source, those goods were produced under your order. How do you explain this? I remind you, Mr. Moore, many things are facts, and you can't muddle through it!"

The police officer warned Moore.

But Moore still didn't want to admit it.

"If you really have evidence, you don't need to ask me. I don't have anything to tell you. I have contacted my lawyer. I won't say anything more before meeting him."

Said Moore firmly.

Of course, he knew that these things had something to do with Kerr.

Even when those goods were sealed up, Moore thought that it was Kerr's tricks, but probably Kerr didn't expect that he would get Nicole involved.

At that time, Kerr would regret it.

Looking at Moore's arrogant face, the police officer had no choice but to stand up, turn around and go out.

"What should I do? He won't say anything. Mr. Kerr has told us that this is an important case, and can't let him muddle through it so easily."

In the face of Moore's attitude, the police officers were at a loss, and it was Kerr who reported it. They could not suspect that Kerr slandered Moore...

Chapter 522 Someone Reported

The police sighed slightly.

Soon, Moore's lawyer arrived. He walked into the room and saw Moore.

"Mr. Moore." Sitting opposite to Moore, Dunn Zhang nodded at him. He had been with Moore since the first time Moore came back here.

So Moore trusted him very much.

Dunn Zhang's slender figure and a pair of black framed glasses made him look very serious.

"Dunn, I just want to know if Kerr framed me up behind my back." Moore looked at Dunn Zhang angrily.

He knew that no one would do that to him, except for Tim.

Dunn Zhang looked into Moore's eyes and said, "I'm sorry, Mr. Moore. I can't give you the answer to your question, but I've learned that someone reported it behind your back.

As for whether it is Kerr or not, I don't know." Dunn Zhang said fairly. Even if he had doubts in his heart, he wouldn't talk nonsense without direct evidence.

Because he knew that he had to bear legal responsibility for every word he said.

"It must be him!" Gritting his teeth, Moore wished he could kill Kerr directly. How could Kerr block his way of making money at such a critical moment?

Looking at Dunn's expression, Dunn Zhang shook his head helplessly. Maybe this was the difference between Moore and Kerr. When something happened, what Moore thought about was not how to solve it.

Instead, he was thinking about how to retaliate.

"Mr. Moore, please allow me to remind you that you still have to find a way to solve the current predicament. In this case, the police have already obtained some evidence.

It will be very troublesome. If someone stands out to point out your mistakes, this matter has something to do with you." Dunn Zhang lowered his head and looked at the information he had.

"Then what should we do?" Moore was frightened by him. He looked at Dunn seriously. He didn't want his career to be ru that, Dunn left the villa directly.

Sitting on the sofa, Sunny was confused. The share transfer contract was in the hands of Moore, so she didn't know if there was also something wrong with that contract.

Holding the contract in her hand, Sunny couldn't believe her eyes. She had seen Nicole sign the contract with her own eyes, but why did it disappear?

Soon, Moore came back and walked in in a hurry. He asked Sunny loudly, "What's wrong with the contract? Why is it ineffective?"

Moore couldn't figure it out. In his opinion, it was a very simple thing. As long as the contract was handed over, everyone knew that this accident had something to do with Nicole.

When Moore walked in front of Sunny, he saw the contract in her hand at a glance. He grabbed it and turned to the last page. As expected, there was no handwriting on it.

"What's going on?" Moore questioned Sunny loudly. In his opinion, the contract came from Sunny, so she must have done something behind his back.

Hearing Moore's accusation, Sunny stood up from the sofa and said angrily, "You asked me what happened? I want to ask you that question too! The contract has been in your hands since I got it. Why does it become like this now?"

Chapter 523 In Vain

"Dunn said this is an invalid contract. Why? Where do you want to go today?" Sunny stared at Moore and saw the confusion on his face, she knew that he didn't fake it.

Maybe it was not their fault at all, but Nicole's trap.

"Enough! Is it the right time to talk about this? Sunny, if you have the mood to yell at me here, you'd better ask Freya about it." Moore reminded Sunny.

While they were talking, Moore's mobile phone rang. Looking at the number on the screen, Moore could not help but be shocked. The thing that he was most afraid of finally happen.

He pressed the answer key and put the phone near his ear. Listening to the news on the phone, Moore's face was full of anger. He did not expect that he would be defeated by Nicole after careful consideration.

Putting down his mobile phone, Moore directly threw it on the wall opposite the living room. The mobile phone instantly broke into pieces, making a loud sound.

Obviously, Sunny was shocked by his behavior. She raised her hand subconsciously and covered her ears.

"Ah!" Looking at Moore's angry face, Sunny didn't dare to take a deep breath. She just sat on the sofa silently and lowered her head. She didn't want to provoke him at this time.

"Do you know who called you just now?" Moore looked at Sunny and said in a bitter voice. Sitting on the sofa next to Sunny, he looked at Sunny, who slightly shook her head, with the corner of his eyes.

Moore smiled, but his smile was so gloomy and horrible, as if he had been out of his mind.

"He told me that Nicole's signature on the share transfer agreement had disappeared." Moore was sure that it was all because of Nicole.

Now he finally understood why Nicole could hand over her shares so easily.

It turned out that she didn't plan to hand over the shares to him at all.

uch strength. After all, she felt sorry for Kerr. She just gave him a light punishment and then let go of him. She glared at Kerr who was smiling.

"Well, don't be angry. You have worked hard recently. Isn't it good for you to have a rest? Are you hungry? Let's grab something to eat." Kerr stroked Nicole's hair and took out his clothes from the wardrobe, intending to put them on her.

But she dodged. "No, I don't feel well. I need to take a shower." Before falling asleep, Nicole sweated and felt sticky all over her body.

Kerr didn't do bathe her because he was worried that she would get sick after taking a shower when she was asleep. Now that Nicole wanted to do this, Kerr was happy with it.

"Let me help you."

While speaking, Kerr was about to hold Nicole in his arms, but he failed.

Nicole jumped to the floor and made a face at him, "Mr. Kerr, do you think I'm a fool? I don't think you just want to help me take a shower. I know what is in your mind."

She was not that stupid.

Then she turned around and walked into the bathroom. She closed the door as if she was on guard against Kerr.

Kerr shook his head helplessly and heard the sound of water flowing in the bathroom.

Chapter 524 Little Lover

Lowering his head, Kerr saw the screen of Nicole's mobile phone lit up, on which the group photo of Jay and Lucas was clearly displayed. Kerr's face darkened. His mobile phone was full of Nicole's photos...

He didn't expect that this little woman all cared about her sons. He reached out his hand and held her phone in his hand. When he was about to change the photo, the phone showed that someone was calling in.

Looking at the special signal, Kerr knew who it was, so he pressed the answer button.

"Mommy! Do you miss Jay? Jay misses Mommy very much!" Before Nicole opened her mouth, Jay told her how much he missed her. It seemed that only when he talked to Nicole, he was a child.

Hearing Jay's voice, Kerr's face darkened. It turned out that this brat always called Nicole secretly.

"Mommy! Why don't you say anything? The signal is bad. Can't you hear me?" Obviously, Jay was a little anxious. Their training was very strict, and the geographical location of the island was very special.

So the signal they used was strictly monitored.

"She is taking a shower." Kerr said lightly with obvious displeasure in his eyes.

Jay heard Kerr's voice at once and felt disappointed. "Why not Mommy? I miss her very much."

"If that's what you want to ask, I've already answered you. That's it." Kerr was about to hang up, but Jay stopped him.

"Hey, hey, hey! Don't do that. It's not easy for me to get the signal. Let me talk to mommy for a while. She will miss me very much and might cry secretly at midnight."

Jay threatened Kerr. He knew that Kerr cared about Nicole, so he had to use her as an excuse. In fact, Jay missed Nicole very much.

Hearing Jay's words, Kerr hesitated and lowered his eyes.

Hearing Kerr's voice, Nicole raised her head and glared at Kerr, "You knew my son called, why didn't you tell me?" Nicole questioned Kerr.

If she hadn't found it herself, Kerr wouldn't have given the phone to her.

On the other side of the phone, Jay heard the conversation between Nicole and Kerr. Although they were quarreling, he felt so happy. He knew that even if he was not with Nicole, she could also live a happy life.

"Yes, yes! He just doesn't want you to talk to me, so that he can have you alone." Jay added fuel to the fire, and was in high spirit.

Hearing Jay's words, Nicole smiled, "Tell mommy, what are you doing there every day? Did you eat on time?" What Nicole cared about was very trivial.

Even though she knew that someone was taking care of Jay, she still couldn't rest assured without seeing him in person.

As for Jay's training, Kerr and Jay chose to hide it from her. If she knew that Jay was undergoing such harsh training every day, she couldn't stand it. Because she felt sorry for Jay and would let him come back.

After a brief chat with Nicole, Jay hung up the phone.

Chapter 525 Eavesdropping

At the same time, the mobile phone in Nicole's hand was taken away by Kerr. "It's time for you to have meals. If you don't eat now, I'm going to be angry." Kerr deliberately pulled a long face.

He said to Nicole seriously.

However, Kerr's authority was no longer unchallengeable. At least, Nicole didn't look timid in front of Kerr's angry face.

Nicole sighed and sat on the edge of the bed. Kerr had dried her long hair with a towel when she was on the phone.

Kerr held up her face and made her look up at him. "Nicole, I will always be here with you. You should know that even they are our children, they will grow up one day.

They will leave us eventually. In the future, only the two of us can be together. I won't leave you." Kerr knew that Nicole couldn't accept such departure for the time being.

So he would accompany her to accept it slowly.

Although Nicole knew it, it was difficult to really put it into practice.

"I see. Give me some time to get used to it." Nicole stood up, changed her clothes, took Kerr's hand and walked out of the lounge.

Although she missed and worried about Jay, she knew that Kerr was right.

Sitting in the dining room, Kerr sliced the steak with fork in front of him naturally and put it in front of Nicole, who looked at the two people at the next table.

"What are you looking at?" Kerr said lightly.

Nicole put her index finger to her lips, indicating him not to make any sound. She was trying hard to eavesdrop on the conversation between the two people next table. Although she knew it was inappropriate...

When she heard the name they mentioned just now, she couldn't help but feel anxious and curious.

In order to protect the privacy of every diner in the restaurant, there were proper distance between the tables, so even Nicole li relax when Moore get into trouble.

Nicole nodded. She had wanted to be lenient, but it seemed that some people would never realize their mistakes.

"You don't have to be sad and disappointed for someone who doesn't deserve your sympathy." Kerr reminded Nicole.

He knew what she was thinking. Most of the time, she was strong and independent, but she also had some small thoughts. These small thoughts just showed her kindness.

"It's not because I'm sad and disappointed, but because I'm helpless. I don't know when such a life will come to an end. Is the conflict between us and Moore going to go on and on like this?

Moore has Ron, and we also have Jay and Lucas. Is it because of the feud between us so that our next generation have to be impacted?" Nicole felt helpless.

However, it was beyond their control. After all, it was Moore and Sunny who couldn't let it go, not them.

"It's over soon. Don't worry. Trust me!" Kerr knew that Nicole's wish was simple. She wanted a simple life, but many things were beyond her imagination.

Nicole nodded. In the end, she had to leave this matter to Kerr.

She smiled at Nicole, picked up the glass on the table and took a sip of the juice.

Chapter 526 Be Lenient

In the Gu family's old house.

Freya had been waiting for three days, and the injury on her foot was almost healed, but there was still no news from Sunny. Obviously, she had lost her patience and could not wait any longer.

Standing up, she dialed Sunny's number.

In the villa.

Sunny sat on the sofa. After Moore left the villa, she was anxious. Now it was obvious that all their efforts had been in vain.

Not only didn't she get the shares of the KN Group, but also Moore might be in danger. Sunny was worried that she would be involved. When she heard the phone ring, she was obviously startled.

Looking at the number on the screen, Sunny hung up angrily and ignored Freya. She didn't know why Freya called at this time.

Anyway, for Sunny, Freya was of no use to her. With this accident, Sunny didn't know how to get out of the predicament, and she didn't know whether they still had a chance in the future.

Hearing Sunny hung up the phone on purpose, Freya's face was full of surprise, because in her impression, no matter what happened, Sunny didn't dare to be so disrespectful to her.

Freya frowned. Jack's words had been lingering in her mind. She also felt scared, so she dialed Sunny's number repeatedly.

After a long time, Freya didn't even know how many calls she had made before Sunny finally answered the phone.

"What are you doing? Why are you still calling me now?" Sunny's tone was full of displeasure, not as respectful as usual, but with obvious questioning, as if she was full of disgust with Freya.

When Freya heard Sunny's tone, her eyes widened in surprise. "Sunny, do you know who you are talking to?" Freya questioned Sunny. In the Gu family, even Nicole had never treated her like this.

Let alone Sunny.

Feeling the arrogance in Freya's attitude, Sunny snorted, "Freya! I k or not, but when she walked to the door of the villa, she stopped.

Three days had passed, and there were still people standing at the gate of the villa, urging her to pay the debt.

Freya couldn't take out a penny now and had no ability to pay back. If she went out at this time, she would definitely be caught. At that time, if the news spread, the reputation of the Gu family would also be damaged.

Turning around, Freya looked at Cherry and asked, "Haven't Kerr and Nicole come back yet?" Worried, Freya raised her head and looked at the clock on the wall. It was already dinner time.

Kerr and Nicole would come back at this time every day.

Cherry shook her head, "No. Mrs. Freya, do you need me to give them a call?" Cherry didn't know why Freya suddenly began to care about Nicole.

Freya nodded with hesitation. As Cherry picked up the phone in front of her and dialed Kerr's number, a phone rang from the gate of the villa was heard as soon as her phone was connected.

Cherry was slightly surprised. When she raised her head, she saw Kerr come in with Nicole, hand in hand.

Kerr's face darkened, as if he was very unhappy. But Nicole wore a smile on her face, showing no sign of unhappiness.

Chapter 527 A Little Kindness

"Kerr... You're back." There was obvious surprise in Freya's tone. She looked at Nicole unconsciously.

"Have you had dinner? I'll ask the kitchen to prepare dinner for you." While saying that, Freya was about to go to the kitchen, but was stopped by Kerr as soon as she took a step forward.

"No, thanks. I have had dinner with Nicole outside." After saying that, Kerr kept staring at Freya with obvious anger. He took a step forward and was about to say something, but was stopped by Nicole beside him.

With a smile at Freya and Kerr, Nicole said, "Kerr, you've been busy all day. You must be tired. Go upstairs and take a shower." Obviously, Nicole didn't want Kerr to say anything right now.

Feeling Kerr's hostility, Kerr took a step back and looked at him with fear.

Hearing Nicole's words, Kerr knew what she meant, so he went upstairs.

"Nicole, do you have time? I have something to tell you!" Seeing that Nicole was about to follow Kerr, Freya immediately stopped her.

But her tone was kind and humble.

Hearing that, Nicole stopped her steps and turned around. She was surprised to see the smile on Freya's face. Last time when Freya showed such a sincere smile, she was driven out of the Gu family by Freya.

And almost lost the whole KN Group.

But she was Freya. As the daughter-in-law of the Gu family, Nicole couldn't refuse her request. "Kerr, you can go upstairs first. I will come later." Nicole gently patted the back of Kerr's hand.

Then she pulled her hand out of Kerr's palm.

Kerr frowned. Obviously, he didn't want Nicole to stay with Freya alone.

But seeing the firmness in Nicole's eyes, Kerr had to take a meaningful look at Freya, and then turned to the bedroom upstairs.

Seeing Kerr leave, Freya felt relieved.

With a faint smile at Freya, Nicole walked towards the garden outside the villa. It was quiet there at this time. Perhaps Freya didn't want others to hear their ole and Freya said, he saw what Nicole was doing.

When Nicole pushed the bedroom door open, she saw Kerr standing in front of the window. It occurred to her that he could see their every move from there.

Nicole put her bag on the table nearby, walked behind him, stretched out her arms and hugged him from behind. "So Mr. Kerr is also peeping at others?"

With a smile in her eyes, Nicole joked, feeling the tension in Kerr's body.

Kerr raised his hand and held her in his arms. "Since my dear wife likes to eavesdrop. We should share the same hobby." Kerr took it for granted, "And you are my wife, not 'Others'."

He kissed on her forehead.

"Are you laughing at me?" Nicole raised her head and stared at Kerr.

Although the sarcasm in his words was not obvious, and he indulged her in every aspect, Nicole could still hear it.

Kerr shook his head slightly, "How dare I? Why did you give all your money to her?" Kerr knew that Nicole had her own savings before she was with him.

She saved it for Jay.

Nicole smiled faintly, "Because she is your mother. No matter what she had done, this fact can't be changed. She gave you life and gave me such a good husband. I'm very grateful to her.

It's my duty to take care of her for you." What Nicole said made sense.

Chapter 528 Peeping And Eavesdropping

At least that was what Nicole thought.

For her, money was never the most important thing.

Kerr held Nicole in his arms and looked at Freya who was standing still with the phone in her hand. "You know what she will do with the money. You have seen the people outside the villa just now."

When they came back just now, they saw those people sneaking outside the villa.

Kerr knew clearly that Freya had been forced by the gambling debts to not go out, but he did not expect that those people really dared to cause trouble in the Gu family.

He wouldn't allow such a thing to happen.

It was the first time that Nicole had come into contact with those malicious people. Nicole didn't know why there was such a person in the world.

It seemed that she couldn't figure out why Freya had provoked these people.

"These troubles must have made her feel distressed. I hope she can get rid of them and live a better life." Nicole didn't discuss it with Kerr before she made a decision.

Because she knew that once Kerr knew it, he might not agree. After all, if Kerr really wanted to give the money to Freya, he could have done it long ago.

There was no need to wait till now.

"Besides, shouldn't I make the call in the family? Why can't I even make a decision on such a small matter?" Nicole broke free from Kerr's arms with her hands on her waist.

She asked Kerr with dissatisfaction.

Looking at the anger on her face, Kerr felt happy. Maybe this was how precious Nicole was, even if the whole world showed malice to her...

she could still tolerate everything.

It was because of her kindness that she helped Freya. She didn't think that she made a sacrifice.

"Okay, okay. You are the boss. I'll leave everything to you, okay?" Kerr patiently coaxed her.

Nicole finally felt happy and hid in his arms. She felt very contented, because just now, she had felt that Freya was slowly accepting her.

Kerr let go of Nicole and walked into the bathroom.

Then Nicole picked up her phone and dialed the number of Harley.

"Mrs. Nicole, it's so late. Aren't you afraid that Mr. Kerr will be jealous?" Harley's voice was full of banter.

She knew that Harley was making fun of her. "So what? Anyway, I'm not the only one to suffer. There's nothing to be afraid of. Anyway, no matter how angry Kerr is, he would not vent his anger on me.

But if it was you, it might not be the case. You and Lisa have been go through a rough patch, and now you have to deal with Kerr. I feel so pitiful when I think about it." Nicole said jokingly.

She knew that Kerr and Lisa were Harley's weakness, so she used these his place is not bad?"

Nicole chased after Kerr and asked.

Kerr kept silent all the time. He took a look at his watch, carried Nicole in his arms and went back to bed.

"There is no reason. You should go to bed. Are you afraid of the dark circles under your eyes tomorrow morning, you little night owl?" Kerr threatened Nicole, tucked her in, closed his eyes and held her tightly in his arms.

Nicole frowned and looked at Kerr who bypassed her questions, "Then tell me why, or I can't fall asleep." Nicole threatened him.

But Kerr didn't say anything.

"Okay, Kerr, you pretend to be asleep, right?" Nicole stared at Kerr, reached out her hand and searched something under the quilt, with an obvious snicker in her eyes.

She really wanted to see if he could fall asleep.

Sure enough, five minutes later, Kerr suddenly opened his eyes and looked at Nicole with his possessive eyes. "Since you don't want to sleep, let's do something meaningful."

While speaking, he turned over and directly lifted the quilt to cover their heads, and then trapped her in his arms.

Nicole's eyes widened. She didn't expect that Kerr would be pissed off. But no matter how hard she tried, she couldn't escape from him.

"Okay, okay! I admit defeat. Stop it!" Nicole raised her hand in surrender. If she didn't admit defeat, she might be eaten up by Kerr.

Kerr also knew that Nicole was tired enough, so he stopped in time to teach her a lesson. "Let's see if you dare to mess with me in the future."

Kerr stretched out his arm and held her shoulder, lying beside her.

Noticing the change of Kerr's body, Nicole turned to him and looked at Kerr who closed his eyes tightly. Obviously, he was restraining himself. "Are you feeling bad, Kerr?"

Chapter 529 Solution

Hearing Nicole's gentle voice, Kerr had a strong desire in his heart. So he tried his best to ignore her.

"Sleep tight." Kerr said lightly.

Knowing what he meant, Nicole raised the corners of her mouth slightly. She stretched out her arms and deliberately held him tightly. "Good night." She then raised her head and kissed Kerr on his chin.

She clearly felt that his body became more stiff and tense.

"Nicole, you did it on purpose!" Kerr clenched his teeth, but he couldn't do anything to Nicole. He had to endure it. After all, he had chosen this little mischievous woman to be his wife by himself.

Kerr had no choice but to bear the responsibility silently.

Hiding in his arms, Nicole giggled, closed her eyes and slept soundly.

But tonight, someone couldn't fall asleep because of Nicole and Kerr.

Sitting in the car, Moore lowered the window, lit the cigarette in his hand, extinguished it, and then lit it again. Soon, the door was full of cigarette ash and butts, but the impatience and restlessness in his heart did not disappear at all.

Taking out his phone, he looked at the number in his contact list and didn't know whom to call. Obviously, this matter had been escalated.

It was not that easy to solve it.

But Moore didn't want to get himself involved. He found a number and dialed it. The phone rang for a long time before it was answered.

"Who is it?" There was obvious impatience in his sleepy voice.

It was late at night. Obviously, the call disturbed his rest.

"I'm Moore. Smith, I'm in trouble." Moore said lightly. Since the afternoon, he had gradually calmed down from anger.

Now this matter had nothing to do with Nicole, and the shares he had got were gone. He could not even protect himself.

Hearing Moore's voice, the man on the other end of the phone sat up from the bed and suddenly sobered up. He looked at the sleeping woman beside him with surprise and vigilance.

"Mr. Moore, where are you now?" The man lowered his voice. He had seen the news report and knew that Moore was in trouble.

f the same reason.

Moore sweet-talked her. Sunny was also afraid that Moore would get involved in this matter.

Now it seemed that what Moore said was indeed reasonable. If they put all the blame on Freya, everything would be fine.

Sunny didn't say anything, but she had accepted Moore's suggestion in her heart.

Lying next to Sunny, Moore knew that she was easy to be deceived. "Indeed, I've made a perfect plan after I got the shares. I was going to make a fortune.

I could teach Nicole a lesson, or take you and Ron away with me. If you stay here, we would be restricted everywhere. I want to give you a better life.

I will give you and Ron a complete family. We don't have our own family anymore. Do you also want Ron to live in an incomplete home?"

Moore said pitifully. He knew to use Ron as an excuse.

"Stop it. I know what to do. I'll call Freya tomorrow morning." Sunny interrupted Moore.

Although she knew that she couldn't completely believe what Moore said, she had to admit that some of his words indeed made senses.

It was all because of Ron that Sunny chose to compromise.

Hearing the affirmative answer of Sunny, Moore finally felt relieved. "You can tell Freya that even if something really happened to her, Kerr and Nicole will definitely find a way to save her."

In this way, the Gu family would get into trouble together.

Chapter 530 Birds Of A Feather Flock Together

"Then she has no reason to refuse."

Moore had a good plan.

With her eyes closed, Sunny thought about what Moore had said. Anyway, the relationship between her and Freya had been ruined, and it didn't matter even if she got Freya involved.

The next day, in the Gu family's old house.

Freya stood in the living room with her cell phone in her hand. When she saw Cherry come in from the door, she asked, "Have you given the money to them?" Freya didn't expect that Nicole would be so generous.

The money was enough for her to pay off her gambling debts.

Cherry walked to Freya and stopped. She nodded at Freya and said, "Yes, they have left." Facing the powerful background of the Gu family, those people didn't dare to take a step forward, but only stood at the door.

In this way, if the news spread, it would not be good for the Gu family's reputation.

Freya was finally relieved.

She sat on the sofa and picked up the teacup in front of her. She didn't expect that a greater disaster was waiting for her.

Suddenly, her phone rang. Looking at Sunny's number on the screen, Freya thought of Sunny's attitude towards her yesterday. There was obvious contempt in her eyes.

"Madam, Miss Sunny is calling. Do you want to answer it?" Cherry asked Freya, but she saw that Freya didn't care about it at all. So Cherry took the phone silently and pressed hang it up.

Fortunately, now the KN Group was not in the hands of others, but Freya also didn't have any control over it, which made her feel a little distressed.

Hearing the sound in the phone, Sunny knew that Freya refused to answer her phone. "Freya doesn't answer the phone." Sunny looked at Moore beside her.

Frowning, Moore was lost in thought. Before he could say anything, he heard footsteps coming from the door of the villa. Dunn stood at the door and nod unny, I hope you won't appear in front of me again. I will only feel disgusted to see you."

Freya said seriously. She turned around and was about to leave, but was stopped by what Sunny said behind her.

"Auntie, don't you worry what you did would be known by others? I'm afraid that your perfect image will be ruined by then."

Sunny knew too many secrets of Freya. When they came to light, Freya would be in great trouble. Therefore, Sunny was very confident that Freya would compromise.

Freya stopped and frowned. She turned around and looked into the complicated eyes of Sunny. "What did you say?" Freya hesitated.

But she still walked to the passenger seat of Sunny's car and said, "What do you want to say? I hope you can tell me as soon as possible. I have something very important to do." Freya just wanted to get rid of Sunny as soon as possible.

It seemed that she didn't know Sunny well. She had never thought that such words would come out of Sunny's mouth.

Sunny started the car and drove away from the Gu family's old house.

"I need your help. There is something wrong with Moore's business. It's a little troublesome for us, but it's an easy thing for you."

Sunny smiled ironically at Freya.
