Chapter 561 Dear Wife

Kerr was a very cautious person and would not give anyone the chance to betray him. Only when Daisy was around Nicole could she relax her vigilance.

Kerr had expected that Daisy would be like this.

"So you are using me?" Nicole frowned with obvious dissatisfaction. She became Kerr's tool.

Kerr raised her hand and pinched his ear. It was not good to be betrayed.

"Why didn't you tell me in advance?" Nicole questioned Kerr. If he had informed her earlier, she could at least be mentally prepared.

Kerr held Nicole's hand and kissed it gently. "How dare I, my dear wife?" But Kerr did have his own selfish motive.

"But if I tell you, you will unconsciously guard against Daisy. I know what kind of person you are. You are not a person who will hide things in your heart at all.

If you know, Daisy will know."

Kerr said firmly. He gently picked up a strand of Nicole's hair and played with it.

"Do you think Daisy is a simple woman since she has been with me for so long?" If it weren't for the sake of Jared, Kerr wouldn't have kept Daisy until now.

But he didn't expect that Daisy would abandon Jared when it came to her own interests.

Nicole knew that Kerr was right, so she didn't blame him anymore. But when she thought of Jared's disappointed look just now, she couldn't help but feel a little sorry for him.

"I didn't know that. I once persuaded Jared to propose to Daisy. Now it seems that Daisy had let him down." Nicole was a little disappointed. She had thought that lovers would get married, but now it seemed that they were just bubbles on the sea.

"Are you worried about another man?" Kerr pinched Nicole's chin seriously and stared at her.

Nicole nodded helplessly, "Y es," but she didn't object to Kerr's decision, so he started the car and drove towards the venue.

Kerr didn't take Nicole with him, not because he didn't want her to get involved, but because he just wanted her to sleep a little longer.

An hour later, Nicole opened her eyes.

After stretching herself comfortably, she slowly opened her eyes. She seemed to get used to the pain in her waist and reached out to touch the pillow beside her.

But it was empty. Looking at the quiet room, Nicole knew that Kerr had gone to work.

She turned over on the bed. When she was about to have a rest, she suddenly remembered what they had said last night about the bidding. She sat up abruptly.

She looked up at the clock on the wall and knew the bidding was about to start.

Then she picked up the car key and was about to go out.

"Mrs. Nicole, Lucas is going to have a physical examination today." Seeing that Nicole was about to go out in a hurry, Harrow reminded her.

It was not until Nicole heard the voice of Harrow that she remembered it. However, she was worried about the bidding and didn't know what to do for a moment.

"Go ahead with your work."

Chapter 562 Win The Bidding And Lose Beloved

Looking at Nicole, Freya stood up and said lightly, "I'll go to the hospital with Lucas. There won't be any problem." She really wanted to share some of the responsibilities for Nicole.

And she really liked Lucas.

Nicole turned around and looked into Freya's concerned eyes. She said with obvious relief, "Thank you, mother." Said Nicole lightly.

Then she nodded to Freya and left in a hurry.

She drove to the site alone.

Inside the venue.

Kerr sat in his seat. As soon as they came in, he saw Daisy sitting opposite him. But Daisy's eyes were cold and all her attention was on the stage.

Sitting next to Kerr, Jared's eyes had been fixing on Daisy the moment he saw her.

He didn't expect that as Kerr said, they would see Daisy when they were here.

As the representative of the other party, Daisy went to the stage calmly.

With a decent smile on her face, she explained her plan in detail.

Fortunately, the plan was different from that of Nicole.

Kerr just glanced at Daisy and then looked away, "You go up there later." Kerr ordered Jared.

Hearing Kerr's voice, Jared came to his senses and looked away from Daisy. He was stunned. He was stunned. He was never qualified to attend such an occasion.

"Sir... Do you really want me to do it?" Jared hesitated. From the moment he knew Daisy, Jared knew that she was a very strong person. At that time, he knew that he had fallen in love with her.

Later when they were together, although Daisy was very quiet, and she didn't like to cling to him like other girls, it made him feel very secure. He had never thought that one day he would be a match for Daisy.

"Any objection?" Kerr looked at Jared beside him.

Jared nodded and looked down at the business plan in his hand. It was Nicole's original plan and Kerr had revised it. Jared knew it cle and hearing his words, Daisy felt it was ridiculous. An impatient smile appeared on her face. She pushed away him and said, "They were nice to me? I don't think so.

I got everything by my own efforts. Mr. Kerr? Mrs. Nicole? They are your bosses, not mine. Jared, you are willing to be submissive to others, but I'm different.

Why can't I have everything they have? Jared, we are not on the same side at all. I have made the decision to leave the company for a long time."

Daisy said calmly. In the face of Kerr and Nicole, in her heart, they were just superior to her and she was just their subordinate. She couldn't take them as her heroes like Jared did.

Stepping back, Daisy didn't want to face Jared at all. "Jared, don't blame me. When it came to my career and you, I chose the former. But I know you would also choose your master without hesitation between him and me.

In fact, you don't love me as much as you think. Where were you when I needed someone to be with me most when I was sick? You are protecting him. Where were you when I had an abortion in the hospital alone?

You are taking care of your Mrs. Nicole, so Jared, our relationship has long been over, but you are unwilling to admit it."

Chapter 563 Not On Purpose

After saying that, Daisy turned around and walked towards the door, ignoring Jared's surprised look.

Daisy's words echoed in his ears. Jared was totally surprised. He had never known that there was a child between him and Daisy. At that time, Nicole told him that there seemed to be something wrong with Daisy's health.

But when Jared was busy with dealing with Moore, he didn't have time to care about Daisy at all. He had thought that Daisy would recover after a period of holiday, but he didn't expect that she had pregnant.

Jared was petrified.

Kerr walked out of the hall and stopped beside Jared. "Go and get her back." Kerr just said one sentence.

Jared didn't notice these things, but Kerr knew. But these things could only be said in front of Daisy.

Hearing Kerr's voice, Jared came to his senses and chased after Daisy.

Kerr walked slowly towards the entrance of the venue.

"Daisy!" Jared called out Daisy's name with guilt in his heart. He wanted to hold her in his arms and tell her that it was his fault, and then use the rest of his life to make up for it.

Hearing Jared call her name, Daisy subconsciously didn't want him to catch up with her, so she ran to the parking lot. In a hurry, she didn't see the road ahead clearly.

"Creak!"

"Ah!"

The car screeched to a halt at the entrance of the venue.

Sitting in the car, with her hands holding the steering wheel, Nicole stared at Daisy who suddenly ran out from the opposite. It was too late for her to step on the brake.

Daisy fell down in front of Nicole's car and slid to the ground gradually.

"Daisy!" Jared called out loudly when he saw Daisy lying on the ground, with blood flowing from her lower body.

Nicole was completely in a daze.

and said, "Let's go to the hospital." Without confirming Daisy's condition in person, Nicole was always worried.

Looking at Nicole's delicate face, Nicole frowned tightly. He stroked her long hair and nodded at her.

"I can take you to the hospital, but I'm not sure what's going on. Don't think too much." Kerr reminded her.

It was impossible for Nicole not to think too much. After all, a person was lying in the hospital because of her fault. If something really happened to Daisy, she really didn't know how to explain it to Jared.

Lowering her head, she said, "It's all my fault. I was anxious to see you and wanted to know the result of the bidding, so I drove so fast. If I had been a little slower, I wouldn't have encountered such a thing."

Nicole kept blaming herself.

Kerr reached out his hand and held up Nicole's face. He saw the tears in her eyes and knew that she had been holding back her tears.

"If you dare to think too much, I won't take you there." Kerr threatened Nicole, but after he said that...

The tears in Nicole's eyes fell down directly from her face to Kerr's hand. She felt wronged and didn't know what to do...

Chapter 564 Greatly Shocked

"Kerr, I'm really scared. If something really happened to Daisy, how should I explain it to Jared? If..." It seemed that Nicole was asking Kerr.

But it also looked like she was talking to herself.

Kerr bent over and kissed her red lips. He didn't want her to think too much. No matter what, he wouldn't let anything happen to her.

Feeling that her lips were trembling, he knew that she was quite shocked.

After a long time, when Kerr felt that she gradually calmed down, he let go of her and said, "Nicole, trust me. Things may not be as bad as you think.

Daisy will be fine, and Jared won't blame you." Kerr comforted Nicole and wiped the tears from the corner of her eyes. He felt very sorry for her.

What Kerr feared most was to see Nicole's tears. As long as she cried, no matter what, Kerr had an impulse to destroy the world.

Nicole raised her head and looked into Kerr's eyes, trying to find some firmness on his face. "Really?" Nicole asked in a daze.

It was not until Kerr nodded that she finally stopped crying, but her fingers were still cold.

After starting the car, with one hand holding the steering wheel and the other holding Nicole's hand, Kerr rushed to the hospital.

When the car stopped at the gate of the hospital, Kerr unfastened the seat belt of Nicole. Seeing that she was still in a state of shock, he asked, "Can you walk by yourself?"

It seemed that Nicole had been absent-minded all the time. Hearing Kerr's voice, she turned around in confusion. "What?" Obviously, she didn't hear what Kerr said.

Kerr shook his head helplessly. He knew that no matter what he said at this time, it was useless. He had no choice but to get off the car, walked around to Nicole, and held her out of the passenger seat.

"What are you doing?" Feel ng that, both Kerr and Jared breathed a sigh of relief.

"Where is she?" Jared stepped forward, but didn't see Daisy come out. He was a little anxious.

Taking a look at Kerr, Harley answered Jared, "The nurse has sent Daisy back to the ward. You can go to see her now."

Hearing that, Jared didn't care about anything else but turned around and walked towards the ward.

When Kerr was about to look for Nicole, he was stopped by Harley behind him. "Wait a minute, Kerr."

Obviously, Harley had something to say.

Seeing that Jared had gone far, Harley said lightly, "Although Daisy's life is not in danger, her uterus was hurt because of the impact. In addition, she was injured by abortion before, so I'm afraid that Daisy can't have a baby in the future."

Harley didn't dare to tell Jared the news at this time because he was afraid that Jared couldn't bear it.

Kerr's eyes darkened. Just now, when he saw Jared's expression, he thought that Jared must marry Daisy. If Jared didn't have his own child all his life, Kerr didn't know if it was a pity for Jared.

After all, Jared was an orphan. In fact, he was eager to have his own family.

"Tell Jared about it later."

Chapter 565 I Don't Care

Kerr thought that he should give Jared a chance to calm down.

"Is there no way to make it up?" Standing behind Kerr, Nicole asked with a frown.

She didn't dare to come forward until she saw Jared leave just now. She happened to hear what Harley said.

Hearing Nicole's voice, Kerr held her shoulder and held her in his arms. "Didn't I tell you to wait for me there?"

Kerr didn't want Nicole to know these things.

Nicole kept her eyes on Harley, only to see him shake his head helplessly.

"It's all my fault. If Daisy wakes up and knows it, she must be very sad." As a woman, of course Nicole knew how important a child was.

Losing the right to be a mother was too cruel for Daisy.

Kerr held Nicole in his arms and said, "Nicole, it's fate. It has nothing to do with you. As said by Harley, Daisy had an abortion without Jared's permission before, which means that she doesn't want to give birth to a child for Jared at all.

So don't think too much and blame yourself here, okay?" Kerr didn't care about others' business.

In his eyes, as long as Nicole could be safe and sound, even the whole world thought he was cruel, He didn't care.

Because his tenderness only gave to the person he wanted to protect.

Nicole knew that Kerr said this to comfort her, but the more he protected her, the sadder she felt.

Raising his hand, Kerr touched Nicole's hair and said, "You are also frightened today. I'll drive you home and have a rest. If you have anything, we can talk about it tomorrow."

Kerr put his arm around Nicole's shoulder and walked out of the hospital.

With her head down, Nicole's mind went blank. She followed Kerr and was at a loss.

Looking at the backs of the two people, Harley could only shake his head and sigh.

In the ward.

Jared looked at Daisy in front of him. Her face was pale and she slept well with her eye

Mrs. Freya, I'll go first." Jared didn't want everyone to know about it.

Moreover, he was the only one with Daisy now. He wanted to come back to her as soon as possible.

But when Jared walked out of the elevator, he saw the doctors and nurses running towards a ward not far away, and everyone looked anxious.

Jared had an ominous premonition. Looking at the room that was humming with doctor and nurse, Jared felt that his footsteps became unsteady.

He even didn't know how he got to the door of the ward. "Daisy!"

Jared called out Daisy's name and saw the doctor take first-aid measures for Daisy. The ECG monitor beside her was in a clear straight line, and Jared knew clearly what it meant.

"Sir, please wait outside. Your presence will affect us." The nurse tried to push Jared out of the ward, but obviously failed.

"Inform Doctor Harley." The doctor ordered the nurse.

They also knew that the relationship between Daisy and Harley was unusual, and Jared was still here. If there was really an accident, none of them could take the responsibility.

The nurse stumbled towards Harley's office.

But when Harley arrived at the ward, the doctor shook his head at him. Obviously, there was no need to rescue Daisy now.

Chapter 566 Something Is Wrong

"What's wrong with Daisy?" Harley grabbed Harley and asked him in disbelief. He just walked away for a while, but why did she become like this.

Hearing that, Harley frowned. Daisy's condition was not so serious at all. There would be no accident.

Unless someone hurt her on purpose.

There were too many people here. If that was the case, Harley couldn't act rashly and alert the enemy. He just said to Jared beside her, "It's fate. I'm sorry."

Then he signaled the doctors and nurses in the ward to leave.

Jared pushed away Harley in front of him and walked to the side of Daisy. The nurse who was standing next to Daisy wanted to cover Daisy with white cloth, but when she felt the sharp eyes of Jared, she was frightened and immediately put down the things in her hands and left the ward.

Standing next to Daisy, Jared's hands were a little trembling. He touched her side face and asked, "Daisy, are you tired? Why don't you open your eyes and look at me? You are still blaming me, aren't you?"

I said I wanted to make it up to you, but you didn't even give me the chance, did you?" Jared murmured to Daisy's cold body in disbelief.

Daisy closed her eyes tightly and didn't respond to him at all.

Looking at Jared's face, Harley knew that Jared and Daisy had been together for many years. He walked to Jared and patted him on the shoulder. "Jared, I'm sorry."

As for the strangeness of this matter, Harley planned to investigate it by himself before telling Jared. Looking at Jared's expression, even if Harley said it, he might not be able to face it calmly.

By that time, it would be a disaster for Jared.

Jared didn't seem to notice the existence of Harley at all. He just held Daisy's hand and felt that her ring finger was still wearing his own proposal zed the whole thing to Nicole in order to get more information from her. Logically speaking, Daisy's injuries wouldn't be so serious even if she was hurt in that position under such speed.

But if he asked Nicole seriously, she would be very nervous, so he could only beat around the bush.

"Yes, I didn't drive so fast, but Daisy won't have a child in the future. What should Jared do?" Nicole was worried about this matter and didn't know how to explain it to Jared.

Children were a big deal.

"It will be okay. Now the medicine is so developed, there must be other ways. I promise you, if Daisy wakes up and if they want a child, I will help them find a way."

Kerr promised Nicole, but he also knew that these assumptions could not be realized.

Hearing that there was still hope, Nicole finally felt relieved and nodded to Kerr.

"By the way, Nicole, the project in another city has been officially started. Can you help me supervise the process there?"

I wanted to go there in person, but now you saw Jared. It's not convenient for me to go there. If you are worried about Lucas, I can ask someone else. But you are familiar with that project."

Kerr looked at Nicole.

Chapter 567 Pregnancy

"And it's also very important to the KN Group." Kerr was trying his best to find an excuse to let Nicole leave here temporarily. There were still a lot of things to deal with here.

Kerr couldn't leave with her, so he had to persuade her.

Hearing Kerr's words, Nicole felt very strange. At this time, Kerr could still think of business, but she did not refuse. She just nodded to Kerr.

"Okay, I'll pack up and go there tomorrow." Although Nicole was a little worried about Lucas and Daisy's injury.

But Kerr didn't have a capable assistant. Of course, Nicole wanted to share his worries.

With a gentle smile on his face, Kerr stroked her long hair.

"Knock, knock, knock!" Someone knocked on the bedroom door.

"Come in." Kerr said indifferently.

When Harrow reached out her hand, she pushed the door open and said, "Mr. Kerr, Mrs. Nicole, dinner is ready." Harrow reminded Kerr and Nicole. Since Freya accepted Lucas...

Almost every day, Lucas was taking care of Lucas, so Harrow was free most of the time.

Kerr nodded and held Nicole's hand.

"Go to have dinner. I have no appetite." Thinking of the bloody scene, Nicole had no appetite at all. She turned her head and looked away.

Kerr stretched out his hand to hold Nicole's face and pecked her on the lips. "How can I rest assured that you will go on a business trip alone tomorrow?"

Then you don't have to go anywhere. I won't go to the company either. I'll stay at home with you." Kerr said seriously. In fact, if he made a choice between the KN Group and Nicole.

Kerr would definitely choose Nicole without hesitation.

The reason why he sent her out was that he hoped that she could stay away from this environment and distract her attention.

Seeing Kerr's serious look, Nicole had to raise her hand in surrender anew that Nicole's appetite was affected by her mood.

This kind of situation could only be overcome by Nicole herself.

Nicole shook her head and looked at the table. "Will mom be angry?" Nicole knew that Freya did it out of kindness, but she vomited. If Freya got angry at this time, Nicole would also be helpless.

It was not easy to rebuild the relationship, and she didn't want to make it worse because of a little thing.

"It's none of your business." Kerr just wanted to know if there was anything wrong with Nicole.

"I'm fine. Don't worry." Nicole comforted Kerr, held his hand and walked towards the dining room.

Sitting at the seat, Nicole smiled sheepishly at Freya, "I'm sorry, mother. I'm not feeling well." Nicole took the initiative to apologize to Freya. She had thought that Freya would be very angry.

But when she saw the smile on Freya's face, she felt relieved.

"It doesn't matter. What do you want to eat? Just let the kitchen redo it. What do you think? Have you gone to the hospital? What did the doctor say?" Freya looked at Nicole seriously and said with concern.

Although the Gu family already had two children, Freya still thought that the more, the better.

Chapter 568 Disappointed

In this way, Lucas wouldn't be lonely in the future.

Looking at Freya's concerned look, Nicole suddenly felt a little confused. She didn't know what Freya was talking about. She looked at Kerr beside her, but didn't find an answer on his face.

"I'm fine. I don't need to go to the hospital. I'll be fine in a couple of days." Nicole answered Freya.

There was a hint of affirmation in his eyes.

Freya frowned slightly, "Then why did you go to the hospital today? Oh, by the way, I met Jared in the hospital. He said his fiancée was in hospital. Is that why you were here?"

Thinking of the day when she met Jared, Freya felt something wrong. And the furtive figure she saw, Freya couldn't explain clearly, so she didn't say anything.

Hearing Freya mention Daisy, Nicole felt very embarrassed. She had been thinking about it all the time, but she didn't expect that even Freya knew it.

Nicole lowered her head and didn't know how to tell Freya that Daisy was in hospital because of her.

"Well, Daisy is fine, and so is Nicole. Let's have dinner." Kerr interrupted Freya's questioning and turned to give an order to Cherry.

"Ask the kitchen to make something light for Mrs. Nicole." Kerr knew that this had become a trauma in Nicole's heart.

He felt more uneasy.

Looking at the expressions on Kerr and Nicole's faces, Freya felt something was wrong. But she knew that if Kerr wanted to say something, he would have said it earlier, so she stopped asking.

But she also knew that her guess was wrong.

"Nicole, in fact, you and Kerr are still young, and Lucas has grown up day by day. Do you plan to have another child?" Freya asked Nicole and Kerr.

It was better to have a plan.

Hearing that, Nicole was slightly stunned. She didn't expect that Freya would say so. She was not prepared for this question at n the KN Group."

This was related to the reputation of Nicole.

Besides, they didn't know that Daisy had passed away yet. If this news was leaked out again, Nicole would be in big trouble.

Hearing the voice of Kim, Kerr's face darkened. He didn't expect that someone was targeting at Nicole.

Kerr unconsciously tightened his grip on the phone. If the target was him, then everything would be fine, but if it was for Nicole, then someone had crossed the line.

"Find out who did it. Find a way to block all the information that has been spread, at all costs." Kerr didn't want to bring any trouble to Nicole.

And he didn't want these false remarks to affect her.

"I see, sir. Besides, I haven't got any news from Jared." Kim was also worried about Jared. If Jared really couldn't move on, it would be troublesome.

After all, Jared had been with Kerr for so many years and had a good relationship with Kim.

"Don't worry about him. Just do what you should do." Kerr hung up the phone.

When he turned around, he saw that the little woman on the bed had opened her eyes, but there was obvious confusion in her eyes. "Who were you talking to?" Nicole asked subconsciously.

She only heard Kerr's voice.

Chapter 569 No Resistance

Nicole didn't hear what Kerr said clearly.

Kerr walked out of the balcony and went back to Nicole. He reached out his hand and held her in his arms. "You can simply pack up your luggage in the morning and accompany Lucas for a while. After all, you will be there for a few days.

I will arrange for someone to sort out the materials you need for the group affairs, and then come to pick you up." Kerr stroked Nicole's long hair. He didn't want her to leave, but he knew that leaving was the best for her.

Hearing Kerr's voice, Nicole nodded and looked up at Kerr, "And the hospital?" Nicole was a little worried. So far, she hadn't received the news that Nicole had woken up.

"Don't worry. I'll ask someone to go there. Both Harley and Jared are there. Everything will be fine." Kerr comforted Nicole.

Nicole still wanted to go to the hospital to see Daisy, but when she saw the firm look in Kerr's eyes, she decided to leave the matter to him, so she nodded obediently.

Holding up her little face, Kerr lowered his head and kissed her directly.

In front of Nicole, Kerr couldn't refuse her temptation at all, no matter where he was.

Even though Nicole had become his wife and the mother of his child, Kerr still wanted to hold her in his arms all the time.

Feeling Kerr's intention, Nicole struggled a little. In fact, she didn't sleep well last night, and Kerr didn't get close to her i s with the supplementary food and handed him to Harrow.

As soon as Nicole changed her clothes and was about to go out, her phone rang. Looking at the number on the screen, which showed that it was from Avery, she answered it with a smile.

"Nicole, are you okay?" There was obvious worry in Avery's tone.

Nicole was confused. She didn't know why Avery suddenly asked her this question.

"What's wrong? What happened?" Nicole asked curiously. But judging from Avery's tone, she also felt something bad.

When Avery was about to say something, she saw Zachary shaking her head. Avery frowned and knew what he meant, but she was very worried about Nicole.

The news on the Internet had already reached her ears. She did not expect that it was just a small car accident, but it was caught by the media and made a fuss about it.

Avery felt that they were shameless. "Nothing. I just miss you a little." Avery changed the topic.

Chapter 570 Dont Let Her Get Hurt

Seeing Zachary sitting next to her, Avery felt a little relieved.

Hearing Avery's words, Nicole smiled faintly. Although they now all had their own families, their friendship seemed to be no different from before.

"I haven't seen you for a long time. But I'm going on a business trip today and may come back in a few days. Let's have dinner together when I come back." Nicole didn't notice Avery's difference at all.

Standing in front of the mirror, although Kerr said that someone was watching Daisy in the hospital, Nicole thought it was necessary for her to apologize to Daisy in person.

So she decided to go to the hospital before leaving.

Hearing what Nicole said, Avery didn't feel that she was sad or angry, and it seemed that nothing had happened.

But it would be better, indicating that Nicole was not affected by this matter, so that Avery could rest assured. "Okay, I will wait for you to come back."

Then Avery hung up the phone.

"Why don't you let me tell Nicole?" Avery raised her head and looked at Zachary in front of her with a puzzled look.

Zachary felt a little helpless. Avery's world was very simple. In this world, there were only two kinds of people for her. One was her friend, and the other was her enemy.

In Avery's mind, Nicole was her best friend, but she didn't know how to care about her most of the time.

"I've asked someone to investigate it just now. Kerr has officially begun to investigate that accident, so you don't need to worry about it. If Nicole knows it, it will only affect her own mood."

Zachary thought very clearly.

"You should have felt it just now. Obviously, Kerr didn't tell Nicole about it. If he wants to send Nicole away, don't destroy his plan."

Zachary had already known that once, Kerr's carefully p ole looked at Jared sitting in the corner with his head down. If she didn't know Jared before, she could not recognize him at all.

The man who used to be clean and tidy now became in a mess.

Hearing Nicole's voice, Jared held back his anger, but lowered his head and said nothing.

Nicole was worried about Jared. She didn't know if he became like that because of Daisy's injury. She put the flowers on the bed and walked to Jared.

She stretched out her hand and shook Jared's arm gently, "Jared, what's wrong with you?" There was a hint of concern in her tone.

"Don't touch me!" Jared shook off her hand and suddenly raised his head, glaring at her with his scarlet eyes.

"Ah!" Nicole didn't expect that Jared would suddenly attack her. Frightened, she took a step back and sat on the ground, screaming instinctively.

Looking into Jared's eyes, Nicole saw a cold look. She had never seen him like this before.

In Nicole's impression, Jared had always been gentle and simple, but now he looked at her as if he didn't know her at all.

"Jared, what's wrong with you? Why are you looking at me like that? Is Daisy still in a coma?" Nicole guessed it was because of Daisy.
