

After the Divorce, CEO Realizes He's the Stand-In Lover By Madison King

Chapter 6 She is spending her money

Niki knew that Julian had been married, and his wife Miss Spears had been with him for the past three years. But since Julian didn't take the initiative to tell her, she couldn't ask him in direct.

She could only get the information from the servants.

She would like to see what this substitute looked like and how similar she was to her!

"Mrs. Graham doesn't take pictures in her daily life. Don't worry. Although Mrs. Graham looks like you, she is not as beautiful as you." Gina replied at once since she didn't dare to snub the one whom Mr. Graham loved.

Gina said with a flattering smile. She thought that she could always stand firm in the Graham family after she flattered the one that Mr. Graham loved.

Hearing this, Niki smiled shyly, but Gina could see that she was really happy.

Well, could a fake be comparable to the real one?

But since she looked like her, she wouldn't be too ugly. After all, her appearance was pretty good.

"Then Miss Spears must be a beauty." Niki accepted Gina's praise "generously".

"Gina, I just came back from abroad. There are still many things in the apartment that I need. Please take me to buy some daily necessities tomorrow."

"And, throw this blanket out, please." Niki's clear eyes twinkled with undisguised disgust.

The next morning, Niki came to a luxury store by a Rolls-Royce. She got off the car in a good mood.

Julian gave her a lot of money and she planned to dress up herself and the apartment.

She wanted to go to this luxury store for a long time, but she never go in since it was too expensive.

Before she entered, a delicate and luxurious figure passed by her.

When the shop assistants saw Natalie, they swarmed to her and said, "Miss Spears, you're here. There are many new products in the store recently. I'm sure you'll like them."

Natalie nodded and picked up the clothes with casual. The shop assistant followed her with respect and didn't notice that there was another person standing at the door.

Niki held back her anger caused by their neglect while her eyes turned dark to glare at the woman in front of her who was surrounded.

Who was so rich that could have all the shop assistants around her?

This store was owned by the top designers all over the world, no one could buy commodities without an identity lower than A level. Even if she was an S level member, the shop assistants couldn't be so nice to her.

She looked at the woman up and down with caution, from her eyes to nose, then to mouth,

-It was a familiar face!

More than half of her face was similar to her

She had a bold conjecture in her mind.

"Is this Miss Spears?" Niki turned to ask.

Gina saw Natalie at the first sight. She couldn't deny it and nodded since Niki asked.

"Yes, this is Miss Spears."

Niki narrowed her eyes, "Is Miss Spears always so generous in spending money?"

Was she so thriftless?

Although she was about to divorce with Julian and was going to be kicked out, she was still the daughter-in-law of the Graham family. Her grandfather was lying in the hospital bed. She didn't take care of him, instead, she spent money with abandon here?

Noticing that there was something wrong with Niki's expression, Gina answered at once, "Yes, Grandpa Graham told us to be frugal, but Miss Spears has never listen to it. After all, she is the hostess of the Graham family. As a servant, we don't dare to say anything about our host."

Niki was more furious. It must cost a lot of money to have the shop assistants around her!

A fake substitute was spending the money of the Graham family like water. The money of the Graham family would also belong to Niki in the future. This was equivalent to spending Niki's money!

She would like to see how much money this woman could cost the Graham family!

Natalie bought a lot of new products from the luxury store and was in a good mood. She planned to go to see the house next. She heard from Philip that the house in Greenlife was good, so she drove away to Greenlife.

Sitting in the car, Niki saw that the Maybach of Natalie was driving past her. She gritted her teeth and said,

"Follow up."

How could this woman drive such a good car!

The car stopped far dily following the Maybach in front. Niki raised her head and saw the Sales Office of Greenlife villa district!

The price of this house was extremely high!

Niki's eyes darkened.
