Chapter 1601: Grand Wedding, Zoe Gets Humiliated

Shelly looked at the comment section indifferently. They were all blessings for Nox and Zoe, saying that they were a match made in heaven.

It also said that they were on par with each other in terms of family background and character, making them the most well-matched couple in Harken. In short, there were many compliments. Of course, there were also a few keyboard warriors, but they were all covered up by the blessings.

Shelly, however, felt bored after watching for a while. She looked up at the time and wondered why Bella was not out yet. Every second of waiting felt like torture to her.

When Nox arrived at the Sullivans' residence, the villa was already decorated for the wedding. As soon as he was at the entrance of the villa, the relatives of the Sullivans came out to greet him and guided him to the backyard, where he would wait for Zoe.

Nox was an outgoing person and could liven up the atmosphere wherever he was, so while he waited for Zoe at the end of the aisle, he entertained the relatives, making everyone laugh. Even the onlookers on the screen had bright smiles on their faces. They were completely helpless against a handsome, rich, and funny man like Nox.

It took about half an hour for Zoe to show up in a beautiful wedding dress, and as she walked across the field, she smiled at Nox. When the camera zoomed in on her, many of the onlookers were stunned.

Shelly also happened to want to distract herself at that moment, so she watched the live broadcast and saw how beautiful Zoe was today. That was when she realized why Nox liked Zoe so much.

A superficial man like him could only be conquered by a good-looking woman. However, she wondered what Nox would do if he found out that Zoe also had plastic surgery!

Then, she suddenly thought of Nox and Zoe's future child. When their child was born... For some reason, she believed there would be a 'pass the popcorn moment' when the time came! Just thinking about it made her excited.

At the scene of the wedding, Nox handed the bouquet in his hand to Zoe and asked, "Zoe, are you ready?"

At that moment, Nox gave people the impression that he was very serious, cautious, responsible, and manly. It made people feel that his feelings for Zoe were very deep.

Zoe smiled and took the bouquet from Nox. "I am."

The audience applauded, and the comment section on the live broadcast was also exploding with comments blessing the newly-wed couple.

As Nox looked deeply into Zoe's eyes, Zoe lowered her head shyly. It was a beautiful scene. Coupled with the professional videographer's great angle, the scene of the two of them kissing looked warm, romantic, and picturesque.

The applause continued, and the comments were also filled with blessings.

Shelly looked at it for a while and felt bored again. If Nox were not so popular today, and if Bella's surgery was not today, she would not be watching Nox's wedding.

Watching him kissing Zoe... She thought about what happened last night. As expected, Nox and Zoe were not good people.

Nox only let go of Zoe after a long time. From the bottom of his heart, he was content and happy, especially with everyone's blessings.

Last night, what he did to Shelly... He felt inexplicably angry about it. What Shelly said about him regretting the idea of marrying Zoe kept him up for most of the night. Even he was a little convinced by what she said.

Fortunately, it was all but an illusion. Looking at the beautiful Zoe who had a blushing smile on her face, he was filled with happiness. He then bent down and picked Zoe up. The long tail of the wedding dress looked beautiful as it fell on the ground.

When Nox left the backyard with Zoe in his arms, everyone in the room followed him out. Nox carried Zoe and got into the wedding car while the other relatives and friends of the Sullivans all got into other cars under the arrangement of the staff. After that, the car drove toward the wedding venue.

Nox, who had returned to the car, was a little tired.

Zoe looked at him and could not help but ask, "Did you get back very late last night?"

"Yes." Nox replied, "I should have listened to you and shouldn't have let myself go completely. When I woke up today, I was dead tired, but fortunately, when I thought of picking you up, I was instantly happy.."

Chapter 1602: Grand Wedding, Zoe Gets Humiliated

Zoe was amused by Nox's words. In fact, she had let herself go too much last night that she, too, was in low spirits now. However, she could not show how badly she wanted to find a bed and sleep on it.

After the car arrived at the wedding venue, Nox and Zoe went to change into their wedding suit and gown. At 12:00 p.m., the wedding banquet officially began.

The huge and beautiful wedding hall had been exposed by the on-site photographers before the wedding. At that moment, the light blue and pinkish purple romantic-looking hall was beautiful and breathtaking. It was not the most unique wedding, but considering how much money was put into that wedding, its decoration was simply incomparable.

Following the host's introduction, Nox appeared in the middle of the stage in a white suit. In front of him was a long red carpet with flower petals. At the end of the red carpet, there was a beautiful small muslin-covered palace, where Zoe was standing inside, ready to walk toward him.

"Nox is quite handsome when he's serious." Monica was sitting in the audience seats and looking at Nox's appearance while conversing with Jeanne.

Jeanne nodded. "He's indeed quite handsome. He looks really different from the

Nox I remember.'

"Look at the smile on this guy's face. He's really blessed. Although I wasn't there to pick up the bride with him, after watching the live broadcast, I have to admit that Nox really loves Zoe."

"Nox wouldn't treat marriage as child's play. If he didn't like Zoe, he wouldn't marry her. In this aspect, Nox has his own sense of decency," Jeanne commented.

In fact, she had an overall good impression of Nox. Coupled with the fact that Nox had risked his life to save her, her impression of Nox had increased.

"Forget it, I won't worry about him anymore. I'd better give my blessings to this idiot." Monica took a deep breath and said.

She still seemed slightly upset about Shelly, but now, she had to put down her prejudice and sincerely wish him well. After all, only the couple involved would know their relationship the best. Seeing Nox, that idiot, smiling from ear to ear, she could not bear to question his feelings anymore.

After Nox's introduction, the host announced the bride's entrance. Then, the sound of the wedding march rang out throughout the entire process.

Zoe held Mr. Sullivan's arm and walked on the long carpet filled with petals. At the same time, rose petals were also scattered about in the air. The scene was so beautiful that it left everyone in awe, and everyone's eyes were on the couple.

Mr. Sullivan then handed Zoe's hand to Nox and patted Nox's shoulder solemnly. Nox nodded respectfully as if he was making a promise. Such a simple gesture touched the crowd, and some in the comments were praising Nox.

Nox held Zoe's hand and walked to the center of the stage, where the host said a lot of emotional stuff to prepare the atmosphere.

"Before the wedding, the most important person to the groom has a gift for him. I have to admit that I, too, haven't seen it as this gift was just delivered to me. Are the bride and groom looking forward to it?" The host tried to build up suspense.

He had not seen the contents of the gift, but he assumed it was a gift that could cause a stir in the audience, so he wanted to liven the atmosphere. "Who sent it?" Nox was anxious.

Just a moment ago, his expression was calm, but now, his true self was revealed again.

The host looked at the red USB in his hand and said, "It's an anonymous gift."

Nox was curious as he loved that kind of surprise the most.

"Can the groom figure out who sent it?"

Nox was very cooperative with the host and did not put on airs as the richest man in the country. He thought for a while before asking, "Edward?" The Edward he mentioned was naturally the Leader of Harken.

At that moment, the lights in the venue were going around, as if they were trying to locate Edward. In an instant, a spotlight stopped, and Edward suddenly appeared on the screen of the live broadcast.

The comment section on the live broadcast was about to explode. Looking at Edward's devastatingly beautiful face and him dressed elegantly in a suit, no matter how many times they saw the man, she would still be stunned by his looks..

Chapter 1603: Grand Wedding, Zoe Gets Humiliated

Edward shook his head at the stage, saying it was not him.

Nox's first thought was Edward because although that guy would not say it, his friendship with Nox ran deep, so it would be no surprise if he did prepare a wedding gift for Nox.

However, if not Edward, it would be...

"Finn?"

The light shone on Finn's face, and Finn also shook his head.

F*ck. He could not believe that his two best friends were so unconcerned about his marriage!

"Who else could it be?" Nox could not think of anyone else who would prepare a special gift for him!

Everyone was trying to guess who that person was as well. Seeing that the host was trying to build up suspense, the person probably was not just anyone.

"Could it be you?" Nox was suddenly a little excited again as he turned to look at Zoe with anticipation.

Zoe was stunned, but she quickly shook her head. "It wasn't me. Haven't I given you all my surprises?"

That one sentence made everyone burst into laughter as they thought that Zoe was implying something else. Embarrassed by the sudden laughter, Zoe's shy expression made her look extremely innocent.

Nox, who Zoe also amused, said, "That's true."

The answer made everyone laugh again. The interaction between the newlyweds was extremely sweet.

When Monica saw that, she thought that as long as Nox was happy, all was good. As for Shelly, they were just not fated to be together.

“Alright, stop keeping me in suspense. Just announce who prepared the surprise gift for me,” Nox quickly told the host as he could not wait any longer to find out.

Trying to be mysterious, the host said, “Why don't we take a look at this gift and guess who prepared it for you?”

Nox thought about it and nodded. He figured that once he saw the video, he would definitely be able to guess who it was. Therefore, he was rather excited about it.

After the host handed the USB flash drive to the staff, the huge high-definition projection screen suddenly lit up. Everyone looked at the screen seriously, curious about the mysterious gift.

A video file appeared on the screen. It was named “Farewell to Nox”.

Nox was also curious as to who would be so nice to him to prepare a surprise for him alone. He really thought about it again but still could not figure out who it was!

His eyes focused on the screen, and everyone looked on with anticipation. As the video played, a black background with white words appeared, stating the date and location.

The next scene showed a group of people partying in a room. The scene was extremely obscene. The entire screen was filled with mosaics because not much was appropriate to be watched normally. Other than the faces on the screen, everything else was covered up.

Among those faces, one was Zoe. However, Zoe in the video and the woman standing in the middle of the stage were two completely different people. The woman in the center of the stage was noble and pure, while the woman on the screen was so lewd.

That scene only lasted for half a minute before it changed to a black background with white words. The date and location were also written on it. When the next scene played, it was also filled with raunchy images everywhere, and... it was indescribable.

The crowd's anticipation turned into shock. No one had expected two people from such prominent families and of equal status would have such a huge scandal at their wedding.

The video kept playing, and because no one stopped it, those scenes were presented in front of the entire country. The wedding that had just been praised by countless people had suddenly become a huge joke!

After some time, the Sullivans came back to their senses. They quickly called for the staff and shouted at them frantically, "Turn it off! Turn it off right now!"

The scene started to get chaotic.

On the other hand, Zoe seemed to have lost half of her energy. She had never thought that the other side of her would suddenly be exposed to everyone and embarrass her to such an extent.

She was so shocked that she could not react..

Chapter 1604: Grand Wedding, Zoe Gets Humiliated

She looked at Nox with a pale face and saw that his eyes were red from trying to suppress his anger. It looked terrifying.

Zoe seemed to have suddenly realized something, and she quickly held Nox's hand. "It's not what you saw. I was framed. Someone must be jealous of us getting married, so they made so many synthesized videos to frame me. That's not me. I wouldn't have done these things. I wouldn't have..."

Nox sneered and suddenly felt like he had been hit in the head. It turned out that the perfect woman in his heart could actually be so promiscuous with so many men behind his back.

How was he so confident to say that Zoe was the purest woman in the world? Was it because she bled the first time they did it?

On second thought, he was even starting to suspect whether it was fake and if he was fooled by her.

"Nox, trust me." Zoe immediately panicked when she saw Nox's expression.

"Believe me, I'm not that kind of person. Someone framed me..."

Tears streamed down Zoe's face. Everything that was happening at that moment really frightened her, and she was at a loss as to what to do.

"Is that so?" Nox looked at Zoe.

Looking at her pitiful face, he said, "Among the people who came to our wedding today, some were in the video, right?"

Even with just a few casual glances, his ability to recognize people was terrifyingly accurate.

"Should we get them to come out and confront them?" Nox asked coldly.

Zoe's face turned even paler.

Indeed, many of the men in the video had come to attend her wedding. Most of the men she fooled around with were either rich or noble, so they were naturally qualified to attend her wedding.

"I'm really the most tragic man in the world. Not only did my wife cheat on me countless times behind my back, but she also invited those cuckolds to laugh at my wedding. I'm a joke," Nox muttered without getting angry.

According to Nox's temper, he should have lost his temper by now, but he seemed to be suppressing his emotions instead.

"No, that's not it... I-I was with them before but not when we got together. We-I" "Slap!" Nox slapped Zoe hard across the face.

The noisy crowd was suddenly stunned by Nox's actions. Everyone held their breath as they watched Nox slap Zoe to the ground.

Nox said, "Zoe, how stupid do you think I am to be played by you? Did you say it happened before we were together? But wasn't it clearly written on the screen just now when and where you did those things behind my back while we were together?"

"No, no..." Zoe, who was lying on the ground, refuted, "Those were made-up. It wasn't the actual time the video was taken—"

"That means you probably didn't notice the time stamp on the top right corner of the video."

Zoe was shocked. She really did not notice it, and neither should ordinary people. How did Nox notice it?

Nox said, "I think if I had been a little wary and suspicious of you, I wouldn't have been deceived so badly! I wouldn't have been exposed in front of the entire country that you've cheated on me for so long!"

Nox finally burst out with anger. In the end, he still could not take it. Angry voices resounded throughout the wedding venue, and anyone could see how badly affected Nox was.

No man would be able to accept such a thing, and Nox was no exception. Never in his dreams did he expect that he would one day be deceived so badly by a woman!

As he stared coldly at Zoe, Zoe's family quickly went to protect Zoe, probably afraid that Nox would really hurt Zoe if she lost control of his emotions.

Mr. Sullivan rushed forward to explain to Nox, "There must be a misunderstanding. Let's calm down and investigate the matter first. We—I' "Shut up!" Nox was extremely violent.

His eyes were red, but he did not say anything to Mr. Sullivan. Instead, he turned around and glared at the host, who was also dumbfounded.

Then, he roared, "Who the f*ck gave you this video?!"

Who the hell embarrassed him in front of the entire country? He wanted to kill the guy!

Chapter 1605: Nox Fainted At The Scene

In a luxurious wedding hall, the joke of a wedding continued.

"This gift is for you." Wade stood in front of Nox. He may be old and shorter

Nox yelled at the host. Who the f*ck gave him the "surprise"? Who the f*ck let the whole world know that he had been cuckolded?

Nox's aggressiveness scared the host so much that his face turned pale. He did not know that the so-called "surprise" would be like that. If he did, he would never have allowed the staff to play it. Now, he felt like Nox might strangle him to death in the next second.

He stuttered for a long time but could not complete a sentence.

Nox was so angry that he raised his voice again. "Who is it?!"

The host's eyes widened in shock. Just as he mustered up the courage to speak out, a deep voice of an old man suddenly sounded in the banquet hall. "It's me."

Nox turned around abruptly, and everyone's focus was on the person who spoke, Wade.

The old master did not show himself much today. Although Nox knew he was here, because he did not like to interact with others, he kept a low profile. However, what did he say now that he had walked out under everyone's watchful eyes?

Nox watched as his grandfather stand in front of him calmly.

"This gift is for you." Wade stood in front of Nox. He may be old and shorter than Nox, but as he stood in front of Nox, he exuded an imposing aura that made people subconsciously look at him.

The moment Nox saw his grandfather and heard him say that he was the one who gave him the gift, he was furious.

Nox clutched his chest which was about to explode and forced himself to calm down. Then, he asked calmly, "Grandfather, when did you find out?"

He was asking his grandfather when he found that Zoe had cheated on him.

"Early in the morning." Wade looked a little cold.

He did not feel guilty about how terrible Nox was feeling.

"Early this morning?" Nox asked.

"No, that morning you insisted on being with Zoe," Wade replied.

Nox felt that he might be angered to death by his grandfather, and he found it hard to calm down. "Why are you only telling me now?"

Why did his grandfather allow him to be cuckolded for three years and make him think that Zoe was the woman who treated him the best in the world? "Why should I tell you?" Wade asked.

That sentence made Nox even more infuriated.

He shouted, "I'm your grandson. How could you do nothing when your grandson, me, has been toyed with by a woman to this extent? How can you say that? Don't you feel bad for me?"

"I told you not to be with Zoe. Did you listen to me?" Wade asked.

Yes, at that time, he did not listen because he did not know what kind of woman Zoe was.

"Since you didn't listen to me, what was the use of telling you?" Wade asked calmly.

Nox really believed that he would die of anger.

"In that case, why are you telling me now? Why not let me marry Zoe and be cuckolded for the rest of my life?" Nox shouted in despair.

Why was his grandfather telling him all that now? Since he did not care about him, why was he so kind as to tell him all that? He deserved to be deceived for the rest of his life!

"It's not for your own good." Wade faced Nox's aggression calmly.

Nox glared at Wade.

"I just want to get back at you for resisting me back then," Wade said matter-of-factly.

It was as if he had done something normal and did not embarrass his grandson in any way. In fact, it was as if he could not see how angry his grandson was.

Nox looked at his grandfather in anger and listened to his grandfather speak in such a dignified manner, like he did not care about anything at all.

In this life, he could never win against his grandfather, not even once.

It was not easy for him to think that he had the power to decide on his relationship and marriage. He had finally made the decision for his life and walked the path he had chosen..

Chapter 1606: Nox Fainted At The Scene

e in the room, including Edward, Jeanne, Finn, and Monica.

At that moment, Nox thought that he should stay fainted as he did not want to see anyone for even a second. They should just let him die!

“What's wrong? Are you still feeling unwell? The doctor said you have a slight concussion and there's a huge bump on the back of your head. Where does it hurt? I'll call the doctor to take a look at you immediately,” Mrs. Winter asked anxiously.

“I want to die,” Nox said bluntly.

Mrs. Winter pursed her lips. She, too, did not know what to say about his son's wedding.

She had been looking forward to her son's wedding with Zoe as she had thought that Zoe was the best daughter-in-law the Winters could have. She was even glad that she did not stop Nox's marriage because of Shelly. However, she was utterly humiliated at the wedding hall today.

She, too, was furious. When she thought about how Zoe had deceived them, she really wanted to slap Zoe. At that moment, she was so angry that she almost fainted. Fortunately, she managed to calm herself down, but she did not expect Nox to faint from anger instead.

If it were anyone else, they probably would not be able to accept that fact either, and she could not help but feel sorry for what happened to her son. Upon hearing Nox's words now, she felt bad but did not know how to comfort "Even if you die, you'll still be cuckolded. It doesn't mean everything will go back to normal after you die," Monica suddenly said.

She just had to make sure she pissed Nox off, huh?

As Nox expected, they would see him as a joke, and it was not just them. The entire country was laughing at him, and his life was a joke.

"It's not your fault that you were cheated on. What's the use of you wanting to die? Zoe isn't dead, so why take it so hard?" Monica spoke again.

Nox opened his eyes again after closing his eyes for a while. When he opened them again, the world was not spinning as fast as before.

He shouted at Monica, "Try cheating on Finn and see if he feels like dying!"

Finn's face immediately darkened. He knew that nothing good ever came out of Finn's mouth, and he should not have any sympathy for him.

"Alright. All of you, get out. I want to be alone," Nox said impatiently to them.

At that moment, he was a wreck, and he did not want to see anyone, now or in the future. He would hide himself in the room and never go out again!

Mrs. Winter still felt a little sorry for him. "Nox, don't be too upset. It's not your fault anyway. Don't be too hard on yourself. We've already broken off the engagement with the Sullivans. They'll compensate us for all the losses caused by the wedding--"

"Don't mention the Sullivans or Zoe in front of me. I don't want to see that woman for the rest of my life, and I don't want to hear anything about her," Nox said with a broken heart.

Never in his life did he want to see her again. From now on, that woman would no longer exist in his life..

Chapter 1607: Nox Fainted At The Scene

"Yes, yes, yes. I won't say anymore. What I mean is, don't be too sad about it. You need to have a good rest. The doctor said that the bump on your head can have serious consequences. You should take good care of yourself," Mrs. Winter comforted him softly.

"I know. You can leave now. All of you, go," Nox urged.

However, were they really going to let him fend for himself?

Mrs. Winter was a little hesitant, so she turned around and glanced at Mr. Winter, who was also very angry today. He had never thought that the good daughter-in-law they had would be such a despicable woman behind their backs!

At that moment, he had finally calmed down, and after receiving Mrs. Winter's gaze, he also could not make a decision for a long time. He was really afraid that Nox would take things too hard. After all, Nox had never fainted from anger before.

Ever since Nox was young, he had always thought that Nox was heartless, but this time, Nox was dealt a hard blow. It was inevitable that he would be a little worried.

"Let's go," Edward suddenly said.

He quickly made a decision and decided to respect Nox's wishes.

In fact, it was understandable why Nox wanted to be alone at that moment. After all, it was such a humiliating matter, and he did not want to lose his dignity.

Mr. Winter looked at Edward.

"Give Nox some privacy so that he can relax." Edward said, "Don't worry. No matter how hard he tries, he won't commit suicide."

Nox cursed in his heart, 'F*ck. Edward, what right do you have to say that I won't commit suicide? Every second

"Alright, let's give Nox some space." Mr. Winter agreed.

With that, everyone left the ward, leaving Nox alone.

Nox watched as that group of heartless people left just like that. Although he meant it when he said he wanted to be alone, he was very unhappy to have been abandoned.

He had already suffered the biggest blow of his life. How could they really leave so freely? Was he important to them at all?

Nox felt that living in this world was a huge tragedy! He should just die!

Everyone left the hospital after they left the ward.

When they were at the entrance of the hospital, Jeanne was still a little worried. She asked Edward, "Are you sure we don't have to care about him?"

"No need." Edward said, "The more we care about him, the more he'll think that this is a huge matter, the more he won't be able to walk out of it. Let it sink into him slowly."

"Let's go." Edward hugged Jeanne's body.

Under the protection of the guards in black suits, she got into the car intimately with him at the entrance.

At the same time, Finn and Monica walked to the parking lot and left, while Mr. and Mrs. Winter left the hospital in the Winters' private car.

On the way back, Monica suddenly sighed. "Finn, how much fun do you think Nox has brought to the people of Harken?"

Finn's eyes flickered as he drove seriously.

He had known earlier that there was something wrong with Zoe. However, he did not expect the problem to be so big. If it was really that big, he should have told Nox earlier. Then, Nox would not have been tricked by his grandfather!

Not to mention Nox, even if he encountered such a thing, he would probably faint at the scene. It was such a difficult thing to do to anybody, and Nox really respected Grandpa Winter for it!

"Speaking of which, Nox must have been hurt badly this time," Monica said faintly.

At the thought of Nox, she suddenly pitied him. She also thought about how the moment he looked forward to the most in his life had become the thing that would haunt him the most for the rest of his life. If it were anyone else, they might not be able to get over it for the rest of their lives!

As for whether Nox could get over it... she could only say that it was up to fate.

"Actually, it's not that bad," Finn suddenly said.

"What do you mean?" Monica asked him.

"About Nox being cheated on," Finn replied.

"Finn, are you Nox's best friend? Your best friend has been cuckolded, and he has nothing to live for anymore! How can you say it's okay? Even I feel angry for Nox!" Monica was a little agitated.

Finn glanced at Monica through the rearview mirror and said, "What I mean is that time can heal wounds, and he'll get over it soon."

"No, he won't get over it soon!" Monica refuted firmly, "Nox won't be able to get over the fact that Zoe cheated on him!"

Chapter 1608: Nox Fainted At The Scene

"I can get over it," Finn suddenly said.

Monica was stunned as she suddenly could not hear what Finn was saying.

Finn pursed his lips and held back from saying what he wanted to say. However, Monica could clearly see that Finn wished to say something but hesitated. What was that guy hiding from her? Monica frowned. "Finn, what are you trying to say?"

"It's nothing."

"Finn, you clearly have something to say!" Monica complained.

Finn's throat moved slightly. "No."

"Do you still have the habit of hiding things from me? Do you still think that there are many things you don't need to let me know?" Monica mocked.

She felt a little upset. She thought that since she had reconciled with Finn, the two of them would put their past behind them and start over, or had she expected too much from Finn?

Upon noticing the change in Monica's mood, Finn explained, "Monica, I'm not trying to hide anything from you, but I've really let go of this matter." "It's okay. If you don't want to say it, forget it." Monica even smiled.

She seemed to have become that woman who kept quiet again, and Finn started to panic.

He did not say anything to her not because he wanted to hide things from her, but because he believed that since the matter was over, he would not hold it against her. However, he did not expect her to misunderstand him again.

He took a deep breath and said, "When we broke up, didn't you often have sex with other men?"

Monica was shocked by Finn's sudden words. At the same time, she was dumbfounded as to what he was saying. Who did she have sex with?

"What I mean is, although my situation is different from Nox's, and you only did it after we broke up, because we were still in love back then, the feelings that were hurt were the same. However, it's been so many years, and I've never really taken it to heart. Don't think too much about it. I'm not that narrowminded," Finn explained as he spoke, afraid that Monica would misunderstand him.

Monica looked straight at Finn, and in the end, she finally figured it out. Back then, in order to successfully leave Michael and re-develop Cardellini Pharmaceutical, she deliberately created a lot of negative news about herself and bumped into Finn a few times when she was entertaining guests. She could not believe he was still brooding over it after so many years!

"Do you mind?" Monica asked with a very certain tone.

"I don't."

"If you don't, why do you still remember it?" Monica asked.

"It just crossed my mind when I thought about Nox. Nox will recover after some time."

"If you really don't mind, you wouldn't have thought of it." Monica looked certain.

Finn did not know how to retort, and he looked a little helpless. "I didn't want to say it, but you were the one who made me say it. And now that I've told you, you don't believe me."

Monica was speechless. Hence, no matter what, it was still her fault.

She looked at Finn as if she had something to say but suddenly changed her mind. Maybe she should not tell him the truth and let him stay disgusted for the rest of his life.

Silence filled the car. Amidst the silence, Finn said faintly, "Am I really that bad?"

Monica was stunned. She did not know what was wrong with the guy.

"In bed.

She surely could not compliment him on that.

"Compared to those people, am I horrible?" Finn asked.

She could not hear his tone, but in any case, by those people, did he mean the people she had 'slept with' before? Monica could not help but laugh.

Finn saw Monica laughing through the rearview mirror and thought she was mocking him. He felt that being cheated on would hurt the same as being told that he was not good in bed.

Finn's grip on the steering wheel tightened.

"How do you know you're not good?" Monica was suddenly very curious. She was a little angry just a moment ago, and now, she somehow felt better.

Finn, however, did not answer.

"I thought men wouldn't notice it themselves," Monica said faintly.

Finn's face darkened. Indeed, he did not realize it himself. He thought... Forget it. Finn told himself that a real gentleman would not fuss over it with a pregnant woman.

He said, "I overheard your conversation with Jeanne the last time.."

Chapter 1609: Nox Fainted At The Scene

Monica paused for a second and asked, "In Bamboo Garden?"

Finn nodded, causing Monica to be a little embarrassed.

"You said, if I were a little better in bed, you wouldn't have broken up with me," Finn said.

Monica's words back then had hurt him a lot, and there was no way he could conceal it.

"I was just saying." Monica suddenly smiled.

She did not expect Finn to hear what she said and understand what she meant. In that case, there was no need for her to hint at him later.

"I was just listening," Finn replied nonchalantly, trying to make himself feel less embarrassed!

"How could you?" Monica was a little excited.

Finn pursed his lips. Could Monica not give him a way out?

"You have to improve, do you understand? As a married couple, we need a little bit of fun! Pleasure has to be given both ways. You can't be so selfish!" Monica complained.

Finn was extremely embarrassed. If nothing were discussed today, he would just do his homework quietly. However, now that it was out in the open, his ego was bruised, and most importantly, Monica was pressuring him to 'improve'.

"Forget it." Seeing that Finn's face was red, Monica sighed. "Anyway, it's useless to talk about this while I'm pregnant. Let's talk about it after I unload the goods."

Finn was speechless. He wondered, just how many men had she slept with to have such a rich experience?

He was not angry at first, and he also told himself that he would not fuss over it. After all, only their feelings for each other mattered the most. Yet, at that moment, he was still brooding over Monica's words.

In the quiet car, Monica was in a good mood. It was a stark contrast to Finn's dark expression.

"Let me tell you something," Monica said, her voice filled with joy.

"I don't want to know," Finn said.

He did not want to know how much better other men were when she was with them.

"Are you sure you don't want to know?" Monica raised her eyebrows.

Finn refused to give in.

"If you really don't want to know, I won't say anything."

Seeing Finn remain silent, Monica believed that she would be angered to death by Finn one day. Anywvay, if the two of them quarreled, Finn could definitely not speak all day, but she could not take it.

"I insist on saying it." Monica's tone was firm.

She had a look that said she would do whatever she was not allowed to do.

Finn's grip on the steering wheel tightened.

"Between me and many other men..."

"Monica, do you think you can do whatever you want just because I like you?" Finn suddenly shouted at her angrily.

Monica stared at Finn with wide eyes.

"Damn it, I have a temper too. If you continue talking about you and other men, believe it or not, but I..." At that moment, Finn was so angry that he could not even speak.

"You what?"

"I'll jump off a building, and your children will be born without a father! "

She thought he was going to beat her to death.

"Damn it." Finn suddenly cursed again.

After so many years, it was really rare to hear those words coming out of Finn's mouth.

Then, he suddenly pulled the car to the side. He looked extremely angry, but he was very gentle when he parked the car.

After making sure that it was safe, he unbuckled his seatbelt, opened the door of the backseat, and sat in.

Monica looked at Finn in shock. Was that guy not going to jump off a building? Was he going to strangle her now?

She said, "Didn't you say you didn't mind? You clearly mind very much now..."

"Even if I don't mind, you should stop testing my limits! You keep going on and on about it... I'm a f*cking man too, you know?" Finn was so angry that he was about to explode.

He finally knew why Nox fainted at the scene because he, too, was about to faint from anger.

At that moment, he hugged Monica, placed his cheek close to hers, and kissed her hard on the lips.

'Let's see how you think about other men now!' he thought.

Finn's kiss was a little rough, but it did not seem to hurt her at all. In fact, it seemed to be directed at himself, like it was some sort of self-destruction.

They kissed for a long time, and Finn looked much calmer. He let go of Monica and said seriously to her, "Monica, don't hate me. I'll change."

What he meant was he hoped she would not mind his poor performance in bed and that he would change for the better..

Misunderstanding, Shelly Laughing Like a Goose

Suddenly, in the car stopped by the roadside, Finn enunciated each word to Monica. "Don't hate me. I'll change."

Monica looked at Finn's anxious expression.

In the past, he had always been unwilling to voice his thoughts, but now, he would tell her anything, for fear of losing her.

Monica was touched. She did not know if it was because of her pregnancy, but she had become much more emotionally sensitive, and Finn's words made her heart skip a beat.

She said, "Alright, change."

Finn was still slightly hurt. In Monica's heart, how bad was he in bed?

Nevertheless, Finn took a deep breath and calmly accepted everything.

Just as he got up and was about to leave and return to the driver's seat, Monica suddenly said, "Finn, other than you, I've never slept with any other man."

Finn was about to open the car door when he heard Monica's voice, and it took him a moment to react.

What did Monica just say?

He turned back to look at her. He was not confident that he was the only man Monica had slept with!

"What you encountered before was just a facade. In the beginning, in order to break up with Michael, I created a bad image of myself. I knew my indecent behavior would affect Michael's future, so I chose that extreme method."

Monica explained, "Later on when the Cardellini Enterprise was facing a crisis, I had no choice but to say that I was prepared to sell my body in exchange for the company. However, it didn't succeed because even if I used my body, no one was willing to help me at that time."

As Monica recalled the past, she got a little emotional.

There was a point in time when life was just too hard. Now that she thought about it, she could not see to figure out how she had survived to have not gone crazy.

“Fortunately, Fourth Master Swan helped me when I was going through a difficult time.” Monica was gratified. Even when the whole country was not optimistic about her and thought she would be defeated, Nox brought Fourth Master Swan's financing to revive Cardellini Enterprise.

Finn listened in silence. He, too, was upset that he did not return to Monica's side when she needed him the most.

Back then, because he had completely given up on her and their relationship, he deliberately turn a blind eye to Monica's pain. Now that he thought about it, he regretted what he had done back then.

“1 billion!” Monica was suddenly a little excited. “He gave me 1 billion to play with! To be honest, if I didn't know that Fourth Master Swan was helping me because of Jeanne and that he loved Jeanne, I would have thought that Fourth Master Swan had a crush on me. Perhaps, I would have fallen in love with him too—”

“Did you say Fourth Master Swan gave you 1 billion?” Finn's face twitched. Monica looked at him. “Are you also surprised by how well Fourth Master Swan treated me?”

Finn pursed his lips. At that moment, he finally understood why Monica was so disappointed in him. It was because Monica never knew what he had done for her.

For the first time, he really hated himself. If he had told her more about what he had done, Monica would not have been so desperate.

He cleared his throat and looked at Monica seriously, “If I said that the 1 billion was mine, would you be less disappointed in me?”

Monica was stunned. She thought she had heard wrong.

"I told Nox to give you the 1 billion." Finn repeated, "I didn't want you to know that I was helping you, so I told Nox not to tell you. I didn't expect that it would be a misunderstanding. I thought you would be able to figure out..."

"So you're saying I'm stupid?" Monica came to her senses and could not hide the anger on her face.

"No, I just-"

"Finn, you were so cold-blooded to me at that time. How did you think I would have guessed that you were the one who gave me the 1 billion? More importantly, where did you get so much money? Aren't you poor?" Monica asked curiously.

"Actually, I'm not poor," Finn said, "because I sold a lot of patents by being in a lot of medical research and development. On top of that, Fourth Master Swan would send a huge sum of money to my account every month. There was a period of time when I was bored and studied the market economy. Then, I bought a lot of real estate, opened a lot of hotel chains, and so on. Anyway, I invested quite a lot of my money, and unknowingly, the money in my account kept increasing. Even I don't know what to do with it.."
