

Chaplain 111

Chapter 111 You Can Run But You Can't Hide

'Bakk—'

William Davis suddenly felt alive! He slammed the table as he gritted his teeth! "We've been tricked!"

It had to be noted that the word 'master' was only used by an apprentice toward his teacher!

But 'mister' meant something entirely different!

It was an address that these socialites would use to refer to the peasants in order to show how friendly and down-to-earth they were.

Just like how you would address an electrician, a janitor, or a mechanic!

William Davis, who finally realized what had happened, stood up in a rage, "After hearing what you said, everything is clear now!"

"If that idiot Oliver Walker was really the master of Hendric smith, why didn't he save that little sh*t on his own?"

At this point, there was an answer to all his questions!

The clearer he understood the situation, the angrier he felt!

Especially for Jessica Wright Davis who spoke in a devilish tone, "That b*tch! She even got us kneeling. Not only that, but she even took away the 'Kiss of Judas' from us and even embarrassed us!"

"Damn it! She has to pay for it!"

"Big brother! We can't let them get away with it!"

She had never thought of how Emilia had actually tried to stop them from kneeling.

It was William Davis who was too frightened at the scene. Out of fear, he was the one who got on his knees and begged for mercy.

However, the Davis siblings humiliated themselves and got their pride stomped on. How could they allow this to happen?

"All of you, come with me!"

William Davis screamed as he rushed out of the room, "I will cripple them by the end of the day!"

"I want those dogs to lose the ability to stand for the rest of their lives whenever they see me!"

"I want them to always be on their knees!"

How could he still remain calm?!

After getting hit by Oliver Walker yesterday, he could still feel the pain in his chest.

Then, Leon Williams hit him again. He even apologized to Emilia and gave away the 'Kiss of Judas' that was worth millions!

If he didn't redeem himself, how would he still be able to show his face in public?

The rest of his men were confused!

What on earth was happening?!

Their young master has just apologized on his knees, but now, he was a completely different person?

But, it was good news that they had the chance to get revenge. Otherwise, how else would they endure such humiliation?

Following that, hundreds of people rushed into the waiting room!

'Boom—'

William Davis, who was incredibly pissed, kicked the door open as he screamed, "Emilia! You're dead!"

When he opened the door, there was no one left inside the waiting room!

The only person inside was a nurse whose face turned pale as she trembled in fear.

After looking around the room, William Davis, who was furious, screamed at the nurse, "Where is Emilia?"

"Along with that useless bastard and that wild child?!"

If he didn't get his revenge today, he would not be able to live peacefully!

He was so badly humiliated!

Every time he thought about it, he felt infuriated!

"They.....they have been discharged!"

The nurse, who was feeling frightened, almost cried as she said, "Mr....Mr. Davis, this is not my...fault!"

She was only doing her job.

If she got hit by William Davis who was furious, she would not be able to get compensated for it.

'Whooshhh—'

"Ahhhhh!!!"

As expected, William Davis, who was feeling mad, picked up the kettle inside the room and threw it on the ground.

The water from inside spilled all over the nurse's uniform.

Fortunately, the temperature of the water wasn't too hot. Otherwise, the nurse's face would have been deformed!

"Huhuhuhu..."

Even so, the nurse was badly frightened. She sat on the ground and started crying!

What else could she do?

She had no other choice!

Being so helpless and small caused her to feel hopeless!

"Emilia, you will not be able to get away with this!

"You can run, but you can't hide!"

William Davis clenched his fist, and his chest moved up and down drastically. He gritted his teeth as he said, "Come with me!"

Chapter 112 A New House?

"Even if it's too late now, I will still be able to collect a painful price for what they have done!"

"How dare they lie to me?!"

"Damn it!"

He was feeling furious!

Who did Emilia take herself as?

She was merely a loser!

A young miss who had been kicked out of the family!

Oliver Walker? Who was he?

He was only a useless bastard!

He was the young master of Davis! How dare they trick him?!

"Let's go!"

"How dare they bully our young master? Their days are over!"

"We ought to teach them a lesson!"

"..."

The rest of the bodyguards were furious as well as their faces were flushing red.

However, just when William Davis was about to leave the hospital with hundreds of bodyguards...

Jessica Wright Davis quickly stopped him and said, "Big Brother! Don't act impulsively!"

After thinking about it carefully, they really couldn't afford to act irrationally.

However, William Davis didn't even give her the chance to explain. He screamed at his sister, "How can I not be impulsive now?!"

"Not only am I going to be irrational, but I am also pissed!"

"I want those dogs to kneel before me and apologize!"

He couldn't stand it anymore!

It was something that infuriated him!

If only he didn't want revenge, he would have dug a hole like a rat and hidden his face in it after thinking about how embarrassed he was.

"Just listen to me!"

Jessica Wright Davis spoke anxiously, "They would not be able to run from us! Just wait for another two days! At least until Hendric Smith leaves Colorado! It wouldn't be too late to get revenge then!"

"Think about it! They might not be related to Hendric Smith.

"But, Hendric Smith has just cured Olivia Walker, and we are now going to look for trouble with them?"

"Once the news got out, Hendric Smith might think that we are going against him!"

After the explanation, William Davis finally calmed down!

He became quiet for 3 minutes before saying, "Then, we shall wait for 2 more days!"

In fact, his sister was right. They didn't have to be in a rush to get revenge.

Even if Oliver Walker was the Monkey King, he would not be able to escape from Wuzhi Mountain!

...

When Oliver Walker and his family returned to the rented house, the sky was already pitch black.

As for Olivia, she was still asleep. From the looks of it, she might only wake up tomorrow morning.

However, it would be best for her to remain asleep. She could at least forget all of the problems that she had while being deep asleep.

"Emilia! Let's buy a new house!"

Oliver Walker looked at the old building. The corners of the wall had molds on them as they were drenched and wet for a long time from the rain.

He felt heartbroken as he frowned, "After all, we can't allow Olivia and mother to continue staying here, right?"

This region was an old district, and there might be a possibility that the building would collapse at any time!

But, this might be the best that they could afford. With his wife's current financial status, how would it be possible for them to stay somewhere nicer?

"Buy a house?"

Emilia felt angry as she said, "With what?"

"We can't just buy a house just because you want to."

She just felt that it was ridiculous!

Although the house in Colorado wasn't too expensive, it was still a huge sum for her family.

A simple house in a middle-class district would cost an amount of 8 thousand per square foot. The smallest house of 60 square feet with 2 rooms would cost at least 600 thousand.

The down payment for it would at least be 200 thousand!

Where would they get the money?

Wouldn't she want to raise Olivia in a better environment and in a better condition?

Their financial status wouldn't allow them to do so!

Although she wasn't a gold digger, she still learned the rules of the world after sleeping on the streets for years.

Money might not be omnipotent!

But, without money, they would be nothing!

Chapter 113 Getting Chased Out Of The House

Oliver Walker quickly answered, "We have money! Look! The money that they returned from Olivia's treatment....."

Emilia glared at him coldly and answered, "These aren't ours. We still have to return it to them. There are 10 thousand here that belong to George Johnson.

"The rest of it belongs to Leon Williams."

From her perspective, these did not belong to her, so how could she use them?

However, what she didn't know was that Oliver Walker had already returned the money to Leon Williams. Other than the 10 thousand that belonged to George Johnson, they didn't owe anyone else anything.

Oliver Walker frowned, "But..."

Emilia quickly interrupted him in a cold tone, "No more discussions about this!

"If you are still a man, get a job and work hard so that you can pay off Olivia's medical bill with me!

"Then, we can talk about buying a house!

"Give me the card!"

Although she was mad, Oliver Walker was only doing it for their family.

This was why she didn't say much and didn't take Oliver's words seriously.

"Alright!"

Oliver Walker wanted to explain himself, but he stopped. In fact, he didn't owe Leon Williams anything. Even if Emilia went to return the money, Leon Williams wouldn't accept it anyways.

Then, they could talk about buying a new house. It wasn't something that had to be done right away.

He had to give his wife the chance to slowly adapt to his existence.

'Kuang—'

Suddenly, the door opened!

Mary Grimm, who was wearing her orange-colored uniform, saw Oliver Walker who was sitting in the living room. She was already in a bad mood, and now, she was about to lose her mind, "Emilia! Why did you bring him home?!"

"Do you want to be hurt by him once again?"

In fact, she had just met with her husband, Essex Davis, on the street earlier.

Her husband was not working hard to earn more money. Instead, he was messing around with his friends and getting drunk!

He had just walked past her and even looked at her, but he chose to ignore her.

She...had been hurt by this man!

The things that Oliver Walker had done also brought the same heartache.

Therefore, when she saw Oliver Walker sitting in her living room, why wouldn't she be mad?

She felt as if the sky was about to fall!

"Mother!"

Oliver Walker quickly greeted Mary Grimm. No matter how this woman had screamed at him, she was still his life savior!

She was also one of the few people who supported him and Emilia.

The kindness that his mother-in-law had shown him was deeply buried in his memories. His love for Mary Grimm was more than the one that he had for his biological mother.

Things had only turned out this way because of the misunderstandings between them.

But, it wasn't something that he couldn't explain!

"Shut up!"

Mary Gimm screamed, "You traitor! Get out! I don't want to see you here!"

Oliver Walker frowned as he wanted to say something but soon shut his mouth after seeing the look on his wife's face.

His appearance was indeed too sudden for his mother-in-law.

His mother-in-law didn't have the time to accept this. If he tried to forcefully explain himself now, it would only make her even more furious.

Therefore, his wife was right when she told him to leave.

They should be thinking about how to calm her down instead of trying to explain themselves.

'Boom—'

Mary Grimm, who was filled with rage, picked up the broom and started hitting Oliver as she said, "Get out!"

Emilia quickly rushed forward and said anxiously, "Mother, please calm down!"

She understood why her mother was furious, so she couldn't say anything!

"I will be able to calm down as soon as he disappears!"

Mary Grimm's chest started moving up and down vigorously. The visible white hair on her head caused him to feel heartbroken!

Her eyes that were filled with rage looked as if there was going to be fire coming out of them!

She could not be in the same space as Oliver Walker!

"Please calm down! I will leave right now!"

Chapter 114 You're Too Kind

In order to prevent causing any more problems, he quickly left after talking to his mother-in-law and waited by the stairs.

He believed that his wife would explain everything.

Although he had just saved his daughter, it was something that he should have done. His mother-in-law was only angry at him for being irresponsible toward the family.

If his mother-in-law knew what had happened, would she still be so angry at him?

Plus, his mother-in-law was an educated woman raised in a wealthy family. She was only throwing such a huge tantrum because she was forced to.

Mary Grimm had lived a miserable life. She had been betrayed by her husband multiple times, and when she thought she found a good son-in-law, he went missing for 8 years. Why wouldn't she be mad?

"Emilia!"

The corner of her lips twitched as she said in pain, "Why.....do you have to torture yourself?"

"Aren't I a good enough example for you?"

Essex Davis was a name that she never wanted to say, but those who knew would know that this man was a bastard.

She didn't want her daughter to live a miserable life as well.

She was already an old woman, but her daughter was still young!

Any random person on the street would be better than this irresponsible bastard!

"Mum!"

Emilia frowned, "He isn't the same as dad!"

In fact, there was quite a huge difference between Oliver Walker and Essex Davis.

Back then, he had asked for her opinion before joining the army. Later on, the army moved to an area where they had no signal.

Losing the connection with her husband who was in the army was something normal.

As she calmed down, she felt that the attitude that she had toward Oliver Walker was all because of her own emotions.

It wasn't Oliver Walker's fault, but she blamed it all on him.

This man had not rebutted anything. Instead, he had been apologizing since the beginning and had been trying his best to help them.

If she didn't forgive him now, wouldn't she be unreasonable?

"How could they be different?"

"How are they different?!"

"All these years, even if he didn't think of his mother-in-law, how could he abandon you and Olivia?!"

Mary Grimm had tears in her eyes as she continued saying, "You can't be tricked by him just because of the good act that he had put up for these three days!"

"I would rather you marry an idiot like George Johnson instead of regretting and paying the price for making a stupid decision for the rest of your life!"

She cried!

She felt helpless!

She felt hopeless about their current situation.

As she grew old, she had no one to depend on. She still had to wake up early before the sun rose so that she could feed the family.

"Mum!"

Emilia frowned as she said, "You may not know this yet, but Olivia has recovered!"

As she said this, Mary Grimm instantly turned quiet, and her eyes were filled with disbelief!

Recovered?

Olivia had leukemia!

Didn't they say that they couldn't find a suitable donor?

How did she recover from it?

There was a suspicious look in her exhausted eyes as she said, "You're too kind. How could you believe them?"

"Have you forgotten how Essex Davis also said the same thing last year about how Olivia has recovered?"

She shouldn't believe them!

Absolutely not!

Emilia continued explaining, "He.....he found the godly doctor, and I read the information about Hendric Smith.

"It can't be false information since he is the top 2 among the godly doctors in the country. There are only 10 of them in this country with such honor.

"Why would they lie to me?"

Previously, she would not have faith in traditional Chinese medicine since she didn't know much about it.

It wouldn't be possible that this man was able to cure a condition that even modern medicine had trouble with within an hour, right?

Therefore, when Oliver Walker went to settle the medical bill, she went on the internet and searched for Hendric Smith. She was reading about him from the official website of the International Medical Center.

There was numerous news coverage about Hendric Smith. Most of them were also from trusted media. How could it be fake?!

Chapter 115 He Might Not Be A Soldier

Mary Grimm frowned. If Olivia had indeed recovered, it would greatly lessen the burden on the family.

She would be delighted as well.

They wouldn't be able to live luxuriously like they used to, but at least, they didn't have to suffer as they did.

This was why she hesitated!

Emilia begged softly, "Mum, please!

"Just give him one more chance. If you still feel like he's not worthy of it, we can then kick him out!"

This was their family after all.

She couldn't make these decisions on her own. If she were to allow Oliver Walker back home, she would first have to convince her mother who was heartbroken.

Her mother had been hurt badly when it came to her relationship. The wounds that her mother had were much deeper than hers. How could she convince her mother?

She didn't know!

But....she had to try!

"Impossible!"

Mary Grimm shook her head as she was getting emotional, "I will never give him another chance!

"Giving him another chance would be equivalent to granting him the privilege to hurt you again!

"With your conditions, why must you tie yourself to him?"

"He isn't someone trustworthy, and you shouldn't put the rest of your life in his hands!"

Why should she trust him?

Everything around was telling her that Oliver Walker was a liar!

She had been suspicious about how Oliver Walker might not have been a soldier for the past 8 years that he went missing!

This was because there were quite a few of them from their neighborhood who joined the army.

Why was it that these families would receive presents every year during the holidays?

Why was it that they never received anything?

It was obvious that she did not know that Oliver Walker's position in the army was extremely important.

During the war, they had to prevent the families of the important personnel in the army from being kidnapped by their enemies.

This was why when they became generals, their information would be made classified!

What more when Oliver Walker was the chaplain of the country?!

These procedures might seem heartless, but in fact, it was protection for the soldiers!

However, Mary Grimm's words broke Emilia's dreams!

Emilia was still trying to fight the feelings in her as she said, "But....but he brought the man who treated Olivia's condition!"

She was willing to trust Oliver Walker, but her mother was right as well!

If he was a soldier who fought on the front lines, why was it that her family never got compensated?

Before Oliver Walker went to join the army, they were already married!

"You're being too gullible!

"Just because he said that Olivia had recovered, did you really think that she has?

"Did you get her checked at the hospital?"

Mary Grimm's words once again caused Emilia to keep quiet.

There was no chance for her to say anything else.

It wasn't that she didn't want to believe Oliver Walker. It was just that there were still too many unanswered questions in this situation!

Mary Grimm felt even angrier as she continued. She grabbed the broom and said, "I will make sure he leaves this house now! He will never be allowed to take another step into this house!"

This was why they said that being tricked multiple times would make an idiot wise!

In fact, Mary Grimm and Emilia weren't stupid!

It was just that after being lied to multiple times, they refused to believe anyone else. There was a defense mechanism that was slowly built around their hearts.

Mary Grimm's words felt like a bolt of lightning that struck Emilia!

Could it be that all of these were extravagant dreams?

Could it be that she wasn't worthy of being treated with love and would always have to live in a world that was full of lies?

'Whoosh—'

Mary Grimm, who was filled with rage, pushed open the door and screamed, "Traitor, what are you still doing here?!"

She hit Oliver Walker with the broom as hard as she could.

Oliver Walker did not expect things to happen so suddenly. Without any time to react, he grabbed onto the broom subconsciously and said, "Mother..."

Mary Grimm might have used all of the energy that she had in her, but how could she be stronger than Oliver Walker?

This was why no matter how hard she tried, she couldn't hit Oliver Walker with the broom. She felt even angrier as she said, "You, traitor! You...."

She couldn't stand it anymore!

However, she wasn't strong enough and could only glare at the man in fury!

Emilia's beautiful eyes were filled with confusion. Could it be that for the past 3 days, Oliver Walker had only been putting on an act for her?

Could it be that for the past 8 years, he wasn't in the army?

But...she was the one who sent him off on the train!

Chapter 116 Enough With The Act!

Could it be that this man had run away from the army once he went to the front lines?

Her mind was a mess, and she couldn't think straight!

When he saw how his wife was looking at him suspiciously, Oliver Walker quickly let go of the broom and said, "Mother, I know that you have a lot of misunderstandings about me.

"I know that for the past 8 years that I went missing, you and Emilia have been badly hurt!

"If it would make you feel better, I will stand right here so that you can hit me!"

He....he was here to redeem himself!

How could he be mad?

His mother-in-law was the one who gave him a second chance in life!

What rights did he have to try and stop her?

He had indeed made lots of mistakes!

He would have to stand up straight if he was being punished!

So, he stood with his back straight like a soldier, and his eyes looked determined.

"You..."

Mary Grimm was a kind-hearted woman. No matter how badly she had been tortured in the past, she still wasn't cold-hearted enough to hit Oliver Walker.

It was incredibly difficult for her to explain the suffocating feeling inside her heart!

She screamed in rage, "Leave now!"

"Stop bringing us any more trouble!"

"Move! Stay as far as possible away from us!"

She was screaming at the top of her lungs. She was venting all of the anger that she had accumulated for the past 8 years!

However, Oliver Walker did not move an inch!

He would rather die by getting hit than leave this place!

This was his home!

The place that he had been dreaming of for the past 8 years!

"That's enough! Stop acting!"

Emilia took a deep breath as she calmed down, "I overestimated your morals and underestimated how monstrous you can be!"

Such harsh words were like a huge bomb that blew inside Oliver Walker's heart!

Why would his wife say such things?

He had just...

"Did you hear that?"

"This family doesn't welcome you! Leave right now! I don't want to dirty my hands or my eyes!"

Mary Grimm held onto the broom as her body trembled!

She wanted to kill this man standing right in front of him but...

She was too soft-hearted to actually hit him!

"Emilia!"

Oliver Walker was utterly confused, "Why?!"

He could understand the coldness that came from his mother-in-law.

No matter how angry she was, Oliver could handle it!

But why was it that his wife who had just promised to give him a chance suddenly changed her mind?

It wasn't unacceptable for him because he hadn't gotten the acknowledgment after giving so much to the family.

It was merely because if his wife didn't choose to accept him, it meant that he would be forced to stay outside of this door forever.

Emilia's eyes were filled with tears as she said, "You should know why!"

"You shouldn't have lied to me! You shouldn't have used up all the trust that I had in you!"

Her mother was right! She understood it now!!

If Oliver Walker was indeed a wounded soldier who returned from the frontline, there would be a welcoming ceremony from the government of Colorado, right?

But, why didn't they see any of it?

Wasn't this enough to prove that there was something wrong here?

She hated being lied to!

She was afraid of getting betrayed again!

Instead of having to guess and live a life where she felt uneasy, she should just kick Oliver Walker out of the family. This way, she would never have any troubles!

This was a huge blow for Oliver Walker! It felt like the end of the world!

His entire body was trembling!

What did he see in Emilia's eyes?

Her determination!

As well as anger and distrust!

Everything was fine when they got home earlier. How did all of it change to this so suddenly?!

Chapter 117 He Is Very Important To Me!

"Did you hear that?!"

"This is the answer that you've been waiting for. Emilia will never forgive you!

"Just give up already!"

Mary Grimm gritted her teeth as she said, "Get lost!"

She really didn't want to see Oliver Walker ever again!

She didn't want to see how Emilia's future would be as miserable as hers!

This was why it would be impossible for her to forgive this man!

Impossible!

For someone who grew up in the abyss and had never seen light, it would be impossible for them to believe that there was light!

Oliver Walker's lips twitched. He wanted to explain himself, but in the end, he said, "Mother, Emilia...please take care.

"I will always be here if you need me!"

He knew that it wouldn't be easy for him to gain their trust!

But, no matter how tough it would be for him to get home, he would have to move forward!

However, the simple words that came out of Oliver Walker's mouth burned Emilia's heart.

Why didn't he say anything else?

Why didn't he explain himself?

It must be because he felt guilty, right?

How could she allow a runaway soldier to break Olivia's dreams?!

He even had the audacity to become a runaway soldier. Was there anything ridiculous that he wouldn't do?

As for Mary Grimm, she despised this man!

Seeing how Oliver Walker turned around, she only felt angry. She didn't even think that he was pitiful!

Plus, shouldn't they be the ones who were pitiful?

However, the disappointed Oliver Walker, hopeless Emilia, and enraged Mary Grimm did not notice that Olivia was awake.

She saw the entire thing happening before her eyes. When she heard that the father, whom she had been waiting for, was about to leave again, she could no longer control her emotions and quickly ran out of her room.

She cried as loud as she could, "Grandma! Mummy! Please! Don't send him away!"

"I don't want to be the wild child anymore!"

"I don't want to be known as the little sh*t!"

"I don't feel any pain anymore! Nothing!

"I feel much better now!

"Huhuhuhu...."

She cried at the top of her lungs as she begged.

Although she had no idea why her grandmother and mother hated her father, she felt that her father was the best father in the world! He was incredibly gentle!

However, she didn't dare call Oliver Walker her father because she was worried that her grandmother and mother would be angry at her!

Oliver Walker's body froze when she heard Olivia crying. He pulled back his leg that was about to walk down the stairs. As he turned around and saw his daughter crying, it felt like a knife had been pierced into his heart.

He wasn't going to leave.

He was hoping that his mother-in-law would calm down, and then, he would return.

But, he didn't think that his daughter would misunderstand that he was leaving once again!

"Olivia!"

Emilia and Mary Grimm screamed simultaneously!

When they saw Olivia Walker standing before them, they had a mix of emotions.

They felt delighted but worried at the same time!

They were also mad at Oliver Walker!

'Thud—'

Then, Olivia kneeled on the ground as she cried, "Grandma! Mummy!

"Please let him stay!

"He...is very important to me!

"Huhuhuhu..."

After being known as the wild child without a father for the past 8 years, she finally experienced the life of being a child with a father to protect her. She knew that she could never let this man leave.

Although she couldn't talk to her father because of her mother.....

She...

She didn't feel scared at all on her sick bed no matter how tormenting her condition was.

This was because her father, who was a hero, would definitely protect her!

Chapter 118 Second Chances

Mary Grimm was a soft-hearted woman. Otherwise, she wouldn't have chosen to forgive Isaac Davis after being lied to by Isaac Davis for several years!

Therefore, when she saw Olivia crying, her heart melted instantly!

"Olivia!"

Emilia hugged her daughter as she screamed, "Mum!"

She was in a dilemma!

For her, she really wanted this man to return home, but she was also afraid of being lied to once again.

However, it looked like her daughter already knew the truth. What was she supposed to do now?!

"Mother!"

At the same time, Oliver Walker with his teary eyes, walked forward as well, "I don't wish for you to forgive me now but....please give me another chance!

"At least, do it for Olivia! If I do anything wrong, you can kick me out at any time!"

The thing that he lacked now was trust. It wasn't about his abilities.

As long as he had the chance, he would be able to prove it to his family.

"You...I..."

Mary Grimm was struggling as well. She took a few steps back and leaned against the wall behind her.

Her daughter and her grandchild were begging for it, and she wasn't cruel enough to turn them down.

But, she was still pissed at Oliver Walker, so she said in a cold voice, "You.....you can come back here, but if anything happens to Olivia in the next three days, I will never forgive you!"

"I already gave you the chance, but if you are like that idiot Isaac Davis, I will kill you!"

"I will never give you the chance to hurt Emilia again!"

She held onto her head which was feeling heavy and went back to her room which only had a metal bed and an old fan. Thereafter, she closed the door behind her.

Due to how she had been undernourished for years, her body was weak. Every time she got angry, she would have a terrible headache.

Olivia Walker bit her lips. Her big, watery eyes were saying a million things, but she didn't dare to open her mouth.

Oliver Walker looked at her, and he knew what she was trying to say!

They could read each other's minds, and it was louder than any words that they could say!

"From today onward, you will be sleeping in the living room!"

"If you dare walk into the bedroom with any ill intentions, I will kill you!"

Emilia continued saying in a cold tone, "If you feel wronged, you can leave anytime you want. Other than Olivia, no one would stop you from leaving!"

This was the most that she could handle!

Plus, she had to quickly figure out who Oliver Walker was.

If he really became the runaway soldier everyone hated, he didn't deserve to be forgiven!

She could wait for a poor hero who fought to protect the country!

But, she would not wait for a cowardly runaway soldier!

This was a matter of pride, and she would not bend it for anyone!

"I.....I have no objection to it!

Oliver Walker had a mix of emotions in him!

In fact, it felt really uncomfortable that he was being questioned, but he had no good explanation to defend himself.

As long as he could stay in this house, even if it was a sofa with a few broken holes, it was still something that he could sleep on.

He had a roof over his head, and it was better than those times when he had to sleep in the desert!

He obviously wouldn't remember how the chance that he got to stay in the living room was because his daughter begged for it!

The forgiveness of his mother-in-law and wife was immaterial. He wouldn't allow his daughter to be disappointed in him!

Inside the bedroom...

"Mummy! Please don't cry!

"It's all my fault! I shouldn't have made you angry!"

Olivia Walker was feeling extremely guilty as she said, "I will never be so naughty in the future, but he isn't a runaway soldier!

"He is a hero! Mummy! Look at all these medals! They are so pretty!"

She knew that her mother was feeling wronged. She quickly took out all of the precious medals and showed them to her mother to prove her father's identity!

Emilia was shocked when she saw the medals, but she quickly said, "Let's head to bed!"

In fact, her daughter had never asked for anything from them since she was a young girl.

The last time that Olivia asked for something was a long time ago. She couldn't even remember when it was.

Even if she suffered, she wouldn't want her daughter to suffer along with her.

As she looked at the medals, she made up her mind that she would be heading to the military department to find out the truth.

She would not be accusing Oliver Walker for now, and at the same time, she would not be tricked by anyone else!

She was really hoping that these medals were authentic and would not be lied to!

Chapter 119 Street Cleaners

The next morning, when George Johnson got out of bed, he felt even more furious!

He already took Emilia as his fiance, but yesterday, when they were in the auditorium, she was publicly showing affection for Oliver Walker!

If he married her, wouldn't he be cheated on by that woman?!

But....his heart was in a mess!

He really liked Emilia. He liked her so much that he was about to go insane.

So, he made up his mind and screamed, "Mike White, gather a few of them and follow me to Pearl Street!"

He had to teach Emilia a lesson!

He was going to stir up trouble for that old woman!

Mary Grimm had been cleaning the streets in Pearl Street, and it wasn't a secret.

Every morning, before the sky turned bright, she would ride her bicycle along with her broom and sweep the floor in order to earn a few extra pennies.

Emilia wanted Olivia to take a few days off from school so that she could rest, but Olivia insisted on attending, and Emilia had no other choice but to allow her.

As for Emilia, she picked up three of the medals that were on the table.

She wanted to pay a visit to the Military Department in Colorado to see if there was information on Oliver Walker in the army.

The entire family was busy with their own errands!

Oliver Walker, who had nothing to do and was not welcomed in the house, had trouble fitting in.

His mother-in-law refused to acknowledge his existence, and his wife wasn't speaking to him as well.

The atmosphere at home was awkward!

Then, he pulled out his phone to make a call. Since he was back home, he had to do something meaningful, and he didn't want his mother-in-law to be so tired from work.

In the entirety of Colorado, he could only call Leon Williams since this was the only man he knew.

At the same time, when Leon Williams received the call, he was stunned at first. Then, he quickly stood up from his chair with excitement, "Mr. Walker, what can I help you with?"

He was feeling extremely nervous!

He started wondering whether he did something wrong?!

Oliver Walker asked, "You're well connected here in Colorado. You should know which street my mother-in-law is cleaning now?"

Leon Williams was caught off guard, but he quickly asked, "You mean?"

He didn't want to assume anything, so he didn't continue saying much.

He might be digging his own grave if he said the wrong thing!

Oliver Walker continued speaking in a calm manner as if this was nothing surprising, "Get me a set of the janitor's uniform. I'm going to clean the street with her!"

Leon Williams was shocked!

Initially, he thought that Oliver Walker wanted to put on an extravagant gesture to welcome his mother-in-law. He didn't think that Oliver Walker wanted to clean the street. It was...

Totally absurd!

Totally unexpected!

This man made it impossible for anyone to know what was going on inside his head.

Seeing how the other party remained quiet, Oliver Walker frowned, "Would this be something very difficult for you?"

Leon Williams asked in return, "Mr. Walker, it isn't something difficult but.....are you serious about it?"

What Leon Williams had seen so far was just the tip of the iceberg.

But, he was already amazed by this man's existence!

Then, this man was telling him that he was to clean the streets?!

This...

Oliver Walker answered, "Of course, I'm being serious!"

In fact, he knew what Leon Williams was worried about.

However, he had his own reasons for doing so.

No matter if it was his wife or mother-in-law, none of them trusted him.

If he did anything that was difficult for them to understand, it might only make the situation worse. It would be better for him to do something simple so that he could show his determination to his mother-in-law.

Perhaps to the others, he was someone important and respectful.

But.....was there anyone who knew that he only wanted to be a normal man?

A simple man who can be accepted by his wife and mother-in-law!

"It's not.....difficult!"

Leon Williams gulped before answering, "I'll.....I'll get it done....."

Although he hadn't known Oliver Walker for a long time, it wasn't hard for him to notice that this man was someone down-to-earth after the previous incidents.

He never liked putting on an extravagant entrance like the warriors who returned from battle. He didn't care about what others thought of him and would only do what he liked.

As for such a request, he definitely had to do as told, and most importantly, he wasn't allowed to get in the way of it!

Chapter 120 The Military Department

As for Oliver Walker, he immediately went to Pearl Street when he got the address.

He was prepared to clean the streets with his mother-in-law!

At the Military Department of Colorado!

There was a man in his uniform who sat behind the desk as he asked, "What would you like to know?"

His voice was monotonous!

There was no mockery, but he didn't sound kind as well.

He was just trying to do his job!

"Isn't that Emilia?"

"What is she doing here?"

"Could it be that she wants compensation for those who fought on the front lines?"

"..."

The group of people was feeling curious the moment they saw Emilia, but before their pride, they didn't say a single word.

However, they continued whispering and gossiping as soon as Emilia sat down.

The war in Indiana was about to end soon.

The information about the heroes and the fallen soldiers on the front lines had been released back to their homes so that their families could receive the well-deserved subsidy.

This was why most families who had children in the army started asking about their status on the front lines!

But, Emilia's appearance here was shocking to all of them!

Didn't they say that Oliver Walker returned?

If he had already returned now, would he still be considered a hero? Or a warrior?

The war wasn't over, and they weren't victorious yet. Returning home at this time meant that he hadn't come home as a hero!

Emilia could feel that everyone around her was staring at her with a peculiar look in their eyes, but she was already used to it.

She was just afraid that Oliver Walker was a runaway soldier, so she asked anxiously, "I just wanted to check for information about my husband on the front lines!"

She was afraid of lies!

Although she would rather shut her heart, she was still dying to know the truth!

The officer then asked, "Oliver Walker?"

In fact, most of them knew who Emilia's husband was, but he was only repeating it for confirmation.

"En!"

Emilia bit her lips and placed her hands in her pocket. She held onto the dubious medals. She had no idea whether they were authentic.

Her daughter would never lie, and these medals were given to her by Oliver Walker.

If these were real medals, she would be the one at fault.

If they weren't real, Oliver Walker would have committed a deadly crime!

The officer behind the desk stared at the computer, and he turned quiet!

The longer she waited, the more anxious she felt. In the end, Emilia couldn't wait any longer as she asked, "What's.....what's wrong?"

She was scared!

She was feeling afraid!

Suddenly, the woman who was waiting behind Emilia started mocking her, "What else do you think would happen?"

"Your husband has already gone home, so he isn't a hero, and he definitely isn't a fallen soldier!"

"I think you should just stop wasting all of our time here!"

Emilia frowned, and when she saw who the woman was, she shut her mouth!

The woman was called Karen Adams who lived in the same neighborhood as them.

Their family wasn't wealthy as well. Their eldest had joined the army, and the youngest was still single until today.

When Emilia's family just moved in, Karen Adams had been very kind, and both families became very close within a short period of time.

Then, there was a matchmaker who approached Mary Grimm and said that there was a man interested in Emilia since it wouldn't be easy for her to be a single mother.

This man turned out to be Karen Adam's son!

Emilia definitely wouldn't agree to it, so she rejected the offer.

The matchmaker was someone whom Karen Adams hired!

Since then, both families had become distant from each other.

Karen Adams even started manipulating facts about Emilia, claiming that Oliver Walker didn't join the army and that Emilia was just abandoned by her husband.

Then, Karen Adams even said that Emilia was a jinx!

They just made things sound as bad as they could. In the end, it caused Emilia's reputation to plummet in the neighborhood.

Then, when Olivia got sick, all of them treated Emilia's family as if they had the plague.